

Christmas Suggestions

Opera Glasses
Field Glasses
Telescopes
Magnifiers
Eye-glasses
Reels, Chains
Mountings

And Other Things in the Optical Line

BUTLER Eyesight Specialist
Phone 377

Valley City, N. D. 5th Ave. N. D.

THE CITY

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY

MONDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1913.

The Woman's club will meet with Mrs. George Fridt next Monday afternoon for a business session.

Miss Evelyn and Helena Riebe left yesterday for their home in Fargo to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Runk and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Runk attended the Runk-Lannan wedding Thursday from Casselton.

Miss Beattie Ashton of the Normal faculty, has gone to Kalamazoo, to spend the Christmas holidays at her home.

Prof. R. R. Ebersold of the high school faculty will go to Cedar Rapids, Iowa to spend Christmas.

Mrs. C. E. Moore and Mrs. J. H. S. Thompson went to Jamestown today to spend the day with friends.

Elizabeth Peake returned home last Thursday from St. Mary's at Faribault Minnesota, to spend her Christmas vacation.

George Peake arrived here yesterday from Butte, Montana, unexpectedly, as a surprise to his parents and will spend Xmas with them.

Miss Phoebe Hudson will leave tomorrow night for her home in Paynesville, Minn., to spend Christmas.

Dr. Gabriel will come from Enderlin to spend Christmas here as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Featherstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Uloth have left for New Richmond, Minn., where they will spend Christmas with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Schwenke. En route to New Richmond Mr. and Mrs. Uloth will meet Mr. and Mrs. Roy Severance in Minneapolis.

Miss Ruth Stowell who is teaching in Montana this year, came home to spend Christmas here with her mother.

Miss Fanny Amidon went to Fargo a day or two ago to spend Christmas at the home of her brother, Judge Amidon.

Dr. J. E. Featherstone and daughter Nancy will leave tomorrow morning for Fergus Falls, Minn., to spend a day or two with relatives, returning home Wednesday evening.

Miss Nellie Farnsworth and Lenly Harvey left Saturday on No. 4 for Fargo to spend the Christmas holidays with Miss Farnsworth's sister.

Miss Una Chambard who has been studying music in Minneapolis, returned home last Saturday to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents.

J. J. Egan and party had what might have been a serious accident yesterday, on a trip which they were taking to Kathryn. They had gone but a short distance luckily, when the axle on a wheel of the auto broke but no one in the party was injured. The only bad feature of the accident was the fact that the party had to walk back to town and this considering that they had dressed for a long ride was no small task.

Little Lois Weeks and her brother Spencer, left this morning for their home in Detroit, Mich., having spent the past month here with their aunt, Mrs. C. E. Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Decker and Mr. Claire Metcalf were from Casselton last Thursday to attend the wedding of Miss Maud Lannan.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Greene, Howard Wilson and Perry Pickette were among those who came here from Leal to attend the Runk-Lannan wedding.

J. P. Runk and Miss Salthammer of Kathryn were here Thursday for the wedding of Maud Lannan to Nicholas Runk.

Mr. and Mrs. Arleigh Miller and little daughter Barbara will leave Wednesday evening for Minneapolis to spend Christmas with their parents. Mrs. Miller will remain in Minneapolis for several weeks to visit at her home.

Mrs. W. O. Keene will leave tomorrow night for Cottage Grove, Minn., to spend sometime visiting with relatives. During Mrs. Keene's absence the Keene residence will be occupied by Prof. and Mrs. Leonard Call.

Clarence Colville returned yesterday morning from Madison, Wisconsin, where he attends the Wisconsin University, to spend his Christmas vacation with his parents.

Mrs. Rattenstater of Lester Prairie, Minn., is a guest of the David Colvilles over Christmas. Mrs. Rattenstater is visiting here enroute from a recent visit in Canada to her home in Minnesota.

Mr. John Bollinger of Jamestown visited with Mr. G. A. McFarland on Friday and was joined that evening by her husband and they left for California.

Superintendent Lewis of the Wilton schools was in the city Friday interviewing candidates for teacher's positions in his schools.

Miss Fischer, Supervisor of the first and second grades of the Model school is going to spend her Xmas vacation at her home in Steele.

Miss Eula Miller, superintendent of the Model school of the Minot Normal was in the city today, visiting at the Normal school.

Prof. Henry Gjerdrum of the Conservatory of Mexico, Missouri arrived here yesterday and will spend the holidays with his brother of this place.

Miss Susan Norton will leave Monday to spend Christmas with her brother Will Norton, who is an instructor at the U. in Grand Forks. Miss Gardner, assistant to Miss Fischer in the Model school will also spend Christmas in Grand Forks.

The hearing in the case of one of the men under arrest on a statutory charge is being held this afternoon in Judge Moe's court. The revolting details are unprintable. The verdict has not as yet been announced.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Swartout were shopping here this morning from Sanborn. They intended to return early in the day but finding so many attractive bargains and pretty decorations, to say nothing of the host of friends, they missed the train and remained until evening.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1913.

A letter from Carl Somdahl to his parents here states that he will be here Monday and will spend the holidays with the home folks. Needless to say that he will be mighty welcome. Carl is holding down a good position as mechanical engineer at Fort Wayne, Ind. and is just now able to take a much needed vacation which he should have had last summer.

The eight Normal girls who have been staying with Mrs. M. M. Evenson planned a very pleasant surprise for the lady Thursday evening. A knock was heard at the door and when Mrs. Evenson responded she discovered a beautiful electric table lamp all lighted up in the parlor which was a present from her boarders. The evening was spent in candy making and games. The merrymaking continued until midnight when the party broke up all declaring that they had enjoyed a pleasant evening.

The officers of the Blue Lodge and chapter will be installed on Monday evening in the Masonic Temple at 7:30 p. m. sharp.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1913.

Mrs. McKinney, mother of Mrs. A. R. Ferriss, was operated on Wednesday and is doing nicely.

Miss Wilkins of the city schools left today for her home in Iowa to spend her Christmas vacation.

Mrs. Marie Handriksen of Fingal, and Miss Gussie White of Getchell Prairie were visitors in the city a day or two ago.

Miss Olivia Wagley who teaches school at Westhope and her sister, Mary Wagley who is teaching at Bowbells, will arrive Saturday morning to spend Christmas with their parents.

Mrs. Ray Rasmussen who has been visiting here with her parents for sometime expects her husband to arrive here from their home in Canada, next Sunday morning. From here they will go on to South Dakota to spend Christmas at Mr. Rasmussen's home.

Miss Lillian Yeager, daughter of C. E. Yeager of this city, was operated on Wednesday at the Swedish hospital in Minneapolis for a severe case of appendicitis. The serious illness of Miss Yeager who is located in Minnesota, made it imperative that Mrs. Yeager go to Minneapolis several days ago. The young lady is doing nicely since her operation and it is hoped that Mrs. Yeager can bring her home as soon as she is able to travel.

About eleven o'clock last Thursday morning forty of the members of the Ladies Aid of the German M. E. church pleasantly surprised Mrs. H. J. Bruns, at the home of her son Mr. T. H. Bruns. This being her sixty-ninth birthday anniversary. Rev. C. F. Bublitz, pastor of the German M. E. church, gave an appropriate talk and presented her with a tea set which was given to her by the Ladies Aid. This was followed by a talk given by Rev. W. A. Weiss of Duluth, Minn. Then all present partook of a delicious dinner.

Lloyd Witter will arrive here Saturday evening from the State U. to spend the holidays with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. T. X. Jones will leave Sunday for Mankato to spend Christmas with relatives.

Mrs. Osher will come here from her home in Lambertton, Minn., to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Combs and the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Egan are rejoining over the safe arrival of a fine baby boy which came to their home on the 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Corby are entertaining at their home a newly arrived boy who has already taken possession and acts very much at home.

Carl S. Larson and Mrs. Larson are rejoicing over the little Miss who arrived on the 16th. All are well.

Mr. and Mrs. Suiter spent a few hours in Valley City today enroute from Minot where they spent the summer with their daughter, to the Adcock farm of which they will take charge this winter.

Mrs. E. C. Murray is enjoying a visit with her brother, C. A. Brawley, of Winchester, Indiana who will stay here for an indefinite length of time.

Mrs. R. M. Johnson of Wyndmere is a guest at the Kindred Hotel. Mrs. Johnson is here visiting with her daughter who is ill at the Riverside hospital.

Mr. Donald Bailey left this morning for Backus, Wis., where he will spend the holidays with his brother Ralph, and other relatives.

The third grade Lincoln gave a happy afternoon to little Quinten Crabtree, one of their classmates who has been quite ill at his home with a broken leg. Each child had a post card or pretty Christmas greeting card to shower him with. Miss Stowell read two Christmas stories and the children sang their songs. Holly wreaths had been wound at school for him, and the children hung them up in his room.

Prof. Ladd won out in the Lard fight. This case is the finish of the attempt of the state to force the packing companies to give full weight.

ELK TREE THURSDAY.

The Elks have changed their plans relative to the Christmas tree which they are preparing for Christmas day and the hour has been set for the morning instead of the afternoon. All of the children are invited to come in the morning from ten to twelve o'clock.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1913.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Munson spent the day in Fargo on a shopping trip, returning this evening.

H. C. Aamoth left Sunday for Bismarck on a business trip and is expected to return home tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Aamoth expect to leave Wednesday evening for Detroit, Minn., to spend Christmas with Mrs. Aamoth's mother.

Miss Leone Christy of Defiance, Iowa, arrived here several days ago and will visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Hanna for an indefinite length of time.

Herb Weston has returned from Cuba to look after some important business and expects to return to the south about the first of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cox are coming from Courtenay Wednesday night to spend Christmas here. Mrs. George McFarland will be hostess to the Cox families of Courtenay and here, at Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Thacker are expected to arrive here Wednesday evening to

Greetings

APPRECIATING your liberal patronage during the year 1913, we take this opportunity to thank you, and to extend wishes for a very Merry Christmas and a New Year full of Happiness and Prosperity. We hope that we may be favored with your business during the New Year 1914, and assure you the same courteous treatment, efficient service and quality goods that we have aimed to give in the past.

Right Price Mercantile Co.

Main Street

Valley City, N. D.

spend Christmas with their daughter, Mrs. T. L. Larson. Mr. and Mrs. Thacker have been visiting with Mrs. Larson's sister, Mrs. Paul Sorkness of Fargo, for several days from their home near Winnipeg, and from here will visit their other relatives residing in Nebraska and other states, after which they leave for the south to spend the winter months.

Mrs. Patterson and Miss McEnanny who have been visiting here with their sister, Mrs. Frances Hogan, returned yesterday morning to their home in Ross, N. D.

Miss Martha Berkey returned home for the holidays Saturday morning from Minneapolis where she is attending the University of Minnesota.

The John D. Gray store and C. C. Chaffee will close their stores Christmas eve and will remain closed all day Christmas. It is altogether likely that most of the other stores will observe the occasion in the same manner. Everyone should bear this in mind and do their shopping early so that there will be no occasion to go to the stores after 6:30 Wednesday.

Mr. Edgar Bradley arrived here last Thursday to take his daughter, Dorothy who has been with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jeffrey, to her home in Grace City, for Christmas. Dorothy and her father left last Saturday for their home.

Miss Ruth Young is visiting here for a few days from Portland enroute to Kansas City, Mo., where she will attend a student's convention. Miss Young is the guest of Gladys Fridt.

The Misses Tess and Alice Maguire of Minneapolis are visiting here and the guests of Miss Jean Smith and her mother for a few days. From here they will go to Portland for an extended visit.

Miss Fredia Anderson who is teaching in the schools of New Rickford, came last night and will spend Christmas with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Isaacson.

Mrs. Frances Hogan entertained a number of friends at dinner last Sunday in honor of her guests, Mrs. Patterson and Miss McEnanny of Ross. Covers were laid for twelve guests.

After a short business session including the installation of officers, the members of the Masonic lodge with their wives, daughters and sweethearts tripped the light fantastic last evening until a late hour. Those who did not care to dance played cards and during the evening delicious refreshments were served. There was a splendid get-together spirit and everyone who attended enjoyed a good time.

Patrons of the John D. Gray Department Store are being served to delicious coffee and wafers during these last few days to Christmas, in the basement of the store. That this will be a popular feature with shoppers goes without saying, and will add to the popularity of this already popular store.

Banker A. P. Hanson of Litchville was in town yesterday looking after some matters in connection with the county court. He left in the afternoon for Fargo.

NOTICE TO CHURCH SOCIETIES.

Send in all church and society notices by letter rather than by telephone. The work of answering calls entails extra labor for the news department and there is also great danger of mistakes being made. Please send advance society notices in writing.

Maids, cooks, dressmakers, waitresses, all household workers, as well as the helpers in every sphere of business look to the daily index of opportunity that the Times-Record wants.

GREETINGS

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year—A New Year full of Happiness and Prosperity, and many thanks for the liberal patronage you have shown us during the old year, this is our wish to you all.

Miss Ella Holtquist

Milliner

Right Price Merc. Co. Valley City, N. D.

The Rudolf Pharmacy

wishes all

A Merry Christmas

with all the joys and pleasures that attend it