Night.
Hush of the world, save for a small and quiet wind,
Out of the north through slumberous stirring.
A late pale moon holding the dreaming hills
With passionate white magic, and the whirling
Of a belated cricket in the grass, O, amber night, alive and wonderful and still!

I have risen for I cannot sleep. Too near to above, Too sweet, the outspread wonder of your hair;
Your silent breath stirs mine too tre-mulously, I am afraid with an old dread I have of losing you.

Heart of my life, is it not strange this love, Which hold me? Lips cling to lips so much I strive to lose myself in you, and ye beyond, Always we stand as beggars at the gates of sound and touch; You are asleep, I know not where your soul, While I, alone, watch silently the stars.

PRESIDENT KEEPS SECRET DATE HE'LL WED MRS. GALT; FRIENDS DON'T KNOW WHO WILL TIE KNOT OR WHERE HONEYMOON WILL BE

Washington, Oct. 15.—The date of the wedding of President Wilson and Mrs. Norman Galt is still a secret. There are numerous rumors afloat, one fixing it in the near future, another during the Christmas holidays. But Secretary Tumulty will say nothing.

Only second in interest to the date is the question of who is to perform the ceremony. That it will take place in Mrs. Galt's residence is regarded as certain. Mrs. Galt recently has given up the pew in St. Thomas's church, which she has occupied for many years and has taken a pew at St. Margaret's church.

Who Will Officiate?
Therefore it is assumed that the Rev. Dr. C. Ernest Smith, rector of St. Thomas, or the Rev. Dr. Herbert Scott Smith, rector of Margaret's, may officiate. Many friends believe the rector of the Central Presbyterian church, which the president attends, will be chosen.

The president's cousins, the Misses Lucy and Mary Smith, now guests at White House, are to remain until after the wedding, and they are advancing many arguments in favor of Pasa Christian, Miss., as an ideal place for a honeymoon.

That the honeymoon will be spent within a few hours' trip from Washington, and that the trip thither will be made in a motor, is the statement of some friends of the Galt family. According to these, a country house in Virginia has been placed at the president's disposal and he has decided for reasons of sentiment, as well as for practical considerations, to spend the first weeks of his honeymoon in the natal state of himself and his bride. And there he would be in touch with affairs here. But the president has received invitations from all sections of the country.

Inviting the Guests.
Vice President Marshall and Mrs. Marshall, during their visit here two weeks ago, agreed to return in time for the wedding. The president will invite all the members of his cabinet and their wives to the ceremony; a few personal friends and his relatives.

Mrs. M. J. Londergan and daughter, Frances, 618 Chestnut street, entertained at dinner last evening complimentary to Miss Ethel Poupore. Lavender and white asters were used as the centerpiece for the table and covers were laid for nine guests. Miss Helen and Katherine Londergan cared for the serving.

Miss Florence Dougherty of Park River, who is teaching at Reynolds this year, is spending the week-end here visiting friends.

The football team of the Shattuck high school were entertained at a 6 o'clock dinner last evening by Mrs. J.
B. Wineman at her home, 35 Fourth avenue.

A bowl of red roses was used as the centerpiece for the table and Mrs.
Wineman was assisted in serving by Misses Ruth and Ernestine Jacob and Miss Lottie Sowle. Covers were laid for 22 guests.

Miss Jennie Gale, a student at the university, has gone to Hunter, N. D., to enjoy a week end visit with her parents.

The high school girls' club of the Y. W. C. A. entertained the girls of the high school at the association rooms last evening.

The girls were separated into groups according to the months of the birthdays, and each group gave a stunt representing that month. Light refreshments were served after the games.

Miss Hazel Peterson and Miss Lucille Bennett, who are attending the university, will spend the week-end with their parents at Inkster.

Misses Alice and Della Breton, Mrs.
Wilfred Huard and Miss Pearl Pon-tano, motored to Grand Forks from Angora, Minn., yesterday and spent the evening here, shopping and visiting friends.

The Kappa Alpha Theta sorority of the university held an invitation service this afternoon at the home of Miss Ruth Whitted, 147 Reeves avenue.
Miss Ruth Templeton of this city, Miss Grace Kolar of East Grand Forks, Miss Grace Swank of Wahpeton, Miss Merle Rutherford of Gilby, Miss Helen Tombs of Grafton and Miss Margaret Madsen were the guests of the members taken into the sorority.

The banquet will be served at 6:30 this evening at the Frederick hotel.
The luncheon appointments will be in the sorority color, yellow, and Miss Jessie Grassick will be toastmistress.
Responses will be made by Miss Helen Tombs, Miss Kathleen Cowan, Miss Selma Hassell, Miss Ruth Soule and Miss Ada Flemington.

A business meeting of the sorority was held at the home of Miss Grassick, 821 South Fifth street, last evening.

Mrs. Galt's list will include only her family connections and her closest intimates. Miss Margaret Wilson, the president's only unmarried daughter, is expected home from her concert tour on the October 20 and will reside over the White House until after the wedding.

Mrs. Galt has been too busy with her preparations to see any but her most intimate friends. She is eligible for membership in the D. A. R. and the Society of Colonial Dames, and efforts are being made to persuade her to become a Colonial Dame.
The papers have been drawn up and Mrs. Galt's name goes to have been proposed last year by Miss Gertrude Gordon, through whom she first made the acquaintance of Dr. Gary T. Grayson, the president's physician, and of the White House family. But Miss Gordon left Washington suddenly and the matter was allowed to wait for another year.

Mrs. Galt's Personality.
Washington is still agog with discussion of the personality of the president's fiancée. This is the description given by a friend of the woman who will be the new mistress of the White House:
"Well, you see, Mrs. Galt's a most unusual sort of person.
"To begin with, she has the most fascinating mouth. This one feature alone is worth a page description just what sort of woman she is—sweet, and simple, and sympathetic, and sincere.
"When she smiles, the most cases hardened give up. Her smile is more than a smile—it's a radiance. When her red lips separate she shows her teeth—her teeth are a perfect joy to behold—white and even and beautifully shaped, and such a perfect curve "O, don't ask me why I think she is attractive—she just is," another said. "She is more than attractive.
She is alluring, and yes, she is more than that—she is really the most seducing creature I ever saw."
"Maybe it is her eyes—they are large and full, and when she smiles they play up full of lights and shadows!"

Minot Optic Reporter: By far the most enjoyable of social events in the club world was the Federation tea, given Thursday evening at the Minot Normal school under the supervision of Miss Cantwell, preceptor of the normal dormitory, and served by the senior girls. At 6 o'clock the ladies in their prettiest attire and in a happy federation spirit arrived at the dormitory and were cordially met by the parlor by young girls, dressed in white.
Here a delightful hour was spent in renewing of old friendships and in meeting new friends. At 7 o'clock the ladies in groups passed the receiving line and descended to the dining room.
Those in the receiving line were Miss Nelson, the state president, and the officers and vice presidents of the North Dakota federation of women's clubs.

The dining room was artistic with its decorations of clinging and ex-truded about the chandeliers and pillars. Beautiful in its adornment was the table with their vases and baseballs, shining red carnations, fern which trailing vines led to the jardener as the other the entire length of the table. The red carnations, ferns and red carnations, out in the garden had been picked by the ladies in their shimmering evening gowns in themselves added beauty and attractiveness to the dining

FASHION NOTES.
There is a great many of the new gowns in the city streets.
A girl of diamond shape makes give a distinct note of a white tulle.
There are an excellent number of decorations of water in the new

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

An excellent polish for furniture may be made with equal parts of turpentine, linseed oil and vinegar.

When a metal teapot is not in use, put a lump of sugar into the pot, and this will prevent its becoming rusty.

To keep a kitchen table white, wash it first with vinegar, then scrub it as usual.

When curtain rings become dull, soak them in paraffin oil for 24 hours, and then polish with a chamois leather.

To remove the stains made by iodine saturate a piece of cotton or blotting paper with oil of lavender and place it among the various articles.

Put wet brushes to dry with bristles down; this lengthens their period of usefulness; otherwise the water soaks into the back, causing warping and cracking.

In buying canned goods examine the can carefully, and if the sides bulge reject them, as this denotes the presence of gas, which renders the contents unfit for food.

Pudding bags and jelly cloths require care; wash and hang them to dry directly after using them. Air them well before you put them away or they will smelt musty.

When the tag comes off a shoelace a little black sealing-wax, carefully pressed round the end of the lace and shaped to a point, makes a serviceable substitute and lasts a long time.

It will be found a great help in cooking utensils are filled with water as soon as emptied of food instead of being allowed to stand. The sooner they are washed the better and easier it is. If dishes must wait free them of scraps, then put to soak; cover with a towel or paper.
