

Your Eyes

Are Most Important of the Five Senses, and

Should Be Examined

Or If the Glare of Intense Light Is Annoying You Will Find Our Glasses Will Relieve That Condition at Little Expense.

BUTLER Eyesight Specialist
Office Over Grand Theatre

THE CITY

Bring your Potatoes, Eggs and Butter to the Farmers' Mercantile Company's store and get the top prices.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY

MONDAY, MAY 25, 1914.

Prof. and Mrs. W. C. Koontz, of the Cooperstown public schools, with Mr. I. D. Allen, A. M. Baldwin, Miss Cowan, George Adams and Rev. Buckwalter, were visitors in Valley City to take in the Play Day pageant. Mrs. Greene of Eckelson is the guest of Mrs. Henry Beal for a few days.

Beautiful and impressive memorial services were held on Sunday afternoon by the Eastern Star. There was a short program including a vocal solo by Miss Esther Peake who sang "Angels Ever Bright and Fair," and a reading from Tennyson by Miss Ella Cowell. Miss Adolpha Hedstrom played a violin solo after which regular memorial services were held for departed members of the Eastern Star. Reverend W. C. Lyon and family had as their guest over Sunday, Mr. Lyon's father, of Fargo.

Memorial services were held in most of the local churches yesterday. Members of the W. R. C., Co G and the Veterans of the G. A. R. were present at the morning services of the Congregational church. Splendid music by the choir and a solo by Prof. Meyer with an impressive address by the pastor.

Mrs. Murray who has been the guest of Mrs. Frank White for a week or more, left on No. 4 today for Chicago.

Mrs. Wylie Nielson has as her guest her sister, Mrs. Spurr of New Haven, Conn., who will spend the summer with the Nielson family.

Mr and Mrs. Otto Neumann left last Thursday evening for Minneapolis to be gone about a week visiting with friends and shopping.

The Ladies' Guild of All Saints Episcopal church have been invited to meet with the Jamestown Guild on Wednesday.

It deserves special mention that little Charlotte Stull of the second grade Lincoln, has not missed a word in spelling the entire nine months of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Clendenning spent Saturday in the city from Wimbledon visiting friends and taking part in the Play Day festivities.

Miss Eckert of the local telephone exchange is enjoying a visit with her mother and father who will spend several weeks here with her from Le Seuer, Minn.

Melvin T. Lee, of the Middlewest Loan and Trust Company, left this morning by auto for a trip through several counties in the southern part of the state. He is expected to return Friday.

Among the visitors in Valley City for the county play day was Sam Aandahl, candidate for sheriff. Mr. Aandahl expressed himself as delighted with the pageant and parade, and says it is the best thing of the kind ever given in Valley City or Barnes county.

Miss Florence Hedstrom returned Saturday evening from Chicago where she has been studying vocal music during the past year. Miss Hedstrom will remain here to spend her vacation of several months after which she will resume her studies in Chicago.

Mrs. A. A. Gad is expecting the arrival of her mother, Mrs. Ella Donovan who will visit with Mrs. Gad for a short time and on her return home will be accompanied by her grandchildren. Mrs. Gad expects to leave soon after the departure of her mother and children to join Mr. Gad who is at present in Montana and will spend sometime there with him.

J. E. Taylor, State Superintendent of Instruction spent Sunday in the city with friends. Mr. Taylor came here from Lisbon having made an address there before the eighth grade graduating class and from here he went to Bowbells to attend a meeting of directors.

The game with the Fargo Cathedral Club which was scheduled for yesterday, was cancelled at the last minute by the Fargo team and, as no other team could be substituted at that time, Manager Burgess put on a game between the regulars and the Yanigans, the regulars winning 4 to 3.

Both teams played airtight ball up to the fifth inning, not a run being registered. The first team managed to slip one over in that inning, but the scrubs came back and tied it up in the next. It then became a see-saw affair, with the regulars finishing with the long count.

From the spectators view the game was a first class exhibition, and the fans, who were there were not disappointed. The next game will be Wednesday evening with Sanborn at the City Park.

Mrs. Albert Stern and children will leave this week for Minneapolis to visit for a month or more with Mrs. Stern's parents. On their return home the Stern family will make their home in the Sheyenne apartments in the flat formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bassett.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY

TUESDAY, MAY 26, 1914.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Aamoth were the guests of George Isensee and family of Sanborn last Sunday.

Prof. Whalen was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fritch over Sunday from Fingal.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Ritchie will move in the course of a few weeks, into the old Fridd house on Fourth and Helena Avenues. Until the house is ready for occupancy, Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie will live at the Rudolf hotel.

Among those who attended the play day exercises last Saturday, was Melvin Grangaard, the well known banker of Rogers. Mr. Grangaard came with his auto loaded to its capacity with school children, who joined the merry makers at the Normal school on that day.

Mr. R. T. Blake came from DeLemere to spend the week end here with his family.

Mrs. Hal Dwight left today for Lisbon where she will be the guest of Mrs. Patterson for the remainder of the week.

Work is progressing on the auditorium being built at the Chautauqua park and the large concrete bases for the steel pillars are in place.

Dr. S. A. Zimmerman returned last night from Black Duck, Minn., where he was called last Friday evening on account of the illness of his mother, who has recovered sufficiently to make it possible for the doctor to return home. On his return Dr. Zimmerman was accompanied by his brother, Mr. R. Zimmerman, who will remain in the city for a short time as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Zimmerman.

Mrs. Herman Stern returned yesterday from Casselton after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. Roth of Casselton.

Harold Featherstone is expected to arrive this evening from Fergus Falls, Minnesota for an extended visit at the home of J. E. Featherstone.

Mrs. John D. Gray left last night for a visit of several weeks in the east. Mrs. Gray will spend a short time visiting with Mrs. T. X. Jones at Mankato after which she will go on to Chicago to visit with Mrs. Charles Baker and her mother, Mrs. Stevens.

Mrs. Theodore Munson and children of the Sheyenne Flats, will leave in about a week for the northern part of the state to visit with Mrs. Munson's brother for a while. They

The Finest Line of Wash Goods We Have Ever Shown

CHAFFEE'S

A Lot of New Shirt Waists Just Received

A New Line of Dresses

Just received today. They come in a big range of new styles and in all the season's newest shades. You can't afford to make your dresses when you can buy such neat stylish ones at such low prices. They sell at

$1.95, 2.50, $3, $3.50, 4, 4.50 up to $15

We have a nice line of Childrens Dresses at 69c, 98c, 1.25, 1.50, 1.95 up to $3.75

Witte

Suits your choice of any new Suit in stock that sold up to $30.00, now $17.50

Extra Special Values in Ladies Coats at $5, $7.50, $10.00, $12.50, $15.00 and $17.50

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY

SATURDAY, MAY 23, 1914.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Zuger and son Jack passed through the city last evening on No. 5 enroute to Bismarck.

Rev. J. F. L. Bohnhoff left this morning on No. 7 for Cooperstown, where he will hold services tomorrow. N. J. Nielson is in the city today, having autoed from Dazey with a car load of children for the Play Day picnic.

E. A. Duff, Andrew Tolstad, and George Rasmussen autoed down this morning from Dazey with their cars loaded with school children, who will take part in the Play Day picnic on the Normal grounds.

Mrs. Margarie Moriarty and her sister Mrs. Sofia Minnauth left last night for Maple Creek, Canada. Mrs. Minnauth has been visiting in the city about a week the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Fogel on Elm. Ave.

One of the chief attractions today is the Sanborn brass band which arrived from Sanborn. It attracted much attention with its excellent music.

S. B. McLain of Eckelson, is transacting business in Valley City today.

J. Hendrickson of Fort Ransom was in the city on business yesterday.

Matt Murphy, one of the bonanza farmers of southeastern Barnes county, is in the city today renewing acquaintances.

An exhibition of school work of the pupils attending the Lincoln, Ritchie and High schools will be held next Tuesday and any who desire to go to see the exhibit will be welcome. The manual training exhibit and the domestic science exhibit will be shown in the gymnasium of the High school and the other exhibits will be held in the Lincoln and Ritchie schools.

Ole Oppegaard, the implement man of Dazey brought down a load of children for the Play Day picnic.

J. W. Widdfield, a prominent farmer of Leal, is transacting business in Valley City today.

Peter Ottinger and C. H. McGee, prominent business men of Oriska, are in the city today on business matters.

Rev. W. C. Lyon returned this week from a vacation of two weeks on the western coast. He reports a splendid trip, but is glad to get back.

Jake Werth, one of the early settlers of western Barnes county, died at the state hospital at Jamestown early this morning. Mr. Werth for many years operated a large farm at Sanborn, but for the past ten years has conducted a meat market at Sanborn. He was sent to the state hospital about two weeks ago.

Mrs. Wm. Fredericks passed away at her home in this city on Wednesday stricken with peritonitis, death coming after a brief illness. The funeral service will be held this afternoon. She was about 30 years of age and leaves a husband and one 4-year-old son.—Wimbledon News.

Perry Pickett, cashier of the Bank of Leal, is in town today to attend the Play Day picnic at the Normal. He is accompanied by his family.

Postmaster and Mrs. C. O. Langer, with their son Leonard, of Sanborn are taking in the Play Day exercises.

will also visit in Bozeman, Montana, with Mrs. Munson's sister before going to Aberdeen, S. D., to make their future home.

News has been received here that Mrs. Siegfried is now located at the Mound Park Sanitarium in St. Paul and is doing very well.

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Congregational church will hold their May meeting next Friday afternoon at the Lee Cowell home, two miles out of town. Mrs. W. D. Jeffrey is the leader of this meeting. The ladies will meet at the home of Mrs. George Fridd and from there go together by auto to the Cowell home.

Mrs. E. R. Kopp, who has been visiting for several weeks in the Twin Cities returned last evening. She reports a very pleasant visit with friends and relatives.

Richard Heyward, state High School Inspector, spent yesterday in Valley City, visiting the local High school, and incidentally doing some campaign work. Mr. Heyward is a candidate for the state superintendency opposing Mr. J. E. Taylor, the present incumbent.

Mr. Robnson left Sunday for Minneapolis to be absent several days, during which time he will look after business matters connected with the Rex theatre.

The Ladies' Aid of the Baptist church in the country will meet on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. W. Anderson. All the ladies are cordially invited.

The first baseball game in the City League, which was played last evening at the City Park, resulted in a 7 to 6 victory for Co. G.

Ross started on the mound for the militia men but was pounded hard and forced to retire in favor of Kane in the fifth inning. Anderson went all the way for the the Millers and pitched good ball.

Joe Saba, an Assyrian peddler, was entailed in the law this afternoon, when he represented to Mayor Platou that he had obtained a peddler's license from the city auditor. Investigation proved this to be untrue, and he is now in a cool corner of the city bastle, awaiting trial.

Thomas Smith was a business visitor to Oriska this morning, returning to Valley City this evening.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

FRIDAY, MAY 22, 1914.

H. C. Aamoth was a business visitor in Sanborn for a few hours today.

Mrs. Henry Hogan came in yesterday from her home in Cooperstown for treatment at one of the local hospitals.

Mrs. Matilda Tieg of Borut, Minn., was operated on at the Platou hospital this morning. Patient is doing nicely.

J. E. Collins, employed by the Northern Pacific as conductor, with headquarters at Dilworth, left this week for an extended vacation trip through the east and south. He expects to be gone about six weeks.

There was a meeting of the Jenney Wren Club this afternoon at the home of A. L. Tenney, with Miss Katherine Tenney as hostess.

The Royal Neighbors will give a farewell party for the Misses Love-strum, who leave soon for Norway, sailing from New York on the fifth of June.

Miss Laura Austin, who has been seriously ill here for sometime, left last night, with her brother, who came here for her, and went to Fargo where she will receive medical treatment.

H. G. Arnsdorf returned yesterday from a trip to the Twin Cities and Eau Claire, Wisconsin, after an absence of a week. Mrs. Arnsdorf who accompanied him, will remain as the guest of Mr. Arnsdorf's parents in Eau Claire for a week or two.

The pupils of the Fourth A class of the Model school with their teacher, Miss Barr, had a May picnic yesterday afternoon after school hours, on the hill back of the Normal school. The children passed the hours happily decking themselves out in flowers and foliage and at supper time, enjoyed their picnic lunch. They returned to their homes at eight o'clock.

The Fire Department held a meeting last evening and decided to participate in the parade tomorrow. It is planned to go into the parade with the Chief's runabout, the hook and ladder truck and the hose wagon. The hose cars will remain in the fire hall ready for service, should there be a call during the parade.

Dr. Paul Featherstone was a passenger on No. 4 Thursday for Grand Forks where he will spend several days attending the meetings of the State Dental Association which are being held in Grand Forks this week. Dr. Featherstone will return Sunday morning.

Herbert Mikkelson of Twin Valley, Minn., returned to his home today after two week's illness for which he has been receiving treatment at the Platou hospital.

Mesdames Algeo, Frank Coddling, George Drake and Davis, who attended the meetings of the W. R. C. the early part of the week, as representatives of the local corps, returned from the Gate City Thursday.

Friends of Maud Belle Rice, formerly a teacher in Valley City, have received cards announcing her marriage on May 20, to Ernest E. Stevens at Billings, Montana. The announcement states that they will make their home at Sumatra, Montana.

Mrs. Hooper who has been visiting here from Fargo with her daughter, Miss May Hooper since the beginning of the week, left for her home in Fargo last Wednesday.

There will be a meeting of the Educational committee of the Epworth Methodist church in Jamestown next Tuesday and Wednesday. This meeting will be called for further consideration of the question of establishing a new college in the state and for the unifying of all the educational work under one board of management. Reverend C. E. Vermilya is chairman of this board and will leave Monday evening or Tuesday morning to attend the meetings. Bishop Lucock of Helena, Montana, who has charge of this district will also be present.

A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGee of Oriska Wednesday night at the Riverside hospital. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Chas. DuVall left for Fargo to spend a week transacting business.