his own personal experience while visiting at a lake resort in Canada this summer. It is a story you cannot afford to miss and will doubtless appear under the title "One Blissful Night." If you do not find copies at the news stand call at the depot for them. "Scottie" McDonald is enjoying a visit from his sister, Miss McDonald, of Fargo. Miss Frederickson and Mr. Solwood autoed to Valley City and returned Wednesday. Mrs. H. R. Tendick went to Enderlin Monday and had an aching tooth removed. Mrs. P. T. Tendick returned to Fargo Saturday after having spent a week at the home of her son, H. R. Tendick. Mr. Wm. Craft, of Enderlin, who has been visiting her parents at Casselton, was in town last week between trains. The Misses Gunderson and Miss Fredrickson spent Sunday at their respective homes, having left here Friday night. Miss Anna Reck has accepted a position as schoolmistress in a school near Fessenden. She left Saturday morning to take charge. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of New Rockford, are guests of their daughter, Mrs. Fred Dahl, for a few days. They arrived Saturday. The three cases of infantile paralysis that were mentioned last week are all much improved and we hope will leave no bad effects. W. F. Tritchler left Monday for a three weeks' trip in the western part of the state in interest of the Mayer Boot & Shoe Co. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dahl enjoyed a short visit with the former's sister, Miss Anna Dahl, for a few days last week. Miss Dahl left for her home Friday. Mr. Patten, the lineman from Enderlin, was up Thursday straightening out the telegraph wires that have been giving rather poor service lately. Deputy U. S. Marshal E. R. Steele, of Fargo, was in town Monday and subpoenaed F. Oyen as a witness on the Kittel trial to begin Wednesday in Fargo. A. C. Bjerken, who has been assisting in the Butzville State bank during the illness of one of the bank's employes, returned Saturday night to resume his work at this bank. Claude Phillips expects to leave soon for Wahpeton, where he will enter the science school and specialize in the work in which he has already studied much, wireless telegraphy. Jim Wright went to Fargo Saturday and returned Monday, bringing with him Amelia Crystal, who has been gone for a few weeks, but will again take up her work at the hotel. The school house and books have been thoroughly fumigated and school started again Monday though with a very small enrollment. A great many are still afraid to send their children for a while yet. Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Phillips returned Monday night from a month's visit in and around New Richmond, Wis. The time was pleasantly spent and the trip enjoyed, but both Mr. and Mrs. Phillips are glad to get home. H. R. Tendick has greatly improved the appearance of his property by removing the old shed which was used as a warehouse, and is tearing down the old ice house and building a new and larger one on the lot back of the store.

N. C. MACDONALD Candidate for State Superintendent of Public Instruction

The voters of Valley City and Barnes county should not fail to vote next Tuesday for their fellow citizen, N. C. Macdonald, who is a candidate for the office of state superintendent of public instruction. He got a majority of over 28,000 in the state in the June primaries, carrying all counties but two, including over 90 percent of the towns and cities. Being a resident of the county, and being thoroughly qualified for the place, he will undoubtedly be given here the deserved endorsement of a still larger majority than he received in June.
