

INQUIRIES INTO MORGAN AFFAIRS STARTED TODAY

Examiners of the Interstate Commerce Commission Enter Firm's Office.

COUNSEL VOICES IDEA OF PROBE

Maintains That There Will be no "Fishing Expedition"—Members of Company Received the Investigators Cordially This Noon.

New York, May 28.—Four examiners of the interstate commerce commission arrived at the offices of J. P. Morgan & Co., shortly before noon today to begin the examination of the firm's books and records relating to the New Haven railroad financial transactions.

The results of the examination will be secret until submitted to the commission. Members of the Morgan firm received the examiners cordially. Through it is understood that the examiners shall have free hand as far as the New Haven records are concerned, counsel for the firm insisted there was to be no "fishing expedition."

ASK INVESTIGATION

Norris Thinks New York Central System Violates Trust Act. Washington, May 27.—A resolution calling upon the attorney general to inform the senate of the combination of railroad lines, comprising the New York Central system, is in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, was introduced in the senate by Senator Norris, republican, of Nebraska today.

On objection by Senator Reed, the resolution went over until tomorrow. SARAH BERNHARDT ILL. Paris, May 28.—Mrs. Sarah Bernhardt, the actress, who is on tour, was reported seriously ill today at Liege, in dispatches received here. The fact that her son, Maurice, remained here after receiving a message telling of Mrs. Bernhardt's indisposition was, however, taken to indicate that the actress' condition was not grave.

PANAMA CARGO REACHES N. Y. New York, May 28.—The steamer Colon, which arrived yesterday from Cristobal, brought the first freight that came through the Panama canal. The cargo consisted of 31,800 sacks of sugar and 1,000 tons of flour.

BEEPS DISRUPTS DEBATE. Washington, May 28.—The rattle of a tin pan, wafted into the senate chamber and disturbed distinguished senators discussing the Panama canal question. Outside a Maryland farmer was "settling" a swarm of bees. The proud queen had led her gentle workers right to the seat of government.

TOMAH TOLLER ROBBED. Tomah, Wis., May 28.—A burglar who broke into the room of John Young at the hotel here, not satisfied with the $47 in a trouser's pocket of his victim, also carried away the trousers. Young started a crowd of men on their way to work early today by dashing through the street in his nightshirt crying for the police. An officer accompanied the man back to the hotel. A long search resulted in the finding of the trousers in a neighboring yard, with the cash missing.

DISCUSS HEALTH. This Question Most Prominent Before School Officers. McClusky, N. D., May 27.—School officers of Sheridan county held their annual convention here yesterday and today. Supt. E. J. Taylor of the state schools was the principal speaker. The question of conserving the health of school children was given special attention in the programs on both days.

Sees City in 128th Year; Risen Where Primeval Wilderness Once Was; Old Chief Visits Minneapolis

(Herald Special Service.) Minneapolis, May 27.—John Smith, or "Be-Nu-Gaw-Wes," for more than 100 years chief of the once-powerful tribe of Chippewa Indians, who is 128 years old, as he reckons it, and whose existence, as a boy, 116 years ago, is verified by government records, is in Minneapolis to see for himself before he dies, the great city that has risen in his lifetime, where once a primeval wilderness was unbroken. The last of the great Indian chieftains of the country, bent and shrunken by age, still is able to walk about, and all his faculties have been retained. He arrived last night.
