FROM MONDAY'S DAILY

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1914.

Miss Cook, the librarian at the public library, reports that the library is planning to have an exhibit of Agricultural Books at the Corn Show; the latter part of the week, Wednesday Thursday and Friday. By the payment of one dollar a year from each family, living in rural districts, the use of the library may be extended to county borrowers. Barnes county farmers will no doubt be very glad to avail themselves and families, of this most splendid opportunity for winter reading.

The teachers of the Lincoln school entertained last Saturday evening in a very delightful manner, for the Ritchie school faculty. Rugs and comfortable chairs quite transformed the upper hall into a cozy room, where games and a pleasant evening was spent. One of the grade rooms was entirely changed for the dining room. The seats were hidden by screens with festoons of yellow chrysanthemums about. The entire color scheme was yellow and white and was carried out in decorations, center pieces, candles and place cards. Tables were set and an elaborate lunch served at the close of a delightful evening.

The regular monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held on Friday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. O. A. Zimmerman, 707 Euclid Avenue, and 25 ladies were present. Mrs. Hugh Wright read a most enjoyable paper on "Dr. Grenfell's Work in Labrador." Mrs. Raynor gave an instrumental number and at the close of the numbers Mrs. Zimmerman served a dainty lunch. Owing to the illness of Mrs. N. C. McDonald, at whose home the next meeting was to have been held, another place of meeting will probably be decided upon, which will be announced later.

Despite the coldness of the weather the fifty young people who attended the meeting of the Auxiliary Guild at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heimes, two and one half miles from town spent a most enjoyable afternoon and evening. They enjoyed a straw ride on the way out and back and a bountiful supper was served. They returned at about half past eight in the evening and all voted that this was one of the most delightful events of the season.

The true spirit of giving has been shown this week in the schools throughout the state. Tomorrow, Nov. 20 is known as "Children's Home Day," and the children throughout the state prepare boxes which are sent to the little homeless people who so much need our sympathy and help. Warm clothing, food stuffs and money are sent for their comfort, and toys and books are sent for their pleasure. It is indeed a splendid spirit of unselfishness to be taught in our schools, and the children respond nobly with dolls and favorite toys as well as outgrown clothing. Lincoln school children this week have taken the small amounts which they would have deposited to their own credit in the bank and of their own free will, have wished that it be sent to the Children's Home. It may mean a few cents for an individual, but from the entire school it amounts to quite a sum. One grade has decided to have a fruit shower for the Children's Home.

One of the biggest sales in a clothing store is underway at the Wardrobe. The management of that popular store have placed everything in the store on sale in a gigantic marked down sale calculated to move the stock and do it at once. Goods in many instances are offered for one of their real value. This is certainly a great chance for those in need of anything in that line to lay in a winter's supply.

GRAND PRAIRIE NEWS.
