NORTHWOOD CLUB CLOSES SEASON

Strictly Local Aggregation Turned Out Good Article of Baseball.

Northwood, N. D., July 20.—Under the able management of H. E. Johnson, who has been an indefatigable worker, and who has promoted harmony and good-will among the players, and at all times shown an enthusiasm that was inspiring, the Northwood Baseball team last Sunday closed a season that has not only been successful in a financial way, but probably marks the local team as the most distinguished and successful in the Northwest during the season of 1915.

This is a record to be proud of when it is considered that the team is strictly all-home team, the only hired player being W. T. Cole, the pitcher, and occasionally a second baseman. Linn of Hattson has played the last named position during a number of games.

W. T. Cole or "King" Cole, as he is affectionately called, has proved a great asset for the Northwood team. He has not only pitched consistent winning ball, but he has a batting average close to the team's, and as an all-around player, has not been excelled by any.

At Northwood, May 9th, Grand Forks Stars, won score 2 to 1. At Hattson, May 16th, Hattson team lost, score 1 to 5.

At Northwood, May 22, Aneta, won 1 to 0. At Aneta, May 30th, 10 inning game, lost 2 to 3.

At Northwood, June 6th, Grand Forks Giants, lost 4 to 5. At Arville, June 21, Gilby, lost 1 to 0.

At Northwood, June 25th, McVillie, won 7 to 5. At Thompson, June 27th, Won 12 to 1.

At McVillie, June 30, McVillie, won 11 inning game 5 to 4. At Northwood, July 3rd, Hattson, won 11 inning game 2 to 1.

At Northwood, July 8th, Gilby, won 8 to 1. At Gilby, July 16th, Gilby, 13-inning game, 2 to 2.

At North, July 18th, Grand Forks Giants, won 6 to 5. Local averages of team: Halverson, Carl, 362; Cole, W. T., 358; Linn, 357; Haukaas, Sam, 278; Christen, 191; and others around this latter average.

THIRD SACKER SPURNS OFFER New London, Conn., July 20.—John Sylvester Reilly, the best third baseman Yale ever had, some say, declares that he will never play professional baseball.

Reilly has received offers from nearly all the major league clubs, but has refused to discuss them. It is known, however, that agents of the Philadelphia Athletics, the Giants and the Chicago White Sox, each spent several days recently trying to induce Reilly to sign a contract.

MIKE COLLINS IS IN DULUTH, MINN. Duluth, Minn., July 20.—Mike Collins, well known to boxing fans of the country as principal owner and manager of the Hudson Boxing club, and now the manager of Fred Fulton, is in Duluth.

FEW BUY EXPENSIVE SEATS TO SEE BOUT St. Paul, Minn., July 20.—Of over 5,000 persons who witnessed the recent boxing contest held in the St. Paul auditorium, only 125 paid $5 each for the privilege.

HITTING HONOR IS GOES TO WESTERNER Chicago, July 20.—The worlds record for consecutive hitting now is held by a Chicago boy, Jack Ness of the Oakland team of the Pacific coast league, who has eclipsed the former record, which was set by none other than Ty Cobb of the Detroit team.

WRITER "COVERS" OVER 2,000 GAMES Chicago, July 20.—While baseball officials are arranging "Walsh day" and "Tinker day" and numerous other occasions, there is in Chicago a baseball writer who has taken part in more games than either of these veterans.

TWO COMPLETE FOURSOMES IN THIS FAMILY: THEY HOLD AMERICAN RECORD

While Big Bill, city champion, is qualifying at Cleveland in the Western Amateur championship, his five brothers and two sisters, all ardent enthusiasts, are in Chicago hoping for the best.

Will the Million Dollar Cigar suit your taste?

We don't know. Many men say it is by far the best 5c cigar they ever smoked. But the Owl does not claim to suit every man.

The Owl is flavory—yes. And it is mild. But it is the well-rounded flavor and mildness of fully aged, mellow tobacco.

We know that if you like one Owl you'll like every Owl. They're uniform. Surely the Owl is worth trying, isn't it?

The Owl is called the "Million Dollar Cigar" because we keep over $1,000,000 worth of tobacco always aging in storage in order that only perfectly aged, mellow leaf be used in every Owl Cigar.
