

WHAT THEY ARE DOING IN SOCIETY

SPEAKS GENTLY.

Speak gently; it is better far To rule by love than fear; Speak gently; let no harsh word mar The good we may do here; Speak gently to the little child; Its love be sure to gain; Teach it in accents soft and mild; It may not long remain.

Speak gently to the young; for they Will have enough to bear; Pass through this life as best they may. 'Tis full of anxious care; Speak gently to the aged one Grieve not the care-worn heart. Whose sands of life are nearly run; Let him in peace depart.

Speak gently to the erring; know They must be led in vain; Behance unkindness made them so; Oh, win them back again. Speak gently; 'tis little thing Dropp'd in the heart's deep well; The good, the joy that it may bring; Eternity shall tell.

At your house, perhaps, there is some important member of the family who should be enjoying Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes—with good milk poured in the side of the dish—not on top—just enough to float the crispy flakes and bring out their delicate flavor. Spare the sugar.

Oh, you'll all be eating them—and Then too there is the WAXTITE package that keeps the fresh, good flavor in—and all other flavors out.

W.K. Kellogg

repeating oftener than with any other breakfast food—these golden flakes with the ever-alluring fresh-from-the oven taste!

And remember please that you don't know corn flakes unless you know Kellogg's—the original Toasted Corn Flakes—with the pride of the originator to keep the delicate process complete.

Even Baby can tell the difference!
