

WHAT THEY ARE DOING IN SOCIETY

Provence. I had no knowledge of the road; The sunset crested pines were strange. One clear white star in heaven showed Above an alien mountain range.

"ITALY WILL FIGHT," SAYS MILLE TRENTINI

Mlle. Trentini.

"Italy shall be in the war," says little Emma Trentini, the Italian opera star who has just arrived in the United States.

Miss Hazel Vale who has been teaching music at Thief River Falls, Minn., has arrived home to visit for a few days at the home of her parents.

Mrs. James Collins left this morning for Ardock where she will attend the suffrage meeting, which will be conducted by Mrs. Menza Burke of Idaho.

Acacia Chapter O. E. S. will hold its regular meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Masonic hall in the St. John's block.

Mr. and Mrs. David Gorman and family of McCanna have arrived in Grand Forks and will spend the winter here.

Miss Grace Wilson of Los Angeles, Cal., who is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Davis, and who is just completing a tour of the world.

Miss Wilson spoke for over an hour and held the close attention of her audience. She is a very pleasing speaker and her description of the great Panama canal and the exposition to be held in San Francisco was very instructive.

A short musical program, consisting of a vocal solo by Mrs. J. E. Davis, a piano duet by Mrs. A. A. Hendricks and Mrs. F. M. Davis, a vocal solo by Barbara Mutschler, and a violin solo by Mrs. A. D. McKinnon, was rendered in a very acceptable manner.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Neuraer have returned from an extended visit with relatives in La Crosse, Milwaukee and the twin cities.

Miss Elsie Wolf has issued invitations for a luncheon to be given Wednesday afternoon at her home on Walnut street, complimentary to her sister, Mrs. Myron B. Jackson of Williams, Miss Margaret Sargent, a bride of this month, and Mrs. Donald K. Woods of Great Falls, Mont.

The Women's Civic League held its annual meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the auditorium of the city library.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected and delegates were chosen to represent the league at the state federation meeting, which will be held next week in Jamestown.

Bismarck Tribune: Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Miller leave this evening for Washington. Mr. Miller will appear before the supreme court in connection with the coal rate cases.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal church will meet Tuesday afternoon at the parish hall. The business meeting will be held at 2:30 o'clock, followed by an interesting program.

Judge and Mrs. E. B. Goss and Miss Mabel Wright have returned to their home in Bismarck after visiting for the past few days with friends in Grand Forks. They made the trip by automobile.

Mrs. Menza Burke of Idaho, who has been touring the state in the interests of suffrage, spent yesterday in the city with friends. She is a former resident of Grand Forks and when moving to Idaho several years ago was an ardent anti-suffragist, but after living in that state for some time and seeing the great benefits derived from the workings of woman suffrage, changed her views on the subject.

Mrs. Menza Burke has been touring North Dakota for the past few weeks and has been instrumental in organizing a number of suffrage clubs. She decided to return to her native state to see if she could do any good there.

Clam Chowder—Wash one quart of clams in a strainer, pick them over, sorting out all shells, and cutting off soft parts. Chop hard parts. Cut a one and one-half inch piece of fat salt pork into pieces, fry out the fat and fry one sliced onion in it. Add one and one-half pints of potatoes, cut in dice, one cup of water, one tablespoonful of salt, one-eighth teaspoonful of pepper and four tablespoonfuls of butter. Bring to a boil and let them remain in cook from one to two hours. Reheat soup and add one quart of scalding hot milk and light soda or milk crackers broken in pieces. This serves ten to sixteen persons.

Carried Salt Cod—If you like the taste of curry, you may put some teaspoonful of curry powder with the flour and butter before adding the milk.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

Joude, the head of the house of Bernadine, has gone to the front, so that though this house is ready with August models, there is little likelihood that they will be shown. Poiret has also gone to the front, and his house is all closed. Premet's chief designer has died and the manager has gone to Paris to see if he can get any work there.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

CLUB NOTES

Mrs. Frank Nelson of Minneapolis, Miss Mary McCumber and Mrs. James Collins have returned from Minto, where they conducted a very successful suffrage meeting yesterday afternoon.

The Parent-Teachers' association of Bismarck met Saturday at the Will building for an important meeting.

The Minot Art club held a special meeting Wednesday afternoon at the elected delegates to represent Minot at the state meeting which will be held at Jamestown October 13-16.

The first meeting for the second year of the Bowbells Study club was held at the home of Mrs. Sadler Wednesday afternoon.

The women of France are trying to save what they can from the devastation that threatens French prosperity.

If pluck, perseverance in the face of tremendous obstacles, and determination are the only weapons of French dressmakers, the day will be saved.

The women have gone into the fields to save the crops; why shouldn't the women keep up the reputation of Paris as the center of the fashion world?

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

But the Rue de la Paix, like all the rest of Paris, presents a very strange appearance these days. A handful of figures is all that is left of the eager throngs that began to come here in the early part of the year.

Little Bedtime Stories

FARMER BROWN'S BOY SETTLES MATTERS.

(By Thornton W. Burgess.) (Copyright, 1914, by J. G. Lloyd.) Farmer Brown's boy came into the Old Orchard whistling. It was good to hear some one who seemed happy and wanted everybody else to feel happy.

The truth is there had been a quarrel in the Old Orchard since Bully, the English Sparrow, had moved there. Perhaps he and Mrs. Bully were happy. Probably they were. But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

But if they were they had a funny way of showing it. For it seemed as if they quarrelled with each other all the time when they had no children with them.

Advance Sale on a Special Lot of Ladies' New Fall Coats

One of the largest manufacturers of Ladies' Coats, sent us 35 women's coats from which we were to make a selection—so to save time and express of sending them back we offer you your choice now at a great reduction in price.

Included are fancy mixtures, plaids, plaids, etc., all nicely trimmed and the very latest styles. All the new belted effects, cape coats—the Balmachann sleeve and the set-in sleeve. No two alike in the entire lot.

Coats that sell at $18.00, $20.00 and $25.00. Take your choice now at each $12.00

See Window Display

Shoulder Braces

There Easy and Comfortable Prices $1.50 to $3.00

"As the twig is bent, so is the tree inclined." The truth of this old adage is forcibly brought to mind when one sees a man or woman disfigured by a crooked spine or stooping shoulders.

Why not guard yourself before it is too late? Our stock of shoulder braces is complete.

See Display Window

McGrath Pharmacy

our girls that they should be careful, economical housewives and conscientious mothers, and then marry them to men who have been raised without any training at all in what constitutes a careful, economical husband, and a conscientious father?

It seems that in Russia and America blue is always used in the preparing of a baby boy's outfit and pink for a girl. In fact, a Russian maid not only wears pink in her childhood, but in her wedding trousseau, and especially, are her undergarments adorned with ribbon of pink. In most of the European Roman Catholic countries, blue is the girl's color, as it is the color dedicated to the blessed virgin, and little girls are consecrated by being offered to the virgin.

France seems to have been an exception to this rule, for more than fifty years ago, when Eugenie was in the zenith of her fame, and the unfortunate princess imperial was expected, she had the lavender prepared in blue in confident hope of an heir to the throne.

Barbecued Ham—1 teaspoonful of sugar, 1 tablespoonful of vinegar, 1 teaspoonful of mustard, cold ham, pepper. Fry in their own fat in the blazer rather thick slices of cold ham. When they begin to crisp at the edges draw to the side and add the mustard, sugar, pepper and vinegar to the fat left in the pan. Turn the ham over in this two or three times.

Chasing-Dish Hash—1 small onion, 1 tablespoonful butter or dripping, 1 cupful minced beef, 1/2 cupful gravy or soup stock, 1 cupful mashed potatoes, salt, pepper. Brown the minced onion in the blazer in butter or dripping. Add the gravy or soup stock, pepper. Fry in their own fat in the blazer rather thick slices of cold ham. When they begin to crisp at the edges draw to the side and add the mustard, sugar, pepper and vinegar to the fat left in the pan. Turn the ham over in this two or three times.

Creamed Salt Cod—2 cupfuls flaked codfish, 1 tablespoonful flour, 1/2 pint milk, 1 tablespoonful butter, 1/2 teaspoonful salt, 1/2 cupful cream. For this year cod should have been soaked overnight, boiled in the morning and picked into fine flakes. Make sauce in the chafing-dish by cooking together the butter and flour until they bubble. Pour over these the milk and stir until you have a smooth sauce the thickness of double cream. Be very careful of any dish in which milk is used as it is very likely to scorch if not watched closely.

Into the sauce stir the cod and let the whole become hot. A better dish can be had by the addition of two hard-boiled eggs chopped coarsely. Add the lemon juice and seasoning; then serve. This method may be used for tastily preparing any cod fish.

Why Blue for Baby Boy? This bit of information regarding "blue" for boys and "pink" for the girls is of interest, although the reason is very clear why these colors are appropriated by the new arrival of either sex.

SKAUG "Where Moderate Prices Prevail" 14 K. WEDDING RINGS $1.00 Per Dwt.

The Style Of the New Suits, Coats and Millinery as shown in our Fall exhibit appeals to every one of careful taste this Fall. It's a real joy to show these garments that seem to please customers so well, and you'll find it a real pleasure to see the variety of models we are showing. Stunning suits of gabardine, serge, etc., designed on very artistic lines embodying the newest features of the latest models are offered at $25.00 to $50.00. Charming coats of broadcloth, pile fabrics, etc., of the newest weaves, with varied trimmings and clever cape effects, priced from $15.00 to $75.00. Of Special Merit are the exceptionally clever hats for this season, priced most attractively. 313 DeMers Taubold's Stratford Block

Cut Flowers FOR ANY OCCASION. Funeral Designs Made on Short Notice. We are alive day and night. Both phones 122. Night call 1247, N. W. Grand Forks Floral Co. E. G. LEMKE, 307 DeMers Ave., Grand Forks.

You'll Want More Hair MARINELLO MRS. M. C. PIERCE Marinello Shop Third Floor Ontario Store

EXCLUSIVE PATTERNS In Staring and plated flat ware, very appropriate for weddings, etc. A fine watch and jewelry repairing. Manufacturing a specialty. P. Girard & Son 9 South 4th St.