CELEBRATION AT RUGBY N. D.

Firemen will Have Charge of Big Event Which Will be an Annual Affair.

Rugby, N. D., May 12.—At a meeting of the Firemen held the other evening and attended by a committee representing the Community club and the business men of the city, steps were taken toward the staging of another big celebration here this year, something on the order of the one held last year.

The firemen had charge of that affair and ever since then there has been no question as to their ability to handle an affair of that kind and handle it right, and the business men are willing to back them again. The matter was first taken up at a meeting of the Community club last Friday evening, at which time everyone present expressed themselves as being favorable to the idea of celebrating, and the above mentioned committee was appointed to meet with the firemen Monday evening and take the matter up with them.

ELLENDALE TO REBUILD SOON

Town Destroyed by Fire Prepares to Put up Substantial Structures.

Ellendale, N. D., May 12.—Ellendale will be rebuilt with brick business blocks, thoroughly modern, and the work of clearing the three square blocks rased by the flames is under way.

Business men are optimistic despite the tremendous loss, and are setting about the task of rebuilding. The total losses are now placed at about $300,000, with insurance of one-half, but practically no salvage.

The wind, which held sway for three days, has died down and fears of further fire losses have been allayed.

TEAM EATS OATS THAT ARE POISONED

Langdon, N. D., May 12.—Otto Olson of Ellwood lost two valuable horses from eating what is supposed to have been a quantity of poisoned oats, and two more are in a serious condition, although the chances for saving the latter two seem quite favorable. The horses had left the Olson farm and two of them were found dead about a half mile from the house.

Measrs. Stewart and Haw went out and made a thorough examination of the horses and found that each of them had eaten about two quarts of oats. There was no evidence of dirt in the oats, as would have been the case had the horses picked up the grain from the ground, and it is thought that they must have had access to a considerable quantity of oats.

Mr. Olson is at a loss to know where the oats were located, as the greatest precautions had been taken on his own farm in disposing of the poisoned oats which had been prepared for the gophers, as well as the grain that is used for feeding purposes.

An investigation will be made, and if it is found that the horses have eaten poisoned grain, steps will no doubt be taken to see that no more of it is left where live stock can get access to it.

MOE WINS POINT AGAINST G. N.

Rugby, N. D., May 12.—A default was taken against George T. McElroy, a special agent of the Great Northern railway, when he failed to appear in the court of Judge Webster to fight the $50,000 damage suit of Albert Moe. L. W. Hill, president of the Great Northern, was made a joint defendant.

Moe declares he was the victim of a conspiracy of the special agents of the Great Northern and was sentenced to the penitentiary at Vancouver, B. C., and ordered whipped with 10 lashes on his bare back. Mr. Moe says the agents "framed up" and made it appear he committed a robbery.

A suit was first started against Al G. Ray, a chief special agent, of the Great Northern. The suit was immediately taken to the federal court on a change of venue. The attorneys of the firm of Murn & Upton could not get service on Mr. Ray in the initial $50,000 action.

UNIVERSITY SHORT OF CASH; MAY SHUT

Columbia, Mo., May 10.—The possibility that the Missouri State University, owing to shortages in the Major administration treasury, will not be opened next December, is being discussed in Columbia following the recent meeting of the board of curators of the institution.

Through an arrangement made by the curators with local bankers the salaries of the university employees up to June were guaranteed, but after that time new arrangements must be made.

For the last few months the university has been running on borrowed money, but last week, for the first time in the recent history of the school, checks to university employees were held up. It was only the action of the Columbia bankers that made possible the payment of salaries.

From Pierce County. Eliza Shuman, plaintiff, respondent, vs. John Lemelster, defendant, and appellant. Syllabus.

(1) Where a motion for a new trial was noticed by plaintiff for hearing within the statutory time, but the hearing thereon was by the district judge postponed from time to time for a period of about six months without notice to defendant, but for the accommodation of the court—because of other official engagements—and the record disclosing that defendant appeared and resisted the motion on the merits without objection, he will not be permitted on appeal to urge for the first time that the court had, by such postponements, lost jurisdiction to entertain such motion.

(2) The failure of the moving party to point out in the court below the particulars wherein the evidence is deemed insufficient to sustain the verdict, cannot be urged for the first time in the appellate court. The statutory rule requiring such particulars to be pointed out was designed for the information and assistance of the court and the opposing party, and will be deemed waived when not urged in the court below. On this point the present statute (section 4, chapter 131, laws of 1913) for reasons stated in the opinion, differs from the prior law as contained in R. C. 1905, section 7953.

(3) Every presumption will be indulged in favor of the correctness of the trial court's order granting a new trial.

(4) An order granting a new trial upon the ground of the insufficiency of the evidence to sustain the verdict, will not be disturbed in the supreme court where the appellant has failed to incorporate in, and make a part of, the settled statement of case, the evidence introduced at the trial below. Appeal from the district court of Pierce county. A. G. Burr, the plaintiff, from an order granting plaintiff's motion for a new trial, defendant appeals. Affirmed. Opinion of the court by Fisk, C. J.

The Chicago Herald says that Senator Sutherland's view of the submarine dispute is of admirable brevity and clearness. He said that Germany's attitude is that when a new weapon is invented which cannot be made entirely effective without violating the law, the law is ipso facto modified, but that his own view was that the new weapon must yield to the law; not the law to the new weapon. That is evidently also the president's view. He has become convinced that submarine warfare on merchant ships cannot be carried on without violating the law and humanity's rights.
