MATTHEWS AND CLARK CHOSEN NEW CAPTAINS

Leaders for 1917 Track and Baseball Teams Are Elected.

John Clark of Kenmare was elected captain of the University of North Dakota baseball team at the final meeting of that aggregation held yesterday afternoon.

For three years Clark has been one of the mainstays of the squad. His hitting is exceptional and for the season just closed he played in practically every game and knocked the ball for a percentage of 48. Clark is not playing in his regular position as pitcher, he plays outfield and has been in the clean-up position most of this year.

Clark is the fourth of the Kenmare varsity men to receive the honor of captain. Murphy, Lowe and Murray preceded him.

The baseball team this year has a good record. It lost but one game, but made up for that by defeating the same opponents—the North Dakota eagles—in a second game. Fargo college was defeated twice, Wahpeton science met its downfall here, Valley City normal school lost an at-home game and one in Grand Forks. The St. Thomas and Jamestown college games were postponed on account of rain.

The batting of the university men was never better than the past season, the entire squad being at bat 249 times and hitting out 73 hits for a percentage of 29.3. During the season the nine got 21 stolen bases, were walked 49 times and made 23 errors.

The individual batting averages, runs, base on balls, stolen bases, errors, and home runs follow:

WARREN WINS FROM LAKOTA

Double-header Goes to Minnesota Team After Fierce Battle.

(Herald Special Service.) Warren, Minn., June 7.—Warren took two fast and exciting games from the Lakota club on the local grounds Monday. The score of the first game was 3-1, Lakota's only score being a home run by McDonald. The second game was a seven inning affair, with Lakota apparently having the game tucked away, the score standing 4-1 in their favor at the end of the sixth inning. The locals got busy in the seventh inning and by hard hitting pushed over four runs, not a man being retired when the winning run was scored. Foster proved himself the iron man, pitching the first game, and relieved Russell at the end of the fourth inning in the second game.

Daus Shuts Out Boston.

Detroit, June 7.—Daus held Boston to three hits yesterday and Detroit won 3 to 0. Until the ninth inning, the world's champions did not get a man to second base, and only two reached first safely. In the final period, with two out and the bases full on two hits and a walk, Daus struck out Walker. Hellman's single in the first inning, after two men were out, scored C. D. Loocklin. C. D. Loocklin's error in the second was responsible for the Tigers' other run. Score: R. H. E. Detroit.....3 9 27 15 1 Boston.....0 0 0 0 3 1 Daus and Stange; Gregg and Thomas.

The St. Louis-New York game, Cleveland-Washington game and Chicago-Philadelphia game were all postponed on account of rain.

AMERICAN ASS'N.

Kaww Take Opener.

Kansas City, Mo., June 7.—Wortman's double in the eighth inning followed by Gilbert's single, broke a tie and enabled Kansas City to take the opening game from Minneapolis, 4 to 3. Y. C. Child's error, his and Coehran were hit for 12, but tightened in the pinches, and, assisted by fast fielding, held the visitors 27 at Ithaca. Cornell won from Princeton after a sensational two-mile race by a quarter of a length, Washington finished with a clear record, defeating Stanford at Seattle on April 7 by five lengths in a three-mile event, and winning from California by sixteen lengths over the same course on May 27.

The Toledo-Columbus and Louisville-Indianapolis games both were postponed on account of rain.

PERTH WINS FAST ONE FROM CLYDE

FIFTEEN REMAIN IN THE TENNIS SINGLES

Five New York, Three Boston, Five Philadelphians and Two More Survive Play.

Philadelphia, June 7.—Five New York players, three from Boston, five Philadelphians and one each from Newport and Baltimore survived yesterday's play in the championship singles of the women's national tennis tournament on the courts of the Philadelphia Cricket Club. Actually all the widely heralded "dark-horses" were eliminated both from the singles and doubles events and only one or two of the Philadelphians are expected to survive the fourth round.

Mrs. Edward Raymond, who as Miss Helen Homans, won the national title in 1908, heads the New York survivors. She easily defeated Miss Miriam Steever of Chicago in straight sets, 6-3, 6-4. Miss Evelyn Sears, national champion in 1905; Miss Eleanor Sears, present sharer of the national doubles title with Mrs. George W. Lightman and Mrs. T. H. Cabot make up the Boston contingent. Mrs. Barger-Walsh of Newport, and Miss Susanne White of Baltimore, are the other out of town survivors.

Doublets Are As Predicted. The first round of the championship doubles worked out according to prediction, the only surprise being the defeat of Mrs. Theodore Casebeer of New York and Miss Miriam Steever, Chicago, by a youthful local pair, Miss Mary Thayer and Miss Sarah Myers.

There were several upsets in the mixed doubles, the most notable being the defeat of Mrs. Barger-Walsh and Miss Florence Casebeer by Miss Florence Ballin and W. T. Tilden, Jr. The score was 7-5, 6-4, 6-2.

Miss Kolla Burstedt, the national titleholder, made her first appearance in the tournament yesterday. Pairs with Miss Eleanor Sears of Boston, she played in her usual dashing form and they easily won their first round match from one of the local girls.

Two Big Regattas Remain to Be Staged Before the Rowing Season For Colleges Closes

New York, June 7.—With the exception of the four-mile regattas at Poughkeepsie and New London, the intercollegiate rowing season has closed, with honors rather widely distributed so far as the dual and triangular events are concerned. All told, eleven events have been decided; three on the Pacific coast and eight in the East. Considered broadly, Princeton and Washington have made the best showing in these shorter contests which are for many of the crews but preliminary to the real title races of the year.

Princeton competed in three regattas, winning two and finishing second in the other. The Tigers defeated Harvard at Princeton on April 20 by a foot in a mile and seven-eighths race, and won the Child's cup at Philadelphia on May 18 by outrowing Navy, Columbia and Pennsylvania in a one-mile 550 yards race. On May 27 at Ithaca, Cornell won from Princeton after a sensational two-mile race by a quarter of a length, Washington finished with a clear record, defeating Stanford at Seattle on April 7 by five lengths in a three-mile event, and winning from California by sixteen lengths over the same course on May 27.

The Navy crew won from Washington boat club eight in a two-mile race on April 15 and later defeated Pennsylvania only to lose to Syracuse and Princeton in other races. Stanford also had a victory over California; Pennsylvania defeated Yale; Harvard won from Cornell and Cornell defeated Princeton and Yale. A complete record of the races of the season to date shows the following results:

April 7—Seattle; 3 miles; Washington (16 lengths), 17 minutes 27 seconds; Stanford, 17 minutes 27 seconds.

April 15—Annapolis; 2 miles; Navy (12 lengths), 10 minutes 37 3-5 seconds; Annapolis Boat club, 11 minutes 19 seconds.

April 20—Princeton; 1 7-8 miles; Princeton (1 foot), 10 minutes 12 1-3 seconds; Harvard.

April 22—Oakland; 3 miles; Stanford (6 lengths), 18 minutes 22 seconds; California.

April 22—Philadelphia; 1 1-2 miles; Pennsylvania (1 1-2 lengths), 7 minutes 31 1-5 seconds; Yale.

April 23—Annapolis; 1 5-16 miles; Navy (2 lengths), 7 minutes 10 seconds; Pennsylvania, 7 minutes 18 seconds.

May 13—Philadelphia; 1 mile 550 yards; Princeton (1 length), 7 minutes 5 seconds; Navy, second; Columbia, 3; Pennsylvania last.

May 20—Boston; 1 7-8 miles; Harvard (2 lengths), 9 minutes 47 seconds; Cornell, 9 minutes 54 seconds.

May 20—Annapolis; 2 miles; Syracuse (1 1-4 lengths), 10 minutes 17 seconds; Navy, 10 minutes 21 seconds; Princeton (15 lengths), 17 minutes 40 seconds.

May 27—Ithaca; 2 miles; Cornell (1-4 length), 11 minutes 21 seconds; Princeton (5 lengths), 11 minutes 23 1-5 seconds; Yale, 11 minutes 43 1-5 seconds.

The excellent showing made by the Princeton crews this year has led to the revival of rumors that the Tigers were about ready to broaden their rowing policy and would be seen at either the New London or Poughkeepsie regattas in 1917. Dr. J. Duncan Spaeth, the Princeton coach, does not confirm the report in his review of the season, as he frankly states that Princeton is not out for honors in races over a four-mile course, such as are in vogue at the Yale-Harvard and intercollegiate regattas. His statement is in part as follows:

"So far as our policy in intercollegiate boat races is concerned, we have put ourselves on record frankly as not in the competition for four-mile honors. Some of the reasons for this grow out of our own situation in Princeton, and some have a more general application. I do not myself believe that a four-mile race involves a severe strain upon the man properly trained for such a race, than a two-mile race. I have rowed all distances from a mile to four miles, and my recollection is that one-mile races were the most punishing."

"Again the fact that very few colleges have four-mile courses on their home waters makes it necessary for them to spend considerable time away from home at such places as Poughkeepsie or New London; this involves the maintenance of an extensive and expensive establishment which becomes a heavy drain on the general athletic treasury, and encourages the arrangement of 'profitable' football schedules to help defray the expense of the crews. We believe it to be to the best interests of intercollegiate boating to encourage a greater number of short races in each season between the various rowing colleges, these races to be rowed whenever possible in home waters. This ought to make for the spirit of generous sportsmanship and friendly rivalry between college men, which it is one of the chief functions of intercollegiate athletics to foster."

GRAFTON WILL PLAY SERIES HERE IN JULY

Locals Will Play Four Games With All-salaried Grafton Team July 2, 3 and 4.

Grand Forks fans will again see the Grafton, N. D., team of the Valley league in action July 2, 3 and 4, when they come here for a four-game series. One game will be played Sunday, July 2; another on July 3 and two will be played on Independence day, one being staged in the morning and the other in the afternoon.

It will be remembered that Grafton took Grand Forks into camp recently 8 to 1, but that was long before Grand Forks had started on its winning streak. Grafton has been strengthened considerably and fans who have watched the development of the locals know to what extent Grand Forks has been developed.

This summer Andy Gill, coach of the team, will play during the week days with the Inkster team but will return to Grand Forks every Sunday to play with the locals, that is, if the fans show that they desire a ball aggregation by attending the games.

Argyle is due to play here and very pointedly told Herr Blume what he thought of him and his way of doing business. "It's a funny condition of affairs if I cannot release a player when I want to," said Blume in defense of his action. "I own this ball team and whenever I think a player is getting too much money for what he is giving in return I will make him a free agent. I know Randall has many warm friends in Duluth and I would not wonder if they were keeping him on the team; but business is business, even in baseball."

That Randall will not long be idle is getting too much money for what he is giving in return I will make him a free agent. I know Randall has many warm friends in Duluth and I would not wonder if they were keeping him on the team; but business is business, even in baseball."

"Randall is not only a great player but he is valuable as an associate for young players," said Coates. "He has a great fund of baseball knowledge, is most companionable and is a good man for the box once."

The Cleveland Leader is entirely right in saying: "The talk of appointing peace in Europe will be more impressive if anyone could suggest definite terms which might be accepted by both leagues of nations involved in the tremendous conflict. The moment that such a list is undertaken insurmountable difficulties are encountered."

The platform adopted by the republican national convention will be read out even if political platforms do not indicate policies as strongly as the candidates who are nominated.
