NO PELLAGRA IN NORTH DAKOTA; STATE FREE OF SOUTH'S RAVAGING DISEASE

Have you been wondering about that disease called pellagra?

The fact that several life term convicts in a southern penitentiary had submitted themselves to experiments by federal surgeons has aroused interest in the disease.

There isn't a case of pellagra in North Dakota. Furthermore, there are no cases in any of the adjoining states, Minnesota, South Dakota and Montana, all being free of the disease.

Pellagra, according to the United States government physicians, is simply starvation—and nothing else. In the last few years the cases reported have increased from nine in 1906 to 75,000 in 1915. Southern states have been most seriously affected.

In the southern states, pellagra is causing more deaths than typhoid fever.

MRS. THOS. PORTE PASSED AWAY

Wife of Grand Forks Optician Succumbed This Morning.

Mrs. Georgiana Porte, wife of Thomas Porte, 509 Cottonwood street, an invalid for years, succumbed at 9:30 o'clock this morning at her home. For the past week or ten days her condition had been so critical that death was regarded as certain relief from her sufferings.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon from the home, the hour being 2:30 o'clock, with Rev. A. H. Thompson, pastor of the First Methodist church, officiating. Burial will take place at Memorial park cemetery.

SCHOOLS PRESENT PROGRAMS TODAY

Appreciation Week is Observed in Minot by Grades This Afternoon.

The pupils of Grand Forks city schools this afternoon are giving North Dakota Appreciation week programs. In several instances the programs are being combined with the annual Thanksgiving exercises, and in one case—the Washington school—the appreciation week work has been delayed until Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Essays to be given with the Thanksgiving program.

During the entire week, all of the grades of the different schools have done their class work with North Dakota as the central theme. The history of North Dakota has been studied, the geography of the state has been taken up and in the language program work the students have written essays on the Ellicertall commonwealth.

At the Belmont school, of which Miss Katherine Whiteley is principal, the Thanksgiving and Appreciation week programs are combined. A program is being given in each grade, the central thought of each one being Grand Forks and North Dakota. James Foley's poem on North Dakota has been memorized and will be read in each grade. Essays written during the week will be read. These essays tell of North Dakota and its resources.

At the Roosevelt school, of which Miss Eleanor Dougherty is principal, elaborate programs were given. In this school the Thanksgiving and North Dakota programs also are combined. The pupils tell of the history of North Dakota, the industries of North Dakota, the cities of North Dakota, and of the state's institutions, resources, and of the state flag, seal and flower.

At the Wilder school the program is given in the upper grades. Miss Mollie J. Aldrich is principal. She arranged an exceptionally interesting program which includes essays on the state and its resources and opportunities and musical numbers. Miss Agnes O'Donnell is principal, has devoted the week to a special study of North Dakota and in the programs this afternoon the pupils tell of the state and the various facts connected with its history, and development and to set forth its resources.

Principal Harry Burdick of the Washington school has made arrangements to have his Appreciation week and Thanksgiving programs next Tuesday and Wednesday.

The Roosevelt.

The pupils who took part in the Roosevelt school programs this afternoon are: Harriet Tingley, Mary Moore, Sarah Sutherland, Alpha Pederson, Christine Tuttle, Ruth Burgess, John MacDonald, Thelmer Evanson, Ruth Orren, Mildred Brown, Margaret Schultz, Vera Beatty, Clara Rinnes, Mary Moore, Arnold Gunderson, Clara

Mrs. Fred Barrington Loses Purse With Railway Ticket and Cash, So Delays Journey to Her Home

Mrs. Fred Barrington of Cut Bank, Mont., formerly of Grand Forks, lost a ticket from Grand Forks to Cut Bank, $22 in cash, her glasses, a gold watch and a card case, just before she boarded a Great Northern train this morning in this city.

The ticket, cash and other valuables were in a handbag. Mrs. Barrington lost them either while in the waiting room at the local depot, or while she was passing from the waiting room and boarding the train.

As a result of her loss, Mrs. Barrington was forced to delay her homeward journey until tomorrow, and in the meantime, an industrious search is being maintained for the missing handbag and its contents.

ESSAYS TO COME TO U. N. D.

Number of Best Papers on North Dakota to Be Sent to Public Information Bureau.

Schools throughout the state today are observing North Dakota Appreciation week. Special programs are being given in the city and rural schools this afternoon, big features of which are the essays on North Dakota. Many of these essays will be entered in the North Dakota essay contest. There will be judges for each county, and these judges will select several of the best essays submitted to them and forward them to the University bureau of public information.

BABY SHOW IS BIG SUCCESS

Several Hundred Attending Booster Day Celebration in Gliby this Afternoon.

The first baby show ever put on in Grand Forks county is being held in Gliby today, and proving a big success. Booster Day is being celebrated in that city today, and several hundred people from the surrounding territory are attending the celebration.

The baby show, the big feature of the day, is being conducted by the ladies of that city. The judging is being done by Dr. Fox of the college of medicine from the university and Miss Mabel Fodness, Grand Forks county school nurse.

Miss Beatrice Johnson, county superintendent of schools and President J. H. Worst of the North Dakota agricultural college, gave short addresses this afternoon on appreciation week and better babies.

A colt show is also being held in conjunction with the celebration. It is hoped to make the baby show a combined annual event in Gliby. Prof. Sylvester, superintendent of the city schools, is at the head of the movement.
