

$3.00 Special

For the next 10 days I will make a special price on Reading Glasses including thoro Examination,—for $3.00. My examinations alone are worth that. This is your chance. Don't delay. Specials on repair work this week also.

R. A. BUTLER, - Eyesight Specialist
Over Sargent's Millinery Store

THE CITY

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY

Attorney M. J. Englert was in Jamestown yesterday on legal business.

Mrs. J. E. Featherstone left last night for Fargo on a business and shopping trip.

Mrs. Anna Sternberg left last night for Casselton where she will spend several days with relatives.

The mission circle of the Baptist church will meet in the church basement on Thursday night, April 3. Everybody cordially invited.

Evan Griffith of Kenmare was a business visitor here yesterday representing the Alliance Hall Insurance company.

C. W. Athey, of Grand Forks, one of the traveling representatives of the North Dakota Mutual Insurance Company is a guest in the city today.

Mrs. S. J. Noxen who has been spending the past several days the guest of Mrs. E. T. Burke at Bismarck returned home today.

The Boy Scouts of the Congregational church will meet this evening in the church parlors at 7 o'clock. This is to be a special meeting and Prof. Morris Johnson will give a talk on Birds and his talk will be illustrated with the aid of the projectoscope.

Deputy Sheriff Kelly, Deputy Clerk of Court Olsby and Miss Stenshoel spent yesterday in Jamestown on business connected with the sheriff's office.

Phil Schoeffer who has been at Jordan, Minn., for the past two weeks taking the mud baths, returned home this morning feeling very much improved.

Mrs. Roy Severance of Fargo is spending several weeks here with her relatives.

Mrs. E. C. Murray returned home last night from Duluth where she has been the guest of Mrs. W. Wood for the past week.

Wm. Root and C. A. Fritch left this morning for Montana and later will go on to Prince Rupert, B. C., on a business trip.

Mrs. J. Engen entertained the members of the Foreign Mission Society of the M. E. church at her apartments in the Shyenne Flats this afternoon. The principle feature of the afternoon was the discussion of China. Refreshments were enjoyed at the close of the program.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY

C. Boyd of Enderlin is a business caller here today.

F. W. Bartz of Kensal was on the streets last night between trains.

C. H. Babcock of New Rockford, is a guest at the Kindred Hotel today.

Friends are pleased to see John Gray out again after his recent operation at the Platou hospital.

O. M. Haggart, the Fargo contractor, spent Monday in Valley City on a business mission.

Geo. H. Stillman, the Carrington attorney, spent yesterday and today in the city on legal and other business.

Miss Theresa Swelling left Sunday for Ryder where she will teach the next six months in that vicinity.

Chas. Hollinshead, who has been spending several days in the city left this morning for his home in Oriska.

Mrs. W. W. Spearin left this morning for Williston where she will make her permanent home on a homestead near that city.

Max Bailey returned this morning from Indianapolis and other points in Indiana and Ohio. Mr. Bailey was detained a number of days on account of the food and says he is very glad to get back safe.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY.

Mrs. E. C. Murray, who has been visiting friends in Duluth for a week is expected home this evening.

Dr. Thos. J. Strong and wife spent a few hours in Valley City yesterday on their way to Fargo for a two days shopping and visiting trip.

Postmaster Harvey Pray is loading a car of machinery and stock which will be shipped to his recently acquired Eddy county farm.

Mrs. Jo. Frey and children and Mrs. A. H. Hout and little son arrived in the city yesterday from Gackle, this state, and are the guests of Mrs. John Passamel and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vaun.

A. A. Gad left this morning for Fargo where he is spending the day on business. Mr. Gad will leave tomorrow for Flaxton where he will look after his farming operations in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. N. C. McDonald returned last evening from Casselton and Fargo where they spent the day on a business and pleasure mission.

Prof. and Mrs. Perfect are the parents of a fine baby boy born this morning.

Many friends will be pleased to learn that Mrs. Frank Flora who has been lying very ill at her home is reported much improved.

T. G. Thompson of Cooperstown was a Valley City visitor yesterday.

Mrs. Ellen Donovan who has been spending the week the guest of her sister, Mrs. O'Brien at McHenry will return here tomorrow. Mrs. Donovan is spending several months in this city the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. A. Gad.

We have just unloaded 5000 live peeled, winter cut Michigan Cedar posts. All quality goods, prices reasonable. Rogers-Jeffrey Lumber Co. 3-28-td-2tw

Mrs. Walter Coop planned a most delightful surprise last evening for her son Harold, in honor of his birthday anniversary, when she invited twenty-five girls and boys to come and enjoy a merry evening of music and dancing. At a late hour the hostess served a very prettily appointed luncheon.

St. Patrick's day will be celebrated at Sanborn today. Owing to the fact that March 17, properly St. Patrick's day came this year during Holy week it was found necessary to postpone the celebration, but today a number of local people are leaving for Sanborn to assist in the event. Among those who went last evening and this morning are Mrs. Gertie Cook, Mrs. Nick Passmel, the Misses Annie, Lena and Mollie Tullius, Miss Sophia Kramer and Mrs. H. Personius.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY

C. F. Mudgett left yesterday for Minot on a short business trip.

Attorney L. N. Miller and J. Howard of McHenry, are visitors in the city today.

James H. Batton of Grand Forks is here today in the interest of the lecture lyceum bureau and will meet with the Lecture Association this evening.

Ralph Bailey has resigned his position at the Gray Department store and will leave tomorrow morning for Backus, Minn., where he will be manager of his uncle John Bailey's store. Enroute he will visit for several days at Brainerd.

J. B. Erickson, of Fargo is a business visitor here.

F. R. Cruden of McHenry is here on business today.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jensen are the parents of a fine baby boy, which was born last evening at their home.

Among those who will leave here this evening for Jamestown to attend the dancing party given in the Elks Hall by the Travelling Men's Association are Messrs and Mesdames L. S.

Ward, P. J. Hyland, I. Wold, E. S. Cole, C. E. Moore, C. K. Hills, O. L. Larson and L. E. Hedstrom.

Miss Ette Jacobson of the Jacobson orchestra left this morning to spend several days with her aunt at Leal.

The Jacobson Orchestra returned this morning from Eckelson where they played last evening for a big dance there. They report a large crowd and were pleased with the compliments received on their music.

Mrs. W. A. Gordon has issued invitations to a large number of friends for a musicale on Saturday afternoon at her home, on West Fifth street.

The Brotherhood of the Congregational church held a short business meeting after their regular monthly supper last evening and decided to put on their Operatic Extravaganza the 14th of April.

A. L. Tenney who has been confined to his home ill for the past six weeks was able to be out again the first time today.

M. A. Tenney will arrive in the city this evening from Devils Lake to spend Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tenney.

G. B. Simpson of Leal, is a business caller here today.

Hans Oppegard of Dazey, is calling on friends here today.

C. J. Emmons of Emmons, this state is transacting business here today.

Chas. Schull of Watertown, S. D., is here today on business matters.

Ole K. Lee, of Martin, is registered at a local hotel today.

Miss Mae Stewart planned the jolliest kind of a surprise party at her home last evening for her brother Eli. Thirty young folks came masked and gowned in hard time costumes and enjoyed dancing and other merriment until a late hour when a buffet luncheon was served. Miss Stewart was assisted by Mrs. Don Stewart and Miss Jessie Gale.

Mrs. J. E. Featherstone entertained a dozen friends at a very delightful party last evening at her home on West Fourth street. The pleasure was six-handed Euchre and at the conclusion of a spirited game refreshments were served.

GRAND PRAIRIE.

W. McKay drove to town with a load of hogs for the Valley City market last Wednesday.

The Miller family were entertained at the Gibson home last Tuesday evening. Card playing being the amusement of the evening.

The dance given at Louis Bond's Saturday evening was well attended and all report a good time.

Rev. Eberly and family and B. Adams were entertained at supper last Tuesday at the Lewzader home.

Among those who called at Pillsbury last Wednesday were O. E. Sunde, Pete Sannes and E. Ludwig.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Taylor visited with their daughter Mrs. McKay Wednesday and Thursday.

Louie Tibbany who has been working on the Ash Grove farm the past year left for Valley City last Wednesday. We are all sorry to see him leave our community but wish him success wherever he goes.

J. Burchill Jr., was a business caller at the McKay farm Wednesday.

Peter Fenstad arrived home last Tuesday after spending the last three months at Long Beach, Cal. Mrs. Fenstad will remain for another month.

Mr. Neil came out Saturday to work for J. Gibson through the summer.

Roy Styles and Anna Eggert called at Miller's Wednesday evening.

Ben Northridge was grinding feed at Ed Olson's Friday.

Mrs. Miller returned home Saturday after spending the last month in Valley City.

M. Miller and Agnes Selbo drove to town Friday afternoon. Miss Selbo left for her home on West Prairie to spend Saturday and Sunday.

Otto Keister is again seen on Grand Prairie after a three weeks absence spent in Valley City.

Mrs. Neil visited in town Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams have been guests at the Lewzader home the past two weeks.

J. McKay visited with his son Whitfield last week.

A Beautiful Home.

No. 83—This beautiful home is probably the best on the west side. House 24x28, six large rooms and a good barn. A splendid bargain. Write J. N. Osborne, Dazey, N. D., or call on the E. D. Lum Land Co.

A Splendid Home.

No. 84—Four lots, large seven room house, fair barn. This is a nice property and will be sold cheap. For complete description see Richard Setzer or the E. D. Lum Land Co. VALLEY CITY, N. D.

The Spring and Summer Styles are in

Come and see them—try them on!
You will find here the very latest models in all the leathers and materials that will be fashionable during the warm months to come.

We particularly want you to see and try on the new styles in the famous Red Cross Shoe.

You will be charmed—delighted—when you see how trim they make your foot look, and you will be enthusiastic when you find how comfortable your foot will feel in even the snugest fitting model.

Tanned by a special process which retains the full natural flexibility of the leather, any style you choose in this famous Red Cross Shoe will give you greater comfort than you have ever known before.

Our display of these new models is now ready. Come early and take plenty of time to make your choice.

Oxfords $3.50 and $4.
High Shoes $4, $4.50 and $5.

Right Price Mercantile Co.

Grocery Phone 405, Drygoods Phone 390

Another Lot of SUITS
Just Arrived
$15 to $37.50

CHAFFEE'S

Most Complete Stock of Dry Goods in Valley City

Let us show you our beautiful line of COATS
$7.50 to $40

A Pretty Hat

Adds a great deal to a woman's appearance—we are headquarters for pretty Hats as you will see by a visit to our Millinery Department. We have been getting in a lot of new shapes which we want you to see—they are so new and stylish that you will surely like them. If we haven't just the style and color you like best we will be glad to make one for you. We have them at all prices $2.50 to $15.00 from.....

If You Want to Enjoy Life
you must have a comfortable Corset and that means one that fits properly. We have just added several new models in our "Kabo" line, one of which is shown in the illustration—it sells at $3.00 and you will find it an exceptionally good model. We are also showing a big line of stylish models at—$1, $1.25, $1.50, $2 and $250

We also carry the famous "Gossard Front Lace" Corset in some very fine models which are sure to please you. They sell at—
$3.50 to $6.50

SHOES

There are a great many different kinds of shoes—some are easy and comfortable while others are always uncomfortable. If you buy "Queen Quality" Shoes and Oxfords you are sure of comfort and satisfaction from the time you first put them on until they are entirely worn out. See the new Spring Models at..... $3.50 to $5.00

Read the Ad in This Week's Times-Record