

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children.
Mothers Know That
Genuine Castoria
Always Bears the Signature of Dr. H. H. Fletcher
In Use For Over Thirty Years
CASTORIA
THE CENTAUR COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

were accompanied on their return by Mr. Kotchian's mother, Mrs. Mary Kotchian, who will remain for several weeks on a visit.
J. A. Kotchian made a business trip to Grace City Wednesday.
Miss Ruth Christy and Miss Mary Hackett spent Saturday and Sunday in Valley City.
Mr. and Mrs. Tom Flewell returned Friday from Cooperstown, where they visited their son, Charles.
Miss May Kotchian went to Fargo Thursday, where she is visiting Miss Grace and Arthur Kotchian.
T. S. Tolison, of Jessie was in Wimbledon a few days this week looking after business matters.
Mrs. A. Arvidson is entertaining the Ladies' Aid society this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Fried.
Rudolph Kuehl, who spent the summer here working at Wilke's blacksmith shop, left Tuesday for Eau Claire, Wis.
Miss Minnie J. Nielson, county superintendent of school of Barnes county, spent Friday visiting the Wimbledon schools.
J. A. Kotchian is building a large new garage, near his residence. He will complete the same with stucco work in the spring.
Francis Toste entertained several of his young friends Tuesday evening at a Halloween party. It is needless to say all had a most enjoyable time.
Mr. and Mrs. T. X. Calman left Monday on a trip to Fargo.
Mrs. H. Bultema left Wednesday for Fulton, Ill., where she will visit relatives.
Mark Marquisee has moved his family into the C. M. Kribbs residence "on the hill."
N. A. Burch, of the Rex theater of Valley City, was in Wimbledon on business Thursday.
Miss Pearl Quinlivan returned to Valley City Monday after spending Sunday here with her folks.
Oscar Olson went to Fingal Saturday and returned with his wife and baby, who were visiting there.
Mrs. Wylie Nielson, Mrs. Spurr, Mrs. Frank White and Mrs. Anna Sternberg came up from Valley City Friday and spent the day with Miss Helen Bascom and Mrs. R. Clendenning.
The Woman's Suffrage league met Tuesday evening with Miss Helen Bascom and the following officers were elected: Mrs. Wm. Stevens, president; Mrs. John More, vice president; Mrs. W. O. Joos, secretary; Mrs. Sherman, treasurer.
F. D. Aukes is walking around with his arm in a sling and a bandage around his head. While at work in a well a few days ago in some way the bucket was dropped on him, inflicting a scalp wound and cracking a bone in his forehead.
Elwood Kribbs left Saturday evening on an auto trip through the western part of the state in search of a stolen car belonging to H. N. Foster, of Jamestown. He returned Tuesday morning, having covered 480 miles. Little or no trace was found of either car or thief.
November signalled a good deal of moving that involved even the editor. F. P. Smith moved to J. H. Gibson's preparatory to moving into his new house, now about completed. A. F. Steffen moved into the Weber residence vacated by Mr. Smith, and John Harter has moved into the suite of rooms over the News office vacated by Mr. Steffen.
M. S. Malrough and family, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Beers, left Monday on a auto trip to southern Texas. They went from here to Wahpeton, where they took the Meridian trail directly south to Laredo, Texas. Mrs. Beers will stop with her folks in Oklahoma. The Malroughs have land in southern Texas and will spend the winter there.
John Webster sustained injuries last Wednesday while employed on the dray line. He and other draymen were in the act of unloading household goods for John Harter when the horse, frightened by a piece of paper, backed up and pinned him between the dray and the building. Fortunately no bones were fractured and the patient is hopeful of being about in a few days.
W. H. Long and J. M. Ostrom, who were up to recently employed at the Stein hardware, will go into partnership and open up a tin shop and plumbing establishment in the near future. They will be located in the building first door north of the First National bank. This is another indication that Wimbledon is steadily growing. Notwithstanding the fact that several new business buildings were added this spring, there is now scarcely a vacant place in town.

of and the sale increased the treasury fund about $125.
Mr. and Mrs. K. S. Ramssett were visitors at Valley City Thursday.
Miss Lulu Simons arrived last week from Frank Grove, Ill., and is a guest of relatives in the village.
Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Price returned Sunday evening from a visit with Mr. Price's brother at Deer Lodge, Mont.
J. J. Flam took possession of the Fingal meat market Wednesday morning, having purchased it several weeks ago from H. Jacobson. Mr. Flam expects to make some changes and improve the building in the future. Mr. Jacobson will devote his time to other interests.
On Wednesday of last week occurred the marriage of Miss Olivia Wagler, of Valley City, and John Condit, of Westhope. They will make their home at Westhope, where the groom is engaged in business. Mrs. Condit taught about four months in the local schools in 1915 and in that short time made many friends who extend best wishes.
H. Jacobson shipped a carload of livestock to St. Paul Saturday, P. M. Krogstad accompanied the car.
Mrs. J. E. Gordon and daughters, Misses Eleanor and Bessie, returned Monday from a few days' visit at the Twin Cities.
John Pratchner came over from Millerton Thursday morning to attend to business interests here.
Alex Naves and John Nelson went to St. Paul Saturday with two carloads of cattle which they had raised.
Misses Velma Whallian and Lucile Shay were hostesses at a Halloween party Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whallian. About 30 guests were present, met at the door by a ghost and ushered into mysterious rooms lighted by jack-o'-lanterns. Supper was served in the attic, where spooks were in abundance. A very pleasant evening was reported by the guests.
The Fingal school will present a home talent musical play in two acts at the opera house on Friday evening, Nov. 10. There are over 30 characters in the play and great deal of action takes place in a country post office as the various characters come and go. The humorous types and incidents will please you and your friends and you will feel well repaid by attending. The receipts from the play are to go into the fund to pay for the new piano.
Magnus Arstad, employed by J. R. Muncy, met with a painful accident Saturday morning when a .32 calibre revolver was discharged, the bullet entering Mr. Arstad's foot. He was taken to a hospital at Valley City and an operation performed Tuesday. The bullet was removed, and the victim is getting along nicely.
Frank Lindner is having a 30x60 horse barn built on his farm to replace the one destroyed by lightning this summer. Isador Morth is boss carpenter on the job.

Once More We Call Attention to the Seriousness of the Coal Situation—
To all coal consumers: We urge you to secure your coal for the season at once. If you are out of coal in January, February and March don't blame the coal dealer. The coal shortage in 1916 outstrips 1902. We are not urging you to buy of us, but buy it of some one, and at once.
Jeffrey Lumber Co.

KATHRYN
Recorder, Nov. 2.—J. O. Haugen returned from Fergus Falls Friday.
Messrs. Mandius and Gunvold Monson went to Litchville on Friday's train.
Last Sunday there were no less than 500 people in town viewing the ruins. Postmaster Abrahamson lost his fountain pen the night of the fire, but he isn't kicking.
We are informed that Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rivenes have moved on a claim near Frazier, Mont.
Prof. and Mrs. Sanders entertained the high school pupils at their home Tuesday evening.
Messrs. Selmer Gilbertson and Arthur Anderson, from the Eastedge country, autoed to town yesterday to see the elevator burn.
T. Melvin Lee, of Valley City, autoed down late Monday evening. He stayed over night with the Mickelsen family and returned to Valley Tuesday morning.
A necktie social will be held in the Reitan school house, Friday, Nov. 10, at 7:30 p. m.
The Ladies' Aid will hold their annual supper and sale Saturday Nov. 11. The sale will take place in the church basement after supper has been served.
Miss Martha Nelson and sister returned from Fargo Monday.
Yesterday morning it was rumored that what was left of Kathryn was burning and the farmers of the neighborhood hastened to town to see the spectacle. We wonder if any one was disappointed?
What's the matter with politics this year? The voters of Kathryn have not had the privilege of hearing a single political speech in this presidential campaign in their own town. Aren't the voters of Kathryn and vicinity worth considering?
Fred Simpson, who has been working for E. M. Larson during the summer, went to Eastedge yesterday for a few days' visit with friends before returning to Pelican Rapids, Minn.
Ole G. Hovde was an arrival from Dorden yesterday.
Miss Josie Elkern spent the week end at Nome, returning Monday.
Bennie Larson returned from Fargo Thursday.
Mrs. Moe went to Valley City yesterday, returning today.
Miss Clara Olsberg was a Hastings visitor between trains yesterday.
The work on the mill and elevator and power house is progressing satisfactorily. It is expected to have the power plant completed and machinery installed and ready for business this fall if this fine weather continues.
Wishing and waiting for a good position will never bring one. Wish and wait, but in the meantime hustle and prepare for the position. That's the system that brings results. Mankato Commercial College can help you. Write for their catalog.

WIMBLEDON
News, Nov. 2.—Mrs. M. E. Coleman went to Minneapolis Wednesday.
Martin Rose left Wednesday on a trip to Fulton, Ill.
W. O. Joos made a business trip to Valley City Monday.
The Guild was entertained by Mrs. R. M. Evans Wednesday afternoon.
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Kotchian and Emil Dvorak returned Monday from Casselton, where they spent Sunday with C. C. Miesen and family. They

FINGAL
Herald, Nov. 3.—A son was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Olson.
L. G. Naves returned Sunday from a business trip to Minneapolis.
Mr. and Mrs. Ben Johnson spent Saturday with friends at Valley City.
Carl Nagel and family, of Valley City, spent Sunday with relatives in the village.
Mr. and Mrs. Albin Nelson, who have resided in LaMoure county this summer, departed Tuesday for Iowa after a visit at the home of Mrs. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Christianson.
Miss Ida Rynsmith came from Valley City Sunday for a visit with Miss Hanna Bordson.
The Congregational church sale at the opera house Friday evening was well attended. Everything that had been made by the ladies was disposed

LUCCA
Nome Tribune, Nov. 3.—Jim Wright transacted business in Nome Monday.
Jim Cruff, of Enderlin, autoed to Lucca Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. F. and Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Ellsbury autoed to Nome Friday.
Mr. Melle went to Adrian Friday to assist his sons in putting down a well on their place.
Mr. and Mrs. Danielson, of Enderlin, were callers in town Friday, having autoed over.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson went to Nome Sunday to attend the meetings at the convention.
Auditor J. M. Beattie, of the Atlantic Elevator Co., was here Thursday looking after the business.
Selma Schultz is assisting Mrs. H. R. Tendick with her house work while Mrs. Tendick helps at the store.
Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fritz autoed to Fabian Sunday and visited at the S. Christner home at that place.
Finn Oyen returned Thursday from Fargo, where he went in answer to a subpoena as a witness in the Kittel case.
The Atlantic Elevator shipped its first car load of wheat of the season Saturday; about 1,100 bushels in all.
Mrs. Worden, who has been spending several months at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Neal Zook, returned to her home at Prairie City, Ill., Sunday night.
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dahl have been enjoying a visit with Mrs. Dahl's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of New Rockford. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson left Saturday morning for their home.
This corner of Barnes county is surely the banana belt of North Dakota. Nearly every section of the state has been visited by snow. In some places several inches have fallen, while we have had none. Don't go to Florida for the winter, come to Lucca.
A. C. Bjerken, for a time bookkeeper at the First State Bank here, has been promoted to assistant cashier in the First National bank of Kenmare. Mr. Bjerken is a very capable and steady young man and his many friends here are glad to know of his promotion.

LITCHVILLE
Bulletin, Nov. 3.—Miss Emma Bell went to Fargo Tuesday.
Banker Olson was up from Hastings Friday evening.
The social given by Miss Stribling last Friday was a success in every respect. The proceeds were $21.80.
Wm. Schmidt and Ed Kurtelmer left Wednesday for their homes at Inver Grove, Minn.
The cooking class at the high school were entertained at a Halloween party at the O. M. Fewell home Monday evening.
A carload of chickens were loaded here Monday by some eastern buyers, who canvassed the country and paid 10 and 15 cents per pound.
C. A. Cross went to Fargo Tuesday and returned the next day, accompanied by Mrs. Cross, who underwent an operation at St. John's hospital three weeks ago.
Leo Schall left last Saturday for Pocahontas, Iowa, where he expects to try his speed at husking corn for a while. He will spend the winter in Iowa and return here in the spring.
Henry Glaser spent the last half of last week in Fargo on business.
Mrs. O. O. Dahl will entertain the Immanuel Ladies' Aid Thursday afternoon of next week.
Mrs. W. C. Ayles left last Saturday for a few days' visit at the parental home at Moorhead.
S. O. Kulseth returned home last Thursday from St. Paul, where he accompanied a car of stock.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Kittelson, of Austin, Minn., left again Monday after a week's visit with relatives in this city.
Beatrice and Harvey Headland entertained 20 playmates at a Halloween party Monday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock.
Mrs. R. A. Kinzer received a telegram announcing the death of her father, A. Prentiss, at Utica, Ill., last Sunday, following an operation. Deceased was 62 years of age.
A new $500 switchboard was installed in the central office this week, also a new $100 rack and a $50 cable. These improvements spell more efficient service in the future.
The Ladies' Aid of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Peterson, near Hastings, Thursday afternoon, Nov. 9.
William Lawry, of Missoula, Mont., and John Lawry, of Granite, Mont., were guests at the S. J. Aandahl home the fore part of the week, having been called here by the death of their mother, Mrs. John Lawry, of Sanborn.
John Johnson and Torkel Sarsten have rented the K. C. Olson farm, east of town, for the coming year.
A. M. Hansen returned Tuesday from St. Paul, where he shipped some more stock.
O. H. Reed returned home last Monday from Chicago, where he shipped two carloads of potatoes, raised on his farm east of town.
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Machel, who have been spending the past summer with their son, Emil Machel, returned last Thursday to Wausau, Wis.
Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rodin, son Fred and Frank Carlson left Saturday morning for Oberon, for a visit with their friends, going across country in the latter's car. They returned Monday evening, reporting nice roads and a fine time.
The Baraca-Philathea society, or, in other words, the adult Bible class of the Congregational church, gave a Halloween party Tuesday evening at

DON'T FORGET
Mark A. Smith
Cor. 3rd Ave. and 3rd St. Phone 635
Bran, Shorts, Feeds of all kinds, Baled Hay and Flour.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR
Over a million Ford cars in use today is your best guarantee of satisfactory service. Serving everybody—bringing pleasure to everybody, the Ford car is a utility—your car. The same high quality, with lower prices. Costs least to operate and maintain. Ford service everywhere. The Touring car is $360; Runabout $345; Coupelet $505; Town Car $595; Sedan $645. f. o. b. Detroit. On display and sale at
Emberson & Olson
Corner 5th Ave. and Main St.

DEMISE OF MRS. ANNA BUCK
Wimbledon News: Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Buck died at her home north of Wimbledon Oct. 30, at the age of 62 years, seven months and 17 days. Brief funeral services were held at the house Wednesday and the remains were taken to Meschey, Iowa, where interment was made in the family lot beside her husband, who preceded her in death by six months. The deceased was born in New York state March 14, 1854. She was married to Michael Buck in 1870 and the following children survive: Louise, William and Alfred, of Meservey, Iowa, and Harold, Fred, Jess and Elmer, of Wimbledon. Her sons of this place accompanied the remains to Iowa. The deceased was a member of the Evangelical church.

CASTORIA
For Infants and Children
In Use For Over 30 Years
Always bears the Signature of Dr. H. H. Fletcher

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS
R. L. Howell to W. W. Smith, e/2 21-140-56, $7104.
F. W. Potter to First State Bank, Rogers, s/2 21-141-59, $1.
E. C. Pollard to Louis Sonstagen, lot 13, blk. 5, org. Litchville, $800.
Louis Sonstagen to A. D. Lund, et al, same lot, $162.
Adam Krug to John Krug, se 37-140-57, $1.
Robt. Kee to A. G. Kee, lots 1, 2, 3 and 4 and sw 20-139-60, $5015.
E. T. Sandvold to Anton Thomsen, sw 4-142-60, $1.
O. O. Berg to J. O. and M. G. Berg, s/2 nw 31-139-58, $1.
A. O. Kjelland to O. A. Kjelland, w/2 32-139-59, $4116.
Pohn Anderson to Otto Anderson, e/2 se 3-138-57, $1.
John Anderson to Otto Anderson, sw 35-139-57, $2000.
John Anderson to C. A. Neuman, nw 2-141-57, $6000.
Martin Thoreson to Jas. G. Thoreson, sw 18-138-57, $1.
S. J. Foy to Gustaf Hoffman, lot 8, blk. 16, Granger's Ad. V. C., $1.
Her Son Subject to Croup
"My son Edwin is subject to croup," writes Mrs. E. O. Irwin, New Kensington, Pa. "I put in many sleepless hours at night before I learned of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mothers need not fear this disease if they keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house and use it as directed. It always gave my boy relief." Obtainable everywhere.

VALLEY CITY AUTO CO.
Paige Motor Cars, supplies and accessories. Expert repair work done. Some good Second-hand cars for sale cheap.
Corner Fourth St. and Sixth Ave. PHONE 636
John Russell and B. A. Fredrickson