

WHAT THEY ARE DOING IN SOCIETY

Going to Bed by Candle-light. A dear, dim nursery, a tiny crib, A great wild feeling of night, And crickets chirruping far away Outside where once it was light.

Who sang to me shrill and low, Going to bed by candle-light, Hundreds of years ago.

'Tis true my rocking-horse would not move, I had watched him long through the door, I could get no rest on the robin's tail, And the coachman, my idol, swore, Yet all these miseries passed away, Away in a drowsy glow, Going to bed by candle-light, Hundreds of years ago.

Fargo Forum: There is rapidly spreading interest in the beautiful classic play, Apollo and Daphne, which is the original work of Miss Abbie Simmons of the A. C. faculty, who is a prominent member of the drama section of the Fargo Fine Arts club, and which Greek play is to be the main feature of the Wednesday evening program, October 13, at the State Federation of Women's club convention at Minot.

One attractive feature of this play is the lovely dance of the Muses, which has as its originator another well known Fargo resident, Mrs. David deLendrecie, whose work in classic and other fancy dancing is so well known here and elsewhere. The participants in this dance at the federation presentation will be nine in number, the cast to be chosen from Minot young people, who will be trained by Miss Lincoln, of that place.

Both the dance and the play are now being copyrighted at Washington, D. C., having been sent there together. While Miss Simmons was in the west this summer she read her play, Apollo and Daphne, which was enthusiastically received, as it is exciting the sincere admiration of all who have had the privilege of seeing or hearing it, particularly in the classic in art. The members of the Chicago Woman's club have seen the manuscript, and are greatly interested in a possible production of this play. The interest in North Dakota extends far outside local boundaries, and the play's presentation at Minot, together with the dance above mentioned, is eagerly awaited by those expecting to attend the convention. The fact that it is an unusual feature of such programs also adds to the interest.

The following account of the wedding of Miss Alice E. McFadden and Dr. R. E. Bechtel, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, near Tyner, on Wednesday, is from the Caller Chronicle: "At the home of the bride's parents in Tyner, N. D., on Wednesday, Sept. 15, 1915, a simple, beautiful wedding was solemnized, when Miss Alice J. McFadden became the bride of Dr. R. E. Bechtel of Drayton, N. D. At 11 o'clock Rev. S. Newlove of Milton, an uncle of the bride, read the service, which was artistically decorated. The bride looked charming in silk net over satin and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. Her only adornment was a diamond pendant, the gift of the groom. The groom wore the conventional black. Miss Ethel Bechtel who attended the bride carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Mr. Ellis McFadden officiated as best man. After the ceremony the guests, the immediate families of the contracting parties, enjoyed a sumptuous wedding dinner.

At 3 o'clock the happy couple attended to Cavalier and boarded the train for the Twin Cities. The bride wore a black suit with black hat and accessories. INVEST IN YOUR PUBLIC UTILITIES

The 7 per cent Preferred Stock of Northern States Power Company—of which this company is a part—has paid dividends regularly every three months since organization in 1907.

It is a particularly desirable investment at the present price, and may be purchased for cash or at the rate of $5.00 a share per month.

All inquiries are welcomed either at our office or the office of E. J. Lander & Co.

In the Laundry

You will find Gas a big convenience and labor-saver. The old time laundry stove with its kindling and smoke—then dirt and ashes is rapidly passing in favor of a little gas stove made especially for this purpose.

The Gas Laundry Stove Makes an Easy Wash Day

It is built so low that the boiler may be easily handled without danger of spilling and scalding.

This is but one of the many labor saving uses for gas in the home.
