The demoralizing influence of the publication of such sensations as the Hayward case upon the young mind is clearly proved by the following item:

St. Cloud Times: "A few days after the Hayward hanging a party of small boys out at West End, who had read and heard much about it, decided to have a hanging rehearsal. This nearly ended in a terrible tragedy. A little fellow about nine years of age, son of William F. Lueck, of the Great Northern shops, volunteered to play Harry. The boys gathered in a barn, procured a rope, strung it over a joist, made a noose, put it over the little fellow's head, stood him on a barrel, pulled the black cap down, kicked the barrel away which left young Lueck hanging in the air, and danced around him in high glee. The noise and shouting attracted the attention of the mother, who, ran out to the barn, where to horror she found her son gasping and almost dead. She had presence of mind sufficient to raise him, and loosen the noose, otherwise he would have been a dead boy in a few minutes longer. The boy is said to be suffering considerable from his injuries to-day.

The population of Venezuela is 2,121,968, and the territory in dispute between that country and Great Britain is about the size of our state Maine.

The commission having the matter in charge first located the site for the proposed Fourth Insane Asylum at Hastings, which action made the Anoka people turn green with envy and caused them to make fools of themselves after the most modern patterns. "Anoka Pease" closed one of his teeth-gnashing editorials in this manner:

"Darn the governor, darn the commission—or four of them, darn Hastings, and darn the whole business from beginning to end."

But later the commission turned right around and gave Anoka the institution. Who can blame the Hastingsites for insinuating that the commission did this last act in order to save the transportation of so many Anoka people?

The following extract from a circular issued by the New York City Board of Health is of vital importance to sufferers of consumption and those with whom they mingle:

Consumption is a disease which can be taken from others, and it is not simply caused by colds. A cold may make it easier to take the disease. It is usually caused by germs which enter the body with the air breathed. The matter which consumptives cough or spit up contains these germs in great numbers—frequently millions are discharged in a single day. This matter, spit upon the floor, wall or elsewhere, is apt to dry, become pulverized and float in the air as dust. The dust contains the germs and thus they enter the body with the air breathed. The breath of a consumptive does not contain the germs and will not produce the disease. A well person catches the disease from a consumptive only by in some way taking in the matter coughed up by the consumptive. Consumption can often be cured if its nature is recognized early and proper means are taken for its treatment. In a majority of cases it is not a fatal disease. It is not dangerous for other persons to live with a consumptive if the matter coughed is at once destroyed. This matter should not be spit on the floor, carpet, stove, wall or street, or anywhere except into a cup kept for that purpose. If handkerchiefs are used (worthless cloths which can be burned are far better) they should be boiled in water by themselves before being washed.

Mankato Journal: "Any man calling himself a populist who neglects or refuses to put up his dollar for his party paper, needs to be born again and born with improvements. Some have an idea that editors are millionaires and can fling their money on all who would rather dead-beat their way than to pay it. The editor puts in all all his time, while the success of the reforms he advocates are worth no more to him than to the party at large. In the sacrifices to be made, the editor should not be expected to bear them all. Every county having a reform paper should have a committee who will rustle up subscribers and never stop till every member puts up. Talk is cheap but it won't pay bills. And the reform party that refuses to hustle for its own interests, can expect nothing but to be the titman in political campaigns." We take the above from the Marshall Leader, and we want to say right here that we endorse the sentiments expressed. Support the reform papers by subscribing therefor, and patronizing the merchants who advertise therein.

With all the Tribune's rot about the great issue of silver, not one word is mentioned about it at present by the Congress of the United States.—Willmar Argus.
This shows the dense ignorance of this Argus Editor, Normal school graduate, and what not. He doesn't even read the daily papers or he would have known, that even Senator Knute Nelson voted for a free silver resolution introduced by a populist Senator. As Birch has no views himself, he should get pointers from his superiors before he speaks about the views of his party.

Mamre News.
Mr. O. O. Bergstrom made a trip to the cities last week.

We wish the TRIBUNE and its thousands of readers a happy New Year.

Mr. E. Hedin of North Dakota is visiting with his uncle J. A. Erlandson.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Nordstrom of Willmar spent Christmas at A Forsberg's.

Mr. Martin Peterson of Wallock Kitson Co., is visiting friends in Willmar and Whitefield during the holidays.

Charles Johnson returned last Wednesday from Minneapolis, where he has been working for some time.

A Christmas tree festival will be given in the Mamre Lund Church Monday evening Dec. 30, at 7 p. m.

Mr. John A. Carlson and Miss Emma Peterson were united in the holy bonds of wedlock on the 17th inst. Wish you great happiness and prosperity, friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jons Nelson were "surprised" by a crowd of young folks Saturday evening, Dec. 21. An elegant hanging lamp was presented to the worthy couple. The young folks enjoyed themselves immensely, as is always the case when there is a party at Nelson's hospitable home.

Miss Nora Rand of Whitefield was pleasantly surprised by a large number of her friends last Friday evening, the occasion being 19th birthday. The party presented Miss Rand a beautiful Rochester parlor lamp as a token of their esteem. After a bountiful supper the young folks proceeded to have a very good time, and when the party broke up in the early hours of morning all voted the affair a decided success.

Our esteemed townsman Mr. Adolph Norman will leave the bachelors ranks this (Friday) evening. He will be united in marriage to Miss Albertina Norsen, daughter of Rev. E. Norsen formerly minister of the Lutheran church here, but now of Crow River, Wright Co. The ceremony will take place at the Crow River Church, followed by a reception at the home of the brides' parents. The numerous friends of the contracting parties will join with us in offering heartfelt congratulations, and wishing them a long and happy voyage on the matrimonial sea.

The bachelors ranks have been very much thinned out in Mamre during the past year, and now that leap year comes we expect to see the remaining ones, who are too bashful to propose, caught by some fair damsels. Perhaps when 1896 closes the only remaining old bachelor will be Clarence.

Svea News.
Mr. Albert Hegstrom is home from St. Peter, G. A. College, to spend Christmas vacation with relatives and friends.

Last Sunday night Dec. 22nd a sad accident happened in that Sam Nelson broke his leg. Dr. Frost from Willmar was sent for immediately who came and set the leg. At the present writing Mr. Nelson is doing quite well considering the circumstances.

Services were held in Christine Congregation at 5:30 a. m. and High mass at Svea congregation 10:30 Christmas day. A children's festival was held here 2nd day of Christmas. It was very well attended. The principal conductor could not take charge as he is sick and nursing a broken leg. He is improving.

School closed in Dist. No. 68, Friday, Dec. 20th, for a two weeks x-mas vacation. The same day one of the scholars, Albertina Skooglund by name, died at 10 o'clock a. m. from throat disease supposed to be diphtheria. At this writing no one else in this neighborhood has it.

A party of friends gathered and surprised Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nelson at their home Friday evening, Dec. 20th. About 70 guests were present. Supper was served from 8:30 'til 11 p. m. Rev. Lundberg made the "surprise" speech at the end of which he gave to the "surprised" parties $23.75 as a token gratitude of the people assembled. A merry eve was spent in sociable chats.

From New London Times.
Messrs Emil and Aug Johnson of St. Paul, came up to spend Christmas here.

Mr. Peter Borgeson and family of Willmar, visited with relatives and friends here during Christmas.

We have learned that Charley E. Sperry, an old New London boy, has returned from North Dakota. Solon Benton boarded the train Wednesday and landed at Hawick where he spent Christmas day with his parents.
Miss Martha Green, accompanied by her cousins Philip, Lula and Ruth Eckman, came home last Tuesday to spend the holidays.

Mr. John Newgood, one of New London's old boys, arrived Thursday evening Sisseton Reservation, where he now is the owner of a 160 acre farm. All we can say to his credit or discredit is that he is still unmarried.

It is our sad duty to report the death of Miss Pauline Johnson, daughter of Mr. George Johnson. She passed away at half past four o'clock in the afternoon Christmas day at an age of 19 years and 3 months after an illness of about 9 months. She leaves behind mother, father, three sisters and three brothers to mourn her loss. The cause of her death was the dread disease, consumption. The funeral will occur next Monday at 11 o'clock when she will be laid at rest in the Crow River cemetery. Sleep in peace.—Ringville Cor.
