

WHEN A WAR CRY PACIFIES

"It would be difficult for me to say which is the most dramatic song ever written," said Lillian Eubank, the famous prima donna, who will appear here on the Artist Course, "but I can easily name a certain song that I once sang more dramatically than ever before or since.

Lillian Eubank was aware of what I was doing, I was up on the stage singing that thrilling clarion cry of the Valkyries, which starts so dramatically on the words Ho-yo-to-ho.

MAURICE DUMESNIL ON ARTIST COURSE

As a pianist Maurice Dumesnil ranks among the best. From all parts of Europe to all parts of South America, the noted Frenchman holds a high place among musicians.

RICCARDO MARTIN TENOR COMING

The coming recital in this city of Riccardo Martin, Amica's leading opera and concert tenor, is looked upon as a notable musical event.

Riccardo Martin was the first great American operatic tenor. In 1916 Caruso was taken ill and was forced to leave the Metropolitan for the season.

Riccardo Martin lead, singing all the noted Italian parts with great success. Later he joined the Boston Grand Opera Company and made several trans-continental tours.

In his concerts Martin displays all the fine arts of his long and careful training. He is an excellent pianist and a composer of no mean ability.
