EDITORIAL COMMENT AND GOSSIP.

Let no one for a moment hope for legislation to better the condition of the masses for a good while yet. Everybody must take conditions as they are and act accordingly. Every farmer must try to economize and use every business device possible, and if possible get out of debt or at least make both ends meet. If they cannot do that under their present condition then figure out how the farm can be run to do better.

We sometimes pity the people out of work in the cities and particularly those with families and no means to get away. Young men in the cities are not to be pitied. They can travel on foot if no other way, and if willing to work can get employment with the farmers in the country. And if any man will not work neither shall he eat. That is good Pauline doctrine.

The Cubans—that is the pacificos—non-combatants, old men, women and children are dying of starvation by the hundreds every day under the mild and christian regime of Parson Weyler. Spain will neither sell, cede nor liberate Cuba. It is a family affair, the Spaniards say, and nobody has any right to intercede in their domestic affair. And Uncle Sam is stroking his beard and looking on with complacency.

The Grand Jury of Hennepin county wound up with indictments galore and a brown roast of Bank Examiner Kenyon and his assistant. Of course nothing will come out of all this. You can't convict a big thief in the se days.

The Representative record is one of the best Yankee tricks yet discovered to get out of a bad fix. A Superior, Wis., millionaire on the verge of bankruptcy got his wife to sue for divorce and incidentally demand alimony. The millionaire transferred his property to his wife to satisfy the judgment for alimony. In a few weeks they were married again. The whole proceedings was simply a game to transfer the property to his wife so as to get it out of the reach of his creditors. If congress won't pass a bankruptcy law the divorce process of legislation will now come into general use we have no doubt. Bro. Boen will soon find a Norwegian that can do that trick as slick as any native born.

Come to the People's Party picnic at Dale's next Thursday. All the cranks and anarchists of Kandiyohi county are especially invited. Let us have a pow-wow anyhow, whether we are dead or alive. Our all-wise state central committee met in St. Paul the other day and decided that it would be impolite to send delegates to Nashville without permission from Father Butler, and as he refuses to give his permission we will have to get along with a picnic.

Ex. Cong. Haldor E. Boen says our political leaders are babes and all the rest of us are generals. The Ex-M. C. speaks in parables you know. "But most of the times there is more truth than poetry in what he says."

ington disgusted and heart broken at his failure to obtain a position. Somehow political preferment disqualifies a man for business ever afterward and as a rule worn out politicians pass out of the world as mendicant office hunters.

If you analyze the principles and practice of modern politics selfishness will be found to be the great motive power. There are of course a few honorable exceptions, men who desire and work for the welfare of the nation, but such are so few and far between that they are about as difficult to find as a needle in a hay stack.

Rienzi by Bulwer Lytton is a good book for populists and political reformers to read in these days. It is four hundred years since he lived and stirred the people of the Eternal city but human nature has changed very little since then. A modern Rienzi in one of our great cities would run about the same career as Rienzi of old.

Bro. Lamphere sends us a kind invitation to come and enjoy the great 4th of July celebration in Moorhead. Extensive preparation is made and they are going to have a big time on the east banks of the Red River of the North.

Benson is also going to celebrate. Our crack base ball players we understand are going there, and many Willmarites will go along. A special train will go from here on the morning of the Fourth and return at night.

C. C. Knappen editor and proprietor of Fisher Bulletin has moved to a new town Climax further up the Red River and has started the Climax Chronicle. We wish Bro. Knappen success in his new field.

We suggest that the People's party editors of the state come together at some convenient point and have a social chat about party matters in general. And we could kindly extend a cordial invitation to our big guns to attend and get a copy of our resolutions in case we should be in the resolving mood of mind. What say you brethren?

Last week the flood gates of heavens were opened, and our sewers were washed out and some cellars located at the proper level too for that matter.

The following editorial appeared in the June number of the Review of Reviews, published at New York City:

"We have fallen into vicious ruts in these latter days. The expression of honest and manly sentiments as regards a question like that of Cuba is sneered at. The redemption of the country must lie in the public opinion of the West and South. The East has fallen under the bad spell of money; and even the pulpit taken its tone largely from those elders and vestrymen and pillars of religion and philanthropy who do business in Wall street. It is a hard truth and one shocking to the sensibilities; but true it is nevertheless, that there is often a more genuine ring of patriotism and a higher sentiment for national honor in Tammany Hall itself than in Wall street. There may be little choice between the men who contribute the funds that keep our politics rotten at the core, and the men who receive the money. But the practical politician of the machine variety is, after all, a better figure in politics than the franchise-grabber, bribe giver, and deliberate corruptionist, whose whole study is to break down every vestige of that personal integrity that availed in the past to protect public rights and the general good against private greed. The head of the Sugar Trust; while admitting that his company had been accustomed to make gifts to influence politics in various states, testified that this was merely what all other corporations in the country were constantly in the habit of doing. Doubtless he is in a position to know whereof he affirms. It is not cheering or agreeable to remember that the sources whence flows this steady stream of corruption to poison our politics, are also sources whence emanate influences for the control of public opinion. Nor is it pleasant to observe that the pulpit and the university are at times susceptible to those influences, and join only too readily in expressions of distrust or contempt for what are really virile and genuine sentiments touching questions of public policy. It is well to value aright the tides of opinion that sweep eastward from the great Mississippi valley, reinforced by the warm currents of chivalrous sentiment that set in from the South."

Ned Blumer has just returned from Aitkin and says there is any amount of good homestead and government land in that country at 4 and 5 dollars per acre. There is any amount of water on this land in the shape of springs, running brooks and lakes and also any amount of timber, such as tamarack, pine, cedar, maple, oak, etc., and all that is needed to make this country a veritable paradise is settlers. With a little ambition, he says, a man can go in there and can in a very short time make himself a good home and be independent.

The C. Christenson bicycle repair shop has now been equipped with an oven for doing fine enameling. All this kind of work can now be attended to promptly and at reasonable prices. A stock of inner tubes, made specially for inserting in single tube tires and also kept in stock at this shop, are can be fitted into single tube tires when they become leaky.

Midsummer Festival

The Young People Society of Swedish Lutheran Tripolis Church will hold their annual Midsummer Picnic at Carl Gabrielson's place, a mile south of Kandiyohi, June 24th. A good literary program is prepared. Rev. E. Hedeon of Atwater will make an address on the theme of the day. A good dinner will be served and every body will be made to feel content. All are welcome.

I had been sick since last Christmas suffering from nervousness and ailing of the kidneys, liver, and stomach, and was unable to get up from the bed. Doctors were called, but I became no better. At last, in the latter part of April, Mr. Erkel the Magnetic Healer, was sought, and I now thankfully testify that by reason of his treatment I am able to attend to my household duties, something not even to have been thought of before I came under Mr. Erkel's treatment.

MRS. N. P. SWENSON,
Willmar, Minn.

Attorney F. P. Olney informs us that he has opened an office at Willmar and will probably remove his family to that city after a few months. Of course a county seat has many advantages in the practice of law, which is probably taken into consideration by Mr. Olney, but the fact that the court calendar at the last term in this county showed that he represented litigents in twenty-two cases, is proof that he is leaving a practice of no small magnitude. However, we trust that the future has in store for him all that he may expect.—Applenton Press.
