

County Correspondence

MARSH TOWNSHIP.

Late for last week

Mr. Wyttenbach, who contracted to move the court house barn for Mr. Stenshoel, pulled onto the farm with it last Tuesday. Mr. Wyttenbach also moved Mr. Stenshoel's farm residence to a more desirable location near the woods along the river. Mr. Stenshoel and family will move onto the farm early in April. We are all glad to have them back with us again.

Last Tuesday we had our first rain and the snow will soon have to go. The ground should be in fine shape for spring work this year.

Willie Fagerstrom and John Gartland are decorating the interior of the King school house with a fresh coat of paint. The building has also been reshunged and other improvements are planned so that our District 3 school will be one of the best.

Township election was held at the King school house Dist 3, on Tuesday of last week.

School opens in the King school Dist 3, April 5.

Charles and Willie Fagerstrom and Andrew Benson called at the Gartland home Sunday evening.

John Benson bought a team of horses at the Martin Wold auction sale.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Waltenbaugh returned from a visit to Iowa where Mrs. Waltenbaugh spent the winter with her parents, her husband going there to meet her.

STEWART

From Sanborn Enterprise

News is a little scarce this week, the bad weather keeping nearly every body at home.

Fred Tabbert of Clark City called on his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rohde last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dotting were at Sanborn Saturday.

George Cassatt bought a corn planter at the Barnick sale in Sanborn Saturday. We expect George will now plant his corn on the square.

The Hunter boys called at the Menke home last Wednesday night.

O. R. Thornberg bought a fine colt at the Barnick sale which was held in Sanborn last Saturday.

Val Potter was a Sanborn visitor one day this week.

J. H. Miller says he has his seed grain all cleaned and is ready for business.

The vote in Stewart township for supervisor was a tie, Will Rohde and Jake Shafer each receiving 14 votes, with one vote in doubt, the voter not having made clear for whom he wished to vote. At the meeting it was decided to take the old plan and have four road overseers.

M. S. Stinson attended the Barnick sale Saturday.

We saw our first gopher of the season Sunday, March 1.

Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Stinson were pleasant callers at C. H. Hunter's Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Vandrovac and Frank Vandrovac were Sunday visitors at the Peter Clancy home.

BRIMER

From Sanborn Enterprise

Many of the young people of Brimer township attended the dance at Walter Haskins' Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Henderson and Dan Henderson and daughter, Alice were guests at the John Henderson home Sunday.

Norman Henderson was a Valley City caller last Tuesday.

Roy Siverson has been helping Jas. Brimer for the past few days but has returned to his home in Sanborn.

Miss Cora Halverson called at the Dan Henderson home Wednesday evening.

James Brimer and Rutledge Kane attended the sale of Hamilton Reed of Courtenay Saturday.

Johnny Henderson is preparing to ship his car to Canada. He will probably leave by Wednesday. His many friends wish him good luck on his journey and a prosperous life during his absence from the good old U. S. A.

A few of the young people of this community gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Henderson Friday evening. The party was a surprise and all enjoyed themselves.

Miss Annie Henderson spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson.

Mrs. Asora Halverson returned to her home this morning from Valley

City. She will remain on the farm to superintend the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Larson of Kathryn came to Leal Wednesday morning. They are to be in the employ of Mrs. Asora Halverson during the summer.

Norman Henderson was a caller at the Halverson home Thursday evening.

Dan Henderson called at the James Brimer home Monday.

The next meeting of the Brimer Social club will be held on March 27.

Miss Ida Klein visited at the Harry Didier place Saturday.

Alex Green, Ben Highmornich and Charlie Pross visited at the Herman Klein home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Willson visited at the John Davidson home Sunday evening.

KATHRYN

(From Kathryn Recorder.)

Mrs. O. Halverson and daughter Helen and little Miss Pederson returned Saturday from their Valley City sojourn. They were accompanied by Miss Hanna Halverson and another lady.

Chas. Olson met with what might have been quite a serious accident Saturday evening. While descending the stairway from his residence his foot slipped, and the stairs being open back, he became entangled, and if it had not been for Mr. P. P. Reitan, who was descending with him, he undoubtedly, would have had a broken leg, as it is it causes him to limp some.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Larson left Monday afternoon for Sanborn, where he has a situation on a farm near there.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Fjeld and family arrived Thursday from Hemet, California, where they have made their home for about two years.

Oscar Hofas, of Moosebank, Sask., Canada arrived Tuesday from Fargo, where he had been for about three weeks. He will visit with the home folks a few days before returning to Canada.

The town board convened Tuesday afternoon and transacted business. John C. Thoreson was elected chairman.

HASTINGS

(From Hastings Times.)

The school gave an interesting play "A Case of Suspension" to a good sized audience on Saturday evening. The proceeds will go towards the school fund.

Rev. Holen, of Kathryn delivered a lecture in the church on Friday evening. A large number of the town people as well as a few from the country attended.

Math Ahler was up from Moorhead between trains on Saturday to attend to the selling of his grain which is stored in one of the local elevators.

Mmes. Euger and McFarlane and Miss Hilda Froid entertained a few of their friends Sunday evening at the Enger home, in honor of Miss Winnifred Layden, the local High school teacher, who finished her term of school on Friday. The participants report an enjoyable evening.

It is practically decided that S. L. Reiten will erect a parsonage as soon as the excavation can begin. This will be a big improvement for the congregation and for this village.

The railroad repairing crew has been here the past week lowering the loading platform so as to be used for unloading as well as loading. They also placed a new platform in around the depot as the old one was entirely decayed underneath.

Mrs. Ellef Falstad is reported to have been seriously ill from pneumonia, but is now greatly improved.

Lars Knudson, of Nome, and his little son were here between trains on Thursday and visited at the S. L. Reten farm home.

ECKELSON.

From Sanborn Enterprise

Mrs. Gleason spent Sunday in Jamestown.

The result of the election in Eckelson township is as follows: Supervisor, three years, C. A. Jones; justice of the peace, Riley Sloan; constable, J. T. O'Day. A six mill road tax was levied. Two hundred dollars were Joe Heery returned home Tuesday from a visit with friends in Iowa.

Rev. Atkinson will conduct services in the Congregational church Sunday voted for the general fund.

Miss Erickson spent Saturday and Sunday in Valley City.

Dan Harshman visited in Valley City Wednesday.

Ed. Jansen spent Sunday in Valley City.

All are invited.

Mrs. B. Scouten and son, Charles, drove to Sanborn Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher of Jamestown visited with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. McLain last Sunday.

A very pleasant surprise party was tendered Mr. and Mrs. J. J. O'Day last Friday night. The evening was spent in playing cards and all report a pleasant time.

BEREA NOTES.

One evening last week a number of young people enjoyed a skating party on a large pond near the Christ Nelson place.

Miss Marie Kramer is assisting Mrs. J. D. Kramer with the house work.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Monson on Friday, March 19. Mr. Monson is a telegraph operator at Berea.

Matt Lindorf is at present ill with an attack of la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wilson entertained a number of friends at a 6 o'clock dinner last Sunday.

MANSFIELD TOWNSHIP.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsh and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swartout Sunday.

Roy Stillings arrived Saturday from South Dakota and will farm here this season.

Joe Murphy has rented his farm to Joe Hinchberger and will hold a closing out sale Wednesday. Mr. Murphy will spend some time with relatives in Milwaukee, later on he will visit California and the exposition.

The Misses Anna Jones, Lida McQueen and Mr. Seward McQueen were guests at the Gordon home Sunday.

Mrs. E. C. Thompson and daughter Mary are spending a few days with Boyd Thompson this week.

Mrs. Wm. Heaney and daughter Margaret, will leave Thursday for Colby, Wis., near which place they will make their future home.

Miss Selma Suby and the pupils of the Gordon school, will give an entertainment at the Clark City school house, on Friday evening, April 2nd. Supper will be served and the proceeds will be used by Miss Suby to purchase equipment for her school. You are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kee and Frank and Roy Stillings were Sunday visitors at the Stillings home in Green township.

The Clark City Farmer's club is promoting a movement to build a hall in which to hold their meetings and social affairs of the community. A number of shares have been sold, and at present the prospect is encouraging. A meeting will be held Saturday evening at the school house to discuss the matter more fully. Come out and boost for the the hall.

LOGAN NEWS.

Mrs. Levi Etzell visited Mrs. Will Martin Monday.

Frank Zoeller has gone to Iowa in search of a fortune.

Francis Logan of Weyburn, Canada, is visiting in this neighborhood.

Miss Mary Naughton is about to begin school again in Dist. No. 17.

Mrs. Fred Kuder is expected home soon. She spent the winter months in Valley City.

Mrs. Ed Emery is visiting at the home of Torkel Undem.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown of Rugby are visiting at Levi Etzell's.

Torkel Undem attended the auction sale at Andrew Paulson's, near Dazey, Monday.

Mrs. Ruth Andem and Mrs. John Wakefield were visitors at the W. H. McClain home last week.

The numerous friends of Miss Hertha Zoeller are pleased to know that she is rapidly regaining her health since her return from Riverside hospital.

After spending the winter in Fargo, Hon. John Logan and son Wilbur, returned to the farm, and will superintend operations during the summer months.

GREEN NOTES.

Mrs. Berentsen is reported better, which is good news to her many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Davidson visited at Casselton over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortensen visited at Fred Nelson's last Sunday.

The roads are almost impassible.

Mrs. Wicks visited at Olaus Kjellands last Sunday.

Roy Stillings, from South Dakota, visited at his parents last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kee, of Heman Town, visited at the L. K. Stillings' home last Sunday.

Jerome Gallipo came down from Jamestown Monday to visit Mrs. Gallipo and Leslie at the Nelson farm.

Mr. Hager brought his little girl home from Valley City on Monday. She has been taking treatment for about a month.

The Normal closed Wednesday and our boys are home for a couple of weeks ready for the fanning mill.

Many Green Town farmers were at Valley City last Saturday for seed corn and millet.

It is reported that L. O. Kjelland will sow 800 pounds of clover in June.

SHEYENNE VALLEY NOTES.

Melvin Solvig arrived last week from Wisconsin. He is going to work up here this summer.

Mrs. John M. Thoreson and children, of Kathryn, were staying at Alfred Anderson's place, because her mother was quite ill.

Martin P. Anderson returned to his home in Ward county last week after a couple of months' visit down here.

Stevens Stevenson was a visitor with Ole Stevens one day last week.

Peter Gregerson and sons, Andrew, Sidney and Axel were busy last Wednesday after hauling straw from Stevens Stevenson's place.

Subscribe for the Daily Times-Record, only $3 a year and the Weekly $1.50 a year.

John F. Henrikson spent last Saturday evening with Alfred Anderson.

Mrs. Oscar E. Aas spent last Sunday afternoon with Mrs. Johanna Henrikson.

Alfred Anderson and Anders Opsahl were business visitors in Kathryn last Saturday.

Miss Marie Henrikson was spending last Friday evening with Mrs. Peter A. Anderson.

Jens Rensby and Henry G. Aas were business visitors in Nome one day last week.

Farmers Attention

The Valley City Gas Co., has a lot of Tar for sale. It can be used for all sorts of purposes—such as dipping fence posts, painting roofs and inside of chicken coops, etc. Bring in your cans or barrels and have them filled at 10c per gallon.

Valley City Gas Co.

Phone 24 or 393

WIMBLEDON.

Wimbledon News: Mrs. Hunt, Sr., is reported very low.

Ed. Trepp is the new clerk at Miesen Mercantile Company's store. He has taken the place of Emil Finner who has gone to Minneapolis.

Ronald Zimmerman recently imported two head of blooded Ayrshires. They come from Black River Falls, Wis. "Go thou and do likewise."

H. H. Hammond came down from Fessenden Wednesday morning and spent the day with Wimbledon friends. He returned that evening.

H. M. Cornell, who was employed in More Bros. office here for several months is through with his job and left Saturday for Fargo where his family resides.

Contractor J. R. Clausen returned on Tuesday from a business trip to Fargo. He has recently secured the contract for building a $3,000 parish house at Alice.

For want of larger and more suitable quarters we will move the News office on April 1 into the Feckler building just across the street from our present location.

Joe Goyke returned on Tuesday from Perham, Minn., where he spent the winter.

Fred Rebhahn has leased the Nutt farm and has taken possession of the same.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Beers were happily surprised last Friday night with a kitchen shower. About 24 people gathered and many useful and beautiful kitchen articles were presented. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and in a social way after which a luncheon brought by the guests was served.

A. J. Swartwout recently purchased two nicely matched teams of draft horses.

Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Caldwell were en route to Valley City Tuesday morning.

Dr. W. B. Wanner returned Saturday from a trip to Minneapolis.

Mrs. Fred Carlson is recovering from her serious sickness.

W. H. Stevens made a trip to Valley City on business Tuesday.

Miss Edna Evenson left Friday for Fargo, where she will visit Mrs. E. M. Erickson for a week.

Miss Amy Evenson, who has been teaching near Kathryn, is spending her vacation with her parents, at 625 First street.

HEMAN

From Sanborn Enterprise

Leonard Olson has been helping clean grain for Sam Sparger's Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lovell and family were visitors of Mrs. Alice Lettenmaier and family.

Miss Bertie Schriever is at present assisting Mrs. Lobsinger in Sanborn.

Mrs. E. C. Thompson and daughter Mary spent a few days with Boyd Thompson in Mansfield this week.

Alex Sauer is assisting Sam Wolski who is ill with rheumatism.

Sam Wolski and family, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cowdrey, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stoll, and son Howard, and Miss Christ spent Sunday at the home of C. Lettenmaier.

Mrs. Henry Sauer and baby spent Monday and Tuesday at the William Schriever home.

A dance will be given in the Heman hall on Easter Monday, April 5, time.

John Campbell is the possessor of a new feed mill on his farm.

Sebastian Kirchner received word from Mildmay, Canada, that his aged mother is critically ill at her home.

James Riley called on Sam Sparger Monday.

Rudolph Greb was an over Sunday guest at C. Lettenmaier's.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Marsh and family were guests at Ray Swartout's Sunday.

Frank and Roy Stillings spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Kee.

A birthday party was held at Lakeside school on Wednesday in honor of the Misses Clark Sauer and Anna Flach.

Gottfried Mork called on E. C. Thompson Tuesday.

Henry Brohman and children, Miss Abbie Sauer, Chas. Munz and family, Gottfried Mork, George Diss and Jake Wendell spent Sunday evening at the home of Andrew Sauer and family.

Miss Velma Parker is spending the week with Mrs. Henry Sauer.

Omar Clark was in our neighborhood last Thursday buying hogs and cattle.

Frank Good is staying with Will Brock at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swartout spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Swartout.

C. Lettenmaier called on Chas. Munz Monday evening.

Alfred Lettenmaier spent Sunday at the William Schriever home.

LITCHVILLE

Arthur Peterson, of Sargeant, Minn., who has been visiting relatives here for a number of weeks, left Wednesday for his home.

Miss Mathilda Olson, a sister of Mrs. K. Tvedt, returned to her home at Ottosen, Iowa, Monday, after a couple of months' visit at her sister's home in Svea township.

John Hansas, our verbose and round John, with the same smile and just as popular as ever, arrived from Valley City Friday and has taken his seat with the star boarders at the Litchville hotel.

The stork called at the Sam Amundson home Sunday evening, leaving a brandnew baby boy.

The North LaMoure Girls' society will give a stocking party at school house No. 4, Litchville township, on April 1, at 8 o'clock p. m. Ladies, bring a pair of stockings and lunch for two; boys, you will do well by bringing some U. S. currency.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Giebink entertained the faculty of the Litchville schools and the Misses Alice and Mary Kelley, last Friday evening.

Posters are out announcing the sale of the 1,280 acre Neull farm in Black Laom township on Saturday, April 3, at the LaMoure courthouse at 2:30 p. m. The sale will be made by R. M. Crichton, of Verona, the trustee in bankruptcy.

Litchville Bulletin:—J. H. Boom returned from Waupun, Wis., Tuesday.

Tom Casey, L. F. Hanstedt and John Ritz were at Marion between trains Tuesday.

The farmers of Rosebud township met at the Svensrud school house last Saturday afternoon and organized a Farmers' Club. The following officers were elected: L. E. White, president, Evert Boom, vice president and Thos. Gudmestad, secretary and treasurer. The first regular meeting will be held at the Gudmestad home on Tuesday afternoon, March 30th.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Jennie Sarsten, of this city, to John Halverson, of Svea, at the Elm church, in said township, on Wednesday, March 31st, at 3 o'clock p. m.

Olaus Olson left Wednesday for a visit at Fargo.

Mrs. Charles Trager was called to her home at Marselles, Ill., last Thursday by the serious illness of her mother.

Mrs. Mary Wilkes left last week for a visit with her son, the Rev. Fr. Wilkes, of Fingal.

Wm. Haseleu, our only civil war veteran, left Tuesday for an extended visit with his son, Frank Haseleu, at Valley City.

FINGAL

Fingal Herald: K. S. Ramsett and son were Valley City Visitors Sunday.

Miss Mabel Fossen returned Wednesday evening from Valley City where she had spent the last week.

Mrs. George J. Sauer and children left Monday for their home at Shell Lake, Wis., after a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kurtz.

Miss Hilda and Bert Fossen who attended the Normal school at Valley City came home Thursday evening the school having closed for the Easter vacation.

Misses Ida and Lula and Gilbert Simons arrived Sunday from DeLamere to visit friends.

Joseph Kappel returned Thursday from Ambrose where he has spent the winter.

B. O. Fjorkenstad transacted business at Fargo Wednesday and Thursday.

The Fingal school will close today for the annual Easter vacation of one week. The out of town teachers will spend the vacation at their homes.

Miss Jacobson will go to Fargo, Miss Peterson to Jamestown and Miss Van Camp to Detroit, Minn.

C. A. Spink is confined to his home this week by illness.

Melvin Jacobson was a Valley City visitor Saturday evening.

Miss Lillian Olson went to Valley City Saturday where she will spend several weeks.

K. S. Ramsett and Mike Steidl attended the teachers meeting at Lucca Saturday and while there conferred with the school board of the Lucca consolidated school district regarding the boundary line between the Lucca and Fingal districts. Children living within a few blocks of the Fingal school house reside in the Lucca district and there is no reason whatever why the present line should not be changed, thus eliminating the bother of collecting tuition from non-residents of the Fingal district. It is hoped the matter will be settled in the near future.

Miss Anna Mann of Lucca spent a few days the first of the week visiting at the home of F. S. Bosch.

Gus Mahnke and family left the first of the week for Benedict, where they will spend the summer.

Peter Jacobson and family departed yesterday for Ruso where they will make their home on the farm which Mr. Jacobson purchased last fall. Their Fingal friends regret to see them leave.

C. E. Batcheller sold five head of registered Jersey cattle to Rev. E. F. Movius of Lidgerwood. The stock was shipped to that point Saturday.

UNITED STATES CANCELS 47 ALASKA COAL CLAIMS

Juneau, Alaska, March 25.—The United States land office has announced the cancellation of 47 coal claims in the Christopher group in the Behring river coal fields. The claims covering 7,000 acres, which were held to have been fraudulently located. The locations were made in the names of Pittsburg, Pa., Youngstown, Ohio, and Cleveland, Ohio, coal companies.

Henry Ruud was up from Nome Thursday. He has recently acquired some property in the business district of that thriving village, and came to the county seat to look up and perfect the title.

SHIP YOUR HIDES AND FURS etc.

Established 1897

D. BERGMAN & CO.
ST. PAUL, MINN.

Deal direct with the largest and oldest house in the West. Highest prices and immediate cash returns. Write for price list, tags and full information.