S. T. C. PHY. ED. GIVES EXHIBITION

The Annual Exhibition of the Department of Hygiene and Physical Education was held last evening on the College campus at seven o'clock. The general scheme of the demonstration this year was a representation of a Russian Mid-Summer Festival. With the strains of the first musical number a group of village maidens from a little village near Nizhni Novgorod, danced on to the green and by the old custom one of the maidens threw the shoe which Fate causes to point in the direction from which the bridegroom of the future is to appear. From then on the plot thickens and the next scene was the Yarmark or Festival with the bright colors, the rustic seats, the round tables and all the holiday gaiety. Dance followed dance including the Gypsy Camp, a large group, the Lujock, the children of the Fair, and the solo dance, The Hussar, well executed by Miss Vivian Christianson leading the troop of Cossacks whose dance was of the military type and very effective. The Butchers Dance was symbolic and depicted the bickerings of trade. A Russian folk song was a feature of the festival. Now the love match develops and Euxodia, the fortune teller, impersonated by Miss Fern Duebendorf, appeared in a fine piece of rhythmic pantomime. The Huzzar is advised by the fortune teller to confer with Swacha, portrayed by Miss Anna Sad. The dance of Swacha was lively and pleasing. This was followed by peasant dances, Tancuj and the Quadrille, which were again opportunities for the display of harmonious color and rhythm. Now the wedding and the stately and at the same time victorious wedding dance, performed by the advanced dancing class, was one of the features of the evening. This was followed by the Brides Dance, a beautiful piece of expression by Miss Ruth Meldahl, and then the grand ending with the large peasant group dancing and finally releasing hundreds of balloons, a mass of varied colors slowly rising into the evening air.

The largest crowd attending the annual exhibition for a number of years enjoyed the program last night. The bleachers providing seats for many spectators were a new feature this year. Credit for this successful affair is due to Miss Cranz and Miss Noll, who directed the dancing, Miss Amidon, who trained the singers, and to those who helped by furnishing the instrumental music.
