

HERALD SUBSCRIPTION FOR BELGIAN AID TAKES GOODLY PROPORTIONS

Donations Come From Many Sections of the State For Relief of War Sufferers—Every $1.50 Buys Fifty Pounds of Flour for Starving Thousands.

Two hundred and forty-seven dollars and thirty cents for the Belgian war sufferers has been entrusted to The Herald by liberal hearted North Dakotans, and the same will be forwarded by The Herald to the proper authorities, to be expended for flour for the aid of the innocent war victims.

Of the money given to The Herald by sympathizers with the Belgian cause, $100 has come from the members of the Grand Forks Lodge of Elks, J. W. Phin making the collection from among the members of the order.

Included in the list of contributors are a number of banks in the smaller towns of the state.

Up to the present time most of the contributions to the Belgian contributions have come from outside the city, ranging in sums from $1 to $10 from individuals.

The Polynesian Princess benefit performance at Grafton netted $51.30 and is outside the donation by the local Elks, the most substantial part of the relief fund.

The Herald will gladly receive all contributions to the Belgian fund, and will see that it is properly expended for foodstuffs for the sufferers in the war rent nation.

SHEEP FEEDING EXPERIMENT

Twenty-one Ewes Used and Several Interesting Facts Are Learned Regarding Feeding.

An experiment in feeding sheep was recently conducted at the state agricultural college and several interesting facts were learned.

Twenty-one ewes were used. They were divided into three lots of seven each, and they were fed prairie hay in equal amounts. Lot 1 was used as a check and fed oats and bran, seven pounds at first, after which they were raised to eight pounds and later to nine. Lot 2 was fed pigeon grass seed. Eight pounds was the first ration and later it was increased to nine. Lot 3 was fed common screenings at the rate of eight pounds and later, nine pounds.

As a result, Lot 2 made 16 pounds more gain than Lot 1 and used but twelve pounds more pigeon weed than Lot 1 used of bran and oats. Lot 3 made thirty-four pounds more gain than Lot 1 and used but twelve pounds more screenings than the others' used of bran and oats.

If you could convert your various investment holdings into SIX PER CENT FIRST FARM MORTGAGES, isn't it true that you would be glad to do so?

There is no uncertainty, no element of chance or risk connected with our First Farm Mortgages netting SIX PER CENT collected and remitted free.

WHERE IS YOUR GAIN?

Suppose by hard work you had got together a bushel of very fine, very rare grain. You wouldn't put it in an old stove—you wouldn't hide it in some out-of-the-way place. Rats, mice or birds might destroy it—ants make it worthless—fire destroy it—servants steal it. You would keep that costly grain in a safe place, so that you could plant it and get a bounteous harvest. Why not use the same care with your hard-earned dollars. Keep them at the Farmers' & Mechanics' Savings Bank. We watch your dollars for you all the time and you can get them at any time. We are a Bank of Personal Service.

BURNESS LEADS; CONNOR SECOND

In Campaign Expenses According to Their Filed Statements.

O. B. Burnett, state's attorney, paid out the largest amount of any of the candidates at the recent state election, according to the expense accounts which have been filed up to date at the office of County Auditor Hans Anderson.

Mr. Burnett spent $183.24 on his campaign according to his filed statement. His opponent, J. T. O'Connor, spent $180.41 being next to Mr. Burnett in the matter of expenditures.

Generally speaking the republican candidates' accounts show larger expenditures than do the democrats for the reason that most of the republicans contributed $50 each to the county campaign fund while no such contributions were made by the democrats.

The smallest expense account among the candidates who had any expenditures at all to report was that turned in by Justice Phil McLoughlin, whose bill for stamps and stationery came to 90 cents.

Several candidates had no campaign expenses whatsoever, among these being Miss Beatrice Johnstone, county superintendent of schools. A number of accounts have not been filed as yet. In such cases candidates must obtain excuses from the district judge in order to avoid the payment of the fine of $25 per day provided by law.

Statements were filed late Wednesday by:

Ingebright Johnson, candidate for county auditor, $117.30.
Henry O'Keefe, Jr., candidate for the house of representatives, $6.25.
Miss Beatrice Johnstone, candidate for county superintendent of schools, no expenses.

L. K. Hassell, candidate for county judge, $50.
Phil McLoughlin, candidate for justice of the Peace, 90 cents.
G. W. Coss, candidate for county constable, no expenses.
G. H. Boyd, candidate for county constable, no expenses.

The great war has brought to the little nation probably the greatest calamity the world has known. Famine there has been in some sections of the globe where it would seem the limit of human endurance was reached, but in Belgium the innocent sufferers of the world war number hundreds of thousands—and they suffer from a cause not of their own making.

Read the story on the first page of this evening's Herald—you'll find it at the head of the fourth and fifth columns—and you will probably grasp, in your own way, just what the calamity means to the once prosperous nation—just what it means to girls, and boys, and starving women—whose want for food is a secondary anguish to that caused by the sight of their crying babies—crying for food of which you have plenty.

BABY BOY STILL THRIVING

No Clues to Identity of Parents Discovered—Yet However—Few Clues Now Left.

The baby boy abandoned last Monday night by his parents continued to thrive and Mrs. Pearl Blount, police matron says that he will grow up a credit to the city.

In the meantime the authorities are continuing their efforts to discover the identity of his parents, but so far without success.

Practically all clues appear to have been exhausted in that now appears unlikely that the truth regarding the case will never be discovered.

WHAT GIRLS MAY DO.

How to Become a Y. W. C. A. Worker. (By Jessie Roberts.)

"Dear Jessie Roberts: Here is another one coming to you for help through your valuable column. I am nearly twenty, have a high school and business education, and would like to take up Y. W. C. A. work. Do you think that being a Y. W. C. A. worker is sufficient? If it is, whom should I apply to for particulars, and are girls needed for this work just now? Sincerely yours, N."

Your education is sufficient. Though you will have a lot to learn, it will be in the course of your work, and will not require more book knowledge than you can get in ordinary high school work.

It is impossible to tell whether or not there is any great demand at the moment. One branch may need just the sort of girl you are and be glad of getting you, while at another there will be no opening. There is, of course, a good deal of clerical work to be done, then there is propaganda, teaching, speaking and canvassing. You will see the kind of work you can do best of course.

The best way to find out what chance you have to be engaged is to go to the branch where you hope to be admitted and ask for an interview with the manager or superintendent. Go to this interview neatly and plainly dressed and tell the manager precisely what you are capable of doing, and what you want to train yourself to do as a worker for the society.

A real desire simply expressed will help you a whole lot, because it will show that you are in earnest. A personal interview is better than a letter. The manager is accustomed to seeing people up, and she can tell pretty clearly whether or not you are really for that matter, you have a letter, and can help you with advice. If she has no opening she may know where one is to be had, and assist you to get it.

N. P. TRAIN WILL ARRIVE EARLIER

Night Passengers to be Kept on, But No. 20 Will Reach Here About 10 P. M.

There will be no changes in the schedule of the Red River valley branch of the Northern Pacific.

A definite announcement was made here today. It was rumored that the Northern Pacific would take off Nos. 19 and 20, its two crack night trains, but it was authoritatively stated yesterday that they would not do so.

Division Superintendent Lowrie informed the local agent that there would be absolutely no changes in the schedules as they now stand.

This gives Grand Forks two crack trains to and from the twin cities each day.

CHANGE TIME OF ARRIVAL. The only change on the local schedule is in the time for No. 20. Instead of leaving Winnipeg at 5:15, as at present, it will leave there at 4:25 and arrive in Grand Forks at 10:15. No. 19 arrives in Grand Forks at 8 a. m. There is no change in the time of Nos. 13 and 14.

It will reach Minneapolis at 7:15 a. m. and St. Paul at 7:55 a. m.

This time change goes into effect Sunday.

A farmer was recently arguing with a French chauffeur who had slackened up at an inn regarding the merits of the horse and motor car.

"Give me a 'gra'," remarked the farmer. "Them travelling oil shops is too uncertain for my likin'."

"Eet is prejudice, my friend," the chauffeur replied. "You English are behind ze times. You will think deefairt some day."

"Behind the times be blowed," came the retort. "It 'aps nex' time the Proosians are 'round Paris and you have to git your dinner off a steak from the 'ind wheel of a motor car, you Frenchmen! I wish you want't so bloomin' well to date!"

MAXWELL AGENTS MEET NEXT WEEK

Will Gather in Grand Forks to Discuss Business Problems.

More than 50 agents of the Maxwell Automobile company are expected to gather in Grand Forks next Tuesday to discuss problems connected with their work in the northwest.

All agents of the company in North Dakota, Montana and northwestern Minnesota have been invited to the meeting according to G. M. Craig, local agent of the concern, in whose office on South Third street the meeting will be held.

C. R. Newby, of Detroit, Mich., zone manager of the company, and C. M. Strieby, of Detroit, advertising manager, will be here to address the assemblage.

The meeting is scheduled to conclude with a banquet at the Hotel Dacotah Tuesday evening.

Mr. Craig also announced today a novelty along the line of moving pictures which is to be shown at the Metropolitan Thursday, Dec. 3.

They consist of five reels showing the Maxwell factory in operation. The work in all departments will be shown in an interesting manner.

These pictures are now being shown throughout the country.
