

Joseph Huebl, of Milwaukee, secretary of the Northwestern National Insurance company, spent Friday in the city.

Miss Mary Shaw of Tower City, is a guest at the J. J. Engen home since Friday, and will remain over Sunday. She is in attendance at the basketball tournament.

Mrs. James Kelly and Mrs. W. J. Curren went to Ekelson Saturday morning for a visit with Mrs. Martin Conlon.

Christian Science service in Room 5 Young Block, at 11 o'clock, Sunday. Subject, "Christ Jesus." Every one is welcome.

Mayor Baldwin was down from Cooperstown to attend the presentation of "The Yellow Jacket" at the Normal auditorium Thursday evening.

Miss Annastasia Keyes and Mrs. Celia Humphreys were Valley City visitors on Saturday from Sanborn, returning home on the evening train.

As a prosperity indicator it is learned from the sheriff's office that so far this year there have been only two sheriff sales where in preceding years there have usually been from 10 to 15.

Saturday at the office of the superintendent of schools an examination was held for professional certificates. There were 14 applicants to take the examination.

Capt. G. A. M. Anderson, of Co. B, Fargo, returned to his home Friday evening after spending the past few days with his sisters and friends in the city.

V. E. Grant was called to his farm home near Cuba Friday evening by the illness of his man in charge of the work there, and left for home on the Soo train at once.

Miss Alpha Furgeson went to Rogers Saturday morning and will preside over one of the rural schools of the county in district No. 57 located in Stewart township.

Mrs. H. N. Tucker, of Courtenay, who attended the performance of "The Yellow Jacket" here Thursday evening, has since been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McPherson.

J. A. Powers, of Leonard, one of the board of regents, was a visitor in the city Friday.

Wm. Baxter, of Hillsboro, arrived Friday night to spend three or four days with his cousin, Mrs. N. C. Macdonald.

Mrs. Max Baillie returned Thursday night from a six weeks' visit at her parental home in Indianapolis, Ind.

Miss Maria Sogaarden, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. E. S. Solheim, since Christmas, left Thursday for her home at Farwell, Minn.

Word has been received in the city from E. L. McGee and daughter, Ann, that they are now in Long Beach, Cal., enjoying the balmy ocean breezes.

Joe Delmert and son William came down from Sanborn Friday evening to hear Father Mullaly at the Catholic church, returning to their home Friday morning.

Miss Nellie Cooty, of Jamestown, came down Friday to take in the basketball tournament and is a guest at the Engen home on Maple avenue.

Thomas Cooper, director of better farming at the North Dakota A. C., says there is a demand for 100,000 bushels of good seed corn with about 30,000 bushels of visible supply. This is an opportunity for any farmer with good seed corn to take advantage of a strong market.

Mrs. E. S. Cole went to Bismarck Saturday, where she was to meet Mr. Cole and together they would attend the production of "A Bird of Paradise" at the auditorium, spending a short time with friends in the city also.

Miss Nettie Stahlum, who has been in the millinery department at Chaffee's store for a few seasons, left Saturday morning for Lisbon to join her sister, Miss Florence, and together they will open up a millinery store there. They have the good wishes of many friends and patrons in this city for their success in the neighboring city.

H. M. Velzy came in Friday from a week's trip for the North Dakota Mutual Fire Insurance company and went out again Saturday to Rogers.

Prof. and Mrs. L. B. McMullen entertained 12 guests at a supper party Wednesday evening in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Pray. Spring flowers were the simple decorations and a most enjoyable evening was passed in conversation and a social good time.

The Royal Neighbors held a business meeting in the Odd Fellows' hall Friday night and a social hour, with refreshments, was enjoyed afterwards.

The Barnes County Poultry association held an enthusiastic meeting Saturday afternoon in the parlors of the Commercial club. The meeting was called to order by C. C. Chaffee, president of the association. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A discussion followed relative to the purchasing of a new cooping system and a committee was appointed to investigate. Plans are already being made for the annual show to be held in connection with the Barnes county fair.

Fingal Herald: Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Scott, of Valley City, spent Sunday in the village at the home of Mrs. Scott's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ole Olson.

R. E. Skonnord, the chiropractor, left Saturday for Davenport, Iowa, where he will take a four months post-graduate course at the Palmer School of Chiropractic.

T. X. Calnan arrived Sunday evening from Wimbledon. He will spend the next few days attending farmers meetings which are to be held in this section of the county.

Samuel Fletcher came down from Rogers Sunday evening to attend to business matters here Monday. He reports the roads almost impassable on account of ice and roughness.

Arthur Austerland and Harry Byfield, of New Rockford, came down to attend the basketball tournament Friday night.

Fingal Herald: Miss Mable Naves, who attends the Normal school at Valley City, spent Sunday at home in the village. She was accompanied from Valley City by Miss Gladys Dustin, also a student at the Normal.

Fingal Herald: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Tolzeman departed Saturday for Minnesota Lake, Minn., where they will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Tolzeman have many friends in Fingal and vicinity who regret to see them leave.

O. Senun, a real estate dealer of Karluk, Sask., arrived in the city Monday morning for a visit with Capt. and Mrs. Shering, the latter being his sister-in-law. He is on a business trip to North Dakota and stopped off to visit his relatives.

Fingal Herald: Julius Thone went to Fargo the first of the week and on Thursday submitted to an operation. Mrs. Thone and Mrs. Schnur went to that city Thursday to spend a few days with Mr. Thone. A telephone message shortly after the operation stated the patient was resting easily, a fact his many friends were glad to hear.

O. S. Gunderson, of the Electric shoe shop, had the misfortune to cut an artery in his hand while at work Thursday afternoon and consequently he is laid up for a short time and unable to handle his work. But he expects to have a man in the shop in a few days to handle his trade and customers will only be delayed a short time.

Mrs. M. Cummings and Mrs. Jane Pearson, of Jamestown, who have spent six months at San Diego, Cal., arrived home Sunday evening, over the Soo.

Mrs. John Bach came up from St. Paul to attend the funeral of her aunt, Miss Margaret Rengen, Saturday, and was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Walter Coop.

John Noack, the big farmer, and Jos. Jones, from near Oriska, spent Thursday in the city attending to matters of business.

Nels Swanson, representing the Deere & Weber company, was calling on the machinery trade in the city Friday.

Mrs. T. C. Patterson returned to her home in Lisbon Friday after spending several days in the city with her sister, Mrs. John D. Gray.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Presler returned to Fargo, Wednesday evening after spending a few days in the city with friends, as guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. N. Palmer. They attended the military ball at the Armory and were guests at several social affairs while here.

Mrs. T. X. Jones and Mrs. John Aitchison, who have been visiting Mrs. John D. Gray the past week returned to their homes in Fargo Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Potter were down from Sanborn Thursday evening to attend services at the Catholic church and hear Father Mullaly.

John E. Holm, farmer, postmaster and merchant of Cuba, was in the city on matters of business Tuesday.

R. B. Cox, of Wimbledon, spent Monday and Tuesday here hustling for the insurance company he represents.

Miss Johanna Hoff, who has been ill for almost four weeks with pneumonia, is still very ill at the hospital, but seems to be improving. Her mother came up from Ashby, Minn., last week to be near her and will probably remain until her condition is improved.

Ed. Cox came down from Courtenay last week to attend the basketball tournament, and spent Sunday with his wife at the parental Cox home. Mrs. Cox has been spending the past week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. McFarland, and returned with Mr. Cox to their home at Courtenay Sunday night.

Mrs. N. J. Hesch entertained at a luncheon Saturday afternoon for Miss Margaret Mutz, who is visiting in the city from Jamestown. The afternoon was spent in cards and music, after which the hostess served a dainty four-course luncheon. Jonquills were used for decorations. There were six guests present.

The Q. A. E. club met with Mrs. Oscar Jacobson Monday night with a full attendance and the usual game, Norwegian whist, was enjoyed until about 11 o'clock, when the hostess served delicious refreshments. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. B. J. Haaland.

B. Loss, of Lake City, Minn., was a caller in the city Friday. He used to be connected with the Northwest Nursery company of this city and is now with the Jewell Nursery company in the capacity of sales manager, being one of their efficient force.

Miss Margaret Hougen left Monday afternoon on No. 4 for La Crosse, Wis., to resume her training as nurse, after a visit of several weeks with her mother, Mrs. O. O. Hougen, in the city.

"Billy" Stevens, former editor and postmaster at Wimbledon, came down Monday evening and spent an hour in the city on business. He is now associated with Robert Clendenning in the grain business.

The P. E. O. members invited all the other club ladies of the city, and any others who were interested in the work of the Florence Crittenden home, to meet with them in the Commercial club rooms Monday afternoon to hear Miss Topping speak. About 70 ladies were present and listened to a very interesting talk regarding the work of the home. At the close of the meeting a number of the members remained to meet Miss Topping and enjoy a social time. Tea and wafers were served.

Mrs. Ole Simenson entertained about 16 young folks Monday evening at her home in honor of Miss Ethel Oleson, who will soon leave for her new home in Montana. The young folks enjoyed various games and music and later Mrs. Simenson served an excellent luncheon. The high school students regret to see their classmate leave them but wish her well in her new home. The evening was one of enjoyment to all present.

WANTED—Good girl for general housework on farm. $25 per month, $30 for August and September, if the party stays until Nov. 1. Phone 918X, Valley City Exchange. Mrs. S. Fletcher, Rogers, N. D. 29-5d-1w

*****
DAZEY
*****

Dazezy Commercial, Feb. 25.—Roy Duff was a visitor in Hannaford last Friday between trains.

Ole Anderson returned to Dazezy Saturday from a short visit at Valley City.

Carl Rasmussen was down from Walum last Saturday visiting with friends.

Andrew Hartman was up from Rogers last Saturday between trains on business matters.

J. N. Osborne returned to Dazezy last Friday from a short business visit in Valley City.

Albert Kjelson returned to Dazezy last Friday from a short visit with friends at Jamestown.

Harry Osborne was a passenger for Valley City Tuesday evening to spend a few days visiting with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Ole Oppegard and little son returned to Dazezy last Friday from a short visit with friends in Fargo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Stee returned home last Friday evening from a visit of a week at Minto, Hannaford and Walum.

A. J. McInnes was a passenger for Walum last Saturday to spend the day on business matters for the telephone company.

Tom McKean was a passenger for Sanborn Tuesday evening to spend a short time visiting with home folks. He returned to Dazezy Tuesday.

Andrew Tolstad was a business visitor in Fargo a few days the latter part of last week. He returned to Dazezy Saturday.

Miss Johanna Anundson returned to Hannaford Saturday after a visit with friends in Dazezy.

George J. Jacobson returned to his home in Walum last Friday from a short business trip to Fargo.

H. M. Olson returned home Monday from Fargo, where he had spent a few days visiting with friends.

E. W. Everson returned to his home northwest of Dazezy last Friday after spending a few days in the Twin Cities on business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sad came down from Hannaford last Saturday evening for an over-Sunday visit with relatives and friends at this place.

O. H. Hoveland was a passenger to Valley City last Friday evening, returning home Saturday accompanied by Mrs. Hoveland and little Margaret, who has been at that place visiting for a few days.

Albert Kjelson, who has been spending the past two months in Dazezy visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. H. Hicks, and with other relatives and friends, left Tuesday evening for his home in Canada.

Word has been received that F. A. Vogel, who for three years was prin-

A New Line of Children's Dresses—29c to $7.50

CHAFFEE'S
The Largest Stock of Ladies' Furnishings in Valley City

See Our Silk Hose, in All Colors, at 75c to $1.50

New Spring Suits and Coats

ARE coming in every day—direct from New York's best manufacturers. Our line is much more complete than usual for this time of the year and you will have very little trouble in getting just what you want and at about the price you want to pay.

Suits $15.00 to $35.00 Dresses $4.98 to $35.00

Coats $5.00 to $30.00 Skirts $2.95 to $12.00

New Arrivals

Chiffon Taffeta—36-inch in street and evening tints.. $1.50

Printed Crepe Voile—40-in very handsome patterns $2.00

Radium Net—36-in. something entirely new..... $2.00

Plain and Colored Nets A splendid assortment 39c to $1.25

Chiffon—In plain and fancy colors, per yard— $1.25 to $2.00

A Big Line of White Goods

Just Arrived! New Styles in DOVE

Under-muslins

Made by the World's Largest Makers of Muslin Underwear in New York's Cleanest Factory.

25c to $2.75

New Arrivals

Gold and Silver Lace 4 to 18 inches wide— 69c to $2.00

Marquisette—in plain and fancy colors, per yard— 40c to $1.25

Fancy Silks—in a big range of new patterns— 75c to $2.00

New Percales—50 beautiful styles to select from 12 1/2 and 15c

New Ginghams—now is the time to make selections 12 1/2 to 25c

A New Line of Fancy Buttons

Stylish Spring Hats

Our new line is now on display and we invite you to come in and see the many handsome new models—

$1.50 to $12

The Store That Sells Stylish Shoes for Women and Children

incipal of the Dazezy schools, and the past three years has been principal of the Underwood schools, has been re-elected at Underwood for a two-year term at a salary of $1,500.

Andrew Thompson returned to Dazezy from Rochester, Minn., where he had been to get his son, William, who has been there for the past several months receiving treatment at the hospital. William's many friends in Dazezy will be glad to know that he is improving, although he is still unable to be up.

Mrs. Mary Timm arrived in Dazezy Wednesday for a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Leo Ratcliff. Mrs. Timm has just returned from Sleepy Eye, Minn., where she had been to attend the funeral of her husband.

Henry Kjelson, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the hospital at Jamestown, returned to Dazezy last Saturday. He is getting along fine, though he is still rather weak from the effects of the operation.

C. P. Stowman left Tuesday evening for the Twin Cities to spend a few days on business matters. He went down with a car of potatoes he was shipping from this place to the market.

Hans Oppegard spent a few days in Valley City last week on business.

Miss Christina Rasmussen of Walum arrived in Dazezy Tuesday evening for a short visit with friends here.

Jonas Ose returned to Dazezy last Saturday from Valley City, where he had spent a few days on business matters.

Harvey Rasmussen returned to his home near Walum Monday after spending a few days visiting with friends in Dazezy.

Emil Kjelson was up at Walum Monday between trains on business matters. Emil has resigned his position in the Big Store at this place and has accepted the position of manager of the store at Walum. He left Tuesday for Walum to take up his new duties.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Moore returned to their home in Hannaford last Friday after a short visit with relatives and friends at this place.

Mrs. Roy Freeman and children left last Friday evening for Courtenay, where they will spend a short time visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Harry Stanley returned to Dazezy last Friday from an extended visit with relatives and friends at various points in Indiana and Minnesota.

J. B. Shearer left Monday evening for Fargo to attend the big democratic appreciation banquet which was held at that place Tuesday evening.

Walter Mattson spent a few days in Fargo the latter part of last week. He returned to Dazezy Saturday. While at Fargo he was looking over electric lighting plants with a view to installing one in Dazezy.