

FLAGS WILL BE WORN AT PICNIC

Elaborate Plans Made and at Least 5,000 Expected to Turn Out.

It is planned to have every person attending the annual Grand Forks County Better Farming association picnic...

All persons expecting to attend are requested to conform with this plan. June 14 has been designated by President Wilson as Flag day...

The Arvilla Farmers' club plans to have an automobile tour through the county next Thursday. Twenty-five automobiles have been secured for the occasion...

Large posters announcing the event have been mailed to all towns, and the officers of the farm clubs in the county have been notified to get in touch with their members and urge their attendance.

To Meet Trains. A feature of the day will be the 100 automobiles which will meet all trains during the day and convey people to and from the picnic grounds...

The sports program will start at 10 in the morning with a game of baseball between Gibby and Aneta, another game at 2 p. m. between Lanier and Larimore...

Dinner to Be Served. To those who do not bring lunches, a regular dinner at 35 cents will be served, and a number of hamburger and other lunch stands will be on the grounds...

To Make Address. The feature of the afternoon will be an address by the Hon. Stephen G. Cowley of Great Falls, Mont. Mr. Cowley is a former resident of Larimore...

Admission to the grounds is absolutely free. An admission charge will be made for the ball games. It will cost money to dance, and it is up to those who will attend as to whether the day will or will not cost them one cent...

ALLEGED DEFAULTER WAS Y. M. C. A. LEADER IN KOKOMO, INDIANA

Emerson A. Gordon, of Detroit, Mich., who waived extradition and started on a return trip yesterday to Detroit to face a charge of embezzling $4,674 from the Sigen J. Murphy company of that city, was a former Y. M. C. A. leader in Kokomo, Ind.

Gordon left yesterday on the return trip in company with Detective George Smith of the Detroit force. When arrested he had only $58.

Private detectives picked up the fugitive's trail in Winnipeg last week, however, and recovered $2,500 from a valise in Gordon's boarding house. They also discovered he had paid out $1,175 on a new motor car.

Secretary Don V. Moore of the Grand Forks fair presented the council with a communication from Ringling Bros. offering to bring the circus here on July 24 instead of the 25th as had been planned.

The new date will not interfere with the fair and the circus will be in the city over Sunday. The council decided to reduce the license fee for the circus from $200 to $100.

Aid Pageant Plans. A request from the state university that the public bridge over the English coulee near the university campus be closed Monday and Tuesday nights of next week during the performance of the Shakespeare pageant, was granted.

President E. P. Robertson of Wesley college appeared before the council to ask that measures be taken to trim the grass and otherwise improve the berms and boulevard along University avenue before commencement week of the university, which will begin next Sunday.

The matter will be taken up at the meeting of the park board of the city, which is scheduled for the evening, and if the work is not taken over by that body the necessary arrangements will be made by the city street department.

Park Lots Sold. A resolution was passed selling lots 38 and 39, block 4, Riverside park addition, to Mrs. Gertrude A. Colburn for $500, was passed.

The contract for a large amount of electrical supplies for the use of the city was awarded to the McGuire Electric Co. of this city, the figure being $146.42.

Leave of absence was granted to Chief John Fitzgerald of the fire department to attend the state convention of firemen to be held at Fargo beginning today.

Bills for the month of May amounting to $2,476.63 were allowed. City Treasurer Jacob Walsh reported a balance of $169,877.92 in the treasury June 1.

A request from Frederick Bartholomew for permission to erect a swinging canopy in front of the Frederick hotel was referred to the streets and alleys committee.

Discussion of ways and means of improving the supply of the city took place just before the close of the meeting but no definite action was taken.

A large amount of routine business was transacted.

CITY COUNCIL HAS BUSY MEET

Date for the Appearance of Ringling Circus Changed From July 25 to 24.

The proposed paving of Belmont and Vernich avenues and the cross streets between those two highways was one of the important matters before the city council last evening.

It was decided at the meeting to advertise for bids under the original plans and specifications and residents living in the territory to be improved may protest later if they so desire.

Circus Date Changed. Secretary Don V. Moore of the Grand Forks fair presented the council with a communication from Ringling Bros. offering to bring the circus here on July 24 instead of the 25th as had been planned.

The new date will not interfere with the fair and the circus will be in the city over Sunday. The council decided to reduce the license fee for the circus from $200 to $100.

KATO FAVORS ANGLO-ALLIANCE

Japanese Baron Strongly Urges Continuance of Agreement.

Kioto, Japan, May 26.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—What many Japanese people regard as an important political address was delivered yesterday by Baron Takaaki Kato, former minister of foreign affairs, and leader of the government

Doshikai party, at the inaugural meeting of the Kioto branch of his party. Alluding to Japan's position in the present war, Baron Kato declared that in his opinion the Anglo-Japanese alliance must remain the main pillar of the nation's diplomacy.

The speaker said that Japan would gain a reasonable compensation in return for the part she has played in the war but he wished to emphasize that Japan's position was different from that of her allies in Europe inasmuch as Japan's activities have been restricted to the orient. The statesman warned his compatriots that should they expect too much from the peace conference they would be disappointed.

Turning his attention to the recent attacks on the Anglo-Japanese alliance, Baron Kato expressed his regrets that unfriendly comments should have been made. It was certain, he said, that they were confined to politicians and lay academicians. What the scholars voiced was the more dangerous, he declared, because although these men may not know much about practical diplomacy, the masses of the people are likely to be misled by their scholastic attainments and believe they are right. The ex-minister added: "It would be most regrettable if our people are led to any erroneous conception of the Anglo-Japanese alliance for I regard it as the main pillar of our diplomacy."

Baron Kato said he understood that the critics based their objections to the alliance on the attitude of British officials and merchants in China who were alleged to be hindering Japanese undertakings in that country and on their belief that the formation of an alliance with Russia would render the pact with Great Britain useless. It was true, he thought, that some British merchants in China have continually slandered Japan and her people, but he was convinced that these Englishmen did not represent Great Britain.

As for the alliance with Russia, Baron Kato declared it the height of folly to imagine that it could be formed and maintained independently of the Anglo-Japanese alliance. He, for one, would welcome an alliance with Russia, he said, but he was convinced that it could be made only on the strength of the pact with Great Britain and that it must be supplementary to that alliance.

"When the peace conference is held the Anglo-Japanese alliance must be the basis of our policy, and Japan must of course co-operate with Russia and France," Baron Kato concluded. "If Japan goes astray from this policy her position will become very difficult. It is most important that our people should recognize the delicate diplomatic relationship and endeavor to smooth the way that lies before us for generations to come."

Because of Baron Kato's influence among the men who direct the Japan of today his public utterances are regarded by many of his compatriots as more or less representing official opinion.

I Have a 3400 r. p. m. Ready This Minute For You

This certainly is a great year for selling cars. Most everybody has had success. Some more than others, as is always the case.

Chalmers sales are running 900 per cent ahead of last year all over the United States. Mr. Chalmers' foresight in doubly providing against a shortage of materials has won a great contest.

It has enabled the Chalmers plant to keep on building cars when one or two have shut down or others have had to cut down on allotments to their dealers.

Here it is June and the great Chalmers plant is running day and night, three shifts, turning out more cars than ever before.

How long can Chalmers keep filling the demand?

I don't know. I know only this: the plant is turning out about 125 a day; Chalmers dealers are selling about 425 a day.

The only reason I or any other dealer can supply a car now is because during December, January and February the Chalmers plant worked day and night like Trojans and built about 125 cars a day when the dealers were selling probably only about 80. Soon these 425-a-day sales are going to eat up the surplus made during the Winter months.

I got a letter a few days ago from the Chalmers plant which simply said: 'We have on hand orders asking for immediate shipment of cars whose value is in excess of $8,000,000.'

I need not narrate the rest of the note which was so obviously subtle that I got the telegraph operators on the job right off.

I'm making my promises on delivery from day to day. I've got cars or can get them now. This may not hold good tomorrow.

Next week I shall cut my promises down still more. Remember, there are only two things that I concern myself with these days. One is to get you to take one ride in a 3400 r. p. m. Chalmers if you have not done so already. That's all I want. The car speaks in a language you'll understand.

The other thing is simply one of mathematics: If the Chalmers factory can turn out 125 cars a day and Chalmers dealers all over the United States are selling 425 a day, how long will the supply last? Price still unchanged—$1090 Detroit.

ELKS WILL HONOR DECEASED COMRADE

Funeral of L. W. Deichert Will be Held Tomorrow Afternoon from Belmont Apartments.

The funeral of L. W. Deichert, whose death occurred yesterday morning, will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Deichert home in the Belmont apartments.

Relatives, intimate friends and members of the Elks lodge will be the only ones present at the last rites.

Members of the B. F. O. E. are to meet at the local hall at 1:30 p. m. and proceed to the Deichert home. The Elks will have charge of the service at Memorial park, where interment will be made.

Those selected to act as pallbearers are John Miller of Rugby, James A. Dinnie, J. L. Heitman, L. A. Roth, H. W. Nunn and Martin E. Meyer.

VIENNA BUYS MILLS. Vienna, June 6.—For the improvement of the provisioning conditions of the city the city council has purchased large flour mills and granaries on the Danube at a cost of approximately $1,500,000. The mills are the greatest steam flour mills in Austria. The granaries are capable of storing 10,000 wagon loads of grain.

LADD IS MADE HEAD OF FORTNIGHTLY CLUB

Annual Meeting Takes Place in Guild Hall Last Night and Election of Officers Held.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year at the annual meeting of the Grand Forks Fortnightly club in Guild hall last evening:

President, Professor A. J. Ladd; vice president, Rev. H. B. Thorgrimson; secretary, George Rich; treasurer, W. M. Edmunds, H. A. Bronson, chairman of a committee to outline plans for the year, reported, making several interesting recommendations for improvements.

The address of the evening was made by the retiring president, R. B. Griffith, who used as his subject "National Prohibition." Mr. Griffith used several charts to show the rapid spread of public sentiment in favor of national prohibition, and the active campaign that has been carried on to bring about this condition in the United States.

Mr. Griffith declared that the anti-liquor organizations were somewhat hampered in their work because of the federal attitude to the saloon forces, by permitting the liquor interests to use the mails to solicit orders and through the internal revenue laws and the inter-state commerce commission.

The growth of the prohibition sentiment is gradually forcing the attention of congress to the question of national prohibition, contended Mr. Griffith.

BRITISH EXHIBITION. Soerabaya, Dutch East Indies, June 6.—It is proposed to hold a general exhibition of Dutch agriculture, cattle-breeding, fisheries, trade and industry at Soerabaya in 1918. A society has been organized to make the necessary preparations.

Ashamed of her bad complexion

If you, too, are embarrassed by a pimply, blotchy, unsightly complexion, try Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment regularly for a week and see if they do not begin to make a blessed difference in your skin. They also help make red, rough hands and arms soft and white.
