GERMANY VIRTUALLY ON DEFENSIVE TODAY

Between Dixmude and Ypres, which lies to the south, close to the French border, the fighting has been most intense, since the Germans elected at the opening of the week to begin the new offensive.
On October 15, during the advance on Oostend, the Germans occupied Dixmude, but later were compelled to fall back. The allies held possession of the town temporarily, but their presence there was challenged repeatedly by the Germans, resulting in some of the most important and sanguinary fighting of the war.
Along the remainder of the battle line, says the French war office, there is no change, except for local progress by the allies at a few points.
The Berlin view of the situation, however, is optimistic. Comment is made there on the use of the expression "good advances." In the latest official German reports concerning the fighting in the west, being the first occasion on which such terms have been employed in this connection, Paris also is hopeful as to the outcome in Belgium.
Military critics there take the view that the Germans are faced with the imperative necessity of defeating the allies. In order that they may turn the tables on the menacing armies of Russia.
The German crown prince is reported to have been placed in supreme command of the German and Austrian forces in the east.
Petrograd contradicts the German claim to an important victory along the northern border, asserting that a brilliant success has been there, and that the Russians have begun an invasion of east Prussia.
On the southern front, the line, the Caucasus are approaching Crowsow, while the investment of Pzemsyl, from which the Russians were swept back several weeks ago, is said to have been completed for a second time.

BARTHOLOMEW THANKS FRIENDS FOR SUPPORT
Democratic Candidate for Congress
Who "Also Ran" Appreciative of Vote Given Him.
To the Voters of the First Congressional District:
The extraordinary vote of the electors of the First Congressional district impels me to ask their indulgence for a few words. The vote is a distinct commendation of President Wilson and the wonderful work he has accomplished. My campaign has been extended and it is upon the question whether or not the policies of President Wilson met the approval of the people of North Dakota, that the final test must be made. Their approval is shown by comparing the vote of two years ago with that of this year.
Two years ago the republican candidate for congress in Grand Forks county received a majority of over 1,100. This year the majority was less than 200, and in 1912 it was nearly 1,000. Grand Forks county nearly 400 to less than 50. In Richland county from a republican majority of 200 to a democratic majority approximately 200, an ditius on through the other counties.
But perhaps the most striking illustration is in the cities and towns where I was afforded the opportunity of personally meeting the electors and where I was born. In the city of Devils Lake an adverse majority of 140 was returned in 1912, and in 1914 in favor of 70. In Fargo from an adverse majority of nearly 200 to a favorable majority of 140. In Lakota city from an adverse majority of 140 to a favorable majority of 140. This year I received a majority of over 200.
I wish to embrace this opportunity of thanking my friends for the many courtesies extended and to assure them that I feel well repaid for the time and energy devoted to the campaign, because I had an opportunity of renewing my old acquaintances and forming many new friends.
I therefore wish to assure them I shall be awake to any opportunity to reciprocate.
Respectfully,
—Fred Bartholomew.

BELGIAN AID IS GIVEN ON COAST
San Francisco, Nov. 11.—Carload lots of provisions for the Belgian relief ship to be sent from this port by California are being assembled in all parts of this state for immediate shipment.
Cash pledged has now reached a sum in excess of $110,000 from San Francisco donors alone.
Steps were taken today looking to the charter of a 3,000-ton tramp, it is planned to follow up with another vessel of this same size as soon as possible.
Clubwomen under the leadership of Mrs. Herbert C. House, wife of the chairman of the London Belgian committee, and of Mrs. Henry Payot, chairman of the Women's Auxiliary, launched a movement today for contributions of a sack of flour from every family that can afford it.
If the schedule goes through the first relief ship will sail next Wednesday. Many captains have volunteered their service of charge.

A Door Without a Bolt
The strongest oak door that has no bolt adds to a house no element of strength and affords to its inmates no feeling of protection. A Bank without conservatism reserves a door that has no bolt, lacking the essentials of conservatism and safety. This Bank is staid and conservative. It seeks the banking business of those whose primary requirement is safety. We perpetuate the best ideals of our state and offer to men and women courtesy coupled with conservatism.
