

You Will See Better Feel Better and Look Better

If your glasses are fitted by

BUTLER
EYESIGHT SPECIALIST
Phone 377
Valley City, N. D. 5th Ave. N.

THE CITY

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY

Several automobile loads drove to Spiritwood Lake and spent the day, yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cross of Hamilton, Minn., spent Sunday in Valley City visiting with A. L. Tenney and family.

Editor Charles Stevens of the Hope Pioneer was in town this morning and while in town secured a camping site at the Chautauqua grounds for the entire seventeen days of program.

Editor C. C. Lowe of LaMoure was in town Sunday between trains, on his way home from the Grand Forks Editorial meeting.

P. A. Anderson came up from Valley City and spent several days the latter part of last week visiting at the home of his sons, west of town.—Fingal Herald.

Miss Annie Croonquist, a Normal student accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Lum and family to Kensal yesterday where they spent the day, driving home this morning.

Paul E. Featherstone expects to leave this evening to spend a week at Battle Lake with his family. He will probably ship his motor boat to the lake and use it during the summer.

The John D. Gray store has just closed one of the most successful sales in its history Saturday night. The sale was thoroughly advertised, and from the first day a continual crowd of buyers thronged the big store.

States Attorney Engert returned this morning from points in Canada where he has been looking after business and legal matters for several days.

At the Sunday school services yesterday in the Methodist church, the pastor introduced a new feature. Believing that the church and Sunday school are one in aim and one in essence Mr. Vermilya received a class of boys and girls into the church and followed the reception by administering the Sacrament to the class. Including the number received at the preceding service twenty persons thus united with the church. The total number who have been received into the church since last October is forty-eight.

Nick Runk and lady of Kathryn, were in town Sunday afternoon and enjoyed the concert in the park.

Harry Coddling is back on duty with Uncle Sam after spending his vacation at the lakes.

Charles Oglesby of Dasey was a guest at one of the local hotels Sunday.

F. P. Rasmussen and wife of Courtenay spent Sunday visiting with friends in the city.

A. C. Wilson of Oriska, manager of the Carpenter-Newmann Lumber Co., came to Valley City to spend the day, yesterday, with friends.

Miss C. M. Lagerstrom has started today a sale unique in many respects which should be a success from every viewpoint. It is entitled a "combination sale" and is "something different," in that with every suit sold will be given a choice of pattern hats all of them late models and excellent values in themselves.

Earl I. Best accompanied by his family left yesterday for South Dakota points. They are making the trip with an automobile. Having sold out here Mr. Best is somewhat undecided as to whether or not he will return and re-engage in business here.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY.

The board of equalization held its last meeting Monday evening. Members of the board state that there have been very few complaints and requests for changes in the assessment.

Among the out of town visitors in Valley City last night and today are E. W. Bohner, W. F. Strabel and A. J. Miller of Fessenden.

Mrs. E. G. Anderson and daughter Ella returned yesterday from Maddock where they visited for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Langley of Dawson, N. D. who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Metcalf are the parents of a baby boy which arrived last Saturday.

Gilbert Haggart of the Haggart Construction Company of Fargo was an arrival in the city this morning from the west. Mr. Haggart is keeping close tab on the progress of work on the big trunk sewer, and expresses himself as well pleased with progress to date.

C. F. Mudgett, who has been spending the week end at Lake Melissa, with his family, returned to the city last evening.

The Fargo and Grand Forks papers are having a friendly scrap over the methods used in advertising the respective fairs.

John Holland, dealer in Studebaker automobiles, reports the receipt and sale of a carload of Studebakers yesterday within a very few hours. A number of demands were made for more cars than he could deliver on this shipment, but he expects another in the near future.

C. H. McGee, manager of the Monarch Elevator at Oriska, and well known in the county and state as a successful poultry fancier was in the city between trains this morning. Mr. McGee is optimistic over the crop situation and declares that the hot weather of the past few days is just what the country needs to offset the delay in growing incident to the cold weather of last spring.

East bound passenger trains on the Northern Pacific are nearly all running behind schedule because of the heavy passenger and express traffic for the past two weeks. Train No. 6 pulled in this morning three hours behind time with six cars of berries and a half a dozen coaches filled with travellers. Oregon and Washington are reaping their annual harvest of garden fruit, and the railroads and the east are receiving the benefit.

Bert Story of Fingal spent last evening and this morning in the city.

Helen Leach, Alice Leach, Mrs. Fred Osborne, and Miss Lois Leach of Santee, Nebraska, with her mother, Mrs. Leach, left this morning for Detroit Lake where they have rented a cottage for the summer months. F. E. Osborne expects to make occasional visiting trips there over Sunday.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY

C. H. Wilson of Courtenay transacted business in the city Tuesday and today.

J. E. Buttrey was a passenger to Bismarck this morning on N. P. train No. 3.

The rain last evening while not heavy was sufficient to be of benefit to the growing crops. The weather today is favorable.

F. H. Carly and E. W. Chinberg of Montpelier in Stutsman county are in the city for graduation week. Both gentlemen have relatives in the Normal school.

Miss Freda Anderson returned this morning for New Rockford where she has been teaching the past winter. She will spend the summer with relatives in Valley City.

Miss Alma Berg left for Coopers-town this morning where she will attend the wedding of two of Coopers-town's most prominent young people. She will be absent from home for about a week.

The Royal Neighbors will not hold their meeting Friday, June 27, on account of the Chautauqua. 6-25-13d

Mrs. George Duley and Miss Luella Duley of Tower City are in the city shopping and are visiting at the Wm. Wagner home on Elizabeth street.

Mrs. H. C. Aamoth will leave for Detroit Lake where she will spend a month at the lake and visiting relatives.

A wire was received late this afternoon from Governor Hanna stating that he would be in the city tomorrow morning and would address the students at the Normal.

BIDS WANTED FOR DEPOSITORY.

Sealed bids will be received until 6 p. m., Tuesday, July 8, 1913, for the deposits of funds of the Board of Education of the City of Valley City, N. D. Such proposals shall state in writing what rate of interest will be paid on average daily balances during the month, interest to be paid on condition that such funds shall be held subject to draft at all times; on demand. Proposals shall be enclosed in sealed envelopes, addressed to the undersigned, and shall be marked "Proposals for deposit of school funds." The Bank designated shall file a bond in a sum to be fixed by the Board of Education, and which shall be subject to the approval of the Board, as by law required. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids. By order of the Board of Education.

Dated at Valley City, N. D., June 19, 1913.

W. T. CRASWELL, Clerk.

Some mule hogs were shipped to Carrington from Missouri where that kind of hog is very common.

Frank F. Provan, who is a successful farmer living north of Marion, but in Barnes county, was in town last evening between trains. Mr. Provan is making a study of scientific farming and is gradually bringing his farm up to a high state of development. He reports his crops as being in the healthiest possible condition and stated that no damage had been done in that locality by lack of moisture or the warm winds. He is very much enthused over the outlook for alfalfa which is being experimented with and will put in a considerable acreage next season.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

Dr. C. H. Martin left for Rogers, Dazey and Kensal this morning on professional business.

Mrs. Nels Johnson, Mrs. L. S. Ward, Mrs. I. Wold and Miss Jean Smith are among the ladies from here who are in Jamestown taking in the entertainment of the Elks Convention.

The delegates appointed by the Methodist church to attend the County Sunday School Convention held at Leal today and tomorrow are: Rev. C. E. Vermilya, Mesdames O. A. Barton, and J. M. Green, and Miss Josephine Ellingson.

Rev. W. C. Lyon, Gordon Cox, Bryan Clark, Mrs. Isaacson and Mrs. Henry Nelson left this morning for Leal to attend the Barnes County Sunday School Convention as delegates from the Congregational Sunday School.

Miss Gena Sad who has been here for the past week the guest of her uncle, John Sad, returned to her home in Dazey this morning.

Rev. J. E. Liljedahl, who has been in Chicago the past week attending the Chicago, Sioux City and Omaha

If Your Figure is Shapely

HENDERSON
Fashion Form
Corsets

THEN your dresses will fit accurately and drape stylishly. Then you will be pointed out as a fashionable woman.

There will be no uncertainty how your figure will look if you wear a Henderson Corset.

We feature Henderson Corsets and highly recommend them because these models are giving such complete satisfaction to our customers.

We are able to offer you a better fitting, more comfortable and serviceable Henderson Corset than any other model.

If you value your comfort and health you should wear these hygienic corsets. Henderson Corsets are designed according to the very latest style ideas. They are constructed to give lasting service.

A wide range of styles are here for your selection at popular prices.

Be sure and ask for booklet of new corset illustrations that we are now giving away at our corset department.

Right Price Mercantile Co.

Augustana Synod of the Swedish Lutheran church has returned home.

Miss Corinne Carlson of Bemidji, Minn., arrived in the city last evening and will visit Miss Helen Chaffee until after Chautauqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Faust, who have been in Chicago for the past two weeks visiting their son Charles, who is a student at the Chicago University, returned home the fore part of the week.

In the evening paper last night a slight mistake was made in a few copies that we take this opportunity to correct, as it might be misleading. The building of the Federal building cannot begin before 1917 but owing to a misplaced letter the heading of an article which appeared on first page, was made to read 1913. Several of the papers were in the hands of the news boys before the typographical error was corrected.

Carl Krantz, who for the past year has been employed at the O. E. Holmes drug store at Kensal, has accepted a position in the Rudolf Pharmacy and will have charge of the soda fountain.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Winters of Fargo, are the parents of a bright little baby girl born Wednesday at the Platon Hospital.

Mrs. Helen L. Thompson of Everett, Wash., is a guest in the city at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. C. Chaffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Campbell and family of Medford, Ore., are spending the day in the city the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell are enroute from Oregon to points in Minnesota for a visit with relatives.

Nome has decided to celebrate the glorious 4th. Nome never does things by halves and there is no doubt they will be able to show the people who go there to spend the day a fine time.

MANSFIELD.

The meeting of the Farmers club last Wednesday evening was quite well attended. Mr. Flint gave an interesting talk on dairying. Mr. Rode-wald was also present, and promised the club to address them some time in the near future. At the close of the meeting it was decided to hold a celebration the Fourth in the grove on the Geo. M. Young farm. Committees were appointed to make the necessary arrangements, and a good time is anticipated.

Mrs. Frank Hinchberger is visiting relatives in Minneapolis.

Miss Margaret Haney will close her school June 30th, with a program and picnic dinner in the grove on the John Campbell farm.

Quite a number of the people from this corner attended the circus in Jamestown Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kee entertained Mr. and Mrs. Tucker, and Mr. and Mrs. Kee, Sr., of Sanborn at dinner, Sunday.

Vaughn Cowell, Harvey Towne and Clifford Ferguson of Valley City, spent last Sunday with James McLees and Willie Gordon.

Mrs. Henry Cowdrey will entertain the Ladies' Aid Society next Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. A. McLees went to Valley City Wednesday evening to attend the Commencement exercises.

This community was shocked by the terrible accident in Sanborn Saturday evening in which Miss Florence Noecker and her two little nieces lost their lives. Rev. Babb conducted the funeral services at the home Sabbath afternoon, thus making it necessary to withdraw his appointment at this place.

Beautiful Home Wedding of Prominent Young People

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday, June 18, near Valley City when Miss Emily Uloth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Uloth, prominent farmers of that vicinity, became the bride of Emil Schwenke of New Richland, Minn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. F. L. Bonhoff in the German Lutheran church, about two miles from the home of the bride's parents at 3 o'clock and the witnesses included relatives and friends numbering about 100.

At 3 o'clock Miss Clara Schroeder played the wedding march and the bridegroom took his place at the altar. He was followed by the four bridesmaids, the Misses Emma and Louise Uloth, sisters of the bride, Miss Agnes Schwenke, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Anna Brede of Minneapolis, and four ushers, Arthur Steinhaus of Max, N. D.; Barney Sullivan, Gustave Uloth and Ben Stretch of Webster, S. D. The little ring bearer, Jessie Larson, preceded the bride, carrying the ring in an American Beauty rose.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white crepe meteor with shadow lace and pearl trimmings and her veil was fastened in her hair with sprays of lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

After the ceremony the wedding guests repaired to the farm home, where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served to about 300 guests, a bevy of charming young ladies assisting in the dining room. Later in the evening other guests arrived and the evening was spent in dancing.

Guests from away were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwenke of New Richland, parents of the bridegroom, Miss Agnes Schwenke, sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Wrede of Owatonna, Minn.; Mr. and Mrs. L. Klessig of Page; Mr. and Mrs. E. Klessig of Page; Ben Stretch of Webster, S. D.; Miss Anna Brede of Minneapolis; Arthur Steinhaus of Max, N. D.; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Severance of Fargo. An automobile party from Fargo, which left Fargo in the morning and returned last evening, included Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Workman and the Miss Mabel Demming, Irene Flewell, Edith Peterson and Edith Lahlum.

The bride is well known and popular at Valley City and the large number of handsome gifts bespoke for the happy couple the love and esteem of a large circle of friends.

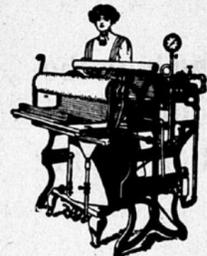

Mr. Schwenke is secretary of the Minnesota Retail Jewelers' Association, having been re-elected at the annual convention of that organization in Minneapolis last February after having served for a year in that capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwenke left Valley City Saturday and after spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Severance of Fargo left Monday evening for their new home at New Richland, Minn., where Mr. Schwenke has a prosperous jewelry business, stopping enroute for a short time in the twin cities.

Minot is infested with "mashers." Minot is not the only town in the state that is annoyed with this form of lower life. Valley City has a couple of young men, the sons of well to do parents, who might be taken across their mother's knee, with equal benefit to them and the town.

FREE FREE FREE

Public Exhibition, Saturday, June 28

Perfected Spotless Shrinker and Finisher

WHICH SPONGES AND SHRINKS ALL CLASSES OF GOODS PERFECTLY.

You are cordially invited to the public demonstration which will be in charge of Mr. Albert Bray, an experienced man, who has nothing to sell, but simply shrinks goods free of charge for you.

We have contemplated the installation of this new type machine for some time, realizing that proper sponging of all piece goods is essential to satisfactory wear.

The machine is of the latest 1913 type, constructed on the same principle as those used by America's largest clothing manufacturers and leading drygoods stores throughout the land. Come in and see the machine in operation.

BRING IN YOUR GOODS SATURDAY AND HAVE THEM SPONGED AND SHRUNK FREE WHILE YOU WAIT.

Hereafter the uniform price will be 5c a yard for dress goods, and 3c a yard for wash goods not over 36 inches wide.

We Hope You Take Advantage of This Offer and Keep Us Busy All Day.

Special Sale of Wash Goods Saturday Only

In order to make this a special event we have inaugurated a one day wash goods sale that will be of particular interest to every woman as it affords a splendid opportunity to secure wash goods at the time of the year when you need it the most.

Special Lot of Wash Goods

One lot of Ratines, silk gingham, voile ratines, tissues, etc., value up to 35c Saturday only 25c

50c Silk Plisse', Special 39c
50c Silk Ratine, Special 39c
50c Linen Pongee, Special 37c

Special Lot of Ginghams

One lot of ginghams in all the new stripes and checks, and combinations of colors, regular 15c seller, Saturday only 8 1/2c

15c Percalé, Special 11c
18c Flaxon, Special 14c
25c White Plisse', Special 18c

HUNDREDS OF OTHER BARGAINS IN EVERY DEPARTMENT—DON'T FORGET TO BE HERE.. SATURDAY.

We Give
Green
Trading
Stamps

We Give
Green
Trading
Stamps