

BURKE AND M'DOWELL PROPOGANDA DOESN'T PLEASE ALL THE DEMS

SOME ARE FOR BRUEGGER AND DR. L. S. PLATEAU

Response to Proposal of Wilkinson is Not All One Way.

John Burke, treasurer of the United States senator from North Dakota, and Wesley C. McDowell of Marston, as a candidate for governor of North Dakota, brought to the front in a circular letter addressed to prominent democrats of the state by George Wilkinson of Fargo, editor of the North Dakota democrat and postmaster of Fargo, elicit various comments.

In the main, the democrats responding to the letter, favor the combination. There are some who are not supremely keen about furthering Burke's candidacy, while to others, the whole scheme is branded as ill advised, being declared in violation of the spirit of the primary election laws of the state, in that it is an attempt to determine, before hand, the party lineup.

The fact that Mr. Wilkinson holds a postoffice job of no mean value, and that there once was a period during which political activity on the part of postmasters was frowned upon, has not deterred him from furthering the present scheme. In the current issue of his newspaper he lauds the two prospective candidates as certain to lead the party to success at the polls.

Fisk is for them.

Chief Justice C. J. Fisk, of the North Dakota supreme court looks upon the men as "the strongest for these positions and the party ought to be a unit in favor of their nomination and election."

John Carmody, deputy United States district attorney general, thinks the two candidates would be winners.

W. H. Lackey of Westhope is for Burke, first and last, and he also looks upon McDowell as a likely gubernatorial candidate.

M. H. O'Hara of Kenmare is for Burke for senator, but favors John Bruegger of Williston as a candidate for governor, thinking he would poll a bigger vote than McDowell.

McLean Real Hostile.

From Fred W. McLean, former secretary of the state democratic committee, comes a "stinger." It evidences the fact that all is not well within the democratic ranks, and he charges Wilkinson and his associates with supporting Governor Hanna, the republican candidate, as against the democratic nominee. That even now things are fermenting within the ranks of the democrats, the purpose of which is to give aid to the Hanna faction within the republican party, is contended for by McLean.

McLean refuses to lend his endorsement to the Burke-McDowell cause.

E. E. Cole of Fargo endorses Burke, thinking McDowell could command the full democratic vote, and also suggests the name of Dr. L. S. Plateau of Valley City as a possible aspirant for the gubernatorial honors.

Valley's Enthusiasm Limited.

From John Valley of Grand Forks comes a discordant note. Mr. Valley himself and others within the party, "I am not one of those who has always put the stamp of approval on Governor Burke's acts in the past. I have taken issue with him on more than one occasion, and may do so again in the future," says Valley.

Mr. Valley is ready to give his full aid to McDowell, but his enthusiasm doesn't extend to Burke.

W. W. Anderson of Edgeley says the candidates would mean a democratic victory.

Kemp is for Bruegger.

J. A. Kemp is another prominent democrat who strikes a note for John Bruegger of Williston as the gubernatorial candidate, and who says Burke would make a strong candidate. He also looks on McDowell as a strong candidate for the nomination.

J. Francis Tibbs of Rugby, also wants Bruegger as the candidate for governor, and is satisfied with Burke.

Plateau Doesn't Tell.

From Mr. Plateau of Valley City, who has been mentioned as a possible gubernatorial candidate, comes a refusal to commit himself, indicating the possibility that he may be in the race.

F. O. Hellstrom, candidate for the governorship last year, is not keen on the proposition, and grows quite sarcastic in dealing with the plan.

J. J. O'Connor of St. Thomas gives whole-hearted approval to the scheme.

CHARLES BREWER LONG WEDDED

Secretary of State Board of Regents Became Benedict Several Months Ago.

Fargo Forum: In regard to the story yesterday regarding the reported marriage of Charles Brewer, veteran newspaper man of this section of the northwest, it has been positively authenticated that Mr. Brewer and Mrs. Marie Mallard, both of this city, were married in the twin cities, not during the past week as was suspected, but last November. The couple kept the secret well, even from their closest friends, and the announcement that the wedding took place so long a time past, will cause added surprise. Hosts of friends will extend congratulations, even though necessarily belated, on the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Brewer have returned to Bismarck, which place has become the former's residence since his election to the state board of regents.

BOUND OVER TO DISTRICT COURT

John Jobe, Accused of Robbing Walter Zabreski last Night, is Arraigned.

John Jobe, arrested last evening on the charge of robbing Walter Zabreski of $15 in cash, a hat and a can of tobacco last night in the woods near the N. P. depot, on North Third street, and knocking him unconscious with a sharp stone, was arraigned this afternoon before Judge Church, and pleaded guilty. He was bound over to the district court on $1,000 bail.

According to the story told by Zabreski, a Polester, he came to Grand Forks to get work in the harvest fields. He met Jobe, who told him that he was a separator man, and they became friendly. After going to East Grand Forks and drinking considerable beer, they came to this side of the river, and went to the woods to talk things over. The Polester then states that his friend picked up a sharp stone lying nearby and hit him over the head with it, rendering him unconscious. When he came to his senses, his hat was gone, his money amounting to $15 in cash had disappeared, and also his can of tobacco. He was not seriously injured, but it was necessary to put several stitches in a gash in the back of his head this morning.

After robbing the Pole, Jobe walked down Third street with bloody hands and clothes. He went into Fegan's cigar store in the Hotel DuCouch and asked permission to wash himself, and, on being refused, bought a cigar and walked out, and started to East Grand Forks. He stopped in a restaurant near the bridge and washed himself.

Policeman Ted Hanson, who saw the highwayman as he went to East Grand Forks, later went to that place to search for him, and found him about 1 a. m. When brought to the police station he was identified by Zabreski as the man who robbed him. Nine dollars was found on the prisoner. He was wearing the hat of the man he had robbed, and carrying his tobacco. Blood stains were also found on his clothes.

His partner, a man giving his name as McGraw, was arrested in East Grand Forks last night on the charge of robbing Jack McLeod of $40 on the banks of the Red river, but was released this morning in police court on account of insufficient evidence.

What Is Needed.

The Sunday school teacher was talking to her pupils on patience. She explained her topic carefully, and, as an aid to understanding, she gave each pupil a card bearing a picture of a boy fishing.

"Even pleasure," she said, "requires the exercise of patience. See the boy fishing; he must sit and wait and wait. He must be patient."

Having treated the subject very fully, she began with the simplest, most practical question.

"And now, can any little boy tell me what we need most when we go fishing?"

The answer was quickly shouted with one voice, "Bait!"—(American Boy).

CONTRACT TO BE GIVEN TOMORROW

Dinnie Brothers Have Low Bid of $28,700 for Construction of "Y" Add.

The contract for the construction of the new addition to the M. C. A. building will probably be let tomorrow, according to the committee who have the building in charge. An adjourned meeting of the building board was to have been held today, but owing to several of the directors being absent on the Commercial Club boosters tour, it was further postponed until tomorrow noon. At that time the contract probably will be completed.

Bids for the construction of the new addition were received and examined several days ago and Dinnie Brothers of this city offered the low bid of $28,700. They will probably be granted the contract for the building tomorrow.

RAIN DELAYS THE HARVESTING

Albert Johnson of Inkster Says That This Year's Crop Will Exceed Previous Years.

According to Albert Johnson, a prominent farmer of Inkster, the harvesting and threshing of the enormous crop this year, in that section of the county will be considerably delayed on account of recent heavy rains.

Harvesting of the wheat and barley is nearly finished, but considerable oats and fax is still standing. Several threshing rig owners were prepared to begin threshing operations this week, but have had to wait later to start their machines.

Most of the crop in that section of the county will not be up to the estimate, but will far exceed that of any year since 1906, according to Mr. Johnson, unless the wet weather prevents the harvesting and threshing. The rain that took place there Sunday and Monday was one of the heaviest that has fallen there for some time.
