Mrs. E. M. Shannon returned Saturday evening from a month's visit with her sister, Mrs. A. E. Johnson, at Park Rapids, Minn., and with friends in the Twin Cities. Mrs. Shannon was accompanied to the Twin Cities by Miss Cora Shannon, of Sanborn.

The item in Monday's paper which stated that Lew Whitson was at Courtenay to put a roof on the school house should have been that he was putting steel ceiling in in the church. Lew says that when he goes to church he wants the account of it right, and we concede that he is right.

Mrs. W. C. Lyon and children returned home Thursday from Shoreham, Minn.

Miss Jessie Spore, who has been visiting Miss Nellie Whitcher for a week, left Friday for her home in Minneapolis.

"The Count On Me" Sunday school class, of the M. E. church, joined their teacher, Mrs. Vermilya, Saturday in an auto ride to the home of Lillian Ford, another member of the class. Impromptu games and an outdoor dinner made the day a pleasant one to all present.

Miss Mary G. Deem returned Saturday morning from a short business trip to Willmar and Atwater, Minn. She was accompanied on her journey by Miss Agnes Dodd, one of the teachers of Courtenay. Miss Dodd is a guest at the Deem home this week. Phone it in to the Times-Record.

C. F. Mudgett and son, Gilman, left Friday evening for the Twin Cities to attend the motor races at the Big St. Paul speedway.

Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Whitehouse and 16 boys, who have been camping at the Chautauqua grounds for nearly two weeks, returned to Cooperstown Saturday morning.

A couple of automobiles came into collision on the road to North Valley City Friday evening. No material damage resulted and there may be more advocates of safety first.
