

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Mothers Know That
Genuine Castoria

Always Bears the Signature
of

John H. Fletcher In Use
For Over
Thirty Years
CASTORIA

Exact Copy of Wrapper.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

STEWART

Sanborn Enterprise, May 4. April 26 and very little seeding done yet. Orf Thornberg was a Sanborn caller Saturday.

Mrs. Hans Harstad was a Sanborn caller Sunday.

Paul Hannemann called on R. W. Menke Sunday.

Hans Harstad took some cattle to Leal Monday.

R. W. Menke was a Rogers caller Tuesday afternoon.

Sam Aandahl spent a few days at the Lawry home.

R. W. Menke called at J. F. Jaberg's Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. George Cassatt was shopping in Sanborn Saturday.

Rev. Father Kleidon was seen on our streets Tuesday.

Frank Potter made a trip to Rogers Tuesday in his auto.

Mrs. John Woodcock's nephew is visiting her from Colorado.

Mrs. M. S. Stinson was visiting at Mrs. John Lawry's Monday.

Bob Brown says they are going to move the capital to Rogers.

The frame work for the bowling alley and pool hall in Rogers is up.

Peter Clancy, Jr., took a team and pulled a tin can out of a mud hole.

Mrs. M. S. Stinson called on Mrs. James Rodman Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Lois Parks' mother visited her a few days, Miss Lois returning home to Eckelson where she will spend a couple of weeks then spend the rest of her vacation at Page with her sister.

Miss Lois Parks' school closed on April 27 and in the evening a program was rendered. A lunch was served and all enjoyed themselves, especially the children.

John Anderson and Will Smith called at the Hannemann home Sunday.

Mrs. J. H. Miller and son, Willie, and Mrs. R. W. Menke were callers at Sanborn Saturday.

Mrs. A. Hannemann and son, Martin, attended the Lutheran Ladies' Aid at Gulmon's Sunday.

Henry and Robert Menke and Clifford and Arnold Harstad visited at the Christianson home Sunday afternoon.

Work has been started on Charley Paulson's new auto garage in Rogers. The building will be of brick construction.

C. E. Sealander took a load of grain to his other farm below Rogers and got his horses mired in a bad place in the road.

Mrs. Fred Rohde and sister, Miss Alice Tabbert, were in Sanborn Saturday where Miss Alice boarded No. 7 for Eckelson.

It is reported that Peter Hanson sold his farm to the Lund Land Co., for $50 per acre and in a few days the land company resold it to Iowa parties for the sum of $75 per acre.

On April 27 a number of ladies gathered at the Schafer home in honor of Mrs. Schafer's 46th birthday. Those who attended were: Mrs. J. H. Miller, Mrs. Will Hohde, Mrs. George Dotting, Mrs. Haupt, Mrs. John Froelich, Mrs. Vogel, Mrs. Zoller and daughter, Anetia, Mrs. Will Pitter, Mrs. Fred Rohde, Mrs. R. W. Menke and Miss Alice Tabbert. All reported a fine time and wishing her many more happy birthdays.

DAZEY

Daze Commercial, May 5.—Mr. Trapp, the Karnak merchant, was over from that place Wednesday on a short business mission.

George J. Jacobson was down from Walum Wednesday for a short visit with Daze friends.

J. B. Shearer was a business caller in Cooperstown Wednesday between trains.

M. H. Krantz went to Cooperstown Wednesday and spent the time between trains visiting with relatives and friends.

O. H. Hoveland was a caller in Cooperstown Wednesday between trains.

A. H. Wiji came up from Moorhead Monday and is spending a few weeks looking after his farming interests in this vicinity.

Miss Lulu Larson was up at Walum Tuesday between trains taking charge of her class in music at that place.

O. H. Hoveland returned home last Friday from a short trip to Valley City.

Miss Jessie Vogan returned to her home in Cooperstown last Friday after a short visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Otto Marquardt.

Mrs. Ole Oppegard was a visitor in Cooperstown last Saturday between trains.

The junior baseball team went up to Hannaford last Saturday for a game with the Hannaford team. The boys came back winners by a score of 38 to 11 and are feeling pretty much elated over their victory.

Frank Oglesby returned home Monday from a short business trip to Valley City.

Mrs. Elmer Anderson was up at Hannaford Monday between trains for a short business visit.

HEMAN

Sanborn Enterprise, May 4: Miss Clara Sauer returned home from Fargo Tuesday morning.

John Diemert the Watkins man was in this vicinity Monday.

John Campbell was a caller at the Wm. Campbell, Jr., home Saturday evening.

Mr. Kyrk, of Sanborn, the Grand Rapids woolen mills agent, was in this vicinity the first of the week.

A number of friends gathered at the Simon Flach home Sunday, and that being their first Sunday in their new home they all joined in celebrating in the old Canadian way.

Lorina Lettenmaier is spending a few days at the C. Lettenmaier home this week.

Chas. Munz and family were callers at the C. Lettenmaier home Sunday evening.

Mrs. G. Lettenmaier and family were callers at the Andrew Bommer home Sunday evening.

Gertie and Maggie Schriever were callers at the Henry Sauer home Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Campbell, Jr., were callers at the E. C. Thompson home Sunday.

Maggie and Gertie Schriever spent last Thursday afternoon with Rose and Anna Lettenmaier.

Miss Lizzie Kuehn, of Valley City, arrived last Wednesday to assist Mrs. J. A. Stoll this summer.

Herbert, Rose, Anna and Ricka Lettenmaier ate dinner with Sam Wolski and family Sunday.

E. W. Cowdrey of Valley City spent a few days with his parents and is now driving a new Ford car.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sauer April 28, a daughter. All concerned doing nicely. Congratulations.

Lambert Bommer, Sr., who has been ill with pneumonia and pleurisy is somewhat better this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Swartout and Mrs. T. B. Swartout and Mrs. Earl Swartout were Valley City visitors Monday afternoon.

Lakeside school closed last Friday, April 28, and the teacher, Miss Lena Arntson, left for her home at Wheeler, Wis., the same evening.

Mrs. J. A. Stoll, Miss Lizzie Koehn, Mrs. Sam Wolski and Edna, and Mrs. C. Munz and Dorothy were Lakeside school visitors last week.

BRIMER

Sanborn Enterprise, May 4: E. B. Willson has been on the sick list but is now improving.

Mrs. Herman Klein visited Monday with her sister, Mrs. Gene Stroh.

Joseph Didier and sons, Louis and Joe, were callers at the John Weber home Sunday evening.

Miss Edna Kane spent her spring vacation with her sister, Mrs. A. T. Morrison, of Bowden.

The progress of Brimer township is shown by the number of new automobiles that we see making their tours through the country, namely P. E. Crown, Thos. Kane and C. Legge.

Dan Henderson and daughter, Alice, were callers at the John Henderson home Sunday.

Miss Almada Simpson and friend, Miss Marie Gransee, were business visitors at Jamestown Saturday.

Hamilton Reid and Johnny Reid of Courtenay were visitors at the Hane home the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge Kane, Edna Kane and Archie Bole were callers at the Dan Henderson home Sunday.

Miss Ida Klein returned Saturday morning from the Riverside hospital of Valley City, where she has been for some time. Her many friends will be glad to hear she is much improved.

LEAL

Rogers Citizen, May 5.—Mrs. H. E. Pickett, of Rogers, visited with relatives in Leal last Thursday.

Chas. Peterson has purchased a new Studebaker four. Everything appears to be running smoothly now, although at first it would undoubtedly have been more convenient if the roads were a bit wider and hitching posts less numerous.

Mr. and Mrs. Ritch and son, Glen, of Kensal, were visitors last Thursday and Friday, having made the trip in their new "Dost."

Mrs. Tom Flewell and granddaughter, Vida Wilson, visited with relatives in Leal the latter part of next week.

Mr. Hoveland, of Daze, attended the Masonic lodge in Leal last Thursday.

SPENCER D. REED, D. C.

For six years Valley City's

Chiropractor

Phone 155 Office over City Drug Store

L. Litchie, of Valley City was B. Carr's guest the latter part of the week.

Frank Lannon was a business caller in Valley City Friday.

Fred James was a Clemensville passenger last Friday.

"Justice" Jensen, of Kathryn, attended the Masonic lodge in Leal last Thursday.

Tom Nelson was a business caller in Wimbledon Tuesday.

O. A. Barton and Mr. Craswell, of Valley City, were Leal visitors last Wednesday.

Last Saturday evening the intermediate and high school pupils gave Miss Widdifield, teacher of the intermediate grade and of domestic science, a linen shower at the Myers home. All present enjoyed the evening and the delicious luncheon by the hostess. Miss Widdifield was presented with a set of table linen and the good wishes of her pupils.

The Leal Masonic lodge was increased by two new members last Thursday evening. Visitors from Valley City, Kensal, Wimbledon, Sanborn and Rogers were present. A good time has been reported and a delicious luncheon was served by the wives of the members of the lodge.

SUMMONS

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA, County of Barnes—ss. In District Court, Fifth Judicial District.

Wood Brothers Thresher Company, a foreign corporation, Plaintiff.

vs

Ewell M. Kennaday, Defendant.

The State of North Dakota to the above named defendant:

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in the above entitled action, which is filed in the office of the clerk of the District Court, of the Fifth Judicial District, in and for the County of Barnes and State of North Dakota, at Valley City, North Dakota, and to serve a copy of your answer to the said complaint, upon the subscribers at their office in the City of Jamestown, in the County of Stutsman and State of North Dakota, within thirty days after the service of this summons upon you, exclusive of the day of such service, and in case of your failure to appear or answer, judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Dated April 27th, 1916.

THORP & CHASE,

Attorneys for plaintiff.

The residence and postoffice address of Messrs. Thorp & Chase, attorneys for plaintiff is Jamestown, Stutsman County, North Dakota.

(Last Pub. June 8.)

W. H. Beachem, who represents the N. J. Olson & Sons Elevator Co., came in from Fargo and other points on Thursday evening, where he had been spending the week. Mr. Beachem will remain over the week end in the city and spend Sunday with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Larson, of Casselton, were visitors in Valley City on Friday.

Daze Was Hostess Thursday to Rebekah Lodges of District

ROGERS

Rogers Citizen, May 5.—Miss Alma Becker was a visitor in Valley City Saturday between trains.

Mr. Walsh of Minneapolis visited at the Will Barnes home last Saturday.

Mrs. Wallace Lee left Wednesday evening for St. Paul, where she will spend some time visiting with relatives and friends.

Fred Butler came down from Walum last Saturday for an over Sunday visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. M. D. Kiser was a passenger to Valley City last Thursday evening for a short visit. She returned home Friday evening.

Mrs. H. E. Pickett returned home Monday evening from Leal where she had spent a few days visiting with relatives and friends.

Rudolf Leder was a passenger to Valley City Monday evening to take up his school duties at the Normal after spending some time with relatives in this community.

Clare Mosser was a Valley City visitor Sunday between trains.

Mrs. C. P. Stearns spent a few days last week visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James McFadden.

Mrs. George Colville was a passenger to Cooperstown on Thursday to spend the time between trains visiting with relatives and friends.

Mrs. E. Quist will entertain the Lutheran Ladies' Aid on next Wednesday, May 10. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

Misses Lou and Kate Simon came up from Valley City last Friday for a short visit with Rogers friends. They returned home Saturday.

Miss Florence Aygarn returned to her school duties at the Normal Monday evening after spending Sunday with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Sweet returned home Saturday from the west where they have spent the winter the balmy climate near Los Angeles.

Miss Thelma Woodcock came home Saturday evening to spend some time with her parents. She returned to her school duties on Monday evening.

Our members of the Masonic lodge in Leal went up to that place last Thursday evening to attend the banquet, making the trip in automobiles.

F. C. Ellis returned to Rogers Sunday evening from Valley City where he has been in the hospital the past few weeks. His many friends will be glad to learn that he is able to be around again.

Dan Farrell returned to Fargo Monday evening to resume his college studies after spending the Easter vacation with his parents here.

Raymond and Evelyn Kuder came up from Valley City Friday evening to spend Sunday with their parents. They returned to their school duties on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pickett and the latter's mother, Mrs. Fox, were here from Leal Monday evening for a short visit with relatives and friends. Mrs. Fox left Tuesday morning for her home in Minneapolis.

Chas. Long got his arm broken in a feed mill the past week. Dr. Kellogg was called and dressed the wounded member and at last reports he was getting along as well as can be expected.

There was a meeting in Rogers Wednesday evening to finish up the preliminaries preparatory to incorporating for the purpose of establishing a drug store at this place. The necessary stock for the undertaking has been subscribed and the incorporation articles will be applied for at once.

Assistant Dairy Commissioner Greenwood spent Wednesday and Thursday in the vicinity of Litchville and Marion. While there he encountered a creamery promoter working at Litchville, to organize a creamery company. Mr. Greenwood states that Litchville will eventually have a creamery, but it will probably be built by the farmers and on a co-operative plan. The state will assist them at any time, and the cost will be much less than a plant put in by a promoter.

Miss Minnie Storms left on Wednesday evening for her home at Fort Madison, Iowa, after spending the past winter in Valley City at the home of her sister, Mrs. Victor Landquist, on Eleventh avenue. Miss Storms stopped over for a visit with friends at Rock Island, Ill., en route to her home in Iowa.

The fire department was called out on Friday afternoon to the western part of the city, where a bonfire threatened the barn of B. K. Berg, a teamster, living at 1117 West Fifth street.

The annual session of the district convention of the Rebekah lodge of this district was held at Daze on Thursday. The meeting opened at 2:30 p. m., and was presided over by Miss James, of Daze, the towns represented being Valley City, Binford, Courtenay and Daze.

The first part of the afternoon committees were appointed to complete the work. Those appointed were as follows:

Resolutions—Mrs. Laing, of Courtenay, and Mesdames Lavery and Winkler, of Valley City.

Press—Mesdames Kennedy and Tolstad, of Valley City, and Miss Oppegard, of Daze.

Good of the Order—Mrs. M. E. Mason, of Valley City, and Mesdames Kelly and LaValley, of Daze.

Examination—Mrs. Alice Mares, of Wheatland, the state assembly president, and Mrs. Laing, of Courtenay.

Memorial—Miss James, of Daze, Mrs. West, of Binford, and Mrs. M. R. Nelson, of Valley City.

The ladies then adjourned until 8:30, when the evening session was called to order by the district president, Miss James.

The address of welcome was given by Miss Hattie Kelly, of Daze, and was responded to by R. G. Hammerud, of Valley City.

Mrs. Laing, of Courtenay, then read a splendid paper on the work done in the order. Reports of the various committees were then read and accepted, and the memorial committee voted to send letters of condolence to Sister Burrill, of Velya, who is state secretary of the Rebekah lodge, and also to Sister Gale, of Valley City.

The initiation work was put on by the Binford lodge, and following this officers were elected for the coming year. The new officers are:

President—Sister West, of Binford.

Vice president—Sister Nelson, of Valley City.

Secretary—Sister Reid, of Courtenay.

After the election, the president then appointed the following officers:

Warden—Sister Everts, of Binford.

Conductor—Sister Winkler, of Valley City.

Inside Guardian—Sister Oppegard, of Daze.

Outside Guardian—Sister Boe, of Binford.

Chaplain—Sister Kelly, of Daze.

Installation of the newly-elected and appointed officers then took place.

An invitation was extended from the Binford lodge to meet with them next year and the invitation was accepted by a unanimous vote of thanks. After this the ladies adjourned to the new Daze Hotel for the banquet. Covers were laid for 61 and the tables were decorated in pink and green, the lodge colors, and dainty place cards marked each place.

Mrs. M. R. Nelson, of Valley City acted as toastmistress, and toasts were responded to by several of the Rebekahs and brother Odd Fellows. This closed one of the most pleasant sessions the district convention have ever held.

Mrs. Jacob Madcha of Forbes, N. D., who has been ailing for sometime and made worse after an operation, is now completely recovering under Dr. Mellinthin's treatment and her friends say it is marvelous. Dr. Mellinthin will be at Valley City, Kindred hotel, Monday, May 22. Hours 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Miss Blanche Stevens, who is a returned missionary from Korea, was a visitor in Valley City for a few hours on Friday, and while here was a guest at the home of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Lyon. Miss Stevens was en route from Courtenay to Casselton, and left on No. 4 for Casselton.

FOR SALE—Henderson motorcycle, four cylinder, two speed. First class shape. Need the money. Will sell to first offer. Address Box 114, city.

FOR SALE—Automobile, in good condition. Phone 165 or see C. E. Vermilya, 609 Fourth street, Valley City.

FOR SALE—Potato machinery consisting of planter, digger, sprayer, cultivator and cutter, at a bargain. Amund Jacobson. 1-12d-2w

FOR SALE—Horses, harnesses, wagons and farm implements. George A. McFarland. 2-6d-2w

FOR SALE—Fine farm of 160 acres, 3/4 32-41-59. Also house of eight rooms, in Valley City, modern except heat. Phone 5651 or see Herb Hanson. 4-6d-1w

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Economy—in low first cost and small cost to operate and maintain. Strength—ability to stand up under the hardest sort of use. Simplicity—a plain sturdy motor in a wonderfully strong and light car, easy for anyone to run and care for. The Ford car—your necessity. Runabout $390, Touring Car $440; Coupelet, $590, Town Car $640; Sedan $740, f. o. b. Detroit. On sale and display at

Embertson & Olson
Corner 5th Ave. and Main St.

