

Glasses for Children

If Your Child Needs Glasses

It is high time you were attending to the matter.

To wait until they have begun their studies means suffering on their part, and less time for correct fitting.

Bring them here any day, and rest assured they will be kindly, carefully and scientifically treated.

No Drugs; No Discomfort

BUTLER Eyesight Specialist
Phone 377
Valley City, N. D. 5th Ave. N.

THE CITY

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hall returned this morning from a visit with Mrs. Hall's sister in Dickinson.

F. E. Osborne went to Leal on Friday last on business connected with the Chautauqua Reading Circle and will return today.

Friends will be glad to learn that Will Karr who has been so seriously ill with typhoid fever, is steadily improving.

Mrs. Burton Stern and baby returned this morning from Minneapolis where Mrs. Stern has been for the past month or more.

Mrs. J. J. Engen entertained at a prairie chicken dinner last Friday evening for four of the high school teachers. Covers were laid for twelve.

Miss Ella Holtquist will hold her formal Millinery Opening on Tuesday Sept. 16th. Exclusive patterns will be on exhibition at this time, also a full line of street hats. During the afternoon hours patrons will be able to partake of light refreshments served by the members of the Episcopal Guild.

E. D. Lum returned yesterday morning from a business trip to Bismarck.

Prof. J. B. Meyer left this morning on a hunting trip to Dawson.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Straus of Casselton were visitors here Sunday at the home of Mrs. Sternberg.

Miss Ostrid Fjeld who has been taking treatment in a Fargo hospital, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. Boone of Oriska, who has been ill at a local hospital will return to her home tomorrow.

Mrs. W. H. Messer who has been spending the past ten days visiting with her husband in Red Wing, Minn., returned Saturday night.

A. T. Carlson, who was for a number of years in the clothing business the home of Walter McDonald. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing and visiting after which luncheon was served.

Miss Irene Thompson of Devils Lake spent Sunday in the city, a guest at the home of Rev. Karr. She left last night for Kensal where she will teach the coming year.

E. W. Stein and Chas. Ganzel are registered at a local hotel today.

Miss Helen Marsh spent Sunday at the Ladies' Hall, on her way to Courtenay where she has been engaged to teach during the coming year.

Hazel Maurer of Wabpeton, who will teach in the Montgomery district, near Oriska next year, stopped here to spend Sunday with friends.

Mrs. Ross of Dazey who has been taking treatment at the Riverside hospital, returned to her home this morning.

A son weighing ten pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Wynes of Jamestown Saturday evening at the Riverside hospital.

Saunders Saunders of Wimbledon came down to spend Sunday with his family who are visiting at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Pierce.

Herbert Loomis and family, brother of Mrs. W. C. Lyon and her father Henry Leslie Loomis, autoed up from Fargo yesterday, returning in the evening.

Ruth and Dorothy Callendar who have been spending the past four weeks visiting in Wisconsin have returned.

Material for the construction of the new depot is arriving daily. Several shipments have been received at the freight office already, and as soon as a sufficient quantity arrives the demolishing of the shell will begin.

Mrs. J. B. Meyer will leave this afternoon on a month's visit to her home in Brookville, Indiana. She will be accompanied by Kathryn McMullen who will visit with her grandmother in Indianapolis for several weeks.

Miss Jennie McDonald, who has been spending several weeks with friends and relatives at Detroit, Michigan, returned Sunday, and will resume her work at the State Normal school. Miss McDonald reports a delightful visit and a restful vacation.

J. J. Engen left today on a business trip to Aberdeen, South Dakota.

A. P. Hollis will arrive in Valley City Wednesday to superintend the packing and moving of his household goods to Fargo. On his return, he will be accompanied by Miss Santly.

A. F. Tinscher, manager of the Getts Plano Company's business for this district, left this morning for Detroit, Minn., where he will spend a week in the interests of the company.

A. R. Miller, Edwin Mayland and Melvin Lee went to Kathryn yesterday for prairie chickens, and were successful, returning with seven.

Miss Mae Persons has taken a position with the First National Bank, and will assume her duties in the near future.

W. J. Westergaard left this afternoon for his farm where he will begin threshing operations in the morning.

Mrs. Otto Zetterberg was a delightful hostess last Saturday when she entertained a company of ladies in honor of Mrs. Neuson who is visiting at the home of Walter McDonald. The ladies spent the afternoon sewing and visiting after which luncheon was served.

The slaughter of the innocents was somewhat abated Sunday, because of high winds which made good shooting impossible. A large number of parties were held early in the day, but little game was bagged until after five o'clock in the evening, when the wind went down to a large extent. Many hunters are still bringing in the limit bag after every trip.

J. E. Buttrey spent Sunday and Monday in the city visiting with friends.

George Melton was a passenger from Tower City this morning, where he had been spending Sunday with his family.

Mrs. George Stiles will leave October first for Vancouver, where she will spend some time visiting with her daughter, Miss Effie Stiles. Later in the fall she will be joined by Mr. Stiles and son George.

Tony Linn with his family, brother and mother, drove over from Sanborn Sunday afternoon. Mr. Linn's mother who has been visiting at his home in Sanborn during the summer left last night for her home in Lansing, Michigan.

Chas. Weber, the urbane and distinguished representative of the Russell Miller Milling Company, was in the city between trains this morning. Mr. Weber declares there is better chicken hunting in Stutsman county, his home, than anywhere else in the state. Yesterday he and a friend each got the limit. He says that after that they quit.

For the second time A. F. Pierce, of the Valley City Mutual Fire Insurance company has had a grand child added to the list of his relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders, his daughter and son-in-law, became this morning the parents of a splendid young son, their second. The youngster is lusty, and weighs, on his grandparents' scales something over 13 pounds.

E. A. Greenwood, deputy state dairy commissioner, left this morning on the early train for Jamestown, where he will spend several days testing dairy herds. This is a large and important part of Mr. Greenwood's work, and the good results have been noticeable in healthier cattle all through this section. He says that the corn and alfalfa crop in this section of the state is the best in years, and that Barnes county is bound to make a wonderful showing at the state exposition next month.

A. P. Farrell autoed down from Rogers this morning on a brief business trip. He returned later in the day.

A. Arenson of St. Paul, who is the owner of considerable farm land in this vicinity, is spending a few days in the country looking after his crops. In Valley City, but who has been in business at Bemidji, Minnesota, for the past year, left this morning for his home. Mr. Carlson has been spending a week here disposing of his household goods and making arrangements to move his family.

Mr. Claude Garland of Carrington came to the city yesterday to make arrangements to have his daughter enter the Normal school the coming year.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY

Miss Emma Carlson is a guest at the Gunsted farm this week.

Harry Green was a visitor from Leal on Monday.

The little children of Burt McCready who have been very seriously ill for the past few weeks are improving.

Alexander Karr of the Chautauqua is driving an automobile now and will cover the country in a much more rapid manner in the future.

Mrs. J. E. Switzer will leave on Wednesday for a visit of several weeks with her brother in Pittsburgh, Penn.

Frank Leland who has been substituting at the Rudolf Pharmacy in the absence of Mr. Isaacson will return to Fargo on Thursday.

F. A. Barchus and daughter Laura autoed to Fargo yesterday, where Miss Laura will attend the Agricultural college.

Horace Barchus left on No. 6 this morning for Fargo where he will attend school during the coming winter.

John Tracy and Herman Winterer are spending several days in Griggs and Foster counties after chickens and ducks. They left Sunday morning, and are making the trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Isaacson who have been visiting in Fort Dodge, Iowa, for the past two weeks will return Wednesday morning.

Ms. C. L. Campbell arrived from Fargo yesterday and will be a guest at the home of her sister Mrs. A. P. Peake until about November first.

Prof. and Mrs. J. E. Switzer will entertain informally this evening for Mrs. Switzer's brother and wife of Pittsburgh, who are visiting at the home of the Switzers.

Miss Jean Smith entertained a few friends at bridge at her home on Monday evening. An interesting game and a delicious lunch afterwards were enjoyed by the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. McGillivray, of Ripley, Ontario, who have been visiting their son, C. N. McGillivray for several days left this morning for the west. From there they will go to Port Angeles, Washington, where they will visit Mr. McGillivray's brothers.

Mrs. Oscar Mason was hostess on Monday afternoon to a few friends at a thimble bee. The afternoon was passed in sewing and visiting after which a delicious luncheon was served.

Mr. Claude Garland of Carrington came to the city yesterday to make arrangements to have his daughter enter the Normal school the coming year.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

Miss Mary Deem will remove to the McMullen house on Conklin avenue on or about October 1st, at which time Prof. McMullen and family will take up their residence in their home on Euclid avenue which is being remodeled.

Chas. Ennis, of Alliance N. Y., is spending several days in the county, looking after his mother's interests here. The Ennis estate owns several sections of land which are at present leased to farmers. D. S. Ritchie is accompanying Mr. Ennis on the trip.

Rev. Herbig of Buffalo, N. D., will speak in the Salvation Army hall on Wednesday evening, Sept. 17th, at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

W. O. Boughton of Jamestown, was a visitor here last night.

Louis Christel of Tower City was registered at a local hotel Thursday.

C. M. Athey of Grand Forks, is in the city today transacting insurance business.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Aandahl of Litchville were visiting and shopping here yesterday.

Miss Ethel Chickosky of Hurdsfield, who was recently operated on for appendicitis has returned home from a local hospital.

Rev. J. F. L. Bohnhoff will leave tomorrow morning for Max where he will adjust difficulties in connection with the Lutheran church of that city.

N. W. Hall of Fargo, is here today transacting matters of business.

Mrs. Frank White will leave Sunday afternoon for Niagara Falls, where she will attend a board meeting of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. James Earley and Master Jim returned home last evening from Detroit Lake, after spending the season there.

Lloyd Witter will leave Monday for Grand Forks where he will take up the study of law at the State University.

Gordon Valandigham will leave Monday for Fargo, where he will resume his studies at the A. C.

Mrs. Theresa Schmell who has been the guest of Mrs. Fred Schmidt for the past several weeks left Wednesday morning for Portland, Ore.

Earl Moultrie will leave Sunday afternoon for Faribault where he will attend Shattuck the ensuing year.

Mrs. T. S. Henry left this afternoon for Fargo where she will spend the day going on to Minneapolis tomorrow. She will be met by Mr. Henry there and return with him on Wednesday.

A gang of carpenters arrived in the city this morning and began construction work on a small store house for the supplies for the new depot. The material for the depot has not yet come, but it is expected any day now, and work will then be pushed rapidly.

The Misses Claire and Della Sandberg left Thursday morning for Portal where they will teach in the city schools during the ensuing year.

Herman Winterer's new pointer dog which broke loose yesterday morning and escaped, was captured last evening near Oriska. The dog was valuable, and Mr. Winterer is naturally glad to recover him.

Miss Anna Cronquist of Kensal is in town since last evening. She is on her way to Finley where she will teach this year. She is a guest of Mrs. Wolff.

J. W. Maxwell of Grafton, was a business caller here last night.

J. Stone of Minneapolis was a visitor in the city yesterday.

G. O. Montgomery of Velva, was here on business matters Thursday.

C. F. Leonard of Fargo representing the American Steel and Wire Co., is calling on customers here today.

Levi Etzell of Rogers, was mingling in business circles yesterday.

Mrs. J. H. Schwicker of Fessenden, visited with friends here between trains last night.

Evan Griffith of Kenmare, was among the business callers here today.

G. Sankey, H. J. Bradley, E. T. Crearer and John Dahl all of Fargo, were in the city Friday.

Mrs. Jennie Hougren and daughter, Mrs. Leonard Larson who have been visiting relatives at Thief River Falls, Minn., have returned home.

Axel Johnson, formerly a resident of Wimbledon, now of Poplar, Mont., who has been at the Platon Hospital for the past two weeks being treated for ptomain poisoning, was able to leave there yesterday.

Miss Ellen Lallum who underwent a slight operation at a local hospital recently has returned home.

Miss Carrie Clancy of Kensal, spent Thursday in the city visiting Mrs. Edward Wells who is taking treatment at a local hospital.

Miss Tess Henry, who for the past two years, edited the social news of the Times-Record, has resigned her position and will take a vacation of a few weeks. Later in the fall she expects to take a trip west. Miss Henry will be missed from the office of the Times Record where her work had become an almost invaluable part of the day's news.

A wreck of several freight cars on the High Line yesterday morning tied up traffic on that branch until late in the day. All freight trains were run over the valley line, congesting traffic to a considerable extent on the main streets of the city at intervals.

I wish to purchase several good, fresh cows before the first of October. See me at the State Normal school grounds, or telephone 236L. Fred Colby. 9-17-3td-1tw

ELKS ATTENTION. Valley City Lodge No. 1110 will hold a special meeting Friday evening, September 19, 1913, to arrange for a trip to Bismarck. Banquet after meeting. Lee Combs, Exalted Ruler.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY

M. M. Burnett, formerly of Dickinson, has decided to make his home in Valley City, and has purchased a partnership in the Dakota Clothing and Dry Cleaning Company, with H. E. Ervin. Mr. Burnett has been a successful business man in North Dakota, and will be welcomed here.

Miss Irene Thompson of Devils Lake is spending several days in the city the guest of Mrs. Harry West. Miss Thompson will teach in the public schools of Devils Lake the ensuing year.

Miss Grace E. Plummer of Hawley, Minn., was the guest here yesterday of friends.

Lee Combs left this morning for Dent, Minn., by auto, to close his cottage there for the season, and bring Mrs. Combs and the children home. He will be gone until the middle of next week.

Rev. F. Boone motored up from Oriska this morning returning this evening.

Mrs. Foster and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith will be arrivals in the city tomorrow morning from Troy, New York, and will spend an indefinite time the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Hartwick. Mrs. Foster is Mrs. Hartwick's mother, while Mrs. Smith is a sister.

Miss Helen Burch, who has been the week's guest of Miss Esther Peake, will leave tomorrow for her home in Washington, D. C.

John Anderson of Minneapolis, is spending several days in the city looking after his farming interests and calling on friends.

Miss Henrietta Baumez who has been visiting friends in Minneapolis for the past couple of weeks returned home today.

Mrs. W. C. Lyon who has been the guest of relatives in Fargo for the past week returned home this morning.

Miss Isabelle Carley, of Montpelier, spent the day here visiting friends.

R. M. Cooper of Casselton, is registered at a local hotel today.

Mrs. M. E. Butterfield and Mrs. Eva Personius left this morning for Detroit, Minn., where they will spend the week the guests of Mrs. Roy Phillips.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY

Sam Hall went to Fargo on Monday on a business trip.

Mrs. Mary Sherlock left Tuesday for Fargo to be gone for two weeks.

Mrs. J. J. Engen has been confined to her apartments for the past few days with an attack of poisoning.

The Missionary Society of the Methodist church met today at the home of Mrs. Colville.

Professor R. Acher returned last Saturday from Chinook, Montana. Mr. Acher visited while there with two brothers one of whom he had not seen for about seventeen years.

Mrs. Crowell and daughter of Enderlin spent the day in town Tuesday.

Miss Addie Tibor arrived from Chicago yesterday, for a visit with her aunt Mrs. Elizabeth Passmel.

St. Catherine's Alter Society will meet at the home of Mrs. Herb West on Thursday afternoon.

A. P. Heaney of the Frederick E. Murphy Automobile Co., is spending the day in the city with I. J. Moe, looking after their automobile interests.

Dr. Martin, E. J. Pegg, James McIntyre and Ed King left Tuesday afternoon in Dr. Martin's car on a hunting trip, to be gone several days.

Miss Mary Jenkins of Battle Mountain, Nevada, will spend the coming year here and expects to attend the Normal school.

At this week's meeting of the directors of the Chautauqua Assembly, F. E. Osborne, who has had charge of the Reading Circle work since the first of July presented his resignation. Mr. Osborne is not decided yet just what his next venture will be, but says he has had several offers which he is considering.

Fred Mackey of Oskaloosa, Iowa, will arrive sometime this week for a

These Frosty Mornings

and the cold, wintry days that will soon be here will necessitate the purchasing of new blankets and comforters.

WE HAVE JUST RECEIVED a new stock of Cotton and Wool Blankets that we are sure will please. It is positively the best stock we have ever had of this line. Northern cotton blankets with heavy nap, in gray, tan and white plaids, with blue border at—

95c to $4.50

Wool blankets, of very best quality in gray, white and tan colors, with colored borders, a big assortment at—

4.50 to 12.00

See These Blankets Before You Buy Elsewhere---It Will Pay You

We Give
Green
Trading
Stamps

Gray's Department Store
VALLEY CITY, N. DAK.

We Give
Green
Trading
Stamps