

THE CITY

Highest market price paid for Potatoes, Eggs and Butter by the Farmers' Mercantile Company. 2-19-wvt

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1914.

Arthur Miller was an arrival in the City yesterday evening from Minneapolis, and is spending today in the city, and visiting at the home of his son, Arleigh Miller, of the First National bank force. Mr. Miller is en route to Minot, and leaves for that point this evening.

Miss Tess Henry returned to Bismarck yesterday evening to resume her duties in the offices of her brother Frank S. Henry, state land commissioner. Miss Henry spent Thanksgiving here and visited at her home here since Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jo Starke, who are well known in the city, and who live eleven miles north of town, welcomed the arrival of an eight and a half pound baby girl at their home on Friday evening. Mrs. Starke and the baby are reported as doing nicely.

Mrs. K. S. Ramsset and son of Fingal were visitors in Valley City on Saturday, and spent the day here shopping and visiting with friends.

Mrs. James McKinnon and daughter Miss Jane McKinnon who have been visiting in the city the past week at the Chas. G. Lund home on West Fifth street, have concluded their stay here, and left Saturday morning on No. 3 for Miles City, Mont., at that point they will visit with S. D. McKinnon who is well known here, and from there they will go on to Portland and points in the west and south.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ployhar left today for Minneapolis where they will spend a week on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. H. J. Personius of Hatton, N. D., was an arrival in the city Saturday. Mr. Personius will join his wife in a week or so and they will make their home in Valley City. Mrs. Personius is at present visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Marion Kramer.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clark were the guests yesterday of Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Anderson and family at their home in the city.

Miss Alhorn of the Lincoln school was the guest of Miss Nellie Whitchee at her home in Getchell Prairie.

Mrs. E. Courette returned to her home at Minot last Sunday after spending Thanksgiving with her son Forest who lives in the city.

Miss Mary Boynton spent her Thanksgiving at her home in Leal.

Miss Ruby Farley returned last evening from her home in Jamestown.

The gravelling on Fifth Avenue will undoubtedly be of great benefit later but at this time is neither pleasing to the eye or to the vehicle owner who pass that way.

Rev. Willard Crosby Lyon and family returned to the city Saturday from Fargo, where they attended a family reunion and spent Thanksgiving with relatives.

Miss Hattie Eldridge returned to Cooperstown on Friday morning after spending a couple of days in the city, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sam Eldridge.

Miss Alpha Ferguson returned to Cathay this morning where she is teaching in the Cathay schools. Miss Ferguson has been visiting here for several days, and spending the Thanksgiving vacation.

Burt Weston, who is teaching in the consolidated schools at Pillsbury, returned to that point this morning after spending the past few days in the city visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weston.

Miss Florence Allen of the faculty of the Ritchie schools, returned to the city from Ada, Minnesota, where she has been spending the past several days, and week end vacation with friends.

Mrs. Loretta Blair of Detroit, Michigan, was an arrival in the city on Thursday, and will make an indefinite visit here at the Hotel Kindred where she is the guest of her niece, Mrs. P. S. Hanna. Mr. and Mrs. Hanna are from Courtenay, and are spending the winter here, being pleasantly located at the Kindred.

Miss Thelma Thorkelson, the little daughter of Mrs. Bertha Thorkelson, has returned to the city from Wyndmere, where she spent the vacation period with her sister Miss Bertie Thorkelson, who is located at that place.

Mrs. J. L. Godley of New York City was an arrival in the city Friday evening from St. Paul, and is a guest at the home of her brother A. J. Henry and family on North Sixth Avenue.

Mrs. Godley will make an indefinite visit in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. T. McMillan of Wimbledon, were over Sunday visitors in Valley City, and spent the day here, being registered at the Hotel Kindred. They returned to Wimbledon Sunday evening.

FINISHING MATERIAL.

Will sell cheap 300 ft. wall board, 200 ft. plaster board, 2 rolls gray slate roofing, 1 roll red slate roofing, 1 roll tar paper, 1 complete window frame, 140 cement blocks, 6x8x12x24 in, several loads of good winding wood and one clipper lawn moker. Geo. Holt, west end of Third Street. Phone 323L. 12-3-2td-1tw*

ESTRAY NOTICE.

Taken up one yearling heifer, taken up on NW. 1-4 5-140-58. Description red with white face. John Cook. Call 920L. 12-2-1td-4tw

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1914.

David L. Junod of Fargo, has accepted the position of wire chief with the local telephone company, and entered upon his new duties today.

Miss Marion Frazer of Fingal was a week end visitor in Valley City and while here was the guest of Miss Marjorie Cook.

Mrs. A. S. Sigurdson returned last evening from Washburn, in the western part of the state, where she has been visiting with friends for the past week.

D. R. Jones of Sanborn was a caller in the city yesterday, and was registered as a guest at the Hotel Kindred, while here.

Mrs. A. W. Osher, the mother of Mrs. Lee Combs, returned to her home in Minneapolis yesterday after spending the past week in the city at the Combs' home on Euclid Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. James McFadgen of Rogers were callers in the city yesterday, and were registered at the Kindred.

Mrs. Annie Miller of Sanborn is a Valley City visitor today, and while in the city is a guest at the home of Mrs. Fred Reidman on Euclid Avenue. Mrs. Miller will return to Sanborn tomorrow morning.

C. W. Athey of Grand Forks was a visitor in the city yesterday, and was looking after the interests of the North Dakota Mutual Insurance Company, of which he is a traveling representative.

Miss Anna Johnson of Chaffee's store, returned to the city on Sunday evening from Leal, where she spent Sunday visiting with friends.

E. C. Hilborn of the Northwest Nursery Company, was a passenger to Minneapolis yesterday evening, where he went to attend the convention of the Northwest Nurserymen's Association, held at Minneapolis this week.

Miss Anna Schmidt of Minneapolis who spent last week in Valley City as the guest of Miss Anna Cook, concluded her visit in the city and returned to Minneapolis on Sunday. Miss Schmidt was formerly in the office of the Middlewest Insurance Company of this city.

Attorney and Mrs. Lee Combs are happy over the arrival of a ten pound boy, born this morning at the Platon Hospital. Mrs. Combs and the new baby are reported as doing very nicely.

Coming our way? Well I guess. Why? Because we give best service at the Butler Eyesight Specialists.

Bring your Potatoes, Eggs and Butter to the Farmers' Mercantile Company's store and get the top prices.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1914.

Mrs. Boyden of Jamestown arrived in the city on Tuesday afternoon and will be the guest of Mrs. George Fridt for a few days.

The funeral of the late Robert Fairbanks of this city will be held this afternoon from the residence at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in the Woodbine cemetery.

The Knights of Pythias lodge of Valley City will hold its annual election of officers this evening at 8 o'clock. There will also be work in the first degree when a large class will be initiated into the mysteries of the order. A large attendance is desired.

Ex-Senator Ramset of Fingal spent most of the day yesterday in town. While here he found time to make the Times Record office a friendly call.

The Degree of Honor will meet in the Odd Fellows hall on Thursday evening. There will be election of officers and a good attendance is desired.

The Luther League of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet next Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. J. E. Carlson, 225 Crescent Ave. You are invited to be present.

Olaf Sordahl was the lucky winner of the five dollars at the Rex last evening. It being pay day coupled with one of the Rex's fine shows made that house very popular last evening and drew a large crowd.

L. T. Olson is visiting relatives in Iowa this week.

The Scouts of Patrol No. 3 will not meet this week. C. E. Vermilya, scout master.

Mrs. Clarence Isaacson returned to the city yesterday from a few weeks' visit with friends at Yankton, South Dakota.

Mr. Neil Shape o Leal and Miss Kathleen of Sanborn were united in marriage yesterday at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. C. E. Vermilya officiating. They plan to be at home to their friends at an early date on a farm south of Leal.

Miss Fannie C. Amidon, of the State Normal school faculty, will go up to Jamestown on Friday morning, where she will attend the annual meeting and deliver an address before the meeting of the Womens' Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schelin are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a fine baby daughter, born to them on Monday of this week and Mrs. Schelin and the new baby are reported as doing nicely.

The Misses Laura Madsven, Mary Hanson and Edna Tolstad, who are attending the Terry Dressmaking School in the city, returned Monday evening from Dazey, where they spent Thanksgiving, and remained over Sunday visiting at their various homes there.

J. P. Read, state insurance inspector for the North Dakota Mutual Insurance Company, was a business caller in Valley City yesterday from Grand Forks, looking after business interests here. Mr. Read was en route to Grand Forks from the northern part of the state, and he left for that point last evening.

Miss Nellie Farnsworth was the honor guest at a luncheon which was given Tuesday evening in the domestic science rooms at the Normal, by three young ladies of Miss Farnsworth's class. The occasion was the celebration of Miss Farnsworth's birthday and covers were laid for fourteen friends of the honor guest. The places of the guests were marked by cards bearing their own birth date and a color note of red was used in the decorations. Red carnations, Miss Farnsworth's favorite flower were used for floral decorations. After the dainty luncheon had been served, the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent with stories and games.

D. S. Greenen is spending the day in Kensal on business.

O. H. Peabody of Utica, Minnesota, is in the city today on business matters.

Col. A. P. Peake left last evening for Dickenson where he was called on business. He will be absent from town for two or three days.

J. Nelson and Will Hanson of Dazey were over Sunday visitors in Valley City, returning to Dazey Sunday evening.

Hon. George Law of Leal was among the out of town visitors in Valley City, who was transacting business here yesterday. Mr. Law returned to Leal last evening.

A. F. Pierce returned to the city last evening on No. 4 from Jamestown, where he spent the day yesterday, and attended to matters of business connected with his office.

Miss Lulu Larson of Dazey was a visitor in the city yesterday, and came down to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Julia Nelson, which was held yesterday.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1914.

Miss Frances Cohenour who teaches near Dazey, is visiting in the city this week with relatives, and came down to spend the Thanksgiving vacation.

W. E. Bush who teaches in the Daily District, is in the city this week, spending the week-end with his family, who reside on West Fifth street.

Miss Emma Sowden who teaches at Ladbury, and her sister, Miss Alice Sowden of the Baldwin schools, are spending several days in Valley City this week and visiting with friends.

Harry Bjerkness of Westhope is a visitor in the city this week and came to attend the Myhre-Lloyd wedding on Thursday. Mrs. Bjerkness and the baby having arrived a couple of weeks ago from an extended visit here with former friends and relatives.

Miss Maybelle Grewcox of Brainerd, Minn., and Mrs. Marlan Van Syckle of Grand Forks, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Nielson over Thanksgiving, will conclude their visit here tomorrow, and leave on No. 4 for their respective homes at Brainerd and Grand Forks.

Miss Eleanor Seigon was an arrival in the City Wednesday evening from Fargo, where she is substituting as teacher of manual training in the grades of the Central and Longfellow schools. Miss Selden came up from Fargo to spend Thanksgiving and visit over the week end at her home here.

Miss Mae Hooper, the domestic science teacher in the public schools, was a passenger to Detroit, Minn., on Wednesday evening where she went to spend Thanksgiving, and visit several days. Miss Hooper will return to the city Sunday morning.

Miss Mabel Shelver, who teaches in Dazey, is a Valley City visitor this week, visiting with friends here.

This evening E. D. Lum will leave for points in Minnesota where he will look after some newspaper interests.

Miss Stralee entertained the cast of "The Last Day of School" at the Grand Annex after the show last night where a dainty lunch was served, after lunch they returned to the theatre and ended the evening with singing and dancing. All the cast and their friends were present. Everybody enjoyed a delightful evening.

For the benefit of the public, a free reading room has been opened in the Young Block in Room 10. Here the Bible and all authorized Christian Science literature may be read or purchased. The reading room will be open every Monday, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons from 3 to 5 o'clock and the privileges of this room are extended to all.

Ben Sykes returned this morning with a splendid 193 pound doe, shot near twin Valley, Minn. He was out of town a week and reports having had a good time but did not find game very plentiful.

The P. E. O's. will have a "Fagot" party at the home of Mrs. L. B. McMullen, next Monday evening. Each member will bring a fagot and throw it on the fire while it is burning they will each tell stories. All members are urged to be present.

Yesterday evening a very pretty wedding took place at St. Catherine's church in the presence of only a few intimates, relatives and friends, when Miss Clara Marie Gilt of Albany, Minn. was united in marriage to Mr. James Harvey Altizer of Valley City. Father Sailer performed the ceremony. They many friends in this vicinity wish them a long and happy wedded life.

This morning a quiet wedding occurred at St. Catherine's church, Father Sailer officiating when Miss Catherine Heimes and Henry L. Schwab were united in marriage in the presence of a small number of relatives and friends. Both of the young people are of this city and are very well known having scores of friends who wish them happiness and joy throughout their wedded life.

Minneapolis Journal, Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, Colfax avenue south, leave this morning for Valley City, N. D., to join their son, Arleigh Russell Miller, and their daughter, Mrs. Robert Bosard, of Minot, N. D., who will accompany them to Billings, Mont., for the marriage of Leslie Miller and Miss Harriet Rowley. The marriage of Miss Rowley and Mr. Miller takes place Tuesday evening in Billings, where Leslie Miller has lived for several years. Arleigh Miller will be his brother's best man.

Mrs. Fred Heidel returned to the city this morning from Atlanta, Georgia, where she attended the W. C. T. U. National Convention. From there Mrs. Heidel visited her old home at Peculiar, Mo., and attended a family reunion on Thanksgiving Day. Of six children five were present at the gathering, and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Conover of Fargo were also present. Mrs. Heidel also visited at Kansas City en route home, and she was absent from the city about three weeks.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1914.

Mrs. Matt Dreiss of Dazey, returned to her home today, after a several days visit in the city this week.

Mrs. Mary Yule of Rogers was a visitor in the city Saturday and while here was a guest at the home of Mrs. Herbert Weston. Mrs. Yule returned to Rogers Saturday evening.

The residents of Getchell Prairie enjoyed a Community Dinner on Thanksgiving Day at the Congregational church at Getchell. There were one hundred and twenty-five in attendance and a splendid time was reported.

Miss Georgia Henry was a passenger to Fargo this morning, where she will spend the remainder of the week, and visit at the home of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Henry. Miss Henry will return to the city Sunday evening.

Miss Eva Bailey of the Dry Goods Department at the John D. Gray store, and Miss Hattie Kelly of Dazey, who is attending the Terry Dressmaking school in the city spent Thanksgiving at Fairmount, N. D., and attended a dance given at that place yesterday evening. They returned to the city today.

Miss Clara Hyslop of the faculty of the city schools, was a passenger to Grand Forks Wednesday evening to visit with relatives, and spend the Thanksgiving vacation at her home. Miss Hyslop will return to the city on Sunday evening to resume her school work Monday morning.

Miss Mae Schmoll of Sanborn is a visitor in the city, and came down to spend Thanksgiving with relatives here.

Miss Ruth Myhre, who is teaching this year at Saint Cloud, Minn., was an arrival in the city Wednesday evening to attend the wedding of her sister, Miss Clara B. Myhre to Roger Lloyd of Minot.

Miss Delphy Sharp, who is a teacher in the Getchell High school, was a visitor in the city yesterday. Miss Sharp was enroute to Moorhead where she will spend the Thanksgiving vacation and week-end, visiting with friends at that place.

Bert Weston, who is the assistant principal in the Consolidated schools at Pillsbury, will arrive in the city evening, for a few days visit at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Weston.

The Rex management is making several improvements to their cozy little theatre. They will move the organ farther back and take out the stage thus making more seating room, in fact making room for about 75 to 100 seats more. This will greatly enlarge the theatre and be a paying proposition to the Rex.

State Land Commissioner Frank S. Henry of Bismarck, and his sister Miss Tess Henry, who is employed in the offices of her brother at Bismarck, were Valley City visitors to eat Thanksgiving dinner, with the other members of their family here. Frank returned to Bismarck this morning and Miss Henry will remain here for the week-end visit, and will return to Bismarck on Sunday evening.

Mr. Anton Koehn left Tuesday for Nome where he will visit for a week with relatives and friends.

Miss Ruby Farley of the faculty of the Valley City public schools, is visiting in Jamestown, and spending the Thanksgiving vacation at that point.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Hunter of Grand Forks arrived in the city Wednesday evening and spent Thanksgiving at the home of Frank Bailey on Helena Ave. They will return to Grand Forks this evening.

Earl McFadden of Neche, N. D., who is a student at the North Dakota State University at Grand Forks was a Valley City visitor on Wednesday evening, and was enroute to Wimbledon to spend Thanksgiving vacation with friends at that place.

Mrs. M. M. White and son of Getchell Prairie, were visitors in Valley City yesterday. They were enroute to Wimbledon, where they will visit at the home of Mrs. White's sister, Mrs. H. M. Stroud and family this week.

Mrs. W. G. Roche and daughter Marguerite, arrived in the city this morning for a brief visit with their husband and father, the genial express agent, W. J. Roche. Another daughter, Gertrude will arrive tonight. The family are expected to come here to make their home permanently sometime in the spring.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strong and children, Mr. James Thompson and Mr. J. B. Strong, autoed down from Jamestown Wednesday afternoon to spend Thanksgiving in the city, at the home of Mrs. Strong's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baillie and family on West Fifth street, returning to Jamestown yesterday evening.

O. J. Wick, assistant cashier of the First State Bank of Manning, N. D., was a visitor in the city last Wednesday afternoon visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Seymour entertained eight little girls Monday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Millicent's fourth birthday.

Phone Number 418 "THE FAIR" East Main Street VALLEY CITY'S ECONOMY STORE

SATURDAY SPECIALS

Galvanic Laundry Soap the famous washer, 9 bars for... easy 29c

William's Talcum Powder Regular 25 cent sprinkler top cans, Violet, Rose and Carnation 10c odors. Per can

Ladies' Fine Embroidered Handkerchiefs

Dainty embroidery work, new effect, in colored edgings and corner designs, values for which in some instances you would expect to pay three times the prices here quoted. As a special inducement for Saturday only. 7c Each

Real China Bread and Butter Plates

with dainty border designs. Fine transparent goods. A set of these will make make some one a fine Christmas present. Per set of six 39c

Genuine Star Cut Sugar and Cream Set medium size sugar and cream set, with genuine star cuttings, the real article at per set 25c

Our Display of Holiday Goods will soon be completed

Hand Painted China

Tastily decorated nippon china such as Bon Bons, Olive Trays, Bread and Butter Plates, Button Boxer, Pin Trays, mustards, afterdinner cups and saucers, sugars and creamers, salt and pepper shakers, all items you have often paid 25c for, special while assortment lasts. 10c

Bathrobes New line just received, material in gray, pink, blue and lavender shades, "American Lady" make. A sensible Christmas gift for somebody, each $2.69

Wholesalers' Sample of Ladies' Fine Hand Bags

New shapes in season's popular leathers, all bags in perfect condition, your choice at a discount of 33 1/3%

Fancy Ribbons of All Kinds

See our assortment before buying elsewhere. We are in position to save you money.

Turkish Towels

For crocheting and embroidery, newstock just arrived, our prices are 25c, 29c and 45c

AT OUR CANDY COUNTER

Peanut Butter Kisses - Each piece wrapped in oiled paper, lb 10c
Walnuts - Fine new crop, lb 19c