

DO YOU WANT A PIANO?

DO YOU WANT A FIRST-CLASS PIANO?

Do you want to buy one on terms to suit for less money than you ever had an opportunity to purchase one before or ever will have again?

I might give you reasons for this sacrifice, but all that interests you is quality, terms and prices. These three things are absolutely guaranteed to be right.

Several of the famous Kimball Pianos and organs in the stock. Take the time to call and put your time against mine for a few minutes and see if it don't pay you.

OUR MOTTO:

Honest and Fair Dealings With All!

South Dakota, and is, after all, a very clever gentleman.

His firm is one of the largest cattle firms in that section of the country, handling from 1,500 to 2,000 head of cattle yearly. THE TRIBUNE reporter, with his usual amount of fearlessness, called on Mr. Ross and interviewed him on points pertaining to his craft.

The ranch of the firm of Ross & Johnson is located about 85 miles west of Huron. The country thereabout is very sparsely settled, there now being only about 15 per cent. of the population of ten years ago, and actual farming in Hyde and Hand counties is something almost unknown, the land being wholly pasture. Buffalo grass grows in abundance and water is plentiful.

Mr. Ross has bought over 600 head of cattle in Kandiyohi county during the past month, and he informed the reporter that this year he has been able to pay better prices than is usually paid, mainly because farmers are now raising a better grade of cattle than formerly. He advises farmers to take good care of cows during the winter, and especially when they are calving, because it is of the highest importance to give the calf a good start at first, for when a calf or any young animal is stunted, chances are that it will never afterward amount to anything.

According to Mr. Ross, people here know very little about a real Dakota winter. Out in his locality there has been from five to eight feet of snow on the level, and the loss of sheep and cattle in Hyde and Hand counties this year will, at the least calculation, amount to 50 per cent. Mr. Ross alone losing forty head of cattle in one week from exposure. He could not get any hay to them, as the hay stacks were buried under fully fifteen feet of snow, and no railroads open. Of course the severe losses the past winter were largely due to neglect to make proper preparations for the winter, as hay is generally plentiful, and cattle are always in a fine condition in the fall.

Mr. Ross resides at Huron, which seems to be something of a cowboy town. He tells numberless stories about frontier life, illustrating its pleasures and hardships. Mr. Ross is an interesting and entertaining character. He has bought, altogether between 1,600 and 1,700 head of cattle in Kandiyohi and Swift counties, and he will ship them to Huron in the near future. From Huron he will drive them to his ranch.

VAN L. ROSS.

There is at present stopping at the Merchants' Hotel, in this city, a real cowboy. You have probably seen a small man, dressed in a corduroy suit, a large white, broad-brimmed hat, riding boots, etc., perambulating up and down the streets lately—that's him.

Van L. Ross, for that's his name, is the junior partner of the firm of Ross & Johnson, of Hyde county,
