

The City In Brief

Addressed Eagles—Bernard Mullen, formerly of this city, addressed the local assemblage of Eagles Friday night, at a banquet given in his honor.

Hotel Radisson, Minneapolis, gives you more for the price you pay than any other hotel in the Twin Cities.—Adv.

Fletcher Goes Hunting—Dr. E. E. Fletcher left today for Thief Lake, where he will hunt ducks during the next few days.

All Union Barber Shops of Grand Forks and East Grand Forks will close Labor day, Monday, September 7, at 11 a. m.—Adv.

Daughter Born—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Lindquist, 16 Stratford building, are the parents of a baby daughter born Friday afternoon at St. Michael's hospital.

The Grand Bowling Alley, which has seven alleys and equipped with automatic pin setter, are now open and in full swing. Fax us a visit.—Adv.

Girl to Mandan—A young girl sentenced to the state reform school Friday by Judge C. M. Cooley of the juvenile court, will be taken to Mandan tonight by Sheriff J. Z. Benson.

September 5—This is registration day in the junior department of Wesley college conservatory. Register Saturday and get your choice of lesson hours. Instruction in piano and violin includes free lessons in elementary harmony and history of music.—Adv.

New Trial Granted—Judge C. M. Cooley has granted the application for a new trial in the case of the First State Bank of Lincoln against H. H. Hand, involving a note given by Hand, and which was decided in favor of the bank in the first trial.

The Hotel Radisson, Minneapolis, shows an interest in your comfort and welfare that extends beyond merely providing a place to eat and sleep and gives you better accommodations and service than any other hotel in the Twin Cities. Popular prices.—Adv.

Romanoff Speaks—Dr. Moses Romanoff of New York, one of the most prominent Jewish rabbis of the country, delivered an address at the local synagogue at 10:30 o'clock this morning. He will speak again at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening.

Mr. Holmes Gaining—T. B. Holmes of this city, who underwent an operation at Rochester, Minn., several days ago, for a stomach ulcer, is gaining rapidly, according to advice from the hospital. William Holmes, his son, is with him.

Register Sept. 5—Wesley college conservatory junior department opens for lessons Monday, September 7. Register Saturday and get your choice of lesson hours. Piano and violin instruction includes free lessons in elementary harmony and history of music.—Adv.

Principal at Milton—Henry Qualheim went to Milton this morning, where he has been engaged as superintendent of schools during the coming year. Mr. Qualheim has been up at Milton to make arrangements for the opening of school.

Finley Orchestra—If you don't want the best music don't come to us. We have Organ, Chimes, Bells, Xylophones and trans. Expert band teaching and piano tuning. Call 1308 or 665-3. W.—Adv.

May Local in Minnesota—Walter A. Liljquist, who has been cashier of the Farmers' Security bank of Park River for some time, passed through the city en route to St. Paul, having several Minnesota offers which he will look over before making definite decision as to acceptance.

Domiciled in New Home—Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Hilleboe and children arrived from Grand Forks on Monday to take up their permanent residence in Park River. They are now nicely domiciled in their newly purchased residence on Wedge avenue—Park River Gazette-News.

Joins High School Faculty—Harry South, who graduated from the arts department at the state university last June, passed through the city last evening on his way to Cathay, N. D., where he will be connected with the high school faculty. He attended summer school here this year, but during the past few weeks he has been at his home at Argusville.

On Legal Business—John Carmody of Hillsboro, assistant attorney general of North Dakota, is here on legal business today.

Lyche is Here—Chas. Lyche of Hatton, state's attorney of Traill county, is in Grand Forks today on legal business.

Some Drinks—If you want a real drink, hot or cold, ask Bill at Giests. You'll get it.—Adv.

Will Work Here—Horace Salter of Langdon has arrived in Grand Forks to accept a position here.

Two Drunks Today—Two drunks were picked up Friday evening by the local police. Both paid fines in police court this morning.

Mayor Opens Alleys—Brooks Bron, new bowling alleys were formally opened Friday night, Mayor James A. Dinne rolling the first ball down the bowling alleys.

Hunters Start—J. D. Turner and C. J. Shepard left today for the western part of the state for several days of chicken hunting.

On Arriving at Minneapolis, go direct to the Hotel Radisson. You will be pleased to recommend it to your friends when you return home.—Adv.

Begin Now—To take your Sunday evening dinner at Hotel Dakota, waiter to the taste of all. Dinner from 6 to 8:30.—Adv.

Insurance Men Back—S. B. Seese and B. J. Sanders of the Great Northern Life Insurance company returned late Friday from a business trip through the northern part of the state.

Get in line and place your orders early for your fall and winter suits for we are now fully equipped with first-class workmen and can do your work promptly. Sindal Brown, 411 Alpha avenue, next to library.—Adv.

At the Met.—"Bringing in the Law" at the Met today is a western story, delivered at 10:30 o'clock this morning. Matinee 3:30. Evening 7:30 to 10:30.—Adv.

Munch Minister Coming—Rev. J. W. Bruch of Munich will be among the visiting Lutheran ministers in the city next week for the conference that will be held here.

Here on Business—C. W. Anderson, a prominent banker from Wallis, was in the city yesterday attending to important business. He returned home this morning.

Publicity Committee—President Tracy Bangs has appointed a publicity committee for the meeting of the State Bar association to be held next week, consisting of Walter Quigley, H. A. Libby and L. A. Chance.

The Best Places in the city to eat and enjoy your Sunday dinner, Hough's Dairy Lunch, Stratford block, and under Ruettell's Clothing Store.—Adv.

The Grand Forks School of Music announces a musical kindergarten course for students from 5 to 8 years of age, at a very nominal fee. Miss May Curtis in charge. Tuesday and Fridays at 10:30.—Adv.

Bailey is O. K.—W. J. Bailey has returned from Grand Forks, where he went to be examined by doctors of that city. They found that his present treatment was bringing him along in good shape.—Inkster Enterprise.

Card of Thanks—We wish to express our sincere thanks to neighbors and friends who have extended us so many kindnesses during the sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother.—William Stormont and family.

Cost Kept Down—Quality Kept Up.—No better medicine could be made for coughs, colds, croup, hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchitis, etc., than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. That's why they can't improve the quality and war or no war, the price remains the same. No opiates. Don't take substitutes, for Foley's Honey and Tar is the best.—McGrath's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Work is Delayed—The construction work on the two new residences being erected in Riverside Park by M. Norman has been delayed several days, but was resumed this week and they soon will be ready for occupancy. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Colborn will occupy one of the houses, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Norman will occupy the other.

A Lame Back—Kidney Trouble Causes It.—And it will give you even worse if not checked. Mrs. H. T. Strayne, Gainesville, Ga., was fairly down on her back with kidney trouble and inflamed bladder. She says: "I took Foley Kidney Pills and now my back is stronger than in years, and both kidney and bladder troubles are entirely gone."—McGrath's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Comfortable Place—Plan to take your Sunday dinner at the best—Hotel Dakota. Special Sunday evening dinner served from 6 to 8:30.—Adv.

Miss Emily Nash is ready to take pupils in piano, harmony, composition and musical history, 503 South Fifth street. N. W. 151.—Adv.

Finest Hotel—The Hotel Radisson, Minneapolis, is the finest hotel in the Twin Cities; popular prices.—Adv.

At the Hotel Northern—Catereria lunch 25c, dining room service meals 50c. Catereria open until 9 p. m.—Adv.

At Hotel Dacotah—We serve everything that's good to eat. Plan to take Sunday evening dinner here from 6 to 8:30.—Adv.

Close for Labor Day—All city and county offices in Grand Forks will be closed for the entire day Monday on account of Labor day.

Trepanier Ill.—C. P. Trepanier is ill at Bemidji, Minn., and Mrs. Trepanier went to Bemidji yesterday to be with him. He was taken ill while on a fishing trip.

Miller in Town—Attorney General Andrew Miller was in Grand Forks today in connection with the state oil inspection case hearing. He returned home at noon.

Visiting at Thompson—E. Grimm of Industry, Ill., is at Thompson looking after his farming interests in that locality. He is visiting at the home of L. M. Persinger.

Miss Curtis to Sing—Miss May Curtis of the Grand Forks School of Music faculty will sing the first psalm by James G. MacDermind at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning.

Stop at the Radisson—You will find more of the leading people of North Dakota centered at the Hotel Radisson, Minneapolis, than at any other hotel in the Twin Cities.—Adv.

Sunday Dinners—Special Sunday dinners served every Sunday evening at the two best eating places in the city. Hough's Dairy Lunch, Stratford block, and under Ruettell's Clothing Store.—Adv.

Visiting Alexanders—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schweitzer of Minot, who have been spending the summer at the great lakes, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Alexander of this city on their way home.

Party Known—The party who stole setter dog from H. H. Hanlon is known and unless dog is returned by Sunday morning at the Hotel Radisson, and pushed to the full extent of the law.—Adv.

Pleasure Trip—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Lander and son, Miles, left today morning for Minneapolis for a short trip. They are making the trip by auto and will be gone for several days. Miles will attend school at Williams college, Williamstown, Mass., and will go there from Minneapolis.

Football Star Back—Rheinhold Jacob, center rush on last year's championship high school football team, returned from Lake Bemidji, Minn., late Friday. He made the trip by automobile.

Take Auto Trip—C. H. Nelson and C. Holton left this morning for Roseau and Diet River Falls, Minn., to look after land business. They are making the trip by automobile and will return Sunday.

Dizay Head, Fluttering Heart, Floating Specks—These are signs of kidney and bladder trouble. You will have headaches and be tired all over. Don't wait longer, but take Foley Kidney Pills at once. You will sleep well, eat well and grow strong and active again. Try them.—McGrath's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Taken to Hillsboro—George Morandy, who was arrested yesterday at the Great Northern depot on advice received from Hillsboro, Minn., returned to that city today by advice of W. J. Morandy. He is charged with stealing a watch valued at $20 from H. B. Bissell of Hillsboro.

Taking Vacation—George Read arrived in the city today from Wellington, Wash., where he is employed in the Great Northern offices. He has been in the west for several months and expects to return there. He is taking his vacation. He is the son of J. P. Read of Chestnut street.

Will Teach at Sharon—Miss Alice Hagen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hagen, formerly of Sharon, Minn., the daughter of Sharon, Steele county, has been engaged to teach the seventh and eighth grades of the city schools there. She formerly taught at Mackinac, this county. Miss Hagen has just returned to her home after a visit of several days here.

Don't be Bothered with Coughing.—Stop it with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. It spreads a soothing healing film, slides down the throat, and tickling, hoarseness and nervous hacking, are quickly healed. Children love it—tastes good and no opiates. A man in Texas, 15 miles to a drug store to get a bottle. Best you can buy for croup and bronchial coughs. Try it.—McGrath's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Keeps Your Liver Healthily Active.—A man in Kentucky just told a friend that Foley's Sulfathiazole Tablets were the most wonderful medicine that had ever entered his system. Said he would not be without them. Neither would you, if you had ever tried them. They are a powerful cathartic for chronic constipation or for an occasional purge.—McGrath's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Had Splendid Vacation—Rev. W. H. Matthews, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, returned home today from Chicago and Warsaw, Ill., where he enjoyed his vacation. At Chicago he visited with his sons, William and Edward, who are taking up a commercial college course, and with his parents. Mrs. Matthews and children were at Warsaw in the meantime, and he joined them there for the latter part of his vacation. Mrs. Matthews and family return home the early part of next week.

Zion Lutheran. Martin Egan's pastor. Services Sunday morning at 10:45. In Norse Topic, "The Good Samaritan." The evening service is in English and begins at 8 o'clock. Topic, "The Conversion of the Philippine Jailer." Music by choir and quartet under direction of Lawrence J. Anderson. The work of the Sunday school is resumed this Sunday. The Bible school meets at 9:40 and the Norse at 12 o'clock. The new confirmation class will be enrolled Saturday afternoon, September 13. The class will be divided into two sections, one Norse and one English.

POINT OF VIEW. "I told him there were dozens of people right here in town who had never heard of him." "I guess that took him down a peg." "I guess it didn't. He started right out to find them and borrow money."

RUSSIAN STUDENT HONORED. London, Sept. 4.—A Petrograd dispatch to the Central News says that a Jewish medical student of Vilna, that student received the military cross of St. George for saving the colors of his regiment in the last extremity during the terrible fighting in East Prussia.

Oenas was badly wounded and the commander telegraphed the doctors to do everything possible to save the life of "Oenas the Hero."

Possibility of Frost—There is a possibility of light frost tonight, with forecast showing cooler weather in store Sunday.

Johnstone Funeral Today—Funeral services for Leon Johnstone of Allendale township, who died last Wednesday evening, were held at 1 o'clock this morning at the First Methodist church.

Taylor on Long Trip—W. C. Taylor, state insurance commissioner, has departed on a month's trip, attending the national conference of insurance commissioners at Asheville, N. C.

American Queen Front Lace Corsets—Specialty of couch fittings for prolapsus, hernia, floating kidney, etc. Home fittings by appointment. Jean C. Taylor, 5 Kelsey block.—Adv.

Robertson Speaks at Mohall—President E. P. Robertson of Wesleyan University, who is on his way to the Methodist church at Mohall Sunday morning. He also will speak at the Clay Center Methodist church, near Mohall, in the afternoon.

Citrolax—Users say it is the ideal, perfect laxative. M. J. Perkins says: "I have used pills, oil salts, etc., but never get agreeable and unsatisfactory. 'In Citrolax I have found the ideal laxative.' I never sick, headache, sour stomach, lazy liver, congested bowels. Citrolax is ideal."—McGrath's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Just Matter of Distance—Nelson Alm, who at one time owned land near the present town of Dahlen, arrived here yesterday from his present home in Grand Forks. Mr. Alm was another North Dakota farmer who was lured west by the glowing accounts of that country only to find that he had spent his money on land commitments to that section.—Inkster Enterprise.

First Presbyterian. William H. Matthews, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Bible school at 9:45 o'clock. A. L. Shideler, superintendent. Y. P. S. C. E. at 7 o'clock. The pastor will preach the first sermon after his vacation at the morning hour. Subject, "Providence." Evening sermon on "Lessons We Have Already Learned From the European War."

Miss Emily Bel Nash, who is opening a studio in the Grand Forks, received her degree of bachelor of music from the Chicago Musical college, and has spent the past year studying piano with Adolf Stoye; organ with Harrison Wild; harmony and composition with Adolf Brune; and musical history and composition with F. J. Bowers. Miss Nash studied piano with Adolf Stoye; organ with Harrison Wild; harmony and composition with Adolf Brune; and musical history and composition with F. J. Bowers. Miss Nash studied piano with Adolf Stoye; organ with Harrison Wild; harmony and composition with Adolf Brune; and musical history and composition with F. J. Bowers.

AT THE HOTELS. IMPERIAL—Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rielow, Wallis; Mrs. A. M. Sorenson, E. A. Albertson, Hankinson; G. A. Springer, Mayville; G. W. Bragen, Niagara; T. E. Johnson, York.

DAKOTAH—W. D. McClintock, Rugby; John Carmody, Hillsboro; Andrew Miller, Bismarck; L. A. Rose, Minot; A. C. Hoffman, Fargo; C. S. Sorenson, Valley City; J. L. Gault, Fargo; J. L. Carter, Fargo.

TEN TRADE COMMANDMENTS. At the plant of a prominent steel manufacturing concern in Johnston, Penn., the following ten commandments have been adopted for the benefit of the employees: Thou shalt have no other thoughts than thy work. Thou shalt take no unnecessary risks, nor try to show off, nor play practical jokes, for by thy heedlessness thou mayest do injury which will have effect upon the third and fourth generations to follow. Thou shalt not swear nor lose thy temper when things do not go just right. Remember thou art not the only one on the job, and that thy lives are just as important as thine own. Honor thy job and thyself, that thy days may be long in employment. The clean machinery while it is in motion. Thou shalt not watch thy neighbor's work, but attend to thine own. Thou shalt not let the sleeves of thy shirt hang loose, nor the flap of thy coat to be unbuttoned, as they may get caught in the machinery. Thou shalt not let matches or greasy waste on the floor, nor scotch oil around the bearings, as a dirty worker is a clumsy worker, and a clumsy worker is a menace to his fellow workers. Thou shalt not interfere with the switches, nor the dynamo, nor the cables, nor the engines, nor anything else thou art told is dangerous.

SHADOWS. See all the troping shadows! Grotesque and strange they play About thy path forever. And I'll dance to let them pass. No matter how I treat them, They will not go away.

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

Johnstone Funeral Today—Funeral services for Leon Johnstone of Allendale township, who died last Wednesday evening, were held at 1 o'clock this morning at the First Methodist church.

Taylor on Long Trip—W. C. Taylor, state insurance commissioner, has departed on a month's trip, attending the national conference of insurance commissioners at Asheville, N. C.

American Queen Front Lace Corsets—Specialty of couch fittings for prolapsus, hernia, floating kidney, etc. Home fittings by appointment. Jean C. Taylor, 5 Kelsey block.—Adv.

Robertson Speaks at Mohall—President E. P. Robertson of Wesleyan University, who is on his way to the Methodist church at Mohall Sunday morning. He also will speak at the Clay Center Methodist church, near Mohall, in the afternoon.

Citrolax—Users say it is the ideal, perfect laxative. M. J. Perkins says: "I have used pills, oil salts, etc., but never get agreeable and unsatisfactory. 'In Citrolax I have found the ideal laxative.' I never sick, headache, sour stomach, lazy liver, congested bowels. Citrolax is ideal."—McGrath's Pharmacy.—Adv.

Just Matter of Distance—Nelson Alm, who at one time owned land near the present town of Dahlen, arrived here yesterday from his present home in Grand Forks. Mr. Alm was another North Dakota farmer who was lured west by the glowing accounts of that country only to find that he had spent his money on land commitments to that section.—Inkster Enterprise.

First Presbyterian. William H. Matthews, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Bible school at 9:45 o'clock. A. L. Shideler, superintendent. Y. P. S. C. E. at 7 o'clock. The pastor will preach the first sermon after his vacation at the morning hour. Subject, "Providence." Evening sermon on "Lessons We Have Already Learned From the European War."

Miss Emily Bel Nash, who is opening a studio in the Grand Forks, received her degree of bachelor of music from the Chicago Musical college, and has spent the past year studying piano with Adolf Stoye; organ with Harrison Wild; harmony and composition with Adolf Brune; and musical history and composition with F. J. Bowers. Miss Nash studied piano with Adolf Stoye; organ with Harrison Wild; harmony and composition with Adolf Brune; and musical history and composition with F. J. Bowers.

AT THE HOTELS. IMPERIAL—Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rielow, Wallis; Mrs. A. M. Sorenson, E. A. Albertson, Hankinson; G. A. Springer, Mayville; G. W. Bragen, Niagara; T. E. Johnson, York.

DAKOTAH—W. D. McClintock, Rugby; John Carmody, Hillsboro; Andrew Miller, Bismarck; L. A. Rose, Minot; A. C. Hoffman, Fargo; C. S. Sorenson, Valley City; J. L. Gault, Fargo; J. L. Carter, Fargo.

TEN TRADE COMMANDMENTS. At the plant of a prominent steel manufacturing concern in Johnston, Penn., the following ten commandments have been adopted for the benefit of the employees: Thou shalt have no other thoughts than thy work. Thou shalt take no unnecessary risks, nor try to show off, nor play practical jokes, for by thy heedlessness thou mayest do injury which will have effect upon the third and fourth generations to follow. Thou shalt not swear nor lose thy temper when things do not go just right. Remember thou art not the only one on the job, and that thy lives are just as important as thine own. Honor thy job and thyself, that thy days may be long in employment. The clean machinery while it is in motion. Thou shalt not watch thy neighbor's work, but attend to thine own. Thou shalt not let the sleeves of thy shirt hang loose, nor the flap of thy coat to be unbuttoned, as they may get caught in the machinery. Thou shalt not let matches or greasy waste on the floor, nor scotch oil around the bearings, as a dirty worker is a clumsy worker, and a clumsy worker is a menace to his fellow workers. Thou shalt not interfere with the switches, nor the dynamo, nor the cables, nor the engines, nor anything else thou art told is dangerous.

SHADOWS. See all the troping shadows! Grotesque and strange they play About thy path forever. And I'll dance to let them pass. No matter how I treat them, They will not go away.

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

They plunge into the water, They mount the highest wall, They lengthen and they shorten, As on the floor they sprawl; They have a sense of humor But no other sense at all.

But, then, why should the shadows "Fill little folks with fright? Perhaps they are but playmates, That dance to let us right. Because where there's no shadow There isn't any light."

They're with me in the morning, They dine with me at noon, They frolic round at evenside And frolic 'neath the moon, And when the lamp is lighted They take it as a boon.

East Grand Forks

COSTS TEN SPOT TO STEAL $5 BILL

Dan Stripe Paid Fine This Morning—Kelley is Bound Over.

Dan Stripe was this morning sentenced to pay a $10 fine or spend 30 days in the county jail, being charged with robbing Harry Beckland of $5. Stripe paid his fine and was released. Arthur Kelley, who was given a hearing, being charged with robbing Peter Papillon of $36, was late yesterday afternoon bound over to the next term of the district court at Crookston. He was charged with taking the money from Papillon while he was in jail with Papillon. Eight yags and jags were arraigned in municipal court this morning before Judge William Rasmussen, but the sentences of all were suspended during good behavior.

Here on Business. Silas Roup of Chicago is in the city looking after his farming interests in this county. He expects to return here for some time.

Council to Meet. The regular meeting of the city council will be held at 8 o'clock next Monday evening. Nothing but routine matters will be considered.

Taken Suddenly Ill. Jams Chaplin was taken ill suddenly yesterday and was removed to his home on North Third street. He is reported much better today.

Condition Better. The condition of Hiram Dangerfield is reported to be much better today. Mr. Dangerfield has been confined to his home for several days, suffering with inflammatory rheumatism. His heart was affected and he has been in a serious condition for some time.

Plan Big Time. Several parties of local sportsmen are planning to go hunting the first day of the chicken season. They will leave the city Sunday evening and will be away for several days. Some will return to the city Monday evening.

Student Visits Here. Frank Tibeser of Crookston is spending a few days in the city as a guest at the Gies home. Mr. Tibeser is a student at the Minnesota university and will accompany the East Grand Forks students to that institute.

Miss Emily Bel Nash, who is opening a studio in the Grand Forks, received her degree of bachelor of music from the Chicago Musical college, and has spent the past year studying piano with Adolf Stoye; organ with Harrison Wild; harmony and composition with Adolf Brune; and musical history and composition with F. J. Bowers. Miss Nash studied piano with Adolf Stoye; organ with Harrison Wild; harmony and composition with Adolf Brune; and musical history and composition with F. J. Bowers.

AT THE HOTELS. IMPERIAL—Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Rielow, Wallis; Mrs. A. M. Sorenson, E. A. Albertson, Hankinson; G. A. Springer, Mayville; G. W. Bragen, Niagara; T. E. Johnson, York.

DAKOTAH—W. D. McClintock, Rugby; John Carmody, Hillsboro; Andrew Miller, Bismarck; L. A. Rose, Minot; A. C. Hoffman, Fargo; C. S. Sorenson, Valley City; J. L. Gault, Fargo; J. L. Carter, Fargo.

TEN TRADE COMMANDMENTS. At the plant of a prominent steel manufacturing concern in Johnston, Penn., the following ten commandments have been adopted for the benefit of the employees: Thou shalt have no other thoughts than thy work. Thou shalt take no unnecessary risks, nor try to show off, nor play practical jokes, for by thy heedlessness thou mayest do injury which will have effect upon the third and fourth generations to follow. Thou shalt not swear nor lose thy temper when things do not go just right. Remember thou art not the only one on the job, and that thy lives are just as important as thine own. Honor thy job and thyself, that thy days may be long in employment. The clean machinery while it is in motion. Thou shalt not watch thy neighbor's work, but attend to thine own. Thou shalt not let the sleeves of thy shirt hang loose,