

A SACRIFICE OF FINE MERCHANDISE.

The Bottom is reached. The final reductions are made.

We have gone through the entire stock of Wash goods and Summer Dress goods of all descriptions, Ladies' and Gents' Furnishing goods, Men's and Boys' Clothing, marking everything at prices to make them go quick. It is the strongest attraction ever offered. Every article offered at this sale is New, Fresh and Seasonable Merchandise. Come quick and get the Cream of Bargains. All summer goods in all lines will be sold regardless of cost in order to make room for fall goods. Sale will continue as long as goods last.

DALE, ROISE & QVALE.

Mamre Mites.
Miss Beata Lundberg came up from Minneapolis last week. Jens Larson returned last week from a trip to Devils Lake, N. D., where he has been visiting his two sons, John and Iver Larson.

The Mamre creamery is receiving over 7000 lbs. of milk daily, and everything points to success.

Misses Emma Nyberg, Christine Eklund, and Annie Abrahamson have returned from Minneapolis after several years absence.

Mission meetings were held in Lundby, Saturday and Sunday. Among the attending ministers we noted Missionary Mattson, from China, and two former pastors of the Salem congregation, Revs. Youngquist and Sjoquist.

The Tribune's Kerkhoven correspondent took in the Lundby meeting, and incidentally had a consultation with us regarding the boundary line between our respective territories.

J. E. Pelvin and Chas. Swenson "bicycled" out to Lundby. They didn't know it had been raining before they started out, but they had no doubts at that point when they arrived at their destination. Jud got so over heated that his cute little mustache had entirely melted away and his best girl hardly recognized him.

The Mamre Lund congregation will celebrate the fourth in the church grove. Several speakers will be present. The Mamre Orchestra will dispense music. Dinner will be served by the Ladies.

The salem and Lundby congregation will have a Fourth of July celebration in Abrahamson's grove.

The climate of Minneapolis must be very salubrious, judging from the looks of some of the young men who went down to the conference. Those hair chains look "awfully" nice, boys, and the lockets and contents are "too cute for anything".

CLARENCE.

New London Newslets.
Wm. J. Pinney made a trip to Grant Co. last week to see if the Russian thistle was infesting his lands.

Carpenters Lawson and Eklund have just completed a fine residence for John Johnson, of Mamre, who had the misfortune of having his dwelling burn down last spring.

C. C. Field is erecting a residence on Douglas street.

J. Emil Nelson came up from Willmar on the freight Friday, returning on the passenger in the evening.

Morris Olson, a "pounder" of iron from Minneapolis, has been engaged by C. E. Krause to tend his blacksmith shop. Mr. Olson comes well recommended and will no doubt give satisfaction to Mr. Krause's extensive trade.

John Bengtson, of Nest Lake, had the misfortune of being kicked in the head by a horse last week.

F. F. Nelson and Paul Paulson will have a stand in Paynesville during the Encampment.

Mr. Petor Eklund was quite seriously hurt last Tuesday by a run-a-way accident. While he and Mr. C. M. Lawson were on their way to Mamre, their horse became suddenly frightened and jumped to one side with such violence that the buggy gave a lurch and threw them out. Mr. Lawson fell to the ground but luckily received no injuries to speak of, but Mr. Eklund fell in between the wheel and the box and was dragged a distance of about forty rods, when the horse stopped of its own accord. He received such bad injuries that he had to keep his bed. He was taken home Thursday and we hope will soon recover.—New London Times.

Hawick Hits.
Crops are progressing finely since the last rain.

E. S. Smithson had the misfortune some time ago of having a horse break one of his legs.

G. H. Moore attended the auction sale, at Eric Elefson's grove June 21 st. He reports the sale a success.

William Libby and family attended the camp meeting at Swift's grove last week.

Ernest Niles is rolling in the goods every day.

Frank Hudson reports that it cost him $14 to pick the mustard out of his fields.

"WHO KNOWS ME."

Spicer Spats.
INTENDED FOR LAST WEEK.

By the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of a hunter at Green Lake mills Saturday one of Mr. Larson's horses was badly injured in the leg. Some persons were narrowly missed. Further particulars not known.

An effort is being made to get the St. Cloud shop employees to have their annual picnic here.

The well crew has been ordered to quit digging on the Spicer well. Probably "Jim" intends to drill for water.

A. G. Mardin was excused from duty a few hours Friday to accompany Chief Dispatcher F. R. Buskirk to Willmar. Mr. Buskirk is examining agents and operators as to their ability to serve the railroad company under the new rules.

The Martin family of Chicago late guests of John Henderson, have left for home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olson are visiting in St. Paul.

Fishing is dull now-a-days.

F. F. Nelson of New London, was in town on business one day last week.

Edwards Eteostics.
Ole Oslina made a trip to Sacred Heart, Minn. last week.

Mrs. W. H. Harris of Raymond is very ill.

Mr. Nels Swenson and son Elmer are visiting in Carver County.

Miss Mary Thorson returned home from Minneapolis last Thursday.

M. A. Scholze and Hans Strand made a business call to Willmar last week.

Mr. A. Stansberry, of Willmar talked Osborne binders to the farmers in this vicinity last week. The young folks here intend to spend the glorious Fourth in Willmar.

PLUCK.

4th of July Excursion.
To accomodate those who wish to enjoy a trip on our national holiday, the Great Northern Railway will sell round trip tickets at reduced rates to any points within 300 miles of station where ticket is bought. Tickets sold on July 3rd and 4th. Rate from Willmar fare and one third for round trip.

Jos. M. Olson one of the boys of New London, was in the city on business last Saturday. Martin says he will celebrate in Willmar the Fourth.

Mr. Iver Lien, a progressive merchant of Halstad, Minn. in company with his wife, passed through here on the passenger Thursday on his way to the State of Iowa, where he intends to make an extended visit with friends and relatives.
