Irving Items. Miss Viola Huford, of Union Grove, Meeker county, is teaching school in district No. 51. Willmoth Maddock has just returned from Minneapolis. Miss Vera Williams, of Montevideo, Minn., is a guest at W. H. Clark's. Charlie Stannard is agent for the celebrated Busy Beewashing machine. We wish you success, Charlie.

George Stannard, Willie Coons, Forest and Arthur Clark have departed for the state normal school at St. Cloud. Leslie Rieckart has left for Monticello to see his somebody. Williamson & Hagen were obliged to quit threshing for some days owing to the bad weather, but will commence Tuesday. A farmers' feed mill is under erection at the Irving creamery, and it is rumored that a farmers' store will be erected at that place in the near future. Andrew Hagstrom, of Harrison, is frequently making tracks across the Irving boundaries. That's right, Andrew.

George Stumpf, the hustling fireman of Williamson & Hagen's engine, has departed for his home at Waverly, Minn. We miss you very much, Geo. Charlie Kallberg has invented and received a patent on his gasoline 12-foot cut grain harvester. Irving has been blessed with another general store. The enterprising merchant is Peter J. Anderson. He carries a full supply of dry goods and groceries. Hurrah for Pete!

Johnny Jacobson went to Grove City the other day and inquired of a man what his name was. He was knocked down, and after picking up his manners he found that his pocket-book, containing $2.50, was missing. The worst of it is he don't know who hit him.

F. H. Peterson, the telegraph clerk at Spicer, is home for a few days' visit. Mrs. Andrew Cotter, better known as "Aunt Cntyce," was quite ill some time ago, but is now recovering. She is still very ill, though. Her granddaughter, Miss Edith Cotter, of St. Cloud, is staying with her at present. While Peter J. Anderson was at

New London, the other day, some person succeeded in entering his store by crawling down the chimney. Nothing valuable was missing. A little early for Santa Claus yet. Stay at home, Pete, and attend to your customers. SNOW BIRD.

Mamre News. Wood is scarce and winter plentiful. Hicks must be alright this winter. Jonas Johnson made a business trip to Belgrade last Thursday. The Ekberg Threshing Co. met last Saturday to settle up fall threshing and other business pertaining to same. Mrs. Adolph Norman will leave this week for a stay with her parents, Ber. Norsen and wife, of North Crow river.

Charles Nelson and Hilma Anderson are now on their way to the "land of the midnight sun." The wedding bells, they say, will be heard on the shores of the Baltic, instead of being heard on the lone prairies of Minnesota. A peddler selling electric batteries has been around trying to convince the farmers. Gust Ericson must have purchased a real novelty, a traction engine running on three wheels and a bob runner.

The Mamre creamery is now receiving from 6,000 to 8,000 pounds of milk a day three days each week. The cold weather caused the butter-maker some extra work last week. Brother Scipio, of Burbank, was heard from in the last issue. That's right. The press is a medium of education and correspondence, and why not use it. SCIPIO.

Pennock Items. Sleighting is splendid now. A grand sociable will be given at Herman Nass' next Saturday evening. U. T. Ulrickson, of Renville county, visited at John Nelson's last week. Jacob Greenfield will work for John Swenson, of Davre. Nelson Bros. have sold their Giant engine to G. A. Erickson of the town of Mamre. A. J. Nelson made a trip to Minneapolis on business last week.

"Sport" McKelies is back with us again, and has resumed his position as cook and companion, for his old master. Edward B. Erickson is now attending the Willmar Seminary.

Ringville Items. Nice weather and good sleighing to begin with. Tonight we will see if Ringville boys have any luck at all. Tom Larson had another cold bath last week. This time he was skating. Tom, you better look where the water is hereafter.

O. A. Sonstegard, of Lake Johanna, was around looking after threshing accounts the fore part of last week. Superintendent Covell visited our school last Thursday. Corresponding would be more pleasing if news were more plentiful. Swan Gunderson has now returned from—don't know where.

Olson Bros., Hawick's enterprising young merchants, have now built a feed mill and will commence to grind feed as soon as they get their engine in place. Miss Marie Newgood was in Willmar the latter part of last week.

Svea Newslets. We have heard that Oscar and Ernest Swenson and Alex Westerberg have gone down below to visit the capitol and metropolis. Miss Annie Blomgren has been home visiting with her parents and her sister, Mrs. E. Hegstrom, Jr. Halver Halverson is in Willmar buying wheat. L. Moline is convalescing from his late illness. The trustees of Svea congregation met at Rev. Lundberg's last Wednesday.

The program of the Modera School Society for next time is as follows: Song, Victor Skoglund and Ernest Fred; dialogue, "The Four Winds," two boys and two girls; declamation, Ellen Lundeen; a story, Clarence Lindblade; a story, John Trulson; song, Loie Moline and Hattie Parson; dialogue, "What the Wind Brings," by thirteen children. The society meets every Friday afternoon. The Y. P. S. met last Friday night. Every number on the program was rendered to a crowded house, to the satisfaction of all. A motion was made and carried that the society hold a literary festival New Year's Day, at 6 p. m. The home talent will participate. It is also intended to get one of our neighboring pastors to lecture to us that evening.

There will be a children's Christmas festival on the evening of Dec. 27. An interesting and unusual program is being prepared, and no pains will be spared to make it an interesting and profitable festival to all concerned. This story is original. It comes from No. 68. S. T. wrote it for Svea Newslets: A THANKSGIVING STORY. There was once, in the city of New York, a lame boy who lived with his mother. The name of the boy was George. He had fallen from a wagon and broken his leg. Ever since that time he has been walking on crutches. One Thanksgiving morning their neighbor, Mrs. James, sent two of her children, Katie and Arthur, over to the lame boy. Arthur carried a large basket and Katie a little basket and a bouquet of bright flowers for George. When they came to the house George came out to meet them. He was very much surprised to see them bring him so many good things. When they said: "Here, we bring you something," he raised his hands and said: "Oh, come in to my mother." When she opened the baskets she found two turkeys in the large one and apples in the small one. Then she exclaimed: "Mrs. James is too good to us to send all this! And such a sweet bouquet for you, George! Won't we have a nice Thanksgiving day?"

Sunburg Sunlets. Ole Rime, while hauling wheat to Brooten, last Tuesday, was suddenly taken ill and was forced to remain in the village until the following day. Moen & Gandrud have erected a new barn near their store. Ole Stantland is teaching a term of parochial school at the residence of Kasmus Olson. Miss Emma Wing has arrived home from Minneapolis. County Superintendent Covell visited our school last week and expressed himself much pleased with the work. Bendik Bendikson has arrived from Swift county and will remain at home during the winter. Mrs. Ole Ellingboe is in a feeble state of health and intends to go to Minneapolis to get medical treatment. Thor Lykken is travelling for an Eastern silverware firm. Gustave A. Erickson closed the fall term of school in district 59 this week. This is the fourth term Mr. Erickson has successfully completed in this district. Ole Eliasson, Jr., visited Willmar on business last week. Mrs. E. P. Storaker's smiling countenance is now frequently seen in our neighborhood. Miss Lena Paulson has now arrived from St. Paul, where she has visited her friends for some time past.

To Fight the New Capitol. Notice to the taxpayers of the County of Kandiyohi, State of Minnesota: We, the undersigned, at a mass-meeting held May 23rd, 1896, at the school house No 81 were duly elected a board of trustees, to take subscriptions for a fund and also employ an attorney and start a law suit in the names of some taxpayers in the county, to stop the building of a second State Capitol at St Paul upon the grounds that St Paul is only the temporary seat of government to the state, and that the legal seat of the state government is not the land granted by congress for a seat of government to the state. We have already employed for his work an attorney and in order to pay him we must have money. We therefore ask each and every taxpayer who should see this notice to be kind enough to contribute his mite and thus help the good work along. Contributions may be sent to the editor of the paper in which this notice appears so that acknowledgement of such receipts can be made in the paper. Dated this 24th day of July A. D. 1896. OLE A. LARSON, President; JOHN J. VICK, Treasurer; JOHN E. FLECKTNE, Secy.

ESTRAY—One two-year old and one spring colt both irongray in color left my farm ten miles north of Clara City on the evening of the 13th this month. Any one knowing the whereabouts of those colts please let me know. J. D. DeLange, Clara City.

The Minnesota Farmer's Hall Insurance company, of Minneapolis, Minn., paid their losses in full on November 28th, 1896.

WANTED—To borrow for six months or one year $150.00, or $200.00. Will pay 10 per cent. Chattel security. Address H. J., care of TRIBUNE.

AN OLD PIONEER DEAD.

Mr. Peter William Borgeson, of New London town, received his last summons Wednesday, and the sad and sudden news has spread a gloom over the whole community. Up until a couple of days before his death nothing unusual appeared to be the matter with his health except that he had a cold. Thanksgivingday he attended church although the weather was very bad and it is thought then became so chilled that it resulted in congestion. On Tuesday he seemed to receive a slight stroke of paralysis and died the next morning at 6:30.

Mr. Borgeson was born in Bruns Socken, Westergotland, Sweden, on June 24 1830. In 1860 he was married to Mathilda Rud, his present wife, and four years later immigrated to America. He first lived at Carver one year and then, 1865, came to the wilds of Kandiyohi County taking the homestead on which he lived ever since for 31 years. He leaves a widow, four sons, John, Frank, Peter and Alfred, and two daughters, Mrs L. B. Carlson of Sioux Falls, and Mrs. Aug. Olander of this town.

He was a member of the Lutheran Church here, an ardent honest and upright Christian man. The sorrow stricken family have the sympathy of all. The funeral occurs to-day at 2 o'clock p. m. at the Lutheran church. —New London Times.

From New London Times. PUBLISHED SATURDAY.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Estrom visited at Willmar yesterday.

Charley Wenberg of Willmar is visiting here with his brother T. W. Wenberg.

The time for the evening passenger has been changed from 9:45 to 9:30.

The ice on the lakes are now safe for travel. Parties have used the lake route to Willmar for hauling large loads of wood and report the roads fine.

The boys have organized a gymnastic club during the week. Now watch for black eyes, noses patched and arms in a sling.
