D. J. O'CONNELL
For State's Attorney
McHenry County

The office of State's Attorney should be non-partisan in its relation to the people and Mr. O'Connell pledges himself to make this office non-partisan if elected. He is able to handle the people's legal work without the aid of outside lawyers and pledges himself to do so, thereby saving the people this additional expense. He has been a citizen and taxpayer of McHenry county for about 15 years, practicing law during all that time at Towner. He is a graduate of the State University of Iowa, has practiced law for more than 20 years, and is entitled to practice before all the courts of the United States and all the Departments at Washington. He has frequently handled important litigation for McHenry county, and with unvarying success. You will find his name in the Democratic column of the official ballot and you will not regret having voted for him. Remember the name.

PAUL WILLIAMS

Candidate for Register of Deeds,
Pembina County

Am a member of the Farmers' Nonpartisan Political League.

Born and raised on a farm. Filed on a homestead five miles south of Walhalla in 1882 and have farmed it ever since.

Have put forth my best efforts for the League and the League.

Every candidate who is a member of the League should have and will have not only the whole hearted support of the members of the League but all others who want to better the unfair existing conditions which we now know to be detrimental to the greatest good to the greatest number.

If elected will make good, as I always did my best in various other positions of trust.

Respectfully

PAUL WILLIAMS.
