

THE CITY

MONDAY'S DAILY

MONDAY, JANUARY 25, 1915.

Judge Coffey left Saturday evening for Jamestown to spend Sunday, and left today for Fessenden to open court.

A. Hoveland of Fingal was a visitor in the city yesterday and was registered at the Kindred.

H. J. Siegfried of the Siegfried Pharmacy on Fifth Avenue, was a passenger to the Twin Cities yesterday afternoon, where he went to spend a few days this week, and attend to matters of business.

Walter Thompson of Fargo, the expert accountant, who has been spending the past week in Valley City, and working on the books and accounts of the North Dakota Mutual Fire Insurance company, left for his home at Fargo on Saturday afternoon.

Miss Isabel Chase of Walker, Minnesota, who has been visiting in the city, and spending Sunday as the guest of her friend, Miss Emma von Domarus, will conclude her visit in the city today. She leaves this evening for her home at Walker.

Miss Fannie Amidon of the State Normal school faculty was a passenger to Oriska this morning, where she went to spend the day. Miss Amidon went to visit the Oriska schools, and teach music in connection with the Music Extension work of the State Normal school. Miss Amidon will return to the city this evening.

The friends of Professor and Mrs. Clarence Henry, formerly of this city, will be interested to learn that a little daughter arrived at their home last week. Professor Henry was a former teacher in the agricultural department at the State Normal school, and the family are now residing at Fort Wayne Indiana.

The annual meeting of the North Dakota Mutual Fire Insurance Company will take place in Valley City at the local offices of that company tomorrow, Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. There will be election of officers, and the directors of the company as well as members from different parts of the state will be in attendance at the meeting tomorrow. The adoption of a new constitution and by-laws, as well as other business will be transacted.

The dancing party given on Saturday evening by the members of the Traveling Mens' Association, was one of the most enjoyable of their winter parties. The party was given in the Odd Fellows hall on Main street, and there was a splendid crowd in attendance, about eighty being present. It was "Guest Night," each member of the association inviting a guest, and dancing was continued until midnight, when supper was served. The next party given by the members of the association will be given two weeks from Saturday evening.

C. W. Schien, who has charge of a moving picture house at Jamestown, spent Sunday in Valley City, returning to Jamestown this morning.

H. Seymour, W. A. Galloway and Lester Michael of Tower City are representatives from that point in town today, and are stopping at the Hotel Kindred while here.

Miss Bertie Thorkelson left last evening for Fergus Falls, Minnesota after spending the past month visiting in Valley City, visiting at the home of her brother A. C. Thorkelson, on Seventh Avenue.

Dr. and Mrs. Gabriel of Enderlin were arrivals in the city on Saturday evening, and spent Sunday here at the home of Mrs. Gabriel's sister, Mrs. Paul Featherstone in the Sheyenne apartments. They returned to Enderlin this morning.

The members of the Woman's Club met this afternoon for their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. A. S. Sigurdson in the Sheyenne Apartments. The subject under discussion this afternoon was "Happenings in the World of Literature and Science," and this was followed by the Roll Call which was responded to by Current Events.

Mrs. H. C. Dwight leaves today for Lisbon, where she will spend a week or more at the home of her sister, Mrs. T. G. Patterson, who resides at that point.

TUESDAY'S DAILY

TUESDAY, JANUARY 26, 1915.

A chemical engine has been added to the fire department at Westby.

Hon. K. S. Ramsell of Fingal is in the city today and is attending to matters of business here.

R. B. Cox of Wibleton was a Valley City caller yesterday attending to matters of business here.

County Superintendent of Schools, Miss Minnie J. Nielson, was a passenger to Fingal this morning, where she is spending the day and visiting schools.

Mrs. Mary Yule came down from Rogers yesterday and was a visitor until this morning at the home of her sister Mrs. Herbert Weston. Mrs.

Yule left on No. 7 this morning for Tappen, N. D., where she will make a weeks' visit at the home of her son.

Ben Sad of Dazey was an arrival in the city on Friday evening, and has been spending several days here as a visitor at the home of his uncle John Sad. He will return to his home at Dazey today.

Last evening the K. W. S. club met at the home of Anna K. Cook. The greater part of the evening was spent in doing fancy work after which the hostess entertained the members with a number of Victrola selections. A delightful luncheon was served at the close of the evening's entertainment.

Oscar Jacobson, assistant cashier of the Dazey State Bank, of Dazey, was an arrival in the city last evening, and is spending today here. Mr. Jacobson is a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bailey on Fourth Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Moore have had as their guest at their home on Woodlawn Avenue the past several days, Henry Franzen of Anamoose, who was an arrival in the city last week. Mr. Franzen returned to Anamoose last evening.

The members of the Domestic Club held an enjoyable meeting on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. E. Moore at 812 Woodland Avenue. The program prepared was an especially good one, and Mrs. George Kelsey read an interesting paper on "Fore Handed Housekeeping." The Roll Call was responded to with suggestions on "Removing Stains. The next meeting of the club will be held next Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. C. E. Burgess at 414 First Ave.

Friends in Valley City of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Yule of Tappen, N. D., will be interested to learn of the arrival of a boy at their home yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Yule are well known here and formerly resided at Rogers.

About 20 Tower City Odd Fellows came to Valley City last evening and visited the local lodge. All three degrees were conferred during the evening and at midnight a big lunch was served. About 50 were present and local members report an enjoyable evening as well as a profitable session.

A number of the faculty of the Valley City State Normal who responded to the suggestion made in a recent faculty meeting met last night for organization and discussion of current pedagogical problems. If other names are submitted a second group will be organized as it is the plan to keep the groups small enough so intensive work may be done.

Dr. A. C. Macdonald of Fingal spent Sunday in Valley City visiting with his brother N. C. Macdonald and Mrs. Macdonald who are at present residing at the Hotel Rudolf. The doctor returned to Fingal Sunday evening.

Miss Hulda Hanson left this morning for Cheney, Washington, after spending the past fall and winter months at the home of Mrs. Charles Hollinshead in the city. Miss Hanson expects to remain in Washington for several months visiting with a sister.

Mrs. Spear of Nome, the wife of Dr. Spear, is a visitor in Valley City, and has been here as a guest of Miss Madge Canning, at the Riverside Hospital.

J. J. Early of the Bank of Valley City, will leave tomorrow for an extended trip east. Mr. Early will first go to Boston, Mass., where he will meet Mrs. Early, who has been visiting in Massachusetts for a few weeks, and they will go on to New York, where they will take the boat for Cuba. Mr. Early expects to be absent from his duties at the bank for the next six weeks or more, and is planning for an enjoyable trip and vacation.

John Kretchmer came up from Oriska yesterday and spent the day in Valley City attending to matters of business, returning to his home last night. Mr. Kretchmer was stopping at the Rudolf while here.

WEDNESDAY'S DAILY

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1915.

Mrs. F. W. Kulewatz has returned to her home at Jamestown, after a short visit and over Sunday stay here at the home of her sister Mrs. Kirk Taber on Tenth Avenue.

J. B. Johnson of the dry goods department at the John D. Gray store, left last evening for the Twin Cities on matters of business.

J. J. Early of the Bank of Valley City leaves this afternoon for an extended trip east, visiting Boston and New York, and from there sailing for Cuba. Mr. Early will meet Mrs. Early in Massachusetts.

Miss Emma Carlson left yesterday on No. 7 for Sanborn, where she will visit with Mrs. Ray Swartout, who resides south of Sanborn.

Mrs. Robert Bailey will go up to Dazey tomorrow morning, where she will spend the day and attend the wedding of Miss Gladys Kelly and Oscar Jacobson tomorrow afternoon.

The annual business meeting of Our Savior's Lutheran church will be held in the church basement tomorrow (Thursday) evening, Jan. 28, at 8 o'clock. The presence of all voting members is requested. C. G. Naeseth. Mrs. Arthur Blum underwent an operation today at the Riverside hospital, in this city.

Supper will be served in the Baptist church Thursday evening of this week. All welcome. Admission 25c.

The Lincoln school faculty entertained in a jolly manner last evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Zabel on Tracy Avenue. The affair was complimentary to Miss Mary Hudson and was in the nature of a surprise.

Senator Thorson arrived in town this morning on his way home from Bismarck for the vacation voted on Monday by the legislators. He expressed himself as well pleased with the work done so far and is inclined to think that the session will be able to accomplish real good. His bill No. 77 providing for the taxation of all taxable land to create a hail insurance fund, is meeting some opposition from the western part of the state where the larger transient holding are but he is hopeful even at that that the bill may become a law.

The Young Ladies Branch of the M. E. Ladies' Aid will meet with Mrs. S. A. Zimmerman at her home on Euclid Ave., Friday evening at 7:30. This is the first meeting of this organization and any young ladies who wish to affiliate with this work are urged to be present.

Miss Gladys Kelly of Dazey was an arrival in the city on Monday evening and spent yesterday here as a guest at the R. H. Bailey home on North Fourth Avenue. Valley City friends of Miss Kelly will be interested to learn of her wedding tomorrow to Oscar Jacobson, who is the assistant cashier of the Dazey State Bank. The wedding will take place at the home of Miss Kelly's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly, and following the ceremony the couple will leave for Minneapolis, from there going on to Wyndom, Minnesota for a visit with relatives. The young couple will be at home to their many friends at Dazey after February 10th. Congratulations are extended to them.

Officer Fred King is confined to his home as a result of falling on a slippery sidewalk Sunday evening. He sustained a severe strain that may lay him up for a couple of weeks. During his indisposition Tom Leine is taking his place.

John D. Gray of the Gray Department store was a passenger for the east last evening. Mr. Gray will visit the Twin Cities, and from there will go on to Chicago going east on a purchasing trip. He will buy spring goods for the big Fifth Avenue store, and also attend to other matters of business while gone, returning home in about ten days.

FRIDAY'S DAILY

FRIDAY, JANUARY 22, 1915.

Miss Louise Gruenfelder left this morning for Valley City, where she will attend the Normal again after having been home for a few days recovering from injuries received in a coasting accident.—Jamestown Capital.

Mrs. Amasa P. Peake, who spent several days in St. Paul last week, returned home on Tuesday morning. Colonel Peake who is in the Twin Cities looking after matters of business, will return home about February first.

Mrs. Carl Myhre has as her guest this week at her home on North Fourth Avenue, Miss Mayme Brady of Fargo. Miss Brady came up from Fargo on Monday, and after spending several days here will return to the Gate City tomorrow morning.

Mrs. A. P. Paulson was a delightful hostess last evening to the members of the Bridge club at her residence on North Fourth Avenue. The evening was spent playing bridge whist, and Mrs. I. Wold was favored with a prize for having the highest score. At the close of the games, Mrs. Paulson served a dainty lunch, eight guests being present. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. L. S. Ward, on West Fifth street.

Farmers living in the vicinity of New England have organized a rural telephone company to connect with the local exchange.

Thomas Van Steenberg and George O. Goulette are representatives from Oriska, who are calling in Valley City today, and are attending to matters of business here.

The Lincoln school faculty are entertaining at dinner this evening at the Kindred Hotel in honor of the Misses Emma Carlson and Alvina Englebritson. Covers are laid for 12.

Professor A. P. Hollis, who came up from Fargo yesterday morning to give an illustrated lecture at the Congregational church last evening, left for his home at Fargo this morning, to resume his work as instructor at the Agricultural College.

St. Catherine's Altar Society held its annual election of officers with the following result: President, Mrs. N. E. Greenwood; vice president, Mrs. John Pasmel; treasurer, Mrs. John Holzmann; secretary, Mrs. H. I. Personiun. The year's report showed splendidly, with a neat net balance of

It Pays to Use
McCall
Patterns
10c and 15c

CHAFFEE'S

The Only Exclusive Dry Goods Store in Valley City

We Have a Splendid Line of Infants' Shoes

A New Line of Spring Waists at $1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 & $3.00

TWO new shipments just received gives us a splendid showing at these prices. They come in a big range of new styles in checks, stripes and plain cloths in a big variety of new materials. You will enjoy seeing them even tho you are not ready to buy. We invite you to come in and see these pretty new Waists at

$1.00, $1.50, $2.00, $2.50 & $3.00

Another Lot of New Neckwear Just Received

Extra Good Values in Skirts at $5.00

THE success of our Store depends largely on our ability to supply our Customers with the goods they want and at right prices. For this reason we have made a special effort to give you the best possible values in Skirts at..... $5.00 They come in all sizes and in a big variety of styles and colors and are very exceptional values at the price.

A Handsome New Line of Kimonas at $1.50 & $1.95

over $200 for the coming year.

Rollin Jaberg returned to his home at Sanborn this morning, after spending the past week in Valley City visiting with his friend Bob Menke.

Mrs. Matilda Bonhus returned to the city on Monday from Atwater, Minnesota, where she has been spending the past several weeks as a guest at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Morlie. Mrs. Bonhus left for Minnesota before the holidays and has been absent from the city about a month.

Mrs. M. M. Walsh left on Monday evening for Panama, California, where she will spend the remainder of the winter, and make an extended visit at the home of Mrs. F. E. Runyon, who will be remembered here as Miss Ethel Macdonald. Mrs. Walsh is an aunt of Dr. Macdonald, and has been making her home in Valley City.

J. P. Reid, of Grand Forks, who is doing inspection work for the North Dakota state mutual insurance companies, visited in the city last evening and remained here until today, leaving this morning on No. 7 for Bismarck. Mr. Reid also called on the local office while here.

The Misses Hattie and Gladys Kelly of Dazey were visitors in Valley City the first of the week, and spent Monday and Tuesday here, they were guests at the home of Mrs. R. H. Bailey on Fourth Avenue, and returned to Dazey on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Jensen have as their guest at their home on Eighth Avenue North, Miss Lillie Jensen of Humboldt, Iowa, who was an arrival in Valley City on Wednesday morning. Miss Jensen will make an indefinite visit here at the home of her brother.

Arthur Knight wanted in Fargo for embezzlement and who jumped his bond last Wednesday besides having a wife and three children in Fargo has also a wife at Louisville, Ky. A charge of bigamy will be placed against the man if he comes back to North Dakota.

Robert Hendrickson of Fargo, crazed with liquor shot and killed his young wife on Thursday afternoon and then tried to kill himself. He did a bungling job and inflicted a wound just above his heart from which it is thought he will recover. By his deed a little two year old boy is left motherless and his father faces a charge of first degree murder.

A stranger entered the church in the middle of the sermon and seated himself in the back pew. After a while he began to fidget. Leaning over to the white-haired man at his side evidently an old member of the congregation, he whispered: "How long has he been preaching?" "Thirty or forty years, I think," the old man answered. "I'll stay, then," decided the stranger. "He must be nearly done."

Ed Mason came in from Bismarck on Tuesday and is spending a few days in Valley City at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Mason, on Fourth Avenue.

MANSFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kee were visitors at the McLees home last Thursday.

Mr. Thompson of Ypsilanti is visiting Jos Hinchberger this week. Milford Olson was an over Sunday visitor with Will Campbell.

James McLees, who is attending school in Valley City, spent Sunday at home.

M. Murphy left last week for an extended visit with relatives, at different points in Wisconsin.

Miss Alice Tabbert is recovering from a rather serious attack of the measles.

Wm. Jones and Geo. Tvevdt went to St. Paul Monday with two car load of stock.

Frank Stillings will entertain his friends at a social dance Friday evening.

Simon Hirschberger is visiting in Kennedy, Minn., at the home of his brother-in-law Mr. Keating.

Wiss Campbell was a business visitor in Valley City Wednesday.

The young people of the neighborhood enjoyed a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kee last Friday evening.

DAZEY.

The High school and a few friends were royally entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hansen the latter part of the week.

J. B. Shearer was a business visitor in Valley City Monday.

Miss Zitzow has gone to Perham, Minnesota to spend a few weeks with relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. E. Jacobson and daughter Estrid spent Thursday with friends in Cooperstown.

Several sleigh loads of town people went out to Mr. Bender's home for a social evening Saturday night.

The Farmers' Club and Ladies' Auxiliary will meet next with George Rasmussen.

There was a linen shower by Misses Colville and Tooley for Gladys Kelly, a bride in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lausch entertained the Epworth League and friends last week. An enjoyable time was had by all who were present.

DAZEY.

Mrs. Laing of Courtenay was over to assist the Rebekahs initiate new members.

Mr. Conlon of Eckelson, one of the county commissioners was in Dazey on business Monday.

Mrs. McBride was a Hannaford visitor the latter part of the week, having dental work done.

Ralph Jones has returned from Salida, California, where he took his father's body for burial.

Bert McInnis has been in Minneapolis several days on business.

C. O. Jacobson and Gladys Kelly were in Valley City Tuesday for a pleasure trip.

There is to be considerable building at Kildeer in the spring.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS

Ritchie School.

Mrs. F. Burleson visited the B First grade on Wednesday afternoon. Miss Harrison visited the First grades on Monday morning.

Lincoln School.

The regular meeting of the Parents-Teachers' Circle will be postponed from Tuesday to Thursday, at 4:00 o'clock.

A very interesting basket ball game was played at the Armory last week between the Lincoln and the Ritchie teams. The score being 10 to 16 in favor of the latter.

The teachers of the Lincoln school—past and present—entertained very delightfully at a dinner party at the Hotel Kindred on Saturday evening in honor of Miss Carlson and Miss Engebretson. The table was decorated with vases of flowers and covers were laid for twelve. The young ladies after a merry time at dinner all adjourned to the basket ball game in the Armory.

Little Will—"Say, papa, what is the ruler of Russia called?"

Papa—"He is sometimes called the czar."

Little Will—"Then would it be proper to call his kids czardines?"

To any family in Valley City who is not now a subscriber to the Evening Times Record the paper will be week. Contains everything that's delivered free of all charges for one news.

ENGLISH LUTHERAN SERVICES.

English Lutheran services will be conducted in the Norwegian Synodical church next Sunday at 3:30 p. m. Ernest A. Martell, Pastor.

Jumping from Fort Peck reservation in Montana to Standing Rock reservation in North Dakota, two or three times stealing horses and other chattel, Joe Gow, a Sioux Indian has been arrested at Fort Yates and found guilty of grand larceny. He will be taken to Leavenworth prison.

The House evidently reconsidered the economy matter when they took the week's recess.

COLUMBUS, OHIO BANKERS END MORSE WILSON'S EMBARGO.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 28.—(Special to Times Record.)—The bankers in convention here today passed resolutions favoring President Wilson on his embargo on exportation of wheat to warring nations.

NATIONAL TREASURY SHORT $70,000 DISCLOSED TO CONGRESS.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—(Special to Times Record.)—Congressional investigation discloses a shortage today of $70,000 thus far this fiscal year as compared with $19,000 this time last year.