

THE CITY

MONDAY'S DAILY

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1915.

The county commissioners are in session today and are attending to the regular routine of business. Among the commissioners from out of town who are here for the monthly meeting are R. B. Cox, of Wimbledon; Thomas Gudmestad, of Litchville; Henry Lee, of Fingal, and Martin Conlon, of Eckelson.

Rev. Willard Crosby Lyon, of the Congregational church, was at Fargo yesterday, where he supplied the pulpit in the Presbyterian church. During his absence Mr. E. P. Getchell spoke at the morning service in the Congregational church, and Professor Finney, of the State Normal School, spoke at the evening service. Rev. Lyon was accompanied to Fargo by his little daughter, Laura, and they returned home this morning.

Mrs. Herman Stern leaves today for Casselton, where she will spend a couple of days this week and visit at the M. C. Strauss home.

W. E. Bush, who teaches at Daily, was a Valley City visitor over Sunday and visited at the home of his son, Steve Bush.

Mr. Perry C. Pederson and daughter Enid left for Valley City Monday to visit Mrs. Pederson, who is confined at the hospital there. They returned yesterday.

S. Harrison, of Knox, arrived in Valley City Saturday evening and spent Sunday here with his daughter, Miss Marie, who is a student at the Normal. He is leaving for home tonight.

Ed Briggs was not feeling exactly right yesterday and was taken to the Riverside hospital last evening, where he is undergoing treatment. His condition is improved today and no serious trouble is anticipated.

E. R. Orchard, of Fargo, deputy state bank examiner, returned home Saturday after twelve days spent here checking up the offices of city treasurer and city auditor, which offices it is needless to say he found in excellent condition.

Rev. Getchell, editor of the Patriot, filled the Congregational pulpit yesterday morning and delivered a splendid sermon. Rev. Getchell is a good speaker, an earnest worker and is making many friends in Valley City who appreciate his worth as a citizen and public man.

Master James Coop entertained a number of his little friends on Saturday afternoon at his home on West Fifth street. The occasion was his sixth birthday anniversary and six boys and six girls were invited to spend the afternoon. Games were played and a number of enjoyable amusements provided from 3 until 6 o'clock. At 6 o'clock a birthday supper was served. Pink was the predominating color in the dining room, and there was a birthday cake with six candles. Each guest was also given an individual cake with a candle on it.

Miss Ethel Sorgenfrei, who has been quite ill at her home for the past week, suffering from heart trouble, is rapidly improving.

Mrs. Erwin Lavery was hostess at a pleasant party on Saturday evening at her residence on Tenth avenue. There were about 25 neighbors and friends who attended, and the evening was spent at cards and dancing. At a late hour, and following the card games, the hostess served a sumptuous supper.

Robert Anderson left on Thursday for Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he will spend several weeks for the benefit of his health.

Otto Langer, of Sanborn, was a visitor in the city today, and was here between trains.

Mr. and Mrs. John Neustaedter are the happy parents of a baby daughter, born on Friday, and their many friends are extending congratulations on the event of the new arrival.

Colonel Peake returned to the city on Saturday evening from St. Paul, where he has been spending the past four weeks attending to matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ladbury, of Dazey, were arrivals in the city this morning and came in from Fargo. While here they are visiting at the home of Mrs. Ladbury's mother, Mrs. H. B. Thomas, at her home on Ninth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Coddling returned to Hannaford this morning, after spending the past few days in the city and visiting over Sunday at the home of Mr. Coddling's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Coddling, on Normal avenue.

Miss Beatrice Sorem left on No. 4 yesterday for Chicago, where she will take up the study of art at the Art Institute of that city. She will remain there for the rest of the year.

The Misses Carrie Green and Mae Schmooll, who teach in the Sanborn schools, left yesterday for Sanborn after spending the week end at the homes of their parents in this city.

The Child Welfare Club will hold its meeting on Thursday, Feb. 4, instead of Friday, on account of the K. P. minstrel show which will be given that evening. At that time it will meet at the home of Mrs. K. A. Bonhus.

President E. P. Robertson of Wesley College, Grand Forks, arrived in the city last Saturday evening and spent Sunday in the city, the guest at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. E. Hunt. He occupied the pulpit of the Methodist church yesterday morning, it being a pleasant surprise to his many friends in the city to listen to one of his excellent sermons. He will leave this evening for Grand Forks.

Harvey Taylor left this morning for Kensal where he attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Walters and child which took place this afternoon.

Senator C. F. Mudgett returned to Bismarck this morning to resume his work at the state legislature, after a week's recess. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mudgett, who will make a visit at the capital city.

Mrs. Edith Coulter of Battleford, Sask., Canada, arrived in the city this morning and is spending the day visiting with her sister, Mrs. M. Halferty, who is attending the Normal here. She is on her way to Rochester, and will leave for that city this evening.

The police recovered booty amounting to over $150 stolen from the H. Solow jewelry and pawn shop at Grand Forks. The stolen property was returned to Solow with the exception of two revolvers which are missing. Two suit cases in which the stuff was placed were also recovered.

Bert Farnsworth of Flasher, is charged with shooting and killing five horses that got into his property and were helping themselves to some hay.

TUESDAY'S DAILY

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1915.

Miss Clara Stenshoel has returned to the city from points in Minnesota, where she had been spending a couple of weeks visiting with friends.

E. R. Bradley, of Grace City, was a visitor in the city yesterday and attended the "vodvil" performance given by the Normal faculty last evening.

Merrill Carlton and Dwight Carlton, of Oriska, were Valley City visitors yesterday, and spent the day here, returning to Oriska last evening.

A. J. Wright, of Moorhead, Minn., was a visitor in Valley City yesterday and was here on business connected with the Chautauqua Association. Mr. Wright returned to Moorhead last evening.

Hon. Frank E. Ployhar left this morning for Bismarck after spending the past week in Valley City with his family at the Hotel Rudolf.

The members of the Birthday Club met last evening at the home of Mrs. Chas. K. Otto at the Sheyenne Apartments. There was a good attendance of members and the evening was spent at playing "500". Mrs. Otto served a dainty lunch following the games.

On Saturday afternoon Mrs. T. S. Henry entertained a few friends informally at her apartments in the Sheyenne Flats. A group of ladies played at two tables of five hundred, after which a dainty lunch was served from the card tables.

The members of the P. E. O. Chapter held a delightful and interesting meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. W. L. Witter on North Fifth Avenue. Owing to the fact of the Vodvil performance at the Normal school, there was a good attendance. The birthdays of Longfellow and Lowell were observed, and poems and familiar quotations of these famous poets were given. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening's program. The next meeting of the P. E. O. Chapter will be held two weeks from last evening, at the residence of Mrs. D. S. Ritchie, at 714 Fifth Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bailey entertained a few friends at dinner last evening at their home on Third Avenue. Covers were placed for ten, and S. Berglund of Fairmount was an out of town guest.

Miss Bertha Paul will conclude her visit in the city today, and leaves this evening for her home at Buffalo. Miss Paul has been a guest at the home of Miss Chambard the past several days, at the Chambard home on West Fifth street.

Mrs. Julius B. Meyer returned to the city yesterday morning from an extended visit at points east, where she has been spending the past three months or more.

Mrs. W. D. Jeffrey received the sad news on Sunday of the death of a brother-in-law, W. L. Harry, who resides at Champaign, Illinois. Mr. Harry's death was not entirely unexpected, as he had been ill for some time past. Mrs. Harry is the sister of Mrs. Jeffrey.

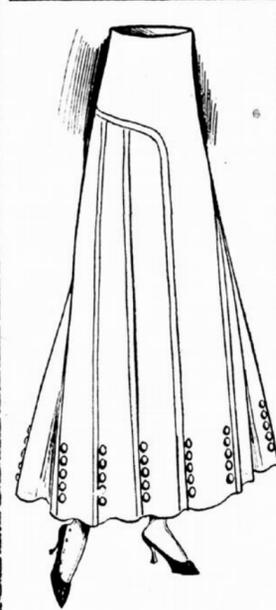

Frank White was a passenger to Bismarck this morning where he will spend a couple of days this week. He will look after the interests of the Middlewest Loan and Trust Company while gone, and will attend to matters of business.

Joe Schroeder of the Sam Gill store is alone in the management of the Sam Gill store this week while Mr. Agnes Rutke will remain here until Gill is on his way to New York. The re-arrangement of the goods and decorating the big store gives Joe a good chance to display his artistic taste that he is taking full advantage of.

Another lot of Crepe Waists just in $2.50 to $5.50	CHAFFEE'S Finest Line of Silks in Valley City	An entirely new line of Lawn Waists $1.00 & $1.50
--	---	---

New Garments For Spring

You will surely be delighted with the new Spring Styles no matter whether it is in Skirts, Dresses, Suits or Coats because they are so very becoming—not the freakish styles which have been shown in part years, but neat and refined styles which every women admires and will be glad to wear.

The new Spring Skirts are somewhat fuller, giving plenty of room to walk with perfect freedom—plated Skirts are much in evidence and are shown in a big range of widths—a good many yokes are being shown and the circular effect is also very popular. These new models come in a good range of colors, sizes and materials and are selling at

$7.50, $10.00 and $12.00

We are also showing some very exceptional values in Skirts made in all wool serge and in fancy materials at

$3.75 and $5.00

New Spring Suits

Have begun to arrive—five shipments so far this week and some coming in almost every day. Come in and see them.

$15, $20 & $25

Eventually you will wear

Why not now? A splendid line of models at $2, $3.50, $5 and $6.50

New Wash Goods

Are selling very freely—the patterns and colorings are especially nice and you will be defighted with the ones we are selling at

19c and 29c

At Sacrifice Prices Every Fur and Fur-Lined Overcoat

To close out quickly all Fur Garments we have marked every one at cost or under, mostly under cost. Heretofore you may have considered fur or fur-lined coats too expensive, though you had wanted one badly. This is a chance to get coats of highest quality for less than you would usually have to pay to cheaper grades.

Muskrat Lined and Persian Civet Lined Coats,

Raccoon Overcoats

Patagonian Bison Coats

Russian Calf Coat

Each and Every One of Them at Cost or Less

Some Spring Hats are now here. Come in and see the new styles, try a few on.

Our shoe department is loaded with New Spring Shoes. We're glad to show them. Come and look them over.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Nearing, Jan. 28, a baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Hub Yule left yesterday on No. 3 for their home at Woodworth, N. D. Mr. and Mrs. Yule came to Valley City to attend the funeral of Alex McFaden, and have been visiting relatives here and at Rogers since that time.

The members of the Auxiliary Guild of the Congregational church will meet next Monday afternoon, instead of tomorrow, Wednesday, their regular meeting day. On Monday afternoon at the usual hour the members of the auxiliary will be entertained by Miss Amidon, Miss Jessie Duncan and Miss Carrie Dean, at the Kindred Hotel.

Sid Berglund of Fairmount, N. D., was an arrival in the city last evening. Mr. Berglund came down from Dazey where he attended the Kelly-Jacobson wedding last week. He was en route to Fairmount, and left for that place this morning. While in Valley City Mr. Berglund was a guest at the R. H. Bailey home.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1915. Signs of spring were evidenced this morning, by the display of strawberries in Stern Brothers window, on Main street. The strawberries were the first in town this season, and were Florida berries, selling for sixty cents a box.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clark entertained last evening a group of relatives at their home on Elmwood avenue. It was the birthday anniversary of Mr. Clark and following a sumptuous dinner served at half past six o'clock the evening was spent at games and a social time. Those who were present included the members of the D. W. Clark and L. P. Clark families.

J. E. Jones, of the offices of the Middlewest Loan & Trust Company, returned to city yesterday from points in Iowa, where he has been spending the past fortnight or more. Mr. Jones visited at Des Moines and Shell Rock, Iowa, where he was the guest of relatives. He reports a pleasant vacation, and was back at his work in the Middlewest offices this morning. Mrs. Jones did not return, but will remain in Des Moines for a two weeks' longer visit.

C. A. Newman, the energetic farmer from near Oriska, was a caller in Valley City yesterday. Mr. Newman spent the day here and transacted matters of business.

Miss Ruth Andreason was a visitor at Oriska yesterday, where she went to spend the day, and sing at the Community Social held at the Oriska school yesterday.

Charles Peterson of Leal was a caller in the city yesterday and spent the day here, being registered at the Hotel Kindred.

Clair L. Coddling, accompanied by Mrs. Coddling, were arrivals in Valley City last evening from Hannaford, and will spend Sunday here at the T. L. Coddling home, returning to Hannaford on Monday morning. Mr. Coddling is principal in the Hannaford schools.

To any family in Valley City who is not now a subscriber to the Evening Times Record the paper will be week. Contains everything that's delivered free of all charges for one news.

Times-Record Want Ads bring results

HIDES TANNED FOR $3 A PIECE

We have been tanning at St. Paul for 22 years, and have a large modern plant with a big force of skilled workmen. We are making

SPECIAL PRICES:
Horse and Cow hides, large, tanned soft and nice.....$3.00
Smaller Hides, under 35 lbs., (called kips).....$2.00
We tan everything, make up Fur Robes, Coats and Gloves. Ask for BIG SPECIAL PRICE LIST, instructions and free shipping tags.

North Star Fur Dressing & Dyeing Works
129 Front St. Dept. G St. Paul, Minn.