

Farmers Awake to Great Opportunity

THE NEW FREEDOM

I AM QUITE certain that 95 per cent will vote the League ticket straight in this precinct.—A. W. FINBERG.

I THINK EVERYTHING is solid for Frazier and most of the others on the League ticket in this district.—WILLIAM NELSON.

A SOLID PRECINCT
I DO NOT believe there will be a single vote cast for other than League candidates in this precinct.—T. A. KINSEY.

THERE WILL BE a good heavy vote for the League all through. Quite a number of the business men in Binford will vote for the League candidates.—W. D. EHLERS.

I THINK THIS precinct will go with the League with a big majority. I have talked with most of them and they tell me they will stick with the League.—DAN M'KEITH.

THE FEELING AT the present time is good and I would look for 80 per cent for the League at the polls, and I am sure with a little more work most of them can be gotten out.—O. M. M'GRATH.

WHEN THE ASSESSORS come around with that famous schedule the farmers see a new light. That is the best campaign ammunition we have got.—PETER ROMS.

I THINK THAT all the Republicans in this precinct will vote for the League candidates at the primaries. At the fall election I look for about 90 per cent of the voters for the League candidates.—C. J. SAWBY.

IN THIS PRECINCT the voters are all farmers except about half a dozen in the little village. The farmers I know will vote the League ticket and I think the most of the voters in the village will too.—H. A. M'CARTY.

GANG PAPERS DO NO HARM.
From what I have been able to learn we will get nearly every vote. There are about 41 voters in this precinct and I think we can safely count on 38. I think they will all turn out and vote. The Gang papers have not done us any harm in this precinct and don't believe they are going to be able to. I really believe that they are doing us more good than harm. You can count this precinct safely Nonpartisan.—R. S. HENDERSON.

I BELIEVE THE League ticket will receive practically every vote. I know of one that opposes the ticket in this precinct. We have thirty odd voters in this precinct.—FAY A. HARDING.

ONLY TWO KICKERS
This precinct casts, if all turn out, 42 votes. The assessor told me nearly the whole precinct were registering as Republicans. We have only two real kickers.—A. M. HERMELIN.

DECEIVERS FAIL
I have not met one who is not in favor of the League. The Bismarck Tribune and the Public Opinion are making some strong efforts to mislead the farmers, but I think with poor success.—E. A. TRYGG.

THERE ARE ABOUT 20 farmers and hired men in the township and about 21 other voters in the village. The League candidates will get about two-thirds of the vote in this precinct.—H. Z. CROSBY.

THERE ARE A hundred voters in this township and they will all vote for the League candidates this fall. There are some that will join the League as soon as they can get the money. The outlook is good here. Everybody speaks well of the League.—JOHN MEYERS.

WALK AWAY FOR LEAGUE
I think that the League will have a walk away in the primary election. Almost everybody that I have talked to is in favor of the League, and you can bet your last dollar that I will do all I can to make it a success.—JAKE KELNER.

THERE ARE 70 voters registered in this precinct and all but five promised to vote for one or more of the League candidates. Most of the voters, both members and non-members, will vote for all the candidates on the League ticket.—I. H. BJERKE.

SEVENTY-FIVE PER CENT of the voters in this precinct are Republicans, and the League candidates on this ticket will get about 90 per cent of the votes in the primary election on the 28th. Members and non-members will go for the League candidates.—H. D. ERICKSON.

MAJORITY FOR LEAGUE
At each of the two last general elections in our precinct there have been cast about 50 votes. Now we have 27 League members and probably about half of the other voters will vote for some of the League candidates, if not for all of them.—CASPER OVERBY.

A SOLID PRECINCT
This precinct is solid for the League. We are all going to pull at the same end of the rope the 28th of June. Every candidate indorsed by the League is going to get every vote here. We are not so foolish as to listen to the dope that is sent out by the Big Biz papers.—H. P. OVERBY.

FROGGY ONLY DISTURBER
As nearly as I can find out there are 65 voters in my precinct. There are 12 non-members, mostly hired men. All but three or four are expected to vote the Nonpartisan ticket. The opposition is not saying much. The only disturbing element is the Public Opinion and that is taken as a joke.—W. A. HAGEMAN.

And the Gang Hopes to Beat This Condition

Sunny Brook Farm, E. F. Barnes, Prop., Upham, N. D., May 27—
Editor of the Nonpartisan Leader:

I wish to say that there are only eight persons that do not belong to the League in Little Deep township and that while I was assessing this township I talked personally with every voter. I found every League member to a man would support the League ticket regardless of party, and also found six of the eight who do not belong to the League will vote with us.

We are farmers and for farmers and our boys will vote for the farmers' governor. COUNT ON US. WE MEAN BUSINESS. DON'T WORRY OVER US OUT HERE.

Hurrah for the League!

Yours truly,

E. F. BARNES.
