Miss Florence Spriggs is Close Second—Race Ends One Week From Tonight, and Competition Will Be Very Keen Till the Close.

Evidence of the keenness of competition and the interest in the "Who Will Be Lou" contest is contained in the official list of votes today.

It was just after the Waterloo Rotary club had banqueted the Grand Forks visitors that the initiation ceremonies were staged.

The afore mentioned gentlemen were tied together with ropes. Then the procession to the opera house, and then the initiation.

The Herald's advice and there just how badly the Grand Forks industry investigators were initiated, doesn't appear—but from all accounts available, was "some initiation."

WOMAN'S LEAGUE DOES FINE WORK

The Woman's league of the university is one of the most important and helpful organizations of the institution.

It is an organization in which every girl in the university is interested, because it includes all university women. Its purpose is to promote loyalty and good feeling between the girls and the faculty women.

This is secured in a number of ways. Each junior and senior girl is assigned two or three faculty women whom she is to guard. She helps them register, entertains them occasionally, and helps them solve their various difficulties.

On the first Friday of each year, the league gives a little girls' party in honor of the freshmen; here everybody meets everybody else in a very informal way.

Most important of all the devices is the weekly tea, given in the rooms at Darrin hall. Each girl serves her turn as hostess, and a cheery fire and shaded lights make it seem a genuine party.

Once a month, the men are invited to the weekly tea, and the program is given, a third day is devoted to the twilight concert program, and the fourth day is just a regular day.

The league is governed by an executive board of ten girls from the student body of the university, and this board consults with an advisory board, composed of six faculty women, the dean of women and the wife of the president of the university.

The executive board this year consists of: Misses M. H. Hoover, secretary; Mattie Crabtree, treasurer; and Lois Tombs, Dora McBride, Gertrude Leahy, Helen Thompson, Marie Hall and Mortenah Monroe. The advisory board is composed of Mrs. F. I. McVey, Dean Ella L. Fulton, Mrs. Becker, Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Todd, Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Young and Miss Smith.

United States Consul-General Ryder's attention was drawn to the subject today, but he said, of course, it could not very well apply to those American residents in Canada, who were not naturalized, and therefore he could not speak on the subject.

It is no secret, however, that a good many of our citizens who reside in Canada are fortunate enough to get into the battalion. In Alberta and Saskatchewan there is a very large population drawn from the United States from which many recruits have gone for overseas service.

Will Be Enlisted. The American-Canadian infantry battalion will be enlisted in all parts of western Canada, but will be organized at Winnipeg. The list of officers has not yet been made known, but it is expected that the regiment will be commanded by a prominent American-Canadian who has been in service in the United States army.

The assignment will consist of 1,150 of all ranks who will be recruited and mobilized by January and sent to France in March.

Will Call Meet in Winnipeg Soon Winnipeg, Oct. 26.—A movement is under way in Winnipeg to call a meeting of naturalized American-Canadian citizens to promote the ex-American battalion. The idea is that those who cannot go will form committees to be of substantial aid to those who are fortunate enough to get into the battalion.

COLUMBIA HOTEL SAVED FROM TOTAL DESTRUCTION BY BRILLIANT WORK OF THE GRAND FORKS FIRE FIGHTERS Flames Swept Four Floors and Through the Roof, Yet Big Building is Saved—Insurance Will Just About Cover the Damage.

Fighting a fire which stubbornly made its way from the basement to the roof of the three story Hotel Columbia, corner of Dakota and Seventh streets, the Grand Forks fire department was returned successful against the flames after a hard four-hour battle. The cause of the fire is unknown.

Through a heavy loss it sustained, the damage was not exceeded, $25,000 or $30,000, the loss being increased by reason of the tremendous flood of water used in quenching the flames.

NEW MASTER MECHANIC HERE T. A. Annan of Breckenridge Succeeds E. English in Local Office—Latter to Minot.

Progress is Traced. Today, visitors to the Columbia hotel were readily able to trace the course of the fire. Originating in the basement, it burned briskly there, covering a wide area.

T. A. Annan, who formerly was traveling engineer out of Breckenridge, has arrived in Grand Forks to assume his duties as master mechanic of the Dakota division.

The middle of the floor of the main dining room, the center section of the lobby floor, and the floor of the stock room at the rear of the confectionery and cigar store, were burned away, and partly dropped into the basement.

Grafton, N. D., Oct. 26.—Miss Algot Knutvold came up from Fargo Saturday evening and over Sunday with her sister, Mrs. M. H. Sprague.

Between 5 and 6 o'clock the flames made their way up through the front of the building, and shortly after 6 o'clock burst through the roof. At that time the building appeared doomed.

Mrs. F. A. Moore and children returned Thursday morning from Decorah, Iowa, where they spent two weeks with relatives.

Firemen reached the roof, some entering the attic, and the last stand was made against the flames there, finally being overcome.

Senator J. L. Cashel spent part of last week in Winnipeg on a business trip.

The "Go to Church" movement has been carried out in other cities with exceptional success, and in Grand Forks, it is the hope of the several sponsors that the local success will be equal to that in other cities.

Hail! They Are Members of the Society of Black Hawks; Initiation Of Forkers is Waterloo Stunt

No one knows what their titles are, but they are members of the Society of the Black Hawk.

They were properly initiated by the business men of Waterloo, Iowa, whom Secretary C. W. Graves of the Grand Forks Commercial club, declares are "a right lively bunch."

Their initiation was staged in a Waterloo opera house late last night, and it was "some spectacle."

It was a brass band of Waterloo bankers robed in the garb of Indians, that started the festival.

Their victims were Mayor James Dinnie, J. D. Bacon, President McVey of the university, and President Robertson of Wesley college of Grand Forks.

It was just after the Waterloo Rotary club had banqueted the Grand Forks visitors that the initiation ceremonies were staged.

The afore mentioned gentlemen were tied together with ropes. Then the procession to the opera house, and then the initiation.

John Fadden, who recently suffered the loss of a threshing machine, which he supposed was stolen, has located the outfit near Selz, on the Great Northern line near New Rockford.

Investigation proved to Mr. Fadden that the man who took the equipment was entirely innocent in the manner, no bad faith being shown.

Since locating his machine, Mr. Fadden has obtained a contract for threshing 600 acres of grain near Selz. When this contract is complete, threshing operations in that district will be concluded.

FREIGHT TRAFFIC IS MUCH GREATER Great Northern Officials Declare it is 200 Per Cent Better.

If freight shipments are any criterion of prosperity, the Red River valley is unusually prosperous this fall, according to figures obtained at the local office of the Great Northern today, the freight shipments are 200 per cent better than they were last year at this time.

The greater part of the freight traffic is in grains, but there is a great deal of fruit, especially apples, being shipped over the Dakota division.

Officials of the Dakota division have experienced little difficulty in obtaining all the carloaders for the grain of a great deal of the grain being the western division started.

The passenger traffic also has been very heavy. For the past week or so, No. 39 has been carrying Grand Forks in two sections, while other trains have been taxed to their utmost capacity.

SCHOOL FOR BLIND TO HELP Will Give Special Program to Celebrate Appreciation Week—Superintendent Likes Idea.
