FARMERS OF COUNTY TAKE UNUSUAL INTEREST IN CONFERENCE TOMORROW

Express Themselves as Very Much in Favor of Continuing Better Farming Work—Many Are Expected to Attend the Gathering.

Grand Forks county farmers are taking unusual interest in the Better Farming conference, which is to be held in this city tomorrow afternoon. It was stated today that many of the farmers have made preparations to be present at the conference. The commercial club assembly hall, but, if that proves too small to house the meeting, it will be held in the main council chamber of attend the conference. The gathering of the city hall.

The conference is to determine whether or not the Better Farming work should be continued. If the delegates decide to continue it, plans for carrying it on will be formulated. The conference is scheduled to begin at 1 o'clock. The first thing to be taken up will be the election of a chairman and the further organization of the conference.

An indication of the fact that farmers throughout the county are taking a great interest in the proposition is shown in the following excerpts from letters, written in reply to invitations, are quoted.

A Larimore banker says: "Gentlemen: I am very much interested in the work of the Better Farming committee."

I believe it would be a great mistake to drop the work that Mr. Center has so well started, and it is very certain that the county and state. I have watched the work and the results that Mr. Center has done the time he has been here, and it is very noticeable the new interest that is taken in the improved methods of agriculture, while there are many good books on advanced farming, it is a fact that most of our farmers have to be shown" and it has proved itself out in other states that the only effective way is to have a county advisor in the county, and I am very glad to pay my share to have a good man in the county.

A Logan township farmer writes from Keokuk: "Your letter at hand asking my opinion as to whether or not Grand Forks county should continue its Better Farming work, has been most interesting to me. I would like very much to see the Better Farming movement go forward. I think it is of great importance to us farmers."

A McCanna business man says: "Yours of the 11th at hand, and as for me, I am in favor of continuing the Better Farming and haven't seen anyone here but what is in favor of it."

A Johnston township farmer says: "It is easy to see the good work which the Better Farming association has interested the farmers in through the county. They have been instrumental in pushing a good many over the line upon which they have been hankng for some time and just a little afraid to venture.

"There are many others who are afraid to venture and need assistance in crossing the line, and a little boost occasionally to keep their spirits up."

"And this the Better Farming men can do for them. There is still a large field for operation for the Better Farming association in this county and their work is much needed."

A Walle township farmer says: "Yours of recent date inquiring as to what my view of continuing the Better Farming work. I certainly think we can't afford to do anything else than continue it. The start that has been made in corn, alfalfa and stock since they have been in the field justifies its continuance."

An Arvilla farmer says: "In reply to your letter would say that I am very much in favor of Grand Forks county continuing its Better Farming association bureau. I think it is doing a great deal of good for the farmers of the county."

A Northwood farmer says: "I am heartily in favor of the Better Farming work and hope to see it continued."

A prominent Chester township farmer says: "Your favor received and contents noted. In reply will say that I do not all I could against paying the county money for the Better Farming association when they were starting some three years ago. Today I believe it has been a good investment and am high in favor of it."

A Ferry township farmer says: "I would be very sorry to see it discontinued. I shall do what I can to keep the thing going. I think Mr. Center has done a pile of good in this township."

An Inkster township farmer says: "Yours of the 11th received. In regard to Better Farming movement, I think it should be continued. I believe it has done a lot of good and it would be too bad to drop it just now when they are getting nicely started. I believe they could do a good deal more in the next three years than we have in the past."

A Larimore business man says: "By all means continue the Better Farming work."

The Benru Farmers' club officers say: "We, the undersigned officers of the Benru Farmers' club are very much in favor of the Better Farming movement to be continued."

A Union township farmer says: "I am heartily in favor of your letter asking for my opinion about the Better Farming association of Grand Forks county and in reply to the same will say that means let us have it at least for another year."

An Accident Account
For yourself—the head of the family—an Accident Account at the Farmers & Mechanics Savings Bank. That is a certain sum of money—just what you can afford to put aside in an emergency—no matter how carefully you plan, in the course of the year there happens some unexpected thing—something you could not foresee or forestall. When that happens, an Accident Account is ready to meet it. It will relieve you of many worries against the unforeseen. You cannot prevent accidents—you can provide for them.

GAVE IMITATION OF BAREFOOT BOY

Called Gentleman Bares "Tootsies" to November Breezes.

"Blessings on the little man Barefoot boy with cheek of tan." —Whittier.

An inebriate who later gave his name as William Jones, caused a sensation in the south end of the city here Thursday afternoon by giving a lifelike impersonation of Whittier's barefoot boy.

Apparently he found his shoes and socks uncomfortable, and his rate of "dribble" the coverings of his pedal extremities, and wandered up Reeves avenue with his "tootsies" bare to all of the four winds of heaven.

A good sized retinue of children soon collected, and accompanied him on his wanderings. Later some of the residents of the district noticed the barefoot pedestrian, and notified the police.

An officer was sent to the scene, and although Jones objected strenuously to being arrested, and gave the guardian of the law a spirited chase, he was finally overtaken on Belmont avenue near Ninth avenue, and was taken to the police station.

After becoming "sobered up" he paid his fine, and was released.

ATTENDING LIBRARY MEETING
Miss Adah Durand and Miss Blanche Hedrick of The City Are at Wahpeton.

Miss Adah Durand, local librarian, and Miss Blanche Hedrick of the state university, left last night for Wahpeton, N. D., where they are attending the annual meeting of the North Dakota Library association. The meeting opened today and will close tomorrow night.

This afternoon Miss Durand read a paper on "The County Library." Miss Hedrick conducted one of the morning discussions.

The local delegates will invite the association to meet in this city next year. Tomorrow night all visiting delegates will be entertained at a special dinner.

E. G. F. SOCIAL NEWS
Crookston Times: A number of friends were very pleasantly entertained at the Hennemuth home on Halloween. The guests were met at the door by a form in ghostly attire, and pointed to the stair. On the upper landing another of the silent escorts took you to a large room, where wraps were left, and you awaited the mysterious, darkened house, where each one was treated to all the thrills thought up by four very fertile brains. The ladies entertaining were, Miss Alice Erickson, Miss Emily Campbell, and the Misses Gertrude and Henrietta Hennemuth. The out-of-town guests were Miss Lucy Hunt, Miss Ida Hagen and Stella Hennemuth of East Grand Forks. Delicious refreshments were served.
Mrs. William Boeger was a charming hostess this afternoon, when she entertained the Pythian Sisters Sewing club. Large bouquets of fragrant red carnations were arranged in the room. Cards and needlework made the hours pass pleasantly. Mrs. Boeger was assisted in serving a dainty luncheon by Mesdames Homer S. Rodgers and Inger Ferrestad.
Mrs. Edward Fanning was among the hostesses this afternoon when she entertained a company of ladies at her home on Allen avenue.
The regular meeting of the Christian Endeavor society was held last evening in the church parlors.
Miss Christine Flatten of Northland will spend Sunday in the city as the guest of Miss Helen Turquist.
The Ladies aid of the Mendenhall Memorial church will be entertained in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. P. F. Band, Mrs. Maude Ferguson and Mrs. George Snyder.
