

Chautauqua Association Sends Out Big Pamphlet

FORTY-EIGHT PAGE FOLDER GIVES MUCH INTERESTING INFORMATION TO VISITORS.

Another of the Chautauqua association's publicity pamphlets has been issued, containing this time, forty-eight pages full of readable matter about the summer meeting, and fairly bristling with facts and suggestions for campers.

So full of interest is the program for this season, that even in an edition of the size published, it is almost impossible to put all the facts regarding the meetings. Information is given regarding the necessary expenses involved in camping, boating, bathing and fishing which may be enjoyed, and the daily programs of meetings.

Groceries, meat, ice and vegetables and all other necessities of life will be delivered on the grounds by merchants of Valley City at city prices, while meals will be served at the restaurant by an experienced chef at a moderate price.

The edition is being mailed to five thousand residents of Barnes and adjacent counties, and five thousand additional copies are being sent to the Northern Pacific and Soo railroads, which have agreed to see that they are distributed along their lines in the state at points which will do the most good.

The booklet carries a considerable amount of advertising, and the merchants who are using space in it have reason to appreciate a circulation, which, both in quantity and quality, should bring them good results.

Mr. Karr is keeping a reserve supply of the books on hand, and will be very glad to have friends of the Chautauqua write him or call at his office with the names of friends to whom they would like to have the booklets sent. Mr. Karr's office is on the second floor of the Young building, where he can be found nearly every day during business hours. Questions regarding any phase of the Chautauqua will be gladly answered by him, whether by mail or in person.

Col. Tom Casey Will Enter the Dairy Field

A Times-Record representative spent Wednesday in the Southeastern part of the county. Seeding is well under way in the locality and farmers are anticipating a very good year. Some uneasiness is felt at this time as to what will be the final outcome of the democratic attack on farm products which is generally conceded will materially reduce the price if the president should be able to force it through.

Col. Tom Casey of Litchville, and Nome expressed himself in very strong terms as to his opinion of any congress that would interfere with the present tariff on what the farmer raises. Tom is going into stock stronger than ever, he has just ordered a car of wire to fence more land with and will devote his energies entirely to stock, as he states that grain raising has been a positive loss to him for the past three years and that notwithstanding that last season was favorable that when he had paid his help that there was very little left, so he will strengthen his dairy farming operations.

Your correspondent was reminded of a time back several years when an obstinate automobile refused to move in the direction which the designers intended it to do and by dint of clever manipulating Tom managed to drive it 18 miles backward, arriving home on schedule time and it is said he became so proficient in driving a machine backward that even at this late date he enjoys a spin on the reverse gear.

Attempt Made to Loot Chautauqua Buildings

The police department as well as the managers of the Chautauqua have done some hard sleuthing the past week trying to locate the miserable thieves who broke open the buildings on the Chautauqua grounds and stole all of the tools. The damage that was done must have required at least the united efforts of two men all night. The bath houses were rifled and the lumber placed on the ice of the river and all of the contents of the building dumped on the ground. It is thought that it was the intention of the looters that the ice would go out at once and that the lumber would float down the stream, that the men who did the crime would secure it as it floated by some point down the river. We are informed that the officers have a strong suspicion of who did the work and that the parties will be watched closely.

Charles Lee Installing Old Mission Front

The new building belonging to Alderman Chas. Lee is being completed now and workmen are placing the front in position. It is of an entirely new style of architecture, new at least to this locality but is supposed to be the latest thing to be had, in fact the owner traveled several thousand miles this winter and this idea of a store front is, so he admits, the most profitable idea gathered in his journey. Most people will not like it at first sight and may even comment unfavorably upon it, but perhaps when they understand that it is simply an extreme pattern in a very fashionable style of architecture they will without doubt gush over with enthusiasm and admiration.

This is the first real old-mission front to come to town and should this one, when finished, create a demand for more of its kind then without doubt the alderman would be pleased to supply ideas along that line.

Kenneth McKenzie Case Again in Limelight

STATE IS SUED FOR FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD OFFERED IN FAMOUS ANETA CASE.

After two years spent in searching for, identifying and forcing an admission of guilt from the murderer of his son, Kenneth S. McKenzie of Aneta has commenced suit against the state of North Dakota to secure the reward of five hundred dollars offered by the state for the arrest of the guilty man or men.

Three years ago the Aneta case was for days almost the sole topic of conversation among residents of the state.

A young boy, son of a strong prohibitionist and law enforcement worker was returning to his home in the dusk of a summer evening. Playing along the road, loitering here and there until after dark, he was suddenly attacked, thrown to the ground, gagged, and then kerosene oil was poured over his clothing and fired.

The fiends fled as soon as the flames were started, and shortly afterward the boy's pitiful screams brought help. He was taken home, then to a Fargo hospital, where he died in terrible agony.

From that day the father's time was spent in getting trace of the fiends who had murdered his boy. He was convinced that his activities for prohibition at Aneta were responsible for a crime of revenge.

Clue after clue was run down, and finally he narrowed his search for evidence to one Clyde Sperry, a young man of Aneta, whom he believed guilty. But he could obtain no proof to substantiate his moral certainty.

It was at this point that the father's vengeance found the means to accomplish his ends. Going to the Twin Cities, he had printed an imitation newspaper clipping, stating in effect that the perpetrators of the crime had been discovered; that one of them, with promise of immunity, had turned state's evidence, and that the other man would be arrested within a day or two.

Returning to Aneta, he confronted Sperry and showed him the clipping, telling him that his guilt was known, and he might as well admit it and lighten his punishment. Sperry broke down, confessed and received a sentence in the penitentiary for manslaughter.

And now the state refuses to pay the reward which it offered. It says that the crime for which Sperry was convicted was not the crime for which the reward was offered, and McKenzie after haggling for two years has instituted suit, hoping to reimburse himself for a part of the money he spent in the work.

Combs and Ritchie of this city represent the plaintiff, and the case will be tried at the next term of court in the Sixth district, at Bismarck.

Farm Hand Injured By Vicious Horse

(From Friday's Daily.) James Dornier, employed on the farm of Mrs. Otto Chibberg, was kicked by a vicious horse Tuesday noon and four ribs were broken. Dornier was trying to separate a mare from her colt to drive her to town when the animal wheeled around before he could escape and lashed out at him. Mr. Dornier was immediately brought to town and put under the doctor's care. He is now resting well at the home of Mrs. Andrew Goodwin.

Anderson Implores Dead Body to Save Him

WIFE OF MURDERED BANK CASHIER AT WASHBURN CONFIDENT THAT ANDERSON IS THE GUILTY MAN.

Washburn, N. D., April 17.—When confronted by the widow of the man he is alleged to have murdered, W. T. Anderson broke down and cried like a child for a few minutes, but later he regained his composure and continued his denials of guilt of the murder of F. E. Funk, cashier of the First National bank.

Mrs. Funk has asked each day since the death of her husband for an opportunity to question Anderson, but it was not until this morning that her friends thought she was strong enough to stand the excitement that would be caused by coming face to face with the man she accused of committing the crime.

When Anderson denied any connection with the killing she made the statement that inasmuch as he had lied to her before she could not believe him. The first interview lasted half an hour and was simply a continuance of charges and denials.

Officers at the courthouse were mildly surprised this morning when Anderson asked to be taken to the house where the remains of Funk are being kept. When he entered the room he fell on his knees beside the bier, threw his arms about the body and kissed the dead face of his former friend and employer, calling to him to come back and help him out of the trouble into which he had been forced. He was not allowed to remain in the room long as the undertaker who has charge of the body feared it would be pulled to the floor, so strenuous were the caresses of the accused man.

Anderson was then returned to the county jail in care of Sheriff Simon, where he spent the rest of the morning helping an officer of the bank with the bank books.

Clarence E. Funk, cashier of the First National bank of Washburn, who was murdered Monday evening, will be given a Masonic funeral Friday afternoon, services to be held at Washburn. The body will be brought

Healthy Old Age Is What Dr. Hartman Advocates

S. B. HARTMAN, M. D.

See here, young man, I heard you complaining the other day of being nervous, sleepless, brain fagged, and the like. A young man, hardly in the zenith of your life, complaining of such things!

And this is very common, too. You are not the only one. Probably three out of four of the young men of to-day have just such symptoms as you describe. What does it mean? Look at me. I am eighty-two years old. Sound as a nut. Tough as hickory. Do not know what it is to be tired. While I cannot do as much physical work as I used to when a young man, I can do a great deal. Probably twice as much as the average young man of to-day.

What has kept me so strong and well? I will tell you. I do not use tobacco. I do not use alcoholic stimulants. I do not use tea or coffee habitually. I go to bed early. I get up early. I am always doing something; something that occupies my body and mind. I love to work. I take a cold water towel bath every morning, winter and summer. It is these things that have kept me well and strong. You could be just as well and strong as I am if you would do as I do. You may ask, do I never get sick, have I never had occasion to take medicine at all? Yes, I have got sick. Sometimes I feel a little touch of catarrhal trouble, like cold, malaria, slight catarrhal symptoms, but my only medicine is Peruna. I always keep a bottle of Peruna in the house. I keep a bottle of Peruna on my desk in my office. Once in a while I take some. I do not take it habitually. Take it only when I feel a little out of sorts. One swallow will perhaps be all that will be necessary, but it is always handy by.

It is a sorry sight to see the young men of to-day begin to peter out physically when they ought to be in the glory of their manhood and the height of their vigor. Eat plain food. Live frugally. Give up all weakening habits. Live as God intended you to live. Take Peruna when you do not feel as well as usual.

If you want me to I will send you a book which will tell you a great many more things about yourself and about matters that may be of great value to you. Enclose a two-cent stamp for postage and the book will be sent in a plain wrapper and you will not be troubled with any follow-up letters or advertisements. PERUNA IS FOR SALE AT ALL DRUG STORES.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Many persons are making inquiries for the old-time Peruna. To such would say, this formula is now put out under the name of KA-TAR-NO, manufactured by KA-TAR-NO Company, Columbus, Ohio. Write them and they will be pleased to send you a free booklet.

Stickney Gasoline Engines ARE THE BEST

Get Your Money's Worth

The service an engine will give you depends not only on its design and quality of its material and workmanship but upon the size of its bearings, the length of its piston, the thickness of its thinnest casting, the size of its balance wheels and the strength of its various parts. Upon the size and strength of these parts depend the service you will get from the engine and it also determines the total weight of the engine. In determining the value of two engines compare their weight the same as you do when you sell your hogs, pork is worth so much per pound.

Come in and inspect our sample Stickney Engine and show us one place where any weight can be cut out without injuring the service the engine will give and then we will show you it has no surplus weight, no big useless unnecessary base—and then figure the price per pound. We will give your money's worth.

Minnesota 2-Cent Fare Bill Will Pass

Passage of the Bendixen 2-cent fare law, which has stood the test of the courts in the state of Michigan, has been recommended for passage by a unanimous vote of the senate committee on railroads. The bill has already passed the house. The measure provides that any railroad which earns more than $1,200 a mile, can not charge more than a two-cent fare. It covers practically every railroad in the state. Michigan has a two-cent fare law under the same law. It has been upheld by the supreme court there. The theory of the Bendixen bill is that any railroad which earns more than $1,200 a mile on its own system, cannot successfully attack the justice of the proposed rate.

A. G. Robertson of the Valley City Brick and Tile Company arrived in the city this morning from Minneapolis, and immediately began preparations for commencing active work on the big plant to be constructed east of the city. The fine weather of the past week has melted the ice in the trenches, and the promoters expect that it will be a matter of only a few days until a large force of men can be put at work.
