

From Wednesday's Daily

Mrs. F. N. Whittaker, of Fergus Falls, Minn., was a Valley City visitor last night.

Rev. L. G. Moultrie was a passenger to Fargo on No. 4 yesterday afternoon having business in the Gateway City.

A. G. Kitchian, one of Wimbledon's business men, was here yesterday afternoon and evening, looking after business matters.

Jens Henriksen and Henry G. Aas were up from Fingal yesterday to hear Mr. Liggett speak at the Chautauqua Park.

Among those attending the convention of dentists being held in Fargo this week are Drs. Palmer, Roberts and Paul Featherstone.

Conductor Vic Landquist, who has been doing main line work for the past two months, has returned to the city and is back on the job in the local yard train.

Mrs. S. J. Aandahl arrived in the city from Litchville last night and was a guest at the Rudolf Hotel. She expects Mr. Aandahl to arrive and come up to meet him but he did not show up last night.

H. E. Seigfried, the Fargo traveling man was here yesterday looking after the wants of his customers in Valley City.

You are cordially invited to the Baptist Mission church, which is to be at 8 o'clock. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Gust Halvorson. Come and bring your friends.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Our Savior's Lutheran church will meet in the church parlors Thursday afternoon. Lunch will be served by the ladies from Circle No. 1.

Mr. Geo. B. Caley was down to Fingal and Nome Tuesday in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. camp. He expects to have a bunch of Nome and Fingal boys come to the camp.

H. B. Thomas and family were down from Luverne yesterday looking after some shopping in the city. We appreciate a call at the Times-Record office from the gentleman.

Pat Ogilvie, who has been night clerk at the Valley Hotel for a long time, has severed his connection with that institution and we understand that he will leave for St. Paul in the near future. We are sorry to see Pat leaving the city.

The Senior class of the Valley City High school invites everyone to be present at the annual class day program. This year it is to be in the form of a class funeral. This program is to be held in the High school auditorium this evening at eight o'clock and is free to all.

Chaffee Martin Auklin who has been with the transportation corps at the Arcadian Balloon School, Arcadia, Cal., arrived home Sunday. He was previously stationed at Kelly Field, Texas, and has seen 14 months of service.

Mr. and Mrs. McLees were in Valley City Friday evening to meet their son, Raymond McLees who has just returned from a year's service overseas. Mr. McLees was a member of the 139th Infantry, 35th Division which took part in the San Mihel drive, and led the advance in the Argonne. He is like the rest of the boys more than glad to be home again, but would not have missed the experience for anything.

W. W. Liggett and wife were Kindred Hotel guests last night. Mr. Liggett was the speaker at the league picnic yesterday and remained over last night in the city. It is mighty hard work trying to cram this big league program down the necks of the people and this was a good town for Mr. Liggett to rest in, although from the amount of fun and frolic going on we do not think he had much time to rest.

Next Saturday will come the second matinee for the farmers at the Grand theater. In spite of so much going on last Saturday on account of play day Manager Piller showed four times accommodating about 1500 people. Next Saturday will see another large crowd here if the weather continues fine. The farmers will have finished seeding by that time practically and will come to town in great numbers.

C. C. Chaffee is in the throes of fixing up his store again. He is receiving new fixtures for the main part of the store, remodeling the south wing and placing his millinery department at the front end of that part with fine fixtures and then he is having a fine new front put in in the main part of the store, the whole thing when completed will leave the C. C. Chaffee store one of the finest in appointments of any in the state. Mr. Chaffee believes in progressiveness—that is why he is making his business place attractive and up-to-date.

They tell a rather amusing incident on President C. E. Allen of the Normal school. It is said that when the genial president was starting for his home on Euclid avenue last night the Normal students started to chase him home and the way the president beat it down the street and up several flights of stairs to his own residence would put the champion foot racer in the shade a mile. Mr. Allen, after he got his wind, enjoyed the experience and is rather of the opinion that this North Dakota ozone puts lots of pep into the students. He rather liked the chase—and so did the students.

Last night the Normal school classes were out on a rampage, as it were, but not of a destructive character. The girls to the number of 75 or 100, paraded down town, played ring around the roses around some of the keep to the right sign posts, went through singing stunts, and then marched through the different business places of the town singing and having a big time. This is a custom every year with the Normal students, although they vary the stunts at different times. It sort of puts some pep in the old town and people passing through here do not know at first whether it is a bread riot or what it is until they stop long enough to listen and find out. The students have a real good time and the town folks are glad to see them have it.

Mrs. C. W. Humphrey this morning received a letter from her son, Thomas, saying that he expects to start for the United States in a day or two. The letter was dated May 11 so that he is probably about to land at this time. Mr. Humphrey had been in the hospital for some time and his mother, not hearing from him for a long time, was getting badly worried over it. Thomas has had an operation and his recovery for some time was uncertain.

The Junior-Senior banquet of the high school was given at the Rudolf Hotel last Friday at which time the Juniors entertained the seniors to a real banquet. Covers were laid for 75 and a three course banquet was served. After the inner man had been satisfied there was a program of toasts from various members of the classes some of them being real oratorical gems. There were several musical numbers and from all reports this banquet with its attendant program of speeches and music and fun, was a very enjoyable affair—in fact one of the enthusiastic juniors said it was a most wonderful banquet.

EXCEPTIONAL CAST IN RULING PASSIONS

A most exceptional cast is to be seen in Select Pictures' big special attraction, "Ruling Passions," written and directed by Abraham S. Schomer, which comes to the Grand Theater on Friday and Saturday, matinee and evening. The featured players in this interesting play of social problems are Julia Dean and Edwin Arden. Both of these artists are more than well known in this city, while Earl Schenck and Claire Whitney, two other important members of the cast, have appeared in a number of the most successful productions seen on the screen.

Miss Dean is a well-known vaudeville actress, in addition to having spent several successful years on the speaking stage. She played in support of Kyrle Bellew and Eleanor Robson and created the role of Virginia Blaine in "Bought and Paid For." She has been seen on the screen in "The Ransom" and "Rasputin, the Black Monk."

Edwin Arden for 35 years was one of the most popular stars on the Broadway speaking stage, having appeared in hundreds of highly successful productions. His screen appearances include "The Iron Heart," "Grey Mask," "Beloved Vagabond," and countless others.

Claire Whitney and Earl Schenck are also widely known. For the last two years Miss Whitney's name has been foremost among the country's ablest actresses, while Mrs. Schenck is destined to be one of the most popular leading men and stars of the film world.

Don't forget that this picture will be shown free to outside visitors on Saturday afternoon.
