RECEPTION FOR PASTOR

Thursday evening a pleasant reception was tendered Rev. C. E. Vermilya, the pastor of the Epworth M. E. church, in the event of his being returned to Valley City again for another year. The congregation gathered in the parlors of the church, and a warm welcome was extended to the pastor, nearly 100 being present. During the evening a short musical program was rendered, and those contributing delightful solos were Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Arthur Smith and Miss Violette Peterson. C. A. Zabel, in behalf of the congregation, gave a short address of welcome and the pastor responded with very fitting remarks. Rev. and Mrs. Vermilya were presented with a beautiful bunch of chrysanthemums. Light refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Alfalfa Field of 16 Acres Makes $5,000

Jamestown, Oct. 19.—A 16-acre patch of alfalfa yielding 85 bushels machine measure will net its owner, H. H. McCumber, prominent farmer, living near Marstonmoor, the sum of $5,000.

Judge J. U. Hemmi of the county court, today received a letter from McCumber explaining the money-making proposition. McCumber stated that he cut one crop from his acreage this year, allowing the second to go to seed.

From the crop he got a yield of 85 bushels, machine measure, which will probably amount to 75 bushels or 60 pounds per bushel when cleaned. He has contracted for a portion of the seed at $1 a pound.

If he disposes of his whole alfalfa crop at this figure he will realize $5,000 from his 16-acre tract.

LaMoure Farmers First Shippers to the Equity

LaMoure, Oct. 19.—The live stock department, recently opened at South St. Paul by the Equity co-operative exchange, received its first car load of livestock from Nortonville. This stock was owned by J. P. Byrne and his brother, Edward Byrne and was consigned by them to the only commission house in South St. Paul that is owned and controlled by farmers.

J. P. Byrne accompanied the shipment and after his return home mailed the following letter to the South St. Paul office of the Exchange:

"Have just received my returns from car of cattle and hogs, numbered 90794 and I wish to say that I am well pleased with weights, prices and service. You may expect my livestock shipments in the future."

The Byrnes are among the county's most influential farmers and their recommendation of the Equity way means that the exchange will receive a goodly portion of the stock shipped from this section.

PRACTICAL CO-OPERATION

Grand Forks, Oct. 17.—An instance of practical co-operation between farmers and merchants and other business men is found in the inauguration of a local enterprise at Devils Lake.

Considerable interest has been developed among the farmers of that locality in recent years in the raising of potatoes, and constantly increasing attention has been devoted to this crop.

It soon became evident, however, that the work was materially hampered by lack of proper storage facilities. Cars were not always available for shipment direct from the field; pitting involved extra labor and cost; and without protection from frost the crop was subjected to great risks, and holding until cold weather was impossible.

Interest in the subject was aroused in the city as well as in the country, and there was speedy recognition of the fact that the proper development of this branch of farming was important to all the people of the community. Plans were made for a suitable warehouse, and stock to an amount sufficient to defray the cost of a good building, some $5,000, was purchased by progressive farmers and local business men. No one in the neighborhood was specially anxious to devote his time to the handling of the warehouse, and the property was leased to a Grand Forks commission firm which pays a rental sufficient to yield a reasonable interest on the investment. Thus, with the investment of a small sum by each of a large number of individuals, an investment which yields a fair cash return, a great district is supplied with an important addition to its marketing facilities, and the diversification of agriculture throughout a large district is directly promoted. The moral influence of this enterprise is also not without its value, for in a very business-like way the value of co-operation among the various business interests of a community has been demonstrated.

The members of the Weso club held a very pleasant meeting on Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. C. A. Bloomberg, on North Sixth avenue. There was a large attendance, about 20 members being present. After passing the hours at crocheting and visiting, refreshments were served.

C. G. Lund, Dr. Van Houten, Matt Krogh and J. Starke returned home Wednesday afternoon from a hunting trip of several days in the vicinity of Pettibone. They brought home the limit of ducks and geese, and report a good trip.

The sale of lots of the Tracy's Third addition to Valley City that was conducted by the Home Realty & Investment Co., of Emporia, Kan., was a success in every particular. Every one of the 70 lots were sold, and it is a conservative estimate to state that in the spring from 15 to 20 houses will be erected on lots in the addition. These homes will be modern and of the very latest class of houses.

In addition to the 70 lots sold one was given away. There was no string attached to the gift. All that was necessary to have a chance to draw the lot was to register and go out to the site and deposit your ticket. The drawing was held at the office of the company in the Wiese & Podratz Piano Co. building Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. The judges were H. E. West, Ed Jacobson and S. Varco. The method of drawing was to deposit the numbers and draw 50 from the total, the last one drawn to be the winning number. No. 74 was the fifth drawn and was held by W. D. Hone, who was declared the winner. John Tracy was present as attorney-in-fact for the owner of the property and delivered the deed for the free lot.

Considering the short time the sale was on it must be admitted to have been remarkably successful. It establishes the fact that good real estate in Valley City can be sold at fair prices when business methods are used in conducting sales. This sale was well advertised, the people were shown the tract and bought freely. It is well located, and when built up with a fine class of residences will be one of the nicest residence districts in the city.

Sanborn Enterprise: Last Saturday afternoon the local basketball quint began the season right by defeating the Litchville bunch to the tune of 27 to 10. Sanborn's lineup was as follows:

Paul Olson—center.
Orval Siverson—rt.
Russell Cramer—lf.
Lawrence Thoraldsen—rs.
Amos Stephan—lg.

Our players were in perfect trim and at the end of the first half had raised the score to 16 to 6 in Sanborn's favor—of course. In the second half, however, Litchville made a brave, but hopeless, stand for the palm. For 20 furious minutes they raced back and forth trying to gain the lead, but the ball kept rolling into Sanborn's basket so that when the referee blew his whistle the score stood 27 to 10. Although we regret to do so, we admit that Litchville has us beaten in one thing—their collection of yells and songs. Their rooters kept up a continual noise throughout the game, and so far as we could find out, no two yells were alike.

Stewart items of Sanborn Enterprise: Mrs. J. H. Miller visited over night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schafer in Valley City Friday.

Lidgerwood Broadaxe: Mrs. W. D. Movius, Mrs. A. F. Bonzer and Mrs. W. I. Irvine were met at Wyndmere Friday by W. D. Movius. Mrs. Harry Stone returned Sunday from Valley City, where all had attended the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Warren Whitson underwent an operation for appendicitis on Friday at the Riverside hospital, and is reported as getting along nicely.
