

From Tuesday's Daily

Miss Borghild Olsby left on No. 1 last night for Modesto, Cal., to visit for some time with her sister, Ovidia.

Leonard Wood arrived from Minneapolis this morning and will go to the farm near Luverne. He is a son of L. W. Wood.

W. C. Fawcett and family, of Starkweather, N. D., are Valley City visitors today, arriving by auto last night.

T. W. Twistleton, of Leal, was down Sunday to spend the day with his family who are camping at Chautauqua Park.

O. S. Gunderson and the Misses Jeff left a few days ago by auto for Ashby, Minn., where they will visit friends for a few days.

B. E. Crippen and wife, of Parshall, N. D., are here today, arriving in the city last night and are stopping at the Rudolf Hotel.

Jack Gruenberg, brother of Mrs. Abe Stern, left on Sunday night for Minneapolis where he will visit for a few days. Jack says he expects to go out to California to live soon.

Frank C. Phillips and wife of Cleveland, Ohio, are Valley City guests today and are sojourning at one of the local hotels. They have been touring the Yellowstone Park and are on the return trip to Ohio.

Mrs. C. L. Peterson and daughter Jane left on No. 4 this afternoon for Grand Forks to visit with friends for a few days.

Why not get an aeroplane for soldiers home coming and cut out some of the other stuff? Sounds reasonable to us.

Mrs. F. H. Bradshaw, 716 Eighth avenue north, will entertain the All Saints Episcopal Guild Wednesday afternoon. All members are urged to be present.

Lieut. Mit Mason has arrived safely in New York and is at Camp Meddett, so word has been received here. Just as soon as he gets mustered out he will return to Valley City.

Miss Jennie McKenna arrived on No. 1 from Farmington, Minn., to visit the J. N. Diebler home in this city. Miss McKenna is a niece of Mrs. Diebler.

Mrs. L. Standish, who has been visiting Mrs. Mary Schmidt and her two nieces, Mrs. John Neustaedter and Mrs. Robert Bowen, left last night for her home at Casselton.

Con Hankey, of Grafton, N. D., is here today, looking after arrangements for the barbecue. He is a specialist in this line and will have charge of the barbecue for the soldiers home coming.

The committees are around soliciting money for the soldiers home coming Friday. The town people are coming across in fine shape and the amount was practically raised last night.

Pat Ogilvie, the rotund and genial citizen who has been night clerk at the Valley Hotel, has moved his bag and baggage to the Rudolf Hotel where he will officiate as night clerk in that popular institution. Pat has many friends who are glad to know that he is still to be with us.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Fletcher and Mrs. R. W. Clark, of Jackson, Mich., who have been visiting Mrs. Mary Hood and other friends here, left on the early morning train today for their home at Jackson. They had been to the Detroit lakes previous to coming here enjoying an outing.

Ten boys are wanted by J. H. Sampson Thursday morning to peel potatoes and fix corn and do other jobs for the soldiers home coming. Here is an opportunity for some boys to earn some extra money. If you want the job see Sampson.

Wm. Burchill was down from his big farm yesterday. He was running around with a lot of tin kettles and pots and Billy DuVall asked him what he was going to do with them and he replied he was going to build an automobile in competition with the Ford. Wm. is figuring on coming to town to live this fall. Good for him.

Olaf Sordahl, who is attending Miami University at Oxford, Ohio, is spending his vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Sordahl. Olaf is a graduate of the Valley City High school and is making splendid progress. During the war he was in the aviation service.

Henry Schroeder recently purchased from the Riedman-Ellis Company one of those fine Aultman-Taylor outfits consisting of gas engine and separator and is now well equipped to take care of his crop and also the crop of others.

Miss Celia Holzman entertained at a swimming party Monday afternoon at her home on East Main street. The party was given in honor of Norma Spencer and Dorothy Roberts of Minneapolis. The other guests present were Hilda Turk and Elsie Jacobson. After a peach of a swim they went up the river in a canoe for their picnic supper.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies of the M. E. church will meet together in the parlors of the church on Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. It will be a mystery and enigma meeting. The members are requested to bring the June number of the magazine with them.

Mrs. G. A. M. Anderson, arrived from Des Moines, Iowa, to remain some time at the Stenshoel home here. Mrs. Anderson will be remembered as Miss Clara Stenshoel and married Capt. G. A. M. Anderson, of the regular army. The captain has been called to France for service and left July 5 for that country.

Mr. W. G. Strieb, formerly of Jamestown, and who has lately returned from government service, today takes charge of the Peoples Opinion, as manager and editor, succeeding L. W. Hubbard. Mr. Strieb expects his wife to join him just as soon as he can find a suitable house or apartment to live in. The Times-Record welcomes Mr. and Mrs. Strieb to Valley City.

Editor R. P. Colburn, accompanied by Mrs. Colburn, are spending the day in the city, arriving from Hastings yesterday. Mr. Colburn recently suspended his publication, the Hastings Times, and is looking after some other location. In the meantime the people of Hastings are trying to devise some means of keeping the paper alive. "You never miss the water until the well runs dry," they say.

A picnic for the school children of Our Savior's Lutheran church will be held at the Chautauqua Park Wednesday afternoon from 4 o'clock and on. All the children of the church, also the grown-ups are welcome. The ladies are asked to bring lunch. Those who have no other means of reaching the park are asked to meet at the church at 4 o'clock, where they will find autos waiting for them. Come and enjoy an outing with the little folks. C. G. Naeseth.

Valley City was treated to a real flying machine exhibition last night that was pleasing to say the least. Aviator E. W. McElliott, of Appleton, Minn., flew over the city last night about nine o'clock, making many graceful curves, just like a big eagle flying apparently without effort. He had been at Morris, Minn., flying and was on his way to Rugby, N. D., where he is to give an exhibition. He left this morning for Rugby. Mr. McElliott alighted on the fair grounds last night and was a guest at the Kings Hotel while here. His machine is said to be able to travel eighty miles an hour but he has not tried it out to the limit yet.

C. H. Ferguson was in the Times-Record office this morning showing us a sample of hemp tow raised on the farm of Mr. Fred A. Smith, near Tower City. It is last year's tow and a very fine sample. This tow will sell for not less than four cent per pound which brings $80 per ton and two or three tons can be raised to the acre. This appears to be a profitable crop and now that we have a fibre mill at Valley City our farmers should get behind the project by raising more hemp. Thus they will be making money for themselves and boosting a home institution. We made Charley pay up his subscription before we let him out of the office—we need the money.

J. H. Whitcher who got a bump on the head last week is recovering nicely from that. Last week he got another bump of a different nature. He saw some races and he is full of pep when it comes to race horses. He saw several likely youngsters racing around the track and got stuck on a five years old, Robert C. owned by Fred Carlson, of Wimbledon. The bug got to working on his system so strongly he could hardly sleep for a night or two and not only until he concluded a purchase for Robert C. did he get and peace of mind. We noticed him going home the other day taking Robert C. with him. Look out for J. H. next year.

From Saturday's Daily

Pius Stroth is among the many down from Sanborn taking in the races and stock show.

A. J. Hinchberger is down from Sanborn looking after some business matters and attending the fair.

Editor John Pavlik, of Buffalo, N. D., was a Valley City visitor last night.

Miss Margaret Green and Miss Ashley of this city leave tonight for Fremont, Ohio, for an extended visit with relatives and friends.

M. J. Rodlin, a prominent citizen of Michigan City, was here yesterday attending the fair and looking after business matters.

Miss Anice Buckenton, of Morris, Minn., who has been teaching in the Lincoln school for the past term, returned to her home last night.

The Court of Honor will hold its regular meeting July 14. Refreshments, and a good time. All members are urged to be present.

Lloyd Holland was a city visitor yesterday. He is en route from Minot to Mahanomen, Minn., where he will assume a position as Linograph operator.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Gudmestad is here from Litchville today attending the fair and looking after other matters in the city.

Dr. E. A. Fray, city health officer, accompanied by Chief of Police Swanson, made a tour of the city this morning to see how clean the old town was. They report that our citizens have done very well and the town is in a very clean and orderly condition. There were only three or four places where the owners needed to be told to clean up and they will get busy and attend to this matter. Valley City is a clean city according to the health officer, who is pleased at the way the citizens have taken care of their premises from a sanitary standpoint. The one thing needed now is for the owners of vacant lots and others to cut down the unsightly weeds around and in front of their property.

Carl Niernberg and Clifford Tang arrived from Cooperstown last night and will be on hand at the automobile races at the fair grounds this afternoon.

Mrs. A. J. Newell and Miss Florence Newell, of Cooperstown, are Valley City visitors today, arriving last night. They were Rudolf hotel guests.

Miss Carlotta Hallock, sister of Mrs. J. Van Houten, left this morning on No. 3 for Glendive, Mont., after an extended visit at the Van Houten home in this city.

Lieut. Jas. A. Soules, of Dickinson, passed through the city this morning on No. 3 en route home from overseas service. Mr. Soules went away from here with the headquarters company.

P. H. McKinstry, was called to Detroit, Minn., today to wire some cottages at the lakes. Evidently the summer people are rushing the Detroit electricians thus forcing them to send out an S. O. S. for more help in that line.

Claus Jackson, of Hannaford, N. D., one of the leading business men of his city and a former sheriff of Griggs county, was in the city last night and this morning looking after business matters.

Miss Edmure Robarge who has been teaching here during the past school year left this morning for her home in Buffalo, Minn. She expects to return this fall for the coming session.

Our friend C. J. Warley writes to have his paper sent to 417 Plymouth Building, Minneapolis. He says he is now with Davis & Braisted, merchant brokers, of Minneapolis. Here's wishing C. J. much success.

Mrs. N. Markuson writes us from Forsyth, Mont., to the effect that she cannot get along without the Times Record and encloses a year's subscription to the daily. We are glad to have the paper appreciated and thank her for the subscription.

Among the number attending the treasurer's convention yesterday was E. C. Eddy, of Fargo, one of the pioneer citizens of the state and one of the prominent men of the gateway city. We were mighty glad to renew acquaintance with Mr. Eddy.

The Inter-State fair is to be held at Fargo on July 21-26 and Secretary McRoberts says it is going to be bigger and better than ever. They always do have a great fair at Fargo and this year will be no exception to the general rule. Let's go to Fargo on those dates.

There was a slight error in the article from the Fibre Company yesterday. The annual report was given by the retiring secretary, W. H. Messer, who from now on will look after the interests of the Company as field man, attending to the culling and harvest of the hemp crop, which will soon be upon us. Mr. Messer is an expert along these lines and will give all of his time to this part of the work. Mr. Messer is the founder and promoter of this company and to his untiring effort is due much of the success of the enterprise.

HAVE WE A SPEED LIMIT HERE?

It was a lucky collision that occurred at the corner of The American Exchange Bank last night—lucky in the sense that it was a miracle that somebody was not seriously hurt. It seems that Jesse Marquisee and his brother-in-law, Mont Benson, of Lidgerwood, N. D., were driving south in the former's new Sedan Ford. They had crossed the railroad track and were making the turn east at the bank corner when Mr. Jones, driving his taxi at a high rate of speed going north bumped into the rear end of Mr. Marquisee's car, damaging it considerably and in the deal Mr. Benson had his arm cut up quite badly. Mr. Jones was trying to catch No. 1 with a passenger. His zeal to get the passenger to the train is all right but we do not believe that it should be done at the expense of the public or to endanger life and limb which is done every time such a stunt is pulled off. There is too much of this speeding done and it is about time somebody with authority put a stop to it. Mr. Jones is not the only one by any means and is no worse than lots of fellows who do not run taxis. Many drivers, particularly coming from the side streets, pay no more attention to cars coming up the main streets and many narrow escapes are the result. In other words you do not have to worry about your car, but you do have to worry about the other fellow—because he won't therefore the burden is on you to protect yourself against careless drivers. Mr. Marquisee and Mr. Benson are indeed fortunate to have escaped with so little injury. It is tough luck, too, to have the new car damaged this way by pure carelessness, and that is what it was in this particular instance. In our opinion taxi drivers have no more license to speed than anybody else and should be regulated just the same as others. Don't you think so?

J. H. Whitcher received a very nasty cut on the head a day or two ago that required a doctor and fourteen stitches to fix up. Mr. Whitcher was assisting in moving a big hay rack from one wagon to another and in some manner the rack slipped and he was struck with considerable force on the head, making a large three cornered gash on the cranium that almost knocked him out entirely. However, J. H. is getting along nicely and he is so enthusiastic over a "hoss" race that he is right on the job watching the ponies go at the fair. The friends of Mr. Whitcher are pleased that he escaped with even that much injury and to know that it was not serious. He is a little weak yet but will be able "to root" about as ever in a few days.

TAXPAYER'S SUIT IS APPEALED

The Supreme court of the United States will get the suit instituted by 42 North Dakota taxpayers attacking the constitutionality of laws passed by recent state legislature, by a certificate of appeal signed by Judge C. F. Amidon of the United States District court. The supreme court will review Judge Amidon's decision both in the matter of jurisdiction and on the point raised by the taxpayers, who contended that the state had the right to tax the public for the operation of private industries or businesses. Judge Amidon dismissed the case on June 14, holding that his court was without jurisdiction. The appellants, in asking for the appeal to the higher court, held that the judge erred in deciding the provisions of the laws in question do not violate the fourteenth amendment of the federal constitution, and that he erred in holding the amount in controversy does not exceed $3,000. Seven attorneys representing the 42 taxpayers made the petition for the appeal. They are: N. C. Young, J. S. Watson, E. T. Conny, all of Fargo; and Tracy R. Bangs, Philip R. Bangs, C. J. Murphy and T. A. Toner of Grand Forks.

tourists and at more leisure. One day will be spent at Mammoth Hot Springs, two at Upper Geyser Basin, with Old Faithful playing every 70 minutes right in our front door yard, and three days at Grand Canyon, just on the brink of the canyon, from which several side trips will be taken, including the top of Mt. Washburn and Dunraven Pass. The party will leave the park by the Cody road and Sylvan Pass, through the Shoshone Canyon, and by the big Shoshone irrigation dam, one of the highest in the United States. This class is organized under the regular plan of work done at the Normal school, and one credit will be given to those who wish to work for credit. Persons who do not wish to work for credit may be admitted, up to the limit of the size of the class, but will be expected to conform to the general plans of the class. There is still room for a limited number to take advantage of this opportunity to see some of America's wonders under the supervision of one who has made a considerable study of the areas to be visited. The total expense of the trip is estimated at about $120. Any one interested in regard to further details should see Mr. Switzer.

LANGER CALLS ON PUBLIC TO HELP

Attorney General William Langer is calling upon patriotic North Dakota citizens to assist him in enforcing the provisions of House Bill 83, under which it is made the duty of the attorney general to camp on the trail of tax dodgers. In a letter to the public, the attorney general says: "Reports have been frequent that certain persons and corporations of wealth and influence have not been paying their full tax and that some of them have tried to evade their money and credits tax. I have already taken steps to compel foreign corporations to pay their proper tax on money and credits. "If you know of any persons or corporation that is evading his or its taxes or paying less taxes than they should pay, I would appreciate it if you would let me know. I want to do all in my power to make all people and corporations pay their full and just tax."

RED CROSS NOTES

The St. Paul Union depot sandwich making cord was broken Sunday night when all hands turned in and made 278 in 30 minutes for 160 soldiers en route from Garden City, L. I., to Camp Lewis, Wash. Close to 1,000,000 American dough-boys landed at British ports during the war and every one of them received refreshments and smokes from the American Red Cross canteens at the various debarkation points. Useful and ornamental little articles made by the wounded soldiers of Fort Snelling general hospital, sold under the auspices of the Red Cross netted more than $325 at a recent sale. The American Red Cross is being mobilized in London to fight Bolshevism in Europe, especially in southern Russia and in the Balkan states. This fight is to be made not by a war on the Reds directly, but on the conditions which breed discontent; namely: disease, poverty, dirt and hunger.

PLAN SECOND TRAVEL CLASS

The second annual travel study class under the direction of the State Normal school will leave Valley City on August 12, for a twelve days study tour of the Bad Lands of North Dakota and Yellowstone National Park. Two days will be spent at Medora in the heart of the Bad Lands, and they will be observed from many different angles. Among the points of interest visited will be the burning coal mines, the petrified forests, the Casper Trail, the Roosevelt Ranch, and some of the great coal seams and a coal mine in operation. In Yellowstone Park two extra days beyond that of the regular tour will be spent in seeing some of the things that are not seen by the majority of

DODGE-LIVINGSTON

A quiet little wedding was solemnized Thursday afternoon at the Congregational parsonage in Jamestown, when Rev. C. H. Phillips spoke the words that united in marriage Neal Dodge and Nina Livingston. Attending the young couple were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Dodge, brother and sister-in-law of the groom and Mrs. Arthur Bjorhus, sister of the bride. The groom is from Edmonds, N. D., where he is interested in farming, and the bride is a former Barnes county young lady whose home is near Driscoll, N. D. Their numerous friends wish them much joy and happiness. The Internal Revenue Bureau has announced an extension of time to August 15 to partnership and personal service corporations for filing income tax returns, where such concerns have a fiscal year ending on the last day of January, February, March or April 1919. O. G. Lund was down from Rogers yesterday looking after business matters.
