

THE FIRST LIE NAILED

The attorneys for the biggers and lawless element of Minot are getting pretty busy in the present campaign for District Judge, and being well versed in dirty politics, are springing false stories concerning the life and professional conduct of Mr. Lambert, the People's candidate for District Judge.

This week they are out with the "Widow's Story" and undoubtedly still later in the campaign when they are sure no answer can be made before election day, they will come out with others equally as absurd and unfounded. The people know their purposes and will not be fooled. The "Widow's Story" makes very good reading, but when we remember that they had to go back eight years to get it it loses some of its charm, and, as the facts develop the matter is shown in its true light. They are as follows:

The firm of Greenleaf & Leighton appeared for Fritz Neihus against the "poor widow," Lambert, however, at his own expense commenced several actions against Neihus and, after being successful in one, found that all of Neihus' property had been sold and he, with most of it, had left the state and the only thing he could reach was a second mortgage on a farm for $1470.00. Lambert then forced the defendant to turn this over to "the widow" and offered her the first $1000.00 note of it. "The widow" being anxious to get some cash for immediate use, and stating her belief that the land was worth much more than what was against it, urged Mr. Lambert to advance, or get someone to advance, her $300 in cash and she would take a third mortgage for the balance. This was done and after having all matters explained to her by a German friend and neighbor and H. O. Dalen, the banker at Sawyer, she signed all necessary papers and Mr. Dalen and Louis Schroeder witnessed the receipt.

Thereupon the "poor widow" married Mr. Schroeder, who was then twenty-two years of age. He stayed with her until her $300 was gone and she had put a mortgage on her own home, which joined the one which she held a mortgage on, and spent that money also, when he suddenly lost interest and left for other parts, since which time Mrs. Remund has assumed the role as a "poor widow."

The first paper she signed was prepared by Greenleaf & Leighton and is on paper containing their name at the bottom. It is as follows:

"WHEREAS, the undersigned, Anna B. Remund, has just recovered judgment in the District Court of Ward County, North Dakota, against Fritz Neihus, for Twelve Hundred and Seventy-nine Dollars ($1279.00).

"AND WHEREAS, said Anna B. Remund has another suit pending in the District Court of Ward County, against the said Fritz Neihus for the recovery of Twenty-five Hundred Dollars ($2500.00), alleged to be her due by reason of personal injuries received by her at the hands of the said Fritz Neihus.

"AND WHEREAS, the said Anna B. Remund also claims damages against the said Neihus in the sum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00), by reason of the said Neihus setting his dog on the minor son of the said Anna B. Remund, to-wit:—Eddie Remund."

"AND WHEREAS, the said Anna B. Remund claims of Fritz Neihus the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00), damages in breach of promise for marriage, and further claims different and divers amounts as due her from said Neihus, for numerous and divers other acts than those heretofore mentioned of the said Neihus.

"NOW, THEREFORE, the said Fritz Neihus, having this day delivered to the said Anna B. Remund certain notes in the sum of Fourteen Hundred and Seventy Dollars ($1470.00), secured by real estate mortgage, said notes are hereby accepted by the said Anna B. Remund in full settlement for all the aforesaid claims, and in full settlement for any and all claims which the said Anna B. Remund has against the said Fritz Neihus up to this date, and the said Anna B. Remund, in consideration of the aforesaid Fourteen Hundred and Seventy Dollars ($1470.00) in notes, hereby agrees that neither she, her attorneys or agents, will in the future, commence proceedings of any kind against the said Fritz Neihus, by reason of any acts of the said Fritz Neihus committed prior to this date, and the said Anna B. Remund further agrees and for which agreement the delivery of the said notes is consideration, that she will not commence any action against the said Fritz Neihus on behalf of her minor son 'Eddie,' nor claim or damages of any kind against the said Neihus in behalf of her minor son 'Eddie.' This is signed as a settlement in full of all claims of Neihus against undersigned also.

"Signed this 30th day of January, A. D. 1909. (Signed) Anna B. Remund."

The next was Lambert's Contract as follows:

"RECEIPT AND CONTRACT.

"WHEREAS, Anna B. Remund has heretofore recovered in the district court of Ward county, North Dakota, a judgment against Fritz Neihus, for the sum of twelve hundred seventy-five dollars, and costs, and

"WHEREAS, there is another action pending between the same parties which action is about to be settled, and

"WHEREAS, a settlement of all of the claims of said Anna B. Remund against said Fritz Neihus of every kind and description has been handed over to the undersigned, F. B. Lambert, receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged;

"Now therefore, this agreement WITNESSETH, that the said F. B. Lambert is hereby authorized to turn over to the said Fritz Neihus, or his attorneys, the signed settlement above referred to and a satisfaction of the aforesaid judgment and a stipulation settling and dismissing the other action above referred to which was brought for damages caused by an assault and battery, upon the said F. B. Lambert receiving from said Fritz Neihus, or from Greenleaf & Leighton, his attorneys, that certain mortgage dated September 18th, 1909, recorded in Book 86 of Mortgages on page 513 signed by Sophia Siebold and covering lands in Ward County, North Dakota, described as follows, to-wit: the east half (E½) of the southwest quarter (SW¼), the southwest quarter (SW¼) of the northeast quarter (NE¼), and the southeast quarter (SE¼) of the northwest quarter (NW¼), all in section nine (9) in township one hundred fifty-three (153) north of range eighty-one (81) west, and an assignment thereof, said assignment to be held in the hands of said F. B. Lambert and the proceeds of which are to be applied as follows: In case a foreclosure is had, the said Anna B. Remund is to have a one thousand dollar interest therein, and in case of a settlement of said mortgage and payment thereof is made, the said Anna B. Remund is to have one thousand dollars in cash, or one thousand dollars secured on said farm, or part in cash and part secured by said mortgage, and the balance of the proceeds of said mortgage are to be retained by said F. B. Lambert as and for his fees and all expenses of foreclosure and expenses and fees in the two other actions heretofore referred to.

"Dated this 30th day of January, 1909. (Signed) F. B. Lambert, (Signed) Anna B. Remund.

"Witness 'H. W. Evans.' And last is her receipt which is as follows:

"RECEIPT Received of F. B. Lambert the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00) in cash and a note for seven hundred dollars ($700.00), dated March 27, 1909, due on or before November 1st, 1910, signed by Sophia Siebold, bearing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, secured by a real estate mortgage on the farm bought by her of Fritz Neihus and subject to first loan of $1000 at nine per cent and a second mortgage for $655.00 in favor of Lillie M. Lambert.

"I was offered a second mortgage on the land for $1000.00 but preferred to receive $300.00 in cash and take a third mortgage for $700.00, as I am anxious for the cash at this time. The settlement with Mrs. Siebold was made in accordance with my instructions given the said Lambert, and I hereby acknowledge settlement in full of all accounts existing between me and the said Lambert, and I will rely on the $700.00 note and mortgage securing the same, as above set forth, as the balance of my share of the settlement of two actions and all claims against said Fritz Neihus.

"Dated at Sawyer, North Dakota, this 17th day of April, 1909. (Signed) 'Anna B. Remund. 'Witness to Signature: 'H. O. Dalen. 'Louis Schroeder."

All the above papers are in Lambert's hands and will be exhibited to any voter. Not a bad deal for her after all, was it? The good people of the district outside of Minot must help the law enforcement voters of the city, to have the city put on its clean clothes and be a fit place for the location of a Normal School.

The opposition is struggling to begof the issue and divert attention from suspended sentences of criminals and the appointment of a juvenile officer wholly unfit on account of drink and said juvenile officer's expense of over $2,500.00 during the last year of the taxpayer's money.

This is simply a sample of the other stuff they have told and will tell against Lambert. The old booze gang is dying hard and the 8th District is last in the state to come into line. The 8th ward of Minot and one or two other Boozie precincts will be against Mr. Lambert, but the law abiding voters will support him almost to a man.

FOR FARMERS' TICKET

In state politics we hope to see every man indorsed by the Nonpartisan League elected by big majorities. The victory will be as complete as at the primary election, then the little peanut-headed editors will line up quick.—BEULAH INDEPENDENT.

AN "ARABIAN NIGHTS" STORY.

One of the biggest and most enthusiastic gatherings of farmers ever held in Big Bend City assembled there last night and for hours listened to a story thrilling like the Arabian nights of how the farmers of North Dakota, through the Nonpartisan League, purified the politics of that state and returned to a life of usefulness the politicians of Big Business.

Like in every movement that stands for the betterment of conditions and the death of the gang at home and abroad the boys in Big Bend pledged their unanimous support to the League which is getting members in the state at a furious rate. The program of the League must fill the farmer and laborer with joy as unbounded as it fills Big Business with anguish, causing tears and gnashing of teeth. The league representatives are going to speak at the Sparta Equity meeting tonight and at Chas. Stockdill's tomorrow night. — MONTEVIDEO (Minn.) DAILY AMERICAN.

BOTTINEAU COUNTY VOTERS Is This a Square Deal?

In years past the teachers' and school board meetings have been held in November or December. Was there any reason why at this time it should be called just before the election? Let us look at the facts. A. G. Crane of Minot, while in Bottineau at the expense of the taxpayers, supposedly for the purpose of lecturing on educational subjects, told the board members and others at a public meeting, that they should keep men like the present county superintendent in office as long as they would stay. Was it right to call an educational meeting and then turn it into a political meeting for the purpose of campaigning for the present incumbent?

In a paper before the board members Dr. Johnson said to retain the present superintendent of schools as a change might cause heavy expense and inefficient service. What right has he to predict? I did double work during my first year at Antler and saved $500 for the district. The office of superintendent cost the county over $3900 last year. I can run it for that and still live up to the law.

During the meeting, at every turn I was stabbed in the back and had absolutely no chance to defend myself. Was this fair play?

Mr. Fair Minded Voter: Do you have to pay for a man to come all the way from Minot to tell you how to vote after you have had six years in which to observe the work of the official? Is this not a reflection upon your intelligence as voters? Do you have to be called from your work to Bottineau at a busy season in order to have Dr. Johnson tell you how to vote? Think it over. Was it fair and clean?
