

From Tuesday's Daily

F. W. Murphy of Bismarck, was a business visitor in the city last night.

C. H. Bussell of Leal, was a Valley City business visitor yesterday afternoon.

C. F. Jensen was a passenger to Grand Forks this morning where he goes to attend to business matters.

E. J. Pegg and Jack Woodruff were Fargo visitors yesterday, going down to look after business matters for the baseball association.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Willson and son Irwin of Leal, were Valley City visitors last night, coming down from their farm late yesterday afternoon.

Hon. Tom Casey, of Litchville, N. D., one of Barnes county's bonanza farmers, was here yesterday, looking after some business matters in the city.

A. J. McInnes, C. S. Brown, Howard Willson and several other men of the county interested in Farm Bureau work, were passengers to Grand Forks this morning where they will attend a meeting of the North Dakota Farm Bureau.

J. A. Biggs of Mandan, was a Valley City business visitor yesterday. Mr. Biggs was formerly of the city schools of this city but is now acting as representative of The Country Gentleman.

A crew of concrete workers are busy this morning laying a new sidewalk in front of the Bank of Valley City building. When this sidewalk was built two years ago some poor cement was used in the work and the sidewalk has not worn well, requiring the building of a new walk.

Word is received in the city that Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Lanners of St. Paul, Minn., are the proud parents of a 7-12 pound baby daughter born on May 20th. Mrs. Lanners was formerly Viola Carlson of this city.

Rev. A. Quello arrived in the city last evening from Fergus Falls, Minn. where he is now residing. Rev. Quello will remain in the city until the first part of June when he will move his family to the Minnesota city to make their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sampson autoed to Fargo yesterday afternoon to take in the Fargo-Jamestown baseball game there but owing to the heavy rain there was no game. Mr. Sampson continued to St. Paul last night where he goes to look after business matters. Joe Heiling also went to Fargo on No. 2 and was to drive Mr. Sampson's car back last night.

Jas. Manoles is fixing up the front part of the Liberty Cafe building to get it into shape for use. When this building burned the frame part at the rear was completely destroyed but the front part, which is of concrete block construction, was not damaged to any great extent and Mr. Manoles has decided to remodel and repair it to make it habitable.

L. Cota, of the Middlewest Barber Shop, offered prizes of $2.00 in trade to the players making home runs in Saturday or Sunday's games and $1.50 in trade to the players making three base hits. Gilbert and Hart were the winners of the $2.00 prizes, having each gotten home runs in Saturday's game while Dutch Gerner annexed the $1.50 prize with his three bagger in Sunday's game.

Editor Trubshaw and I. E. Jepsen motored to Pillsbury yesterday afternoon in Mr. Jepsen's car to attend to personal matters in the neighboring town. They returned in time to get caught in the miniature cloud burst about 8 miles northwest of the city and had their own troubles getting back home.

The Woodmen of the city held a meeting at the Odd Fellows hall last evening. While the meeting was not very well attended it was an enjoyable one. Routine business was disposed of and the balance of the evening spent in the enjoyment of a social time and smoker. The members of this order will hold another meeting a month from yesterday at which time it is expected that there will be a much larger attendance.

Mrs. Neil C. Macdonald arrived yesterday from Columbus, Mont., and spent the day with friends in the city. She is on her way east to join her husband, having finished her school work at the state teachers' college in Montana. She reports that Mr. Macdonald has not been in good health of late and has been advised by his doctors that he must take a rest this summer if he wishes to be able to resume his work next fall. Mrs. Macdonald left last evening for the east.

The Business and Professional Women's Club held their regular meeting last evening, May 22nd, in the rooms of the Norwegian Free Lutheran Church. The ladies of this church served a very nice supper to the Club members. After the supper had been enjoyed by all a number of songs composed for the State meeting of Business and Professional Women's Club were sung. It was decided to have a Club picnic in the near future or as soon as the "Weather Man" permitted. Volunteers were called for by Mrs. Westergaard, Chairman of the House Committee, to make curtains, hem towels and paint chairs for the Tea Rooms to be opened soon. The Club seems to have a great many artists in their organization, as all responded to the call for painters. The next meeting of the Club will be a special meeting Tuesday, June 6th, the occasion to be a social meeting at their new Club Rooms adjoining the Tea Rooms, if they are completed for occupancy at that time. All members are urged to be present at this meeting as a very unique program is being planned. Lillian Gubelman and Emma von Domarus represented Valley City at the State Meeting at Grand Forks, May 18, 19, and 20, but owing to other matters taking up the time, they were unable to give an account of the delightful time they had.
