How Father and Mother Began. There are people around us who start on credit to get what they need.

There's a smiling young couple just starting in life. And they've bought to the limit; she's such a sweet wife.

If they couldn't have Brussels, rag carpet would do. And they lived in one room if they couldn't have two.

Just as the youngsters we speak of might be.

With the sweet consolation of things after while.

Setting in after shadows with sunshine and air.

Struggling and waiting and paying their way.

Putting off luxuries for some other day.

Thus so contentedly, sweetly, life ran.

And that is how father and mother began.

The wedding of Miss Bethel Stump of this city and Ralph Behrent, son of Skine, Minn., took place at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the bride's father, A. P. Stump, 1320 Dakota avenue, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. A. H. Thompson, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city.

Pink and white roses were used in the decoration of the living room, where the ceremony was performed and the bride party entered the room and took their places as Mrs. Charles Bailey played Lohengrin's wedding march, accompanied by her son, Hayward Bailey, on the violin.

Rev. Thompson was awaiting their coming, and a large circle of friends and family members witnessed the ceremony.

The bride was gowned in white Kayser silk, made with a panner skirt and elaborated with lace and pearls. The wedding veil was arranged in a cap effect and was held in place by a wreath of lilies of the valley, the bridal bouquet was a shower of lilies of the valley and white roses. Miss Beatrice Stump was her sister's bridesmaid and she wore a gown of white and carried a bouquet of roses. Wilbur Kelly of this city attended the groom.

Mrs. Emery Bliven, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Edward Jeffrey had charge of the wedding dinner, which was served in the dining room, after the ceremony.

Miss Jessie Duval of Crookston, who has often visited in this city as the guest of Mrs. Walker L. Ludlow of the Niels block and Miss Laura Daubenberg, 501 North Fourth street, became the bride of Harry E. Smith of Superior, Wis., at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Duval at 8 o'clock last evening.

Rev. Father Dufault, pastor of St. Anne's church performed the ceremony and a company of friends and family members were present. Mrs. Smith wore her traveling gown of navy blue and a large chiffon hat with trimmings. She was attended by her sister, Miss Florence Duval, who was also gowned in blue. The wedding supper was served after the ceremony and the dining room decorated with white flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left last evening for St. Paul, where they will be guests of Mr. Smith's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Mortenson, before going to Chicago and Jacksonville, Fla., where they will spend their honeymoon. The home-ward trip will be made by way of the Mississippi river.

Miss Agnes Rudser, 411 Woodland avenue, will be hostess tomorrow evening when she entertains the members of the Merry Few club at her home. Miss Rudser will be assisted during the evening by her sisters, Misses Mary Ann and E. Rudser.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. George S. Cottonwood, 207 Cottonwood street. "The Home in Line" will be the subject for discussion, and a general invitation to all those who are interested in the work of the organization is extended. A social session will also be enjoyed.

White peonies, potted plants, ferns and smilax, were used in the decoration of the church at Elm Grove yesterday afternoon when Miss Mabel Marie Grodahl and Thors Stensrud were united in marriage by Rev. Wickre, pastor of the church.

The groom, his best man, W. B. Bang and Rev. Wickre, entered the church as Miss Cora McLaren played Lohengrin's wedding march and they awaited at the altar for the coming of the bride and her attendants. Miss Viola Strandsrud of this city and Miss Inga Strandsrud of Cavalier were bridesmaids and her sister, Miss Jennie Grodahl as maid of honor. The bride was given in marriage by her father and she was the first of the party to enter the church.

The bridal gown was of white charmeuse and it was made in a simple girlish fashion. The train of the gown of the valley held the bridal veil in place and a shower bouquet of white roses was carried by the bride. Pink taffeta was the material of the maid of honor's gown and a white picture hat and a shower of pink roses completed her costume. Old rose and blue taffeta were worn by the bride's maids and they also wore white hats and carried pink roses.

Baskets of white peonies and smilax were used in the floral decorations of the Grodahl home, where the bridal dinner was served at 5 o'clock. A color tone of pink and white was used in the table and luncheon appointments, and pink and pink roses being the flowers used. The bridal cake entwined with smilax centered the table. Misses Maude McLaren, Tilda Krolo, Marie Stranes and Alma Wasmuth cared for the serving, covers being laid for 75, including the family members and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Stensrud left last evening for the twin cities and points in Minnesota. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends after July 15 in McCanna, where the groom is engaged in business. Mrs. Stensrud traveled in a suit of dark blue silk poplin, with hat and accessories to match.

The out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Day and sons, Wilbur and Frank; Miss Blanche O'Gorman, Mrs. E. Anderson of Rugby, Miss Sophia Bergerson of Twin Valley, Minn.; Misses Marie and Anna Strandsrud of Laramie, Mrs. Anna G. and son, Gunnar, of Linn Grove, Iowa.

Mother Love

would never give a child anything known to be harmful. Yet every time a mother gives her child a cup of coffee she is giving it from one to three grains of a drug—caffeine.

Little by little the caffeine in coffee and tea undermines health—much more rapidly in children—none the less surely in many adults.

There's a safe, delicious food-drink—

POSTUM

It is made of choice wheat roasted with a bit of wholesome molasses and contains the goodness of the grain—no caffeine, no harmful substance whatever. Children may drink it freely—everybody may—with pleasure and perfect comfort.

Postum comes in two forms: The original Postum cereal, which has to be boiled; Instant Postum, the soluble form, made in the cup with hot water—instantly.

Convenient—economical—satisfying—
