

BROTHER DIES UNDER WEIGHTS

Mrs. Peter Werstlein of this City Bereaved in Fargo Accident.

VICTIM FORMER RESIDENT OF CITY

Met Death While Making Repair at Bottom of Elevator Shaft.

Julius Ulrich of Fargo, formerly a resident of Grand Forks and a brother of Mrs. Peter Werstlein, 412 North Fourth street, was killed in Fargo when hit on the head by an elevator weight in the 4th-Landrieu Department store.

Ulrich's death occurred Saturday, about noon, while he was engaged in making repairs at the bottom of the shaft. He had not been warned to watch out for the weight, and was crushed under it when the elevator was sent to the top floor of the building.

The man's head was terribly crushed, and the physician called in, gave it as his opinion that death probably was instantaneous.

"Accidental death," without attaching blame to anybody, was the verdict of the jury.

PATTERSON TO BE PUBLISHER

Former North Dakota Newspaper Man Leaves Publication at Columbus, Ohio.

R. G. Patterson, formerly a reporter with the Fargo Forum, and who is quite well known in Grand Forks, has engaged in the magazine business, launching "Patterson's Magazine," which will be published at Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Patterson, in announcing his plan, says he proposed to return to the popular 10-cent magazine, which has been passing in the last few years. The first issue will appear in December.

ANOTHER BAR EXAMINATION

Session Will Be Held in Fargo December 7, 8, 9 and 10—Supreme Court to Swear Them In.

The next examinations to be conducted by the state bar examining board will take place in Fargo, December 7, 8, 9 and 10. H. A. Bronson of Grand Forks; Joel Myers of Grafton, and Emerson Smith of Fargo are the members of the board.

About a dozen candidates will write for admission to practice in this state. The supreme court will hold a session in Fargo at the conclusion of the examination to swear in the successful candidates.

Some folks have no faith that 1916 will be a good year in this country, but those who size up the situation correctly will make some money.

THE HERALD READY TO PROSECUTE THIEVES WHO STEAL DELIVERED PAPERS

The Herald is receiving numerous complaints recently of the theft of papers from the doors of subscribers. The Herald will vigorously prosecute anybody found stealing papers. There are some rather good clues which point convincing at several boys, and it will require but little additional information to bring about their prosecution.

RED CROSS SEALS ARE PUT ON SALE

Local Red Cross Work in Hands of Nurses Association in This City.

Placards urging co-operation in the movement of distributing Red Cross seals are being distributed throughout Grand Forks today. The seals have arrived in this city and the sale of them commenced today. They are being left at all of the drug stores, banks, confectionery stores, and almost every business institution where they can be disposed of.

The local Red Cross work is in the hands of the Grand Forks Nurses' association, headed by Miss Frederick of the Deaconess hospital. The proceeds of the sale of the seals is to be used to defray expenses in the fight against the white plague in North Dakota. One of the aims of the movement this year is the support of an outdoor school for the patients in the Dunseith hospital for victims of consumption. There are at present about twenty patients confined there under no education at all.

NEW OFFICERS ARE ELECTED

Gilby-Honeyford Farmers' Club Holds Annual Meeting at Honeyford, Saturday.

The Gilby-Honeyford Farmers' club meeting at Honeyford Saturday, elected Alvin Lee, president; C. Swen, vice president, and Axel Carlson, secretary and treasurer for the coming year.

The club had an interesting program, including musical numbers by the Gilby orchestra, and by members of Miss McLean's school.

Addresses were made by Miss Elizabeth Burr, "The Union Industrial Clubs" being her subject, while Edgar I. Olsen spoke on "Farm Club Work."

The next meeting will be held Saturday, December 11, the subject for discussion at that time being "The Feeding of Stock and Invalid Cooking."

GETTING BACK. "My cook left this morning merely because I asked her to get dinner for a few friends of mine." "I hired her, my dear, and I don't mind giving you a chance to get back at her. Bring your friends over to my house for dinner."

"TOO MANY SHORT SKIRTS AND TOO MUCH NOISE IN EAST," SAYS WOMAN SHERIFF

Mrs. Lucretia Roberts in the regalia of her office.

New York, Nov. 29.—No, stranger, the deputy sheriff of Santa Cruz county, Ariz., doesn't care shucks about New York—she doesn't. No typographical errors, stranger—the deputy sheriff of Santa Cruz county is a she.

Her name is Mrs. Lucretia Roberts, and shortly after becoming a widow she went into the shrievalty business. And when seen at one of the leading hotels she said she thoroughly liked it—infinitely more than New York.

"I wouldn't live here in New York if they gave it to me," said the sheriff. "Too much noise of slamming street car doors and too many short skirts on the women. Give me Yuma every time. I don't like the east."

Perhaps she misses the insignia of her office that she wears out Yuma way—the flaring sombrero, rifle, shooting irons and cartridge belt and big, glittering badge; and the cantering horse and the ready lariat swinging from the saddle.

Asked what she did when sent out after a man, she said: "I go get him."

Then, that's a rule with young widows, anyway.

LESLIE'S DEATH AT HANDS OF THE TURKS CONFIRMED; KILLED TRYING TO DEFEND ARMENIANS FROM DEATH

Former Pastor at Niagara, Graduate of Fargo College, Slain by Raiding Subjects of the Sultan—Had Strenuous Career in Asiatic Turkey.

Francis H. Leslie, formerly of Niagara, Grand Forks county, a graduate of Fargo college, was killed by the Turks while engaged in defending Armenians against massacre, according to press dispatches from Basel, Switzerland, via Paris. Several others also were killed.

Announcement of the death of Mr. Leslie was made in The Herald several days ago, advice received at that time indicating that he had been poisoned.

Mr. Leslie had been at Urfa, in Asiatic Turkey, since 1912, and several years ago he contributed two or three letters to The Herald, detailing conditions there.

A dispatch from Boston, November 12, said the American board of commissioners for foreign missions had announced the death of the Rev. Francis H. Leslie. His death, it was said, was due to poisoning. No details were given.

Mr. Leslie had been acting as intermediary for 300 French, Italian and Russian refugees who were interned at Urfa. He was appointed American consul agent to facilitate the handling of monthly allowances sent to the interned persons, but it was said the Turkish government had refused to recognize the appointment.

Mr. Leslie's home was Northport, Mich.

probably be called together to complete the inquest.

A. H. Leimbacher, proprietor of the Gardner hotel; J. F. Holmes of the Holmes Clothing company, and Edward Anderson, composed the jury.

COLLECT FUNDS FOR MONUMENT

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 29.—The soldiers' monument committee met at the office of W. L. Van Horn, and it was reported that $4,000 had been subscribed to the fund. The location has not yet been decided upon definitely, but it is expected that it will be determined upon soon.

The committee hopes to be able to put in the concrete foundation in the next few weeks and that the superstructure can be started early in the spring, so that it can be formally unveiled on Memorial day next May.

BROTHER REPORTED KILLED IN FRANCE

Fargo, N. D., Nov. 29.—Mrs. U. F. Busch of this city, has been notified that her cousin, Edmund Olsen, was killed in one of the offensive battles by the French in Artois. He was shot through the abdomen.

His wife had just buried her two-year-old son when she received the sad news of her husband's death. He was a son of Hjalmar Olson, one of the best known Norsemen in France, who received the Legion of Honor for saving many lives.

He had lived in Havre for about 40 years and was known as Gange-Roll or Rollon, after Rollon whose monument is erected in Fargo.

MAN INJURED IN DRUNKEN FIGHT

Minot, N. D., Nov. 29.—A man whose last name is Hill, but who was so much under the influence of liquor when taken in charge by the police that he could not tell what his name was, was picked up at 159 1/2 Fifth street, S. E., in something of a drunken stupor. He had a cut in the head which had been inflicted with a brick or stone either thrown or held in the hand of the assailant and used in Indian style. He was taken to a local hospital where the wound was dressed and he was sent to his rooming place.

There is no clue so far to the party who inflicted the injury, nor as to what the fracas was. But it is evidently the outgrowth of a drunken imbroglio.

NEVER TOUCHED HER. "The Hobo-Lady. The slowly but surely starvin' ter death. Will you gimme permission ten go over in yore barnyard ter die?" "The Lather. Certainly, that is, if you'll promise not to crawl under the barn."

"BIRTH OF A NATION" FOR GRAND FORKS

Famous Motion Picture will be Shown Here one Week, Beginning Dec. 13.

"The Birth of a Nation," David W. Griffith's wonderful spectacle, which has been acclaimed the greatest motion picture ever made, will be shown at the Metropolitan theater one week beginning Monday, December 13.

"Doc" Gardner, business manager for the northwestern releasing concern, is in Grand Forks today, completing arrangements for the local run. Mr. Gardner is arranging for billing the city and surrounding country.

A "Road Attraction." "The Birth of a Nation" is being billed as a regular "road attraction." An orchestra of 24 pieces is carried and there are six other men who take part in the production. Besides this number ten local men will have to be hired to work on the stage.

There will be a matinee every day except Monday. The first performance will be given Monday night. It will take the entire day Monday to get ready for the performance. David W. Griffith gained world-wide

"MURDERED" MAN VERY MUCH ALIVE; THEORY IN RUGBY CASE AGAIN BAD

Benldji, Minn., Nov. 29.—David McMurtie, who with his 16-year-old son was believed to have been murdered at Rugby, N. D., early this fall, returned to his home.

Mr. McMurtie left early in the fall for North Dakota and as no communication was received by his wife, she wrote to the chief of police at Rugby, giving him a description of her husband. The descriptions in her letter corresponded with the descriptions of two unidentified men who had been murdered this fall at Rugby and the officials at Rugby believed that they had at last secured a clew to the murder mystery and were working on the case when Mr. McMurtie and son returned home.

fame when "The Birth of a Nation" was presented in New York. It was the first motion picture ever shown at 22 cents, and it was the first attraction ever shown in New York by over 700 consecutive performances. It cost Mr. Griffith $500,000 to make the picture and he was at it for nearly a year. Thousands of people took part in it.

Such well known film stars as Henry B. Walthall and Mae Marsh play leading roles.

The company has a 50-foot baggage car which is packed full of effects, and eleven men are at work behind the screen handling them. Every effect is produced—men to the mobs and their hue and cry running down the street.

FEMINE CHARITY. Mrs. Elcox—Wonder why Mrs. De Style is always late at the theater? Mrs. Knox—Oh, I suppose she has to wash the dinner dishes before she starts.

NATURAL PROPENSITY. "The maids in our neighborhood would make good soldiers." "In what way?" "They are so ready to go to the front."

TOO SUGGESTIVE. "Yes," said the young physician of aristocratic lineage, "our family has a motto, but I prefer not to use it. It is a little too suggestive in my profession." "What is the motto?" "Faithful unto death."
