Turkey Dressing

...will soon be the new order of things in Thanksgivingdom. The strutting turkey will soon cease to strut—he's going to be "dressed." With man, it's different. When he's dressed in a K. N. & F. Co. suit or overcoat it's a pleasure to "strut." We have the styles worth "gobbling" up at prices to be "thankful" for. A veritable "feast" of values. Look for the garments with this label they're guaranteed.

The Eyesight!

Eye troubles are manifold. Sometimes the eyes are only tired; they need a rest and then are as good as ever. Some troubles are inherited. Other troubles arise from previous injuries. Most of them come from advancing age. In any case you should have determined by an examination what the trouble is. I make examination of the eyes free. I have the best instruments to be had. I have the latest works of scientific writers. I have made myself familiar with all new discoveries as far as they apply to my profession. Careful, conscientious service is my specialty. If your case is beyond my practice, I tell you so.

A HUGE SUCCESS.

The Advertising Carnival Held Last Friday Evening a Grand Affair.

The young ladies of the Episcopal church are to be congratulated on the success of their carnival, as given by them at the Opera House last Friday evening. They had worked hard and faithfully to make the affair a pleasant one, and the large crowd that attended fully appreciated the result of their efforts. The ladies feel very grateful to the business men of Willmar who so liberally helped them in making the advertising feature such a decided success.

About 8:30 the grand march of the representatives of the different business houses in the city commenced, and the spectators were treated to a fine spectacle as the advertisers passed in grand review. There were all kinds of designs and some of the advertising was very unique. The costumes were very prettily made up and many novelties in advertising were suggested. Each one carried a banner with the name of the house represented, and some of these banners were very artistically gotten up. The following is a complete list of the business houses represented, with the names of those representing them:

- | | |
|---|----------------------|
| Yetter & McLaughlin | Caroline Norlander |
| Elstrom & Co. | Mrs. Geo. Pietsch |
| Burr & Johnson | Mrs. G. W. Johnson |

| J. A. Weedall | Matilda Bonde |
| A. Peterson & Co. | Minnie Hennings |
| Albert Freese | Mary Freese |
| Samuel Olson | Grace Wilcox |
| Geo. H. Otterness | Flora Mantor |
| Willmar School of Shorthand and Business. | |
| Bianche McLaughlin | Frances Gould |
| J. H. Wiggins Co. | Meg Booth |
| I. C. Olson | Gertrude Gould |
| G. G. Wennerlund | Gertrude Booth |
| E. A. Anderson | Grace Hanscom |
| Willmar Roller Mills | Alice Hennings |
| Merchants Barber Shop | George Hanscom |
| A. E. Mossberg | Vera Mossberg |
| J. P. Carlson | (electric liniment). |

| Jacobson & Peterson |
| Annie Baldwin |
| Mrs. Bianche Hand (music) |
| Ella Mossberg |

At the conclusion of the march an advertising parody on "A Hot Time in the Old Town To-night" was sung by the marchers. The words were furnished by the ladies specially for the occasion, and but for lack of space are worthy of publication.

This closed the opening part of the program, and the marchers disbanded amid the loud applause of the audience. The following program was then given from the stage:

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------|
| Piano Duet | Gertrude Booth, Jennie DeLano. |
| Recitation, "Spartacus to the Gladiators," | Mr. Brown. |
| Vocal Solo, | Lulu Wilcox. |
| Piano Solo, | Jean Parke. |
| Recitation, "The Frenchman's Dilemma," | Mr. Gibson. |
| Piano Solo, | Amy Aekerman. |
| Piano Duet, | Medames Hand and Pinney. |
| Vocal Solo, | Bianche McLaughlin. |
| Piano Solo, | Ethel Bains. |
| Vocal Solo, | Ella Mossberg. |
| Vocal Solo, | Geo. Pietsch. |
| Song, | Male Quartette. |
| Messrs. L. P. Larson, Geo. Pietsch, Geo. Otterness and Axel Roise. | |

Several numbers on the program were encored and this part of the evening's entertainment was also fully enjoyed. The receipts from both supper and advertising amounted to about $75.00. The only regret the ladies had to express was that there were not enough provisions to supply the crowd, as the attendance was far beyond their expectations.
