COURT CONTINUES HEARING CASES; ORISKA MAN WAS FOUND GUILTY

Flora Case To Be Tried in Fargo Present Term ---Arson Case Being Hard Fought---Mackey Out On Bail.

(From Friday's Daily)

The jury trying the case of L. H. Kuhry of Oriska charged with "pigging" returned a verdict last Wednesday evening, after being out thirty hours, finding the defendant guilty. Sentence will probably be pronounced the first of next week.

The arson cases are being hard fought and will probably go to the jury at a late hour tomorrow. Oliver Mackey will ask for a new trial and it is understood that he will be able to obtain the necessary bail and will be at liberty this evening. The case of Frank Flora was sent to Cass county and may be tried there during the session of court now being held there.

The next case to be tried will be a larceny case, the defendant being Roy Mathews. There is some talk that the Rogers criminal case may be carried over this term of court, but that is merely a rumor.

Noted Canadian Financier Dies

Toronto, Jan. 17.—Senator George A. Cox, prominent in Canadian financial circles, died here today, aged 74. He was president of the Canadian Life Assurance company, the British American Assurance company, the Western Assurance company, the Provident Investment company, the Central Canada Loan & Savings company, and the Toronto Savings & Loan company. He was a director in a score of large corporations, including the Grand Trunk the Dominion Coal company, the Canada Shipbuilding company, the Sao Paulo Tramway and the United States Mortgage company. Senator Cox had contributed generously to Methodist charities. He was rated in 1909 as "one of the twenty-three millionaires who are at the basis of Canadian finance."

Bombshell For the Suffrage Cause

Washington, Jan. 19. — Decision of the majority members of the house rules committee against the creation of a standing committee of the house on woman suffrage, landed like a bombshell in the ranks of the National suffrage leaders. Both the congressional committee of the National American Women Suffrage association and the congressional union for woman suffrage have been pressing the matter; but radical difference of opinion between the organizations is indicated by comments tonight.

The congressional union at a meeting adopted a resolution that the meeting "regarded with indignation," the action of the Democratic members of the rules committee. A lobby member of the Suffrage association took exception to this attitude. She said, "Our committee will remain entirely non-partisan, will support such national officers as show a friendly disposition towards suffrage and never oppose any candidate unless he has ignored the well defined sentiment for suffrage among his constituents."

SIBLEY.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1914.

Chas. Hunter was a business caller in Valley City Monday.

Miss Belle Livingston is visiting with her sister Mrs. Aleck Algeo this week.

The Farmers' Club which met at the Ashtabula school house last Friday evening was well attended and a splendid program was given.

Mr. and Mrs. John Osborne visited in Dazey Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Aleck Algeo and Miss Belle Livingston were callers at the Chas. Hunter home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Drice spent Sunday evening at Chas. Hunters.

A pleasant social event of this week was the wedding of Paul Langer and Katie Kunze at the St. Mary's Catholic church at 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning in the presence of a great many relatives and friends. The bride was a picture of loveliness, dressed in delicate white and carrying an armful of white roses. The groom wore conventional black. Mary Langer, sister of the groom was bridesmaid. Frank Kunze attended as best man and Father Sailer performed the ceremony.

After a wedding breakfast at the home of John Weiland, the guests repaired to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kunze, where a bounteous wedding dinner was served in the dining room. All spent an enjoyable evening and night dancing.

Mrs. Langer and daughter of Minnesota are here to attend the Langer and Kunze wedding.

G. Weller was a Dazey caller Tuesday.

R. J. Algeo was seen in Dazey Wednesday.

Aleck and Jim Algeo and Bennie Nolan were grinding feed at Fred Lang's Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and Miss Hunter were afternoon callers at the Aleck Algeo home.

COMING FROM CANADA.

Mrs. LaFayette Knox, nee Franceska Winterer is expected to arrive here about the 27th of the month to spend sometime here with her family and to attend the wedding of her sister Florence Winterer, which will be an event of February.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 19.—A delegation of Fort Totten Indians has arrived from North Dakota to appear before the House Indian Affairs Committee next Wednesday, consisting of Ingatius Court, Indian Interpreter, Frank DeMars and James Grant.

The tribe claims rights under a treaty made in 1851 by which they were to have a strip of country in Yellow Medicine County, Minnesota. It is their claim that after the treaty was made it was afterwards amended arbitrarily without referring the amendment back to the Indians for ratification. Congressman Young has introduced a bill asking that the claim of the Indians be investigated by a commissioner to be appointed by the president.

The Indians are also interested in legislation pending before the senate and will appear before the senate committee.

Arson Case Falls Down Verdict "Not Guilty"

MONDAY, JANUARY 19, 1914.

After being out three hours the jury in the arson case which had attracted considerable attention found the men not guilty and they were at once discharged. The case was hard fought on both sides but the verdict was not a surprise to those who had followed the evidence.

A civil case is being tried today. The jury is out in the grand larceny case that was being tried Saturday in which Mathews is accused of having stolen a fur lined coat.

Any one having old paper, rags or rubbers they wish to get one of the way, just call up 166J and the officers of the Salvation Army will call at your place and get them. Capt. Schaffer.

California Reunion of Dakota Friends

To the Valley City Times-Record:

On the eighth day of January, 1914, a jolly bunch of Valley City people, wintering at Long Beach, California, happily responded to an invitation received from Bird Runyon, a former resident of Valley City, to join them in a January picnic to be given at his ranch in Pomona.

Boarding the varnished cars at the Pacific Electric Station at 7:30 a. m. before the sun had begun to peek over the eastern horizon, the following people were comfortably seated for a delightful trip: Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Christiansen, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Coop, son James and Miss Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Aldahl and Mrs. D. W. Clark and Elizabeth. These constituted our party until we arrived at Los Angeles where we were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Mat Runyon.

Our ride took us through countless groves of oranges, lemons and grape fruit interspersed with vast acres of roses. There were also occasional walnut groves and berry patches here and there. The soil appeared to be rich with vegetation and life.

After passing through such delightful country we arrived at Pomona at 11:30 a. m., and after a walk of about two blocks, we arrived with a splendid appetite at the house, which is entirely submerged in a grove of oranges trees.

Mr. Runyon has a beautiful home built in the bungalow style and attractively furnished within and without. The yard is filled with orange trees and countless varieties of flowers. Great vines of pink and red roses climb almost to the top of the house spilling their fragrance as an eternal welcome to all. To the rear of the house are chickens, horses, cows, etc. We pronounced him a typical farmer. One's first desire upon entering such an earthly paradise is to forever wander in and out among those orange trees, picking as much of the fruit as the heart and appetite desired, and breathing in the fragrance of the ever blooming roses.

Entering the house, we found them all at home awaiting our arrival. Mr. and Mrs. Runyon look comparatively the same but Vernon has grown to be quite a young man. Claude also looks the same if not better.

With ravenous appetites we partook of the sumptuous repast in true cafeteria style leaving little for the birds to consume.

As the sun began to make known his presence in the sky between broken patches of clouds, we adjourned to the exterior once more where we stood before the camera and smiled. Bedecked with oranges and rosebuds, Mrs. D. W. Clark "took the cake."

About 3:30 a party of us walked about a mile and a half over to a large packing house where we were acquainted with the various processes the oranges must go through before they are ready for shipment. After they are picked, they are first washed and then dried in the sun, sorted, and sent down an incline where many girls are waiting to wrap them and pack them away to be sent to North Dakota and other states where such luxuries do not grow.

We were allowed to pick as many oranges as we wished so we denied ourselves nothing and came away well loaded. When the hour of parting presented itself, we did so with much reluctance pronouncing the Runyons very royal entertainers indeed. Some went straight home to Long Beach, others tarried a few days at Long Angeles to be further entertained by Mat Runyon and family, who also have a very comfortable little home and where Homer has an excellent position with a Hot Point Electric firm.

Such was our outing and it was a very enjoyable one indeed. One that was not soon to be forgotten. Not so much for the beauty of scenery described, not for the perfection of climate enjoyed, not for the amount of enlightenment received, but simply for the hospitality showered so generously upon us, the feeling of brotherhood and good will and for simply the joy of being together out here in this sunny land of California.

ELIZABETH CLARK.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1914.

R. Robertson of Nome is in town today, transacting business.

C. O. Langer of Sanborn is spending the day in town on business.

J. B. Wharton of Oriska was in town yesterday, on matters pertaining to business.

W. A. Haney of Sanborn was visiting in the city yesterday and also transacted some business.

Messrs. Frank Lannon, W. W. Smith, Wm. Oscon, L. G. Moultrie, S. Risa and Dr. E. R. Roberts leave on No. 2 for the big Fargo Shrine meeting which is to be held there tonight. E. C. Pollard and A. P. Hanson of Litchville will also attend. This looks bad for the poor candidates but with the rare nourishment of which they will undoubtedly partake, it may that they will pull through.

Editor L. P. Hyde left last evening for Bismarck to attend the Editorial meet there today and tomorrow. An effort will be made to secure the regular summer meeting of the association here for next summer and Mr. Hyde will contribute his vote at least toward that end.

Annual Meeting of Alliance Hall Ass'n

SAME OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS ELECTED FOR ENSUING YEAR.

MONDAY, JANUARY 19, 1914.

The annual meeting of the directors of the Alliance Hall Association of North Dakota was held at the home office in Jamestown yesterday. All the officers and all the directors were present except Fred Wolfer of Stutsman county and Paul J. Wedge, McHenry county. The same officers were re-elected for the ensuing year, as well as the same directors; the latter are as follows: J. M. Smith, Grand Forks county; W. E. Boise, Stutsman county; H. M. Clark, Eddy county; Evan Griffith, Ward county; Fred Wolfer, Stutsman county; Paul Johnson, Pembina county; K. F. Shippley, Ramsey county; A. J. Field, Williams county; Paul J. Wedge, McHenry county; E. L. McGeen, Barnes county; M. Tschida, Morton county.

President, J. M. Smith, Grand Forks; Vice President H. M. Clark of New Rockford, and Secretary and Treasurer W. E. Boise, Jamestown, were re-elected.

The year 1914 starts out with a very satisfactory outlook for the business of the association, which has no stockholders, is not conducted for profit, has no unnecessary expenses, and is a purely mutual organization, furnishing hail insurance to its members at the least cost. There is a good surplus in the treasury and all losses paid for 1913 and prior years.

The Times-Record has interviewed several who have seen the moving pictures "The Last Days of Pompeii" and in every instance they have pronounced it good and on that account feel disposed to give the matter publicity. The pictures will be shown at the Rex next Thursday the 22nd and will prove interesting and instructive to children as well as adults.

We Get Next Summer Meeting---Fargo Will Have Winter Meet---G. D. Colcord, of Minot, Was Elected President.

PROGRAM LAST NIGHT WAS GREAT EVENT

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Valley City—Summer Meeting.
Fargo—Winter Meeting.

Yesterday was the first day of the State Editorial Winter meeting at Bis-

We notice that the paper started here several months ago came out this week with "embalmed inards" a real saving in type, plate and energy but a rather bitter pill for those who predicted such success for the undertaking in its infancy.

The Methodist church choir, composed of 28 voices, directed by Dean Howard E. Goodsell of the Normal Conservatory of Music, will give their annual concert Friday evening in the church, 35 cents for towns people, 25c for students from either school.

AN OPPORTUNITY.

The United States Commissioner of Immigration stationed at Montreal estimated that two hundred thousand people who have emigrated to Canada will return this year and his statistics also show that a hundred and fifty thousand returned last year.

This is a splendid opportunity for our county to double the population in the rural districts and it only remains for a united effort to be made to accomplish this end. Many are disposed to judge this county by conditions that exist in other sections of the state and so we must to offset this give publicity to the fact that we are at the head of all of the counties in the production of small grain and that we do not fall far below other eastern states in corn and dairying.

There is much real good that can be accomplished and each individual may help in the great campaign by personal letter writing, or whenever a particularly good article on the agricultural situation appears, by sending it to friends either in Canada or the eastern states. We want more settlers and we are all interested in securing them and they will come if we do our part in the great work. Let us make a united effort for Barnes county.

The North Dakota Enforcement League

The 20th Annual Convention of the North Dakota Enforcement League will be held at Fargo March 17-18, 1914. It is planned to have a noted speaker from outside the state who will begin at Grand Forks on Sunday, March 8th, with a mass meeting at the auditorium and speak each evening until the 17th and 18th at the larger cities in the state. If the plan works out, mass meetings will be held at Devils Lake, Williston, Minot, Bismarck, Beach, Dickinson, Mandan, Jamestown, Valley City and at Fargo on the evenings of the 17th and 18th.

An effort has been made to get Ex-governor Patterson of Tennessee, John G. Woolley or Hon. P. J. Youngdahl of Minneapolis. Mr. Youngdahl was the speaker at the convention last year and everybody who heard him was more than pleased. The plan is to hold an afternoon conference meeting in connection with each district meeting except the Sunday dates. A program bearing on the live issues of the league work is being prepared for these and people near these centers and on railway lines leading to them are urged to come to the district convention.

mark and was well attended and the time well improved. As had been promised last winter the Association voted to give the summer meeting to Valley City. The dates for the summer meeting will be announced a little later but it is altogether likely that it will be arranged so that this meeting will be held during the session of the "hautauqua."

Valley City with her beautiful parks and splendid facilities for caring for a large number of people was a strong inducement to the boys to come and see whether or not Valley City is really as good a town as has been claimed for it. Needless to say they will be shown. Bismarck is making a special attempt to show the editors and their wives a good time and are succeeding as is indicated by messages from the field of action in which it is stated "we are simply having the only times of our lives and everybody in Bismarck is our bosom friend."

Straus Clothing Co. Hold Clearance Sale

The Straus Clothing Company big clearance sale goes merrily on and thousands of dollars worth of merchandise is finding its way into the hands of the people at an astonishingly low price. It is the policy of this company not to carry from year to year any of the old stock and it is in accordance with this well established custom that the sale now in progress is being held. The whole store is a bargain counter and it will be time well spent to visit it.

Woman Pays Wife For Her Husband

MRS. H. E. McANDRESS SETTLES ALIENATION SUIT OUT OF COURT AND SECURES DIVORCE.

Fargo, N. D., Jan. 15.—The case of Mrs. H. E. McAndress versus Laura E. Ruthruff was dismissed in district court yesterday on motion of the plaintiff as the case had been settled out of court. The papers in this case were filed March 1, 1913, and the suit was brought by Mrs. McAndress for the alienation of her husband's affections, damages in the sum of $10,000 being asked. Settlement was asked by the payment of $5,000 to Mrs. Andress by the defendant.

Mrs. McAndress has also been granted a divorce from her husband, J. C. McAndress, by Judge Pollock, there being no defense put up in that case. Mrs. H. E. McAndress and her former husband, J. C. McAndress, are well known in this city and state, he having been engaged in the newspaper business in Fargo. He is now in the land business in Edmonton, Alta., while she resides in this city.

When McAndress was in business here Laura E. Ruthruff was employed in his office. She is a former Fargo woman, having been born and raised in this city, a widow and possessed of considerable property. Mrs. H. D. McAndress said last night that she had demanded alimony in her suit for divorce and that Mr. McAndress settled with her for a sum of money so that she should apply for divorce and he would not fight her case. McEnroe & Wood were the attorneys for Mrs. H. D. McAndress and Attorney A. T. Cole represented J. C. McAndress.

Father and Brothers Save Boy's Life

INFURIATED BULL NEARLY KILLS ENDERLIN, N. D. YOUTH.

Enderlin, N. D., Jan. 20.—Attacked and gored by a bull which tossed him fifteen feet, afterwards charging him time and again as he lay prostrate on the ground, Ernest Anderson, aged 21, was saved from death by his father and two brothers, who beat the infuriated beast off with pitchforks. Young Anderson suffered several fractured ribs, while one leg was broken in four places. He will live.
